On September 5 and 6, 1964, the Fifth Biennial Convention of the NLC was held at the Fisher Young Men's Christian Association, Dexter and Grand Boulevard, Detroit, Michigan.

The Convention was dissatisfied with the past growth of the NLC, and members were to make more personal contacts, to be more persuasive in their recruiting and to ask prospects to join the NLC. In furtherance of recruiting, each member is to join at least one other organization that is active in the civil rights movement in order to search out prospective members for the NLC.

Above source advised that on July 27-28, 1964, the POC held its West Coast Conference at the Anglo Hotel, 241 6th Street, San Francisco, California.

At the above conference, Comrade [redacted] read a report entitled, "The Role of the Negro Worker in the Liberation of the American Working Class." He stated that "the fight for the liberation of the Black Belt and its co-ordination with the fight for the liberation of the rest of the country is the problem confronting the POC. The overall situation is the development of the proletarian movement in the United States, in two aspects: 1) The fight for the National Liberation in the colonies, specifically within the Continental United States; and 2) The overall fight for socialism and communism." He then gave a lengthy history of the Negro settlement and how they have fared in the United States. He did not believe there will be a liberation of the Black Belt without the establishment of socialism in the United States because the imperialists would not tolerate this planned development. He said that "as the situation becomes more acute, the revolutionary potential of the people will grow and with the leadership of a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party will reach the point of open rebellion in the most oppressed areas, namely in the Black Belt itself."

(U)

He added, "This situation can be seen today by the increasing opposition by the southern state governments and the increase in Negro discontent in the south. Presently, demonstrations are taking place in the cities. But as the situation becomes intensified, there will develope insurrectionary or guerilla movements in the southern countryside. The task of the communists in this struggle is to co-ordinate the fight for the liberation of the American working class in both the colonial and home base areas. This task entails the establishment of an underground network capable of sustaining and winning a war in this country for the liberation of the American working class. This network must be able to facilitate unlimited movement for cadres moving between north and south, to co-ordinate and fuse together the overall struggles for the liberation in the Black Belt, in the Northern big cities and intervening countryside, so that the war can be efficiently conducted and won." PROVISIONAL ORGANIZING COMMITTEE FOR A MARXIST-LENINIST C.P.

[redacted] of the POC, responded to [redacted] report by pointing out that it was erroneous theory. He said "it is class warfare not minority warfare that the POC advocates."

[redacted] of the POC, in commenting on [redacted] report said that, "There is a revolutionary fervor among the Negro people, particularly in the South and New York but we are not ready for the question of guerilla warfare, we do not take the lives of the working people. Our job is to harness this revolutionary fervor and raise it to a higher level. Experience has shown that we cannot work among established organizations of the Negro people. We have attempted it and it did not work."

[redacted] pointed out that those comments were not responsive to [redacted] report which dealt only with possible future developments.

[redacted] stated that, "the Negro liberation movement is not the property of the Negro park of the working class. What is involved here is the projection of transition. Our line gives the lie to the assertion by the revisionist that the Negro can achieve freedom through non-violence. LENIN said there was only one week in September when there might have been a peaceful transition to socialism in Russia. In fact, there has not been one single case of peaceful transition in history. Is the American working class going to make the transition peacefully or not peacefully? It must be violently. The time for arms for the Negro people will have to come at the same time as the American working man. We are giving ourselves two years to complete our education and strengthen ourselves to face the music that is to come."

The ultimate aim of the POC is to take over the Government with force and violence, and the immediate POC purpose is to train Negroes in Alabama, Georgia, Mississippi, and South Carolina in guerilla warfare to combat the whites and the Government. AS A NEGRO, WHAT DO I KNOW ABOUT COMMUNISM? THE WHITE RICH MAN HAS A LOT TO SAY AGAINST COMMUNISM. THE FIGHT OF THE BLACK AND WHITE WORKERS IN THIS COUNTRY IS THE FIGHT FOR COMMUNISM, THE CONTROL OF THE MEANS OF PRODUCTION (THE FACTORIES, THE MINES, THE LAND) BY THE WORKERS. THIS FIGHT COVERS THE WHOLE COUNTRY. IT MEANS ESPECIALLY THE FIGHT FOR THE RIGHT TO SELF-DETERMINATION FOR THE NEGRO PEOPLE IN THE COLONY-THE COTTON BELT OF THE SOUTH.

Above source furnished a mimeographed announcement captioned, "Freedom for the People" announcing that Freedom for the People (F.F.T.P.) is sponsoring a series of studies concerning the national liberation struggles. The studies are being conducted by the POC which supports the F.F.T.P. in its fight for the liberation of the Negro people. The announcement reflects that F.F.T.P. fights for:

"1. The right of the oppressed Negro Nation to self-determination.

2. The Negro people's struggle for freedom. The Negro people will never be 'given' their freedom-it must be fought for through long and bitter revolutionary wars.

3. We fight for the unity of all oppressed people.

4. We fight for equal rights of the Negro national minority and other national minorities.

In order to win our freedom, we must know our enemies and learn how to best fight them. We believe in the need to train ourselves for revolutionary struggle."

Demonstration 6/24/63 4

LA T-55 (6/24/63) /4

Source advised that a coordinating meeting of the United Civil Rights Committee (UCRC), was held during the evening of June 23, 1963, at the Holm Methodist Church, 4261 Central Avenue, Los Angeles, California. At this meeting plans and program for a demonstration in the form of a march to and picketing at the Los Angeles Board of Education (LABE), 450 North Grand Avenue, Los Angeles, to be held under the auspices of the UCRC on June 24, 1963, were discussed. The march was to proceed from the First African Methodist Episcopal Church, Eighth and Towne Avenue, Los Angeles, through the Los Angeles business district to the LABE commencing at 12:30 PM. (U)

Copies of the "People's World" (PW) were distributed in the vicinity of this meeting and [redacted] and SAM KUSHNER, Editor of the PW, were present at the June 23rd meeting. This source also advised that on June 24, 1963, PWs were distributed at the beginning of the march and during the course of the march, however there were no PWs distributed at the site of the demonstration. Demonstration 10/10/63

Informant reported that CORE conducted a "study-in" demonstration at the LABE, 450 North Grand Avenue, Los Angeles on October 10, 1963.

The demonstration commenced at 3:45 PM when a group of students assembled at the Old Plaza at Sunset and Main Streets, Los Angeles.

The march began at 4:30 PM and proceeded to the LABE. [redacted] was [redacted] of the march. The march itself consisted primarily of high school age students with a total count of 290 marchers, 75 of which were Negros.

The regular meeting of the LABE was convened at 4:35 PM and the meeting was interrupted by the arrival of the students who were going to demonstrate by a "study-in." The chairman of the board was called out of the meeting to confer with the Fire Department captain and the students were instructed that seating themselves in the corridors and on the floor would have tobe done in such a manner that would comply with the fire ordinance. The chairman further requested that the students occupy the seats in the auditorium as there was more than ample seating available. There were some 300 students in the "study-in."

LA T-4 (10/31/63)

Source reported a "sit-in" demonstration against the LABE sponsored by CORE on October 24, 1963, at the LABE Headquarters. This demonstration again began with a march from the Old Plaza at which time there were 178 persons of which 23 were Negro and two Oriental. There were some 95 persons who entered the Board Chambers of which one third were Negro. The "study-in" group in the halls of the LABE was participated in by approximately 200 people of which one half were Negro. The continuing "sleep-in" was estimated with an attendance of approximately 150 persons.

The group gathered at the Plaza, marched to the LABE Headquarters and at the end of the meeting they began an all night vigil about 7:00 PM with approximately 35 people in the hallways. This expanded from time to time to as high as 150.

This publication reported that Municipal Judge HOWARD H. SCHMIDT, on June 11, 1964, sentenced COLEMAN to pay a fine of $150 or serve 15 days in jail. A notice of appeal was filed; COLEMAN was allowed to remain at liberty without paying the fine or without posting bail.

LA T-4 advised that the Non-Violent Action Committee (N-VAC), a splinter group of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), sponsored, as a part of their continuing program, a sit-in demonstration from 12:00 noon to 6:00 p.m. on March 21, 1964, at Van de Kamps, 6261 Laurel Canyon Boulevard, North Hollywood, California. Source stated that approximately 29 persons participated in the demonstration outside the coffee shop to protest alleged discriminatory hiring practices.

At about 4:30 p.m. according to source, a group of eleven whites and four Negroes entered the shop, sat on the floor, attempted to chain themselves together and blocked the entrance. These fifteen were arrested on charges of blocking the entrance and creating a fire hazard.

The "Los Angeles Herald-Examiner", a daily metropolitan newspaper, on September 23, 1964, on page 16 of Section D, reported the conviction and sentencing of the above persons by Judge KENNETH L. HOLADAY, Municipal Court, Los Angeles, California. Among those sentenced were WOODROW COLEMAN, age 30, sentenced to six months in the city jail, HOWARD G. MINKIN, age 25, sentenced to four months in the city jail and MIKE F. PERLOWIN, age 18, sentenced to ten days in the city jail and one year probation.

G. DEMONSTRATION MONTEREY PARK WALK FOR CIVIL RIGHTS COMMITTEE, MONTEREY PARK, CALIFORNIA, MAY 2, 1964

The "Post Advocate", Alhambra, California, daily newspaper, on April 28, 1964, carried an article that the San Gabriel Valley Council on Discrimination (SGVCD) was denied a permit to demonstrate on May 2, 1964, for popular support of Civil Rights measures on Federal, state and local levels on the grounds that their members were not local residents and the group refused to furnish a list of officers. The article stated that HERBERT L. FORER as attorney for SGVCD contemplated filing a petition concerning the denial of permit. It was further stated that the SGVCD withdrew its application when the permit was granted to the ad hoc Monterey Park Walk for Civil Rights Committee which had named committee members, among whom were JEAN FEINBERG and SHIRLEY KESSLER.

LA T-4 on May 4, 1964, advised that about 170 persons, of which possibly 10 were Negro, took part in the walk from the Alhambra post office to Barnes Park, Monterey Park, California, and participated in the rally that lasted about one and a half hours on May 2, 1964. Source stated that several small groups "heckled" the marchers and some carried signs emblazoned "Civil Righters go home"; however, there were no incidents nor arrests. (4)

B. UNITED CIVIL RIGHTS COMMITTEE (UCRC)

A publication of the United Civil Rights Committee (UCRC) reflects that their office is located at 8501 South San Pedro Street, Los Angeles, California, and that they maintain a mailing address of Post Office Box 8-344, Los Angeles, California.

The above leaflet in substance states that following a mass protest of 45,000 persons at Wrigley Field, Los Angeles, on May 26, 1963, addressed by Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., the "Civil Rights leaders decided to continue their association by forming the United Civil Rights Committee which would continue to work for integration of Negro and other minority citizens in Los Angeles" and "is dedicated to achieve with all urgency and unity the integration of Negro and all other minority citizens into the life of the Los Angeles community." The objectives of the group are to define the needs and grievances of minority groups, to negotiate with responsible persons on the grievances and to demonstrate, through non-violent action for such negotiation of these grievances.

The leaflet further states that the UCRC "is composed of representative individuals drawn from the many Los Angeles organizations that have a common commitment to integration -- now."

Source, from whom sufficient information has not been received to determine reliability, on above date, advised that a large group of leaders in the Negro community who believe in responsible leadership in the integration movement have become disenchanted with the leadership of Doctor CHRISTOPHER L. TAYLOR, Chairman of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), United Civil Rights Committee (UCRC), and doubt the effectiveness in the integration movement so that continuing effort is being made to change this leadership.

An article by PAUL WEEKS, Staff Writer, "Los Angeles Times", a metropolitan daily newspaper, Part I, page 19, on June 17, 1964, reported the following officers for the second year of operation for UCRC:

Dr. H. HARTFORD BROOKINS, Chairman
PERRY C. PARKS, Vice-Chairman
EARL WALTER, Vice-Chairman
Mrs. JOAN GREEN, Secretary
VICTOR LUDWIG, Treasurer
FRANK MUNOZ, Treasurer

The "California Eagle", a newspaper in regular circulation, Los Angeles, California, on July 9, 1964, on page 10, set forth a steering or policy committee named by Reverend BROOKINS to review the organizational structure of the UCRC:

WESLEY BRAZIER (of the Urban League)
JOHN BUGGS (of the County Commission on Human Relations)
EARL WALTER (of the Congress of Racial Equality)
EASON MONROE (of the American Civil Liberties Union)
Mrs. MARNESBA TACKETT (of the NAACP)
NORMAN O. HOUSTON (Businessman)

The above UCRC publication states that the organization works through the following committees "which are open to all who desire to work and cooperate together for the aims of the organization":

Direction Action, Chairman, EARL WALTER
Education, Chairman, MARNESBA TACKETT
Employment, Chairman, E. J. FRANKLIN
Health and Welfare, Chairman, RAY JOHNSON
Housing, Chairman FLORENCE VAUGHN
Law Enforcement, Chairman, THOMAS G. NEUSOM

LA T-63 (8/2/63)

Source advised that on June 25, 1963, at a meeting of the Jewish Commission, Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP), Los Angeles, California, BEN DOBBS, Executive Secretary, SCDCP, in substance, reported that he had attempted to establish relations with the UCRC, which was founded in Los Angeles by prominent Negro leaders to aid in integration, to assist in UCRC efforts and activities. DOBBS said the Communist Party (CP) was rebuffed and rejected by UCRC "in no uncertain terms" because UCRC questioned the motives of the Party. He emphasized that even though rejected, the Party must continue attempts in this direction. (U)

(U)

LA T-64 (7/19/63) (U)

Source advised that [redacted] SCDCP, at a Communist Party meeting on July 3, 1963, said that the CP must stay in the background and have their members work through the organizations to which they belong in integration matters. (U)

b6

Source, on above date, advised that there has not been any indication that the UCRC was organized, controlled, or dominated by the CP. Source further stated that at the most, there are a few individuals, from other organizations, that have CP background; however, the number is so small that they have not been able to exert any influence. Source noted that the UCRC has no actual membership and the entire group of delegates from other organizations, of which a few have CP background, have been technically designated as an executive committee for publicity purposes, but actually do not formulate the policy.

Above source, on August 6, 1964, reported that from the beginning UCRC has attempted to operate independently of any one organization. Further, with the sixty to seventy different organizations joining together, they decided there would be no actual membership, and when a decision is to be made, it is referred for vote to each one of the participating groups through the delegate and is then carried out by one of the action committees. Also, each of the groups is responsible to furnish their quota of members to assist the action committee.

It was concluded at this meeting that there was danger of a split in the Negro movement which could be brought on by a number of things. The decision was handed down that CP members in CORE and other organizations are to do everything possible to prevent any split in the Negro movement; that CP members are to use their influence through contacts in the Negro community to assist in any way they can.

At a meeting of the District Board, SCDCP, held June 6, 1963, discussion concerned the meeting which had been held by Negro officials and Los Angeles City officials. DOROTHY HEALEY stated that one of the main topics for the CP at this time is the support of the picket lines around the Beverly Hilton Hotel and the Palladium. She said that CORE is the most advanced group fighting the question of civil rights in the Los Angeles area.

On October 2, 1964, source advised that CORE tolerates CP members on their picket lines and other affairs where weight of numbers is important for effectiveness; however, the CORE leadership in Los Angeles continues to oppose CP tactics, refuses to allow distribution of other than CORE literature at their demonstrations and generally resists CP attempts to influence the organization. 4

F. NON-VIOLENT ACTION COMMITTEE (N-VAC)

LA T-39 (10/16/64)

The N-VAC established itself as an activist group in the Los Angeles, California area during the latter part of 1963. The group's purpose is to win its fight for racial equality in housing and employment by means of peaceful picketing. (U)

LA T-19 (10/15/64) (U)

N-VAC broke away from the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) because CORE was not active enough. The N-VAC has an informal membership which, having no headquarters meets in private homes. Requirements for N-VAC membership are:
(1) participate in one arrestable action per month, and
(2) take a non-violence oath. (U)

The January 24, 1964 issue of "The Militant" (See Appendix) carries an article captioned, "Los Angeles Rights Group Opens Fight" by LESLIE EVANS (Supra). The article reflects, in part, "Los Angeles, Jan. 4--. This city, frequently touted as 'the most integrated in America,' has had its boast called into question by a civil rights battle between the Non-Violent Action Committee (N-VAC) and the Wich Stands, a chain of drive-in restaurants."

Purpose of LA-SNCC

Source furnished information which disclosed the following:

The objectives of LA-SNCC are three-fold, namely Education, Mobilization and Fund Raising. In the past activities of LA-SNCC have been concentrated in a central office, however Southern California is a well spread out area which calls for a broader base of operations. Due to the events which transpired in Mississippi and the role SNCC played in the formation of the Council of Federated Organizations this past summer the functions of SNCC have greatly increased and its successes have been hampered by the lack of mobility.

This calls for the need for decentralized offices. Therefore LA-SNCC will become known in the future as Southern California Friends of SNCC, working out of already established offices. Each of these local groups have officers which would conduct their own programs of education and fund raising in their respective areas and coordinate their activities for larger functions. These local groups would be responsible to the Southern California Office concerning national policy of SNCC. The Friends of SNCC Program is geared toward students and adults who are interested in the national policies of SNCC, its program and its work throughout the South. 4

Program to Infiltrate LA-SNCC and Influence its Policies

LA T-6 (5/29/63)

On May 25, 1963, a meeting of the District Board, SCDCP, was held at 1733 84th Street, Los Angeles, California. At this meeting DOROTHY HEALEY, Chairman, SCDCP, stated that she feels that some of the young people in the CP in the Los Angeles area must go to the southern part of the United States during the summer of 1963 and work with SNCC. (U)

LA T-6 (6/21/63)

On June 20, 1963, a meeting of the SCDCP was held at 5731 South St. Andrews Place, Los Angeles, California. At this meeting CARL BLOICE, of the Youth Commission, CP of Northern California, and who has been writing for the "People's World" and had just returned to California from a trip to the South, was present as a guest and made the main report which dealt with a political estimate of the developments in the South. BLOICE stated he visited Atlanta, Georgia, while traveling through the South and spent a great deal of time with SNCC. BLOICE displayed a map he obtained at the SNCC Headquarters in Atlanta, showing the counties of heavy concentration of Negroes. BLOICE indicated that among SNCC's leadership, most of the Marxist classics are very familiar and they are deeply concerned with the need of solving all of the economic, as well as political problems of the South. (U)

LA T-6 (6/26/63)

On June 22, 1963, a meeting of the District Committee, SCDCP, was held at the Hungarian-American Cultural Center, Los Angeles, California. At this meeting DOROTHY HEALEY advised that BEN DAVIS was very impressed with the dedication of the people within SNCC and commented that we (meaning the communists) need this spirit among our own workers and especially among our own young people today. (U)

LA T-46 (7/19/63)

On July 16, 1963, a meeting of the Scientists and Engineers Club, SCDCP, was held at 8333 West Fourth Street, Los Angeles, California. At this meeting SAM KUSHNER stated that SNCC may have individual communists among its rank and file members, but leadership positions in this organization are not held by communists. The main leadership is coming from southern ministers. (U)

LA T-6 (9/30/63)

On September 26, 1963, a District Board meeting of SCDCP was held at 1142½ Serrano, Los Angeles, California. During the course of the discussion at this meeting it became apparent that the Youth Committee is considering encouraging certain individuals to go South to work for the SNCC organization if possible. The attitude of the Party, (U) is that it does not encourage such migration, especially not on the part of white youths who could do very little, it is also not opposed to the migration, particularly from individuals who can help the SNCC organization in public relations work where they feel a need for assistance.

DOROTHY HEALEY stated that assistance should not be given in the spirit of adventure but rather in the terms of individuals who want to accept specific assignments.

LA T-1 (12/16/63)

On December 9, 1963, a youth club of the Moranda Smith Section (MSS), SCDCP, was held at 2128 Third Avenue, Los Angeles, California. At this meeting it was mentioned that SNCC had been organized specifically with the intention of working within the communities, but since the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) is now moving toward the community, this group was being faced with the decision as to dissolvement or affiliate with CORE. (U)

LA T-10 (2/14/64)

On February 10, 1964, a meeting of the MSS, SCDCP, was held at 150 West 65th Street, Los Angeles, California. At this meeting a report was given on the activity of SNCC in the southern part of the United States by [redacted] According to [redacted] SNCC must be accredited for its work, as it follows the Marxist-Leninist Ideology. b6 b7C

LA T-6 (2/14/64)

On February 13, 1964, a District Board meeting of SCDCP was held at the residence of DOROTHY HEALEY, 1733 84th Street, Los Angeles, California. At this meeting CARL BLOICE stated that the CP is disillusioned with SNCC because of the fact that SNCC was developing small business plans and trying to endorse the concept of capitalism in the South. A small progressive labor group is now operating SNCC in Atlanta, Georgia, headquarters of this organization. BLOICE has been in close contact with the Atlanta Office of SNCC.

LOREN MILLER

LA T-4 (9/8/55)

LOREN MILLER, Attorney, was a local sponsor of the American Committee for Spanish Freedom (ACFSF) in 1948.

LA 100-66073
DJK/slp

The ACFSF has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

"California Eagle"
Issue of 5/24/51

This first issue of the "California Eagle" newspaper printed after LOREN MILLER became the publisher thereof, contained an editorial captioned "Here's Where We Stand." This editorial stated that LOREN MILLER had assumed the position of publisher, and that the change of ownership would result in a repudiation of its stand on many issues. Included in the editorial was the following: "We shall oppose Communism, and oppose it vigorously and with every means in our power, because its triumph would mean the destruction of the democratic system to which we are committed. That means that we shall oppose Communists and their stooges, Negro and white, in their attempts to win converts to cause, or win political office, or assume leadership in civil and community organizations." (U)

LOREN MILLER was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI at Los Angeles, California on February 20, 1952. He stated that he had long been active in the fight against racial discrimination and had attended meetings in the civil rights field at which communists were present in the early 1930's. He said that during this period he had been affiliated with the International Labor Defense; that he had gone to Russia in the early 1930's with a group of Negroes to make a film, but that the idea was eventually rejected by the Russian Government. He said that the motive of those who went was simply the making of a film and that their interests were not political. After returning from Russia, he worked in New York for a while and then returned to Los Angeles to practice law, at which time he became active in the National Negro Congress and was Executive Secretary of that organization in Los Angeles in about 1938. He said that during this period he was undoubtedly a member of other organizations sponsored by the communists.

OTHER Per Sealed Court Order

The International Labor Defense and the National Negro Congress have been cited by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

MILLER said he had never been a member of the CP, primarily because he did not want to submit to their complete discipline. He said efforts had been made to recruit him into the CP, but he had resisted such efforts.

MILLER described himself at the time of this interview as being anti-communist. He said that he had a great interest in seeing the Negroes achieve complete equality and integration with all other American citizens. (U)

"Los Angeles Tribune"
a former weekly Los Angeles,
California, newspaper
which is now defunct;
Issue of 11/21/58

This issue set forth a statement to the effect that LOREN MILLER was one of the supporters of a petition campaign to rescind the mandate of the House Un-American Activities Committee.

CENTINELA-BAY HUMAN RELATIONS COMMITTEE

A source advised on January 3, 1961, that the Centinela-Bay Human Relations Committee (CBHRC) was organized in August, 1960, by OLA PACIFICO and JACK ROSE, both Communist Party (CP) members of the Centinela Club, Southern California District, CP, (SCDCP) as a result of a minority race moving into an all white neighborhood in Lennox, California. OLA PACIFICO was the first organizational secretary of the CBHRC. Included as officers and sponsors of the CBHRC are CP and non-CP members, and its "Statement of Principles" welcomes the support of all residents of the local communities to assist in preventing violence and promoting a peaceful, democratic way of life for all.

This same source advised on May 12, 1964, that OLA PACIFICO was Chairman and the motivating force of the CBHRC. As of May 12, 1964, OLA PACIFICO and JACK ROSE were members of the Centinela Club, Southern Coordinating Council, SCDCP. As of May 12, 1964, the CBHRC was in existence.

CENTRAL LOS ANGELES DU BOIS CLUB, formerly known as the Youth Action Union and Los Angeles Youth for Peace and Socialism

A source advised on May 12, 1964, that during the period January through March, 1962, a series of formation meetings to establish a "Socialist Youth Organization," was held in the Los Angeles area. [redacted] was acting chairman in charge of the group and [redacted] and [redacted] were named to a provisional committee to help [redacted] the new group. On April 3, 1962, the group officially selected the name of Los Angeles Youth for Peace and Socialism, (LAYPS), and elected officers. b6 b7C

This source further advised that [redacted] as of [redacted] were all members of the Southern California District Communist Party, (SCDCP).

A second source advised on May 12, 1964, that the LAYPS was organized with the full knowledge and assistance of DOROTHY HEALEY, chairman of the SCDCP and that several Communist Party (CP) members had been approved by HEALEY to teach Marxist theory to members of the LAYPS. This source further advised that the LAYPS was to be a Marxist study and action group and that the teachings of KARL MARX were to be followed. Source also advised that although the alleged purpose of the group was to promote "Socialism" in the United States, the group considered themselves to be "Communist Party Orientated" and were anxious to study the brand of Marxism associated with the CPUSA.

The first source above further advised that in June, 1963, LAYPS changed the name of the organization to Youth Action Union (YAU) for two reasons: The first being that it was felt the LAYPS had gained a bad reputation because of its association with CP groups, the second because it was felt the word "Socialism" in the title was driving away possible recruits.

The first elected chairman of the LAYPS and YAU who continued in this position until early 1964, was MARVIN TREIGER, who as of April, 1964, was chairman of the Youth Commission, SCDCP.

CITIZENS COMMITTEE TO PRESERVE AMERICAN FREEDOMS

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations", revised, December 1, 1961, pp. 43-44, describes this committee as follows:

"The Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms * * * specializes in propaganda aimed at abolishing the Committee on Un-American Activities and discrediting the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Created in Los Angeles in 1952, the front organization is run by FRANK WILKINSON, an identified Communist who recently resumed the full-time, paid post of executive secretary after approximately a year's leave of absence to assist in a similar campaign by another front in New York City, the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee.

"When the Committee on Un-American Activities held hearings in Los Angeles, September 2-5, 1958, to inquire into the nature of the Party's recent reorganization in California, the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms sponsored a series of public meetings to protest the hearings and the very existence of the Committee. Communists subpoenaed as witnesses were guests of honor.

"At this time, leaders of the party's Southern California District, were mobilizing Communists in the area for participation in an intensified campaign to abolish this committee of Congress. How the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms served the party in this effort was revealed by (Communist Party) District Chairman DOROTHY HEALEY in a report to the party's Southern California District Council on September 21, 1958. Mrs. HEALEY declared that the party preferred public protest meetings to be held by the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms rather than under party auspices because Communists could attend without danger of being exposed as members of the party. She also noted that Communists scheduled as congressional committee witnesses could not appear beforehand at openly Communist rallies without creating the impression that the party was conspiring with witnesses to withhold information from the committee."

COMMITTEE TO AID THE MONROE DEFENDANTS

A source advised on May 10, 1962, that the Committee to Aid the Monroe Defendants (CAMD) was formed during September, 1961, by the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in New York City. The SWP originally proposed the formation of this committee during discussions with various left-wing and liberal tendencies and offered a sum of money to initiate activities.

Source advised that the SWP, however, was unsuccessful in forming a committee of various tendencies and proceeded to organize the CAMD and promote its activities under the domination and control of the SWP.

Source advised that the aims of the CAMD are to afford financial support and counsel for ROBERT F. WILLIAMS and four other defendants who were involved in a racial incident on August 27, 1961, at Monroe, North Carolina. The SWP hopes to dramatize this incident nationally and internationally through the CAMD and thus attract individuals to the SWP aims and principles by playing a leading role in the integration struggle.

According to the source, the organization and impetus of CAMD activities throughout the various parts of the United States such as obtaining sponsors and the raising of funds, are the results of the efforts of various SWP branches.

The above source advised on September 6, 1962, that the headquarters of the CAMD is located at 168 West 23rd Street, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

COMMITTEE TO SECURE JUSTICE FOR MORTON SOBELL

A source advised on May 12, 1964, that the Los Angeles Sobell Committee is the Los Angeles, California affiliate of captioned organization.

Following the execution of atomic spies ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG in June, 1953, the "Communist campaign assumed a different emphasis. Its major effort centered upon MORTON SOBELL," the ROSENBERGs' codefendant. The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg case - a Communist front which had been conducting the campaign in the United States - was reconstituted as the National Rosenberg-Sobell Committee at a conference in Chicago in October, 1953 and "then as the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg Case."

In September, 1954, the name "National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell" appeared on literature issued by the Committee. In March, 1955, the current name, "Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell," first appeared on literature issued by the Committee.

The Address Telephone Directory for the Borough of Manhattan, New York City, as published by the New York Telephone Company on April 16, 1963, lists the "Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell" as being located at 940 Broadway, New York, New York.

CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTIES INFORMATION CENTER (CLIC)

A source advised on April 25, 1962, that Constitutional Liberties Information Center (CLIC) was formed in July, 1961, in Los Angeles, California, as a Communist Party (CP) defense committee to combat the U.S. Supreme Court decisions of June 5, 1961, upholding the Internal Security Act of 1950 and the membership provisions of the Smith Act. Formation of a committee was announced at a CP meeting of the District Committee, Southern California District CP (SCDCP) on July 8, 1961, by DOROTHY HEALEY, Chairman, SCDCP. Officers of CLIC include REUBEN W. BOROUGH, Chairman, and HUGH DE LACY, Vice Chairman.

Another source advised on August 8, 1961, that REUBEN W. BOROUGH and HUGH DE LACY were then current members of the Professional-Cultural Section, SCDCP.

A third source advised on March 23, 1964, that CLIC is a non-membership organization which continues to function as an information distributing center opposing the application of the 1950 Internal Security (McCarran) Act. It issues a newsletter on an irregular basis. It is under the complete control of the SCDCP.

DISCUSSION UNLIMITED

Records of the Division of Corporations, California State Department of Investments, Los Angeles, California, indicate that Discussion Unlimited filed its Articles of Incorporation as a nonprofit corporation, with the Secretary of State, Sacramento, California, on or about June 4, 1963, noting its principal site of office as Los Angeles County, California. The aims and purposes of the organization, as listed in the Articles of Incorporation, are "... to promote full and open discussion on our society and problems."

A source advised on May 8, 1963, that Discussion Unlimited actually was originated in Los Angeles, California, in May, 1962, and was composed largely of a number of present and former Communist Party members who assist in staging panel forums and in promoting such events. Original [redacted] of the group was [redacted] who in [redacted] was [redacted] of the Southern California District Communist Party. b6 b7C

This source was recontacted on May 15, 1964, and indicated that the basic concept of Discussion Unlimited has not changed. It continues to present "left ideas" to at least partially non-committed audiences. It proposes to develop special activities around various issues on an irregular basis. It is not a membership organization, and does not hold regular meetings as such, but rather is strictly a forum type organization.

ECHO PARK-SILVERLAKE FREE PRESS COMMITTEE

A source advised on May 19, 1964, that the Echo Park-Silverlake Free Press Committee was organized in Los Angeles in February, 1962, by the Press Directors of seven Communist Party (CP) clubs which formerly composed the 24th C. D. Section, Southern California District, Communist Party (SCDCP). It was organized as a front type organization for the purpose of raising funds to maintain the "People's World" and to hold forums through which contact could be maintained with former CP members, potential CP members, and loyal CP sympathizers. It is controlled by the CP through the assignment of current CP members to serve as officers of the organization.

The "People's World" is a west coast weekly communist newspaper.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE,
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

A source advised on June 20, 1963, that the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) was formed in New York City in Spring, 1960, under the sponsorship of certain well known pro-communists and "liberals" for the announced purpose of defending the "truth" about Cuba against alleged distortion by Cuba's enemies. A Greater Los Angeles Chapter of the FPCC (LA-FPCC) was formed in Los Angeles, California, in December, 1960 under the stimulus of the Los Angeles local of the Socialist Workers Party (LAL-SWP). The LAL-SWP was able to dominate and control the activities of the Los Angeles chapter without difficulty until 1962, at which time the Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP) succeeded in gaining a foothold in the LA-FPCC executive committee, thereafter gradually reducing the control of the LAL-SWP.

The same source advised on May 13, 1964, that the LA-FPCC ceased outward activity in December, 1963, following unfavorable publicity resulting from the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. b6 b7C

A second source advised on April 28, 1964, that the LA-FPCC went out of existence without any notice, and that although at meetings of the [redacted] LAL-SWP, [redacted] made no mention of it, [redacted] of the LAL-SWP, mentioned in [redacted] that the LA-FPCC was "no more".

Both the Communist Party (CP) and the SWP have been cited by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

INDEPENDENT PROGRESSIVE PARTY (IPP)

An informant advised on December 11, 1956, that the IPP was formed in California in 1948 and went out of existence following the 1954 election when it failed to poll sufficient votes to retain its place on the ballot.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations," revised, December 1, 1961, p. 85, describes the IPP as follows:

Characterized as "the California section of the national Progressive Party." "The Progressive Party, including its California branch, certainly ranks as one of the largest and most successful fronts ever created by the Communists."

INDEPENDENT STUDENT UNION

On May 17, 1962, a source advised that the Independent Student Union (ISU) was formed by a group of Los Angeles City College students in March, 1960.

The preamble to the ISU constitution states in part:

> "We, the members of the ISU, are dedicated to giving our energies to building a world of peace, wherein the peoples of all lands will not have to live in constant fear of nuclear, biological and chemical warfare.
> "We pledge our efforts to ending of all social inequality based upon race, creed or national origin and to further the eradication of discrimination in all walks of American life.
> "We affirm the right and value of both students and instructors to take an active role in the political life of the nation, and believe that no restriction should be placed upon the free expression of ideas and opinions within and outside the classroom."

The source stated that the ISU was originally controlled by three co-chairmen, one of whom was FRANKLIN ALEXANDER, a member of the Southern California District Communist Party (CP). In September, 1960, ALEXANDER was elected to be president of the ISU and served until April, 1961. In September, 1961, he was again elected president of ISU and served until May, 1962, at which time the ISU was dissolved because it had outlived its purpose and usefulness and absorbed into a new Communist Party youth front group known as the Youth for Peace and Socialism.

The source stated the ISU during its existence claimed to have a membership of 200; however, average attendance at meetings did not exceed 30-40 at the most. The ISU did have members on most of the major college campuses in the Los Angeles area; however, membership in the ISU did not necessarily indicate sympathy toward the CP.

JEWISH FRATERNAL CO-ORDINATING COMMITTEE
formerly known as Jewish Information
Service (Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs; Fraternal Medical Plan
of the California Fraternal Service Association)

A source advised the following on May 12, 1964:

The Jewish Information Service was formed about January, 1954, in Los Angeles for the purpose of continuing the activity of the defunct International Workers Order. Prior to March 4, 1956, the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs were identified as the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural Clubs, this group being formerly known as Lodges of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order. The Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs are currently active in the Los Angeles area.

The Fraternal Medical Plan of the California Fraternal Service Association was formed about January, 1954, for the purpose of continuing the activity of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order Medical Plan. Since that date the functioning of the Fraternal Order Medical Plan of the California Fraternal Service Association has been integrated into the operation of the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs, inasmuch as the service provided by the Fraternal Medical Plan of the California Fraternal Service Association is made available most exclusively to members of the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs; further, effort is made to have members of the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs also become members of the Fraternal Medical Plan of the California Fraternal Service Association.

The Fraternal Medical Plan of the California Fraternal Service Association is currently active in the Los Angeles area.

On February 3, 1963, it was announced at a meeting of the Westside Jewish Cultural Club in Los Angeles, that henceforth, the Jewish Information Service would be

LOS ANGELES COMMITTEE FOR PROTECTION OF FOREIGN BORN

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations", revised, December 1, 1961, pp. 103-104 describes this committee as follows:

"A 'branch' of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born found to be under the 'actual management, direction and supervision' of Communist Party members. The Los Angeles Committee was reorganized in October, 1950 and reported that it 'shall be affiliated to the national organization known as the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born * * *' The American Committee and the 'various area or local committees * * * constitute * * * one organization within the meaning of the * * * statute (Internal Security Act) 'under which the Subversive Activities Control Board found the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born to be a 'Communist front organization' and ordered it to register as such with the Attorney General".

(Subversive Activities Control Board, Docket No. 109-53, Report and Order with respect to the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, June 27, 1960, pp. 41, 8, 12 and 51.)

"Cited as a 'regional' organization of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born and one of its 'most complex affiliates.' The Committee on Un-American Activities found that in early publications the local affiliates frankly identified themselves as chapters of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born; their representation of themselves as independent groups came only after enactment of the Internal Security Act which would have required them, as affiliates, to register as Communist-front organizations."

"Control of the local organizations * * * was made possible primarily by virtue of the fact that the leaders of the local groups were Communist Party members and therefore subject to the discipline of the Party. * * * The local affiliates * * * were actually little more than administrative staffs, whose purpose it was to implement the program of the Communist Party in their respective areas."

LOS ANGELES LOCAL - NEWS AND LETTERS COMMITTEES (LAL-NLC)

On August 1, 1958, a source advised that as a result of the split within the Johnson-Forest Group (JFG), which occurred in 1955, two factions emerged--the Johnson Faction and the Forest Faction. The Johnson Faction is composed of the followers of C. L. R. JAMES, also known as JAMES JOHNSON, and the Forest Faction is composed of the followers of RAE DWYER, also known as FREDDIE FOREST and RAYA DUNAYEVSKAYA. The co-founders of the JFG were C. L. R. JAMES, known as JOHNSON, who was deported from the United States as an undesirable alien in 1953, and RAE DWYER, known as FOREST.

On September 10, 1957, two other confidential sources advised that, as of September, 1957, the Forest Faction of the JFG was known as the News and Letters Committees (NLC) of which RAE DWYER was referred to as National Leader. "News and Letters" is an official publication of the NLC.

On May 26, 1964, the last two sources advised that the LAL-NLC is an affiliate of the NLC whose national headquarters are located at 8751 Grand River, Detroit, Michigan, and that the LAL-NLC has been active since the founding convention held in 1956. The LAL-NLC carries out the policies and instructions issued by the national headquarters of the NLC.

The JFG has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

LOS ANGELES PREPARATORY COMMITTEE FOR THE 7th WORLD YOUTH FESTIVAL, aka., The Los Angeles Festival Committee

On May 3, 1961, a source advised that the Los Angeles Preparatory Committee for the 7th World Youth Festival, also known as the Los Angeles Festival Committee, was created early in 1958 by a group of youth who had attended the 6th World Youth Festival held in Moscow, Russia, in 1957. The Committee was established for the purpose of supporting and urging attendance at the 7th World Youth Festival which was held in Vienna, Austria, in July and August, 1959.

The original officers of the Los Angeles Festival Committee were all members of the Labor Youth League (LYL) and in effect the Committee, since its inception, was dominated by individuals who were members of the LYL. The chairman of the Committee, ROBERT KAUFMAN, was a member of the LYL prior to its dissolution in February, 1957.

Meetings of the Organization, however, were open to all individuals interested in attending the Festival, and attendance at meetings of the Committee does not necessarily indicate a sympathy for the Communist movement. The Committee attempted to gain broad support for the Festival on the various high school and college campuses in the Los Angeles area.

Following the holding of the Festival and the return of the Los Angeles Delegates, the Committee continued in the form of a propaganda bureau providing speakers and films depicting the Festival. It also had as its purpose the publicizing of future youth festivals and to promote the theme "peace and friendship". This activity gradually decreased during the year 1960, and the committee has now ceased to exist.

The LYL has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

United May Day Committee

A source advised on May 7, 1964, that the May Day Celebration in Los Angeles, in recent years, (excepting 1958) has been covertly organized by the leadership of the Southern California District, Communist Party (SCDCP) using the name May Day Committee, United May Day Committee, "Committee for '75 Years of May Day'", or variations thereof. Source advised that no actual committee is formed for this purpose, but an appropriate name is selected for purposes of advertising and sponsorship of the celebration. The actual arrangements for the celebrations have usually been made by BEN DOBBS, Executive Secretary of the SCDCP, with DOBBS and DOROTHY HEALEY, Chairman, SCDCP, sharing responsibility for chairing the celebration and making the "pitch". Funds raised through the rally are usually used by the SCDCP to offset current deficits. In 1958, the May Day Celebration was openly sponsored by the SCDCP.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO
ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" issued December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activites, U. S. House of Representatives, page 115, contains the following citation regarding the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

"Cited as a 'new organization' set up in the Summer of 1960 to lead and direct the Communist Party's 'Operation Abolition' campaign. Seven of the national leaders of this group have been identified as Communists.

(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1278 on the Truth About the Film 'Operation Abolition,' Part 1, October 3, 1961, p. 5.)"

A source has advised that the NCAUAC changed its name on March 3, 1962, to include the word "House" in its name, thereby becoming known as the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC). A national meeting of this organization was held in Chicago, Illinois, on April 27 and 28, 1963.

PROVISIONAL ORGANIZING COMMITTEE FOR
A MARXIST-LENINIST COMMUNIST PARTY (POC)

The Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications revised and published December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, contains the following on pages 142-143.

1. Found to be "a new Communist splinter group." The Provisional Organizing Committee for a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party "also known as the POC * * * was formed in August 1958 by a number of Communist Party members who were dissatisfied with the trends and policies of the party and, while within it, had referred to themselves as the Marxist-Leninist Caucus."

"The leaders and participants in the Provisional Organizing Committee group had been expelled from the Communist Party on the technical charge of 'disruptive, factional, anti-party activities.'

"The POC group is composed largely of extreme left-wing elements from the Communist Party. Throughout the party's history, there have been contending right and left-wing factions which, in periods of turmoil such as the party has gone through in the recent past, have fought for control. The POC elements lost out in this recent struggle within the U.S. party ***."

"The one fact that is completely clear today is that the POC group is made up of hard-core, dedicated, and extremist Communists, who, despite their present differences with the Communist Party leadership, are intent upon doing all within their power to speed the achievement of the goals of international communism."

(Committee on Un-American Activies, Annual Report for 1959, House Report 1251, February 8, 1960, pp. 69 and 70.)

APPENDIX

THE UNITED STATES FESTIVAL COMMITTEE, INC.
(EIGHTH WORLD YOUTH FESTIVAL)

The third 1961 issue of "World Youth," a publication of the World Federation of Democratic Youth (WFDY), reported that the first meeting of the International Preparation Committee (IPC) took place at Helsinki, Finland, on February 20-22, 1961, to prepare for the Eighth World Youth Festival to be held in Helsinki, in 1962. At the meeting, the IPC elected a permanent commission composed of representatives of a number of countries including Canada, the United States as well as representatives of WFDY and the International Union of Students (IUS).

The IUS with headquarters in Prague, Czechoslovakia, and the WFDY with headquarters in Budapest, Hungary, are cited as communist organizations in the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" dated December 1, 1961, published by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., pages 91 and 177.

A source advised that in April, 1961, DANNY RUBIN, National Youth Director, CPUSA, advised that CP districts should concentrate on getting broad groups to sponsor the United States Festival Committee (USFC).

A pamphlet issued by the USFC describing the program for the Festival and advised that the USFC was organized by students and youth leaders at a founding conference at Chicago, Illinois, October 15, 1961, to publicize and encourage participation in the Helsinki, Festival. The USFC had been recognized by the IPC, the sponsoring body of the Festival, as the United States Committee to administer United States Participation in the Festival.

On February 4, 1963, a second source reported the USFC had changed its address from Room 807, 460 Park Avenue South, New York, New York, on February 2, 1963, to Post Office Box 172, Highbridge Station, Bronx 52, New York.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963 a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including National Functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates to this meeting were cautioned against the germ of anti-soviet and anti-CP ideologies. These delegates were also told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second conference of over 20 persons met in Chicago on December 28-29, 1963 for the purpose of initiating a "call" to the new youth organization and planning for a founding convention to be held in June, 1964.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964 at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are, "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful co-existence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people. As young people in the forces struggling for democracy, we shall actively strive to defeat these reactionary and neo-fascist elements and to achieve complete freedom and democracy for all Americans, thus enabling each individual to freely choose and build the society he would wish to live in. Through these struggles we feel the American people will realize the viability of the socialist alternatives."

The constitution further states that this new organization shall be a membership organization open to individuals or if five or more people so desire a chapter can be formed which shall in turn be guided by the policies and principles of the parent organization.

The second source has also advised that at the founding convention it was voted that the organization should be temporarily headquartered in San Francisco, California, although no specific physical location was decided upon. This same source advised on June 29, 1964 that the temporary headquarters of this organization is 1007 McAllister Street, San Francisco, which is the headquarters of the W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco.

Both sources have advised that at the founding convention two officers were elected:

PHILIP CHAPIN DAVIS, President, and
CARL ELLENGER BLOICE, Publications Chairman,

A third source has advised that on [redacted] b6 b7C attended a CP recruiting class held at 1579 Scenic Avenue, Berkeley, California.

A fourth source has advised that CARL BLOICE, reporter for the "People's World" newspaper, was, on April 3, 1964, elected to the newly organized San Francisco County Committee of the CP.

The "People's World" is a West Coast communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco, California.

APPENDIX

LA 100-00078 W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUB OF WEST LOS ANGELES

On April 28, 1964, a source advised that the W. E. B. DuBois Club of West Los Angeles, was organized by RUTH GREENBAUM with the assistance of MARVIN TREIGER in February, 1964.

b7C

A second source advised on April 17, 1964, that as of [redacted] was a member of the Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP) and that MARVIN TREIGER was chairman of the Youth Commission, SCDCP.

The first source above stated that the DuBois Club was organized mainly to meet the needs of Marxist-Orientated students at the University of California at Los Angeles, (UCLA), but that the club eventually hopes to spread its influence into other areas in West Los Angeles.

The records of the Office of Dean of Student Activities at UCLA, revealed that the DuBois Club has filed for permission to hold meetings and other special functions on the UCLA campus and that permission has been granted. The chairman of the DuBois Club is listed as RUTH GREENBAUM. In making this application, the club listed a statement of purpose which states in part, "We the members of the W. E. L. DuBois Club of West Los Angeles, join together to help further the development of a socialist system, free from ignorance, poverty, fear and the economic power exercised by the few over the many.

"Although we view socialism as the likely solution to the ills of the present society, we do not make this an a priori commitment for any honest person to join with us in fighting for a better America and a more rational world."

A third source advised on March 12, 1964, that at a Communist Party (CP) meeting held in Los Angeles, February, 1964, BEN DOBBS, Executive Secretary of the SCDCP, spoke on the CP youth movement and stated that the DuBois Club was one of two youth groups operating in the Los Angeles area, both groups were Marxist-Orientated and that members considered themselves Marxist.

A fourth source advised on October 5, 1964, that since its inception, the activities of the DuBois Club have been mainly limited to participation in protests against alleged racial discrimination, participation in Marxist classes and participation in conferences which lead to the creation of the W. E. B. Clubs of America in the summer of 1964. This source advised that the W. E. B. DuBois Club of West Los Angeles is now affiliated with the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America and is operating as a chapter of that organization.

WOMEN FOR LEGISLATIVE ACTION

A source advised on May 1, 1963, that the Women for Legislative Action was formed in 1952, claiming to be an independent organization dedicated to non-partisan participation in legislative and civic activities. Its position in favoring or opposing legislation usually parallels the position of the Communist Party and related groups. It also supports legislation to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Membership in the Women for Legislative Action does not, of itself, connote membership in or sympathy with the Communist Party.

Another source advised on May 21, 1964, that the Women for Legislative Action continues to be active in the Los Angeles area.

APPENDIX

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

On May 6, 1964, a source advised that in January, 1959, an unnamed organization was formed in Los Angeles by youth members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) to support the newspaper "Young Socialist" (YS). This organization was formed as a result of the National Conference of Young Socialist Supporters held in Detroit, Michigan, in December, 1958, where a loose national organization was created around the YS with headquarters in New York City.

The organization remained unnamed, although commonly referred to as the Los Angeles Committee of Young Socialist Supporters (LACYSS) until February, 1960, when they adopted the name Young Socialist Alliance (YSA).

A second National Conference of YS Supporters was held April 15-17, 1960, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, at which the national organization YSA was created. The YSA at Los Angeles is an integral part of the National organization and receives its directives from YSA Headquarters in New York City.

The YSA in Los Angeles is actually the youth organization of the SWP and follows the SWP aims and purposes to the letter.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Title: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Synopsis:

Strategy of Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP) and W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of America in Los Angeles (LA) district in racial matters set forth. Strategic approach of LA Local, Socialist Workers Party, Los Angeles Local - News and Letters Committees, Provisional Organizing Committee For a Marxist - Leninist Communist Party (POC), Young Socialist Alliance (LAB - YSA), and Workers World Party set out. Details of communist tactics and participation in demonstrations with racial overtones related. Efforts of communist penetration and influence in National Association For The Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), United Civil Rights Committee (UCRC), Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), March on Washington, Mississippi Summer Project, Non-Violent Action Committee (N-VAC), and Los Angeles Friends of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC) set out. [redacted] informants, [redacted] advised that SCDCP has been interested in racial situation for several years. These informants advised these proposals and plans of action have been subject of discussion. Informants stated SCDCP leadership in recent months has admitted that CP-USA has been without effective leadership in the Civil Rights struggle and are without any effective plan to gain the CP-USA or SCDCP a position of leadership in the Civil Rights Movement. DETAILS:

The purpose of this report is to show any communist influence in racial matters in the Los Angeles, California area. 4

With this in mind, a series of names of individuals appear in instant report for two reasons. One reason is to reflect their status as officers or people of responsibility in organizations of a racial nature. The other is to show the names of individuals having subversive affiliations who are influential in activities or demonstrations mentioned in the report. 4

For the purpose of facilitating the reporting of this information, characterizations of individuals has been reflected in a few instances where the information is recorded for the purpose of clarifying the relationship of the individual through the particular activity. In the majority of cases, however, the names appear in an alphabetical glossary which will be found toward the end of the report. In some instances individuals who are officers of particular organizations will not be characterized as their only reason for being included is that they are officers of an organization and there is no pertinent information concerning them. 4

Organizations when cited by the U. S. Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450 will be described in this report, following the listing of the organization. If no citation appears, the characterization of the organization will appear in the appendix pages at the end of the report where pertinent and available. 4

A Discussion Unlimited [redacted] sponsored forum meeting was held on February 22, 1963, at the First Unitarian Church of Los Angeles (see appendix under Communist Infiltration of the First Unitarian Church of Los Angeles), 2936 West 8th Street, Los Angeles. The topic of this forum meeting was "Alternative Paths to Negro Freedom." BENJAMIN K. DAVIS, described by LA T-4 as National Secretary, CP, USA; described by LA T-20 as a member of the National Executive Committee, CP, USA; and described by both LA T-20 and LA T-23 as a Spokesman for the CP, USA; was one of the panel of four speakers at this meeting. The other three panel speakers were representatives, respectively, of the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), the Nation of Islam (NOI) (see appendix) and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP). U

LA T-4 advised that DAVIS spoke to the effect that the best path to Negro freedom is the unification of all Negro organizations; that an attempt should be made to get the present administration to pass legislation banning what he called "Jim Crowism"; and he concluded by stating to the effect that if complete integration and freedom for the Negro cannot be attained by peaceful means, that the Negro would use other methods as did the American people in 1776. U

LA T-20 advised that DAVIS spoke primarily on the role of the CP and its program of civil rights for the Negro people. 4

LA T-20 (3/6/63) 4

A joint meeting of the SCDCP Negro Commission and the Moranda Smith Section, SCDCP, was held on February 25, 1963 at 2128 3rd Avenue, Los Angeles, for the purpose of hearing a report by BEN DAVIS (supra) concerning the position of the CP relative to the present day struggles of the Negro. DAVIS observed that the CP is not leading the fight for full liberation of the Negro on all levels of the American scene and that the Negro is not looking to the CP for leadership in this fight. DAVIS stated that the CP must let its voice be heard in that fight through a concrete program of direct action toward liberating the Negro from all forms of oppression. (U)

LA T-1 (2/26/63) 4

At a meeting of the Youth Commission, SCDCP, on February 17, 1963, the question of working in mass organizations was raised and discussed at length. It was the concensus of the speakers that the following points were mandatory: (U)

1. An understanding of the different facets.

2. The real struggle is against segregation within white organizations.

3. People are looking for leadership and will seek out the best contributor. (U)

4. The effort must be part of and not isolated from the people's movement, such as churches and other organizations. The church, especially in the Negro youth, is considered to be the main source of struggle among the Negro people.

LA T-7 (3/22/63) (U)

In March, 1963, at a meeting of the Section Committee of the Moranda Smith Section, SCDCP, made up for the most part of Negroes, BILL TAYLOR, Chairman of the Negro Commission, SCDCP, complained that the CP is not getting the proper support from the Negro people, and that more work should be done in this area. (U)

LA T-6 (4/19/63)

DOROTHY HEALEY, Chairman of the SCDCP, announced on April 18, 1963, that the SCDCP would immediately embark on a program of complete support for the members of the Nation of Islam then on trial in Los Angeles on assault charges arising out of a riot with Los Angeles Police officers in April, 1962. (U)

According to HEALEY, this program of support would start immediately with a series of articles to appear in the "People's World"(PW) and would include direct support in the form of white picket lines. HEALEY said that this should provide an excellent vehicle to promote other phases of the Communist Party's program, including civil rights, discrimination, and unemployment. (U)

The PW is a west coast communist weekly newspaper. 4

Since March, 1963, members of the Negro Commission of the SCDCP have been discussing a resolution on Negro work prepared by the Communist Party of Northern California to replace the outmoded Negro resolution passed at the last National Convention of the CP, USA. CYRIL BRIGGS, member of the Negro Commission of the SCDCP, was given the responsibility of working on revisions and additions to the resolution prepared by the Northern California group, and prepared a draft. At a meeting of the Commission held in May, 1963, most of the members of the Negro Commission agreed with his statement that most of the Negro cadre left the CP because of white chauvinism. BILL TAYLOR, Chairman, was critical of the draft for oversimplifying the situation in the Negro community in relation to the CP, stating there was some talk of what the CP had done but little relationship to what the CP is doing. He said CP people should put up more of a struggle to attain leadership in other organizations and take a more definite stand for the CP in the Negro community. (U)

BRIGGS said his draft resolution also emphasized support of the Negro's right to self-defense in places such as Birmingham and the support that the Party should give to those Negroes who wanted to stand up and fight with guns and other means when they were trampled on, instead of just Party support for the non-violent movement. (U)

In May, 1963, BRIGGS, TAYLOR and [redacted] the latter a member of the [redacted] and of the [redacted] of the CP, USA, were assigned to draw up the final draft. (U)

LA T-63 (6/25/63) (U)

A meeting of the Jewish Commission, SCDCP, was held in Los Angeles on June 24, 1963. BEN DOBBS was main spokesman at this meeting and was present as Executive Secretary of the SCDCP. The theme of the meeting was the racial question, both nationally and locally. (U)

Without mentioning the names of individuals responsible, but speaking in the name of the SCDCP, DOBBS stated in effect that the SCDCP had attempted to establish rapport with the United Civil Rights Committee (UCRC) in their efforts and activities regarding integration in Los Angeles. He related that the CP was rebuffed and rejected by the UCRC in "no uncertain terms", with the UCRC questioning the motives of the Party. DOBBS said that even though the Party was rejected, it must continue its attempts in this regard. (U)

BEN DOBBS, Executive Secretary of the SCDCP, on June 24, 1963, outlined the CP program in this District as it bears on the current campaign for integration and civil rights. He stressed the following points: (U)

The insistence on bringing Federal action to bear in the campaign for civil rights and the issuance by the President of a proclamation on the matter.

To render full support to civil rights legislation already on the books and to proposed civil rights legislation. (U)

To campaign against any and all violations of civil rights provisions of the Constitution.

To petition the Supreme Court for a clarification of its decision on school desegregation insofar as the phrase "full deliberate speed," is concerned.

Bring pressure to end de facto segregation in the North

Campaign for a national fair employment practices bill. (U)

DOBBS urged that the foregoing program be carried by Party leaders and members into all their mass organizational activities and contacts. (U)

LA T-13 (6/19/63) (U)

At a meeting of the Negro Commission, SCDCP, held on June 18, 1963, it was generally agreed that the CP is playing practically no role whatsoever in the Negro campaign for civil rights in the Los Angeles area. TAYLOR urged that the CP make a definite effort to involve women's fraternal and peace organizations as well as other youth, community, and Negro organizations, in the civil rights campaign. (U)

LA T-6 (6/24/63) (U)

The SCDCP considers the "People's World" (PW), a west coast communist weekly newspaper, to be a potent weapon in the struggle for civil rights, particularly in the Negro community and among Negro ministers. This source further observed that the party would like to "keep the pot boiling" through demonstrations supporting the Congress of Racial Equality, through youth clubs, and through individual members of the Moranda Smith Section SCDCP, which is predominantly Negro. LA T-60 (7/2/63) (U)

An informant advised on July 2, 1963, that at a CP club meeting recently held in the Moranda Smith Section, SCDCP, a discussion was held on the CP role in the Negro integration movement in the Los Angeles area. SHIRLEY TAYLOR, chairman of the club and [redacted] in the SCDCP, reported that the Party is lagging behind in the local civil rights and integration program. She said the Party had not been able to "latch on" as a leader in the movement. According to [redacted] the Party is trying to figure out how and when it can interject itself as a leading factor in integration activities. (U) [redacted]

LA T-10 (7/11/63)

A source advised on July 11, 1963, that at a recent meeting of the Watts CP Club, DOROTHY HEALEY, Chairman, SCDCP, spoke on the Los Angeles integration movement. She stated that Party members should give the Negro people all assistance possible in their demonstrations. She urged all members to be active in Negro affairs and to render leadership when possible. HEALEY observed that one reason why the Negroes are moving in their campaign for integration is the fact that the Negro churches serve as a center for their activities. She contrasted the Negroes with the Mexican-American people, stating that the latter are, for the most part, devout Catholics, and their Church does not believe in such activity. According to HEALEY, the Catholic Church runs the lives of most Mexican-Americans both physically and religiously, and they will not move until the Church tells them to.

LA T-64 (7/19/63) (U)

At a meeting of the Orange County Club of the SCDCP, held in early July, 1963, BILL TAYLOR, Field Representative of the SCDCP, gave a report on the integration movement. He said much more was being accomplished than was originally intended. He said the original intent of the movement was to abolish 'Jim Crow' on buses. As each step was accomplished, another was set in motion. He said these steps came from the grass roots more often than from the officials in the organizations such as the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, the Congress on Racial Equality, etc. He said that nonviolence was the intention, but that some of the people would fight back if attacked by the opposing forces. He said the role of the CP was to stay in the background and to work through the organizations to which they belong. (U)

LA T-20 (7/19/63)

At a Section Leadership meeting of the Moranda Smith Section, SCDCP, held on July 15, 1963, discussion was held on an article written by JAMES JACKSON, member of the National Committee of the CP, USA, and Editor of "The Worker", an east coast communist newspaper. The article concerned the "Black Muslims" and the Negro people's freedom movement . JACKSON was critical of the Muslims and labeled them as "Racials". The article was read by [redacted] member of the [redacted] Section, and of the National Committee, CP, USA, and [redacted] said [redacted] was in complete disagreement with JACKSON, criticizing him severely for his stand in relation to the Muslims. [redacted] said that BENJAMIN DAVIS, national CP functionary, had said the CP could work along with the Muslims on certain issues, which the CP, as a whole has agreed to do, and that JAMES JACKSON should be highly challenged by the CP for his writings against the Muslims. (U) b6 b7C

It was agreed that the Moranda Smith Section would direct a written challenge to the National Committee of the CP against the views of JACKSON. (U)

LA T-9 (8/7/63) (U)

At a section committee meeting of the SCDCP, held in Los Angeles in late July, 1963, BEN DOBBS, Executive Secretary of the SCDCP, stated that no known Communists are leading the civil rights movement and that the CP cannot take credit for top leadership. He said that over the years the CP has worked in many organizations supporting the Negro people in their fight for civil rights, and that this work has had some effect on the present movement. (U)

LA T-6 (9/16/63) (U)

Informant advised that the District Board, SCDCP, met on September 5, 1963, in a special meeting called to discuss work in the Mexican community. It was pointed out that Mexican-Americans constitute the largest minority group in Los Angeles, and they have recently been successful in electing representatives to Congress and the California State Assembly. This has resulted in an increasingly high level of political consciousness in the Mexican community. Instrumental in this increasing political awareness, according to the SCDCP Board, has been the work of the Mexican-American Political Association. Other Mexican groups and organizations discussed were the GI (U)

Forum, Community Service Organization and the Council of Mexican Affairs. Some discussion was had relative to organizing a leftist group in the Mexican community, but it was agreed that there were already sufficient organizations in existence and the Party should concentrate in working in those mass organizations. The Board estimated that there was probably not more than a dozen Mexican CP members in the SCDCP, and stressed the need for Party members to render assistance to the SCDCP Mexican Commission. (U)

A group of SCDCP members who are interested in integrated housing met with [redacted] on [redacted] It was agreed at this meeting that a subsequent meeting be called to include representatives from all sections in the District. It was also agreed that additional forces from the Party, particularly Negro comrades, should be assigned to work in the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE). [redacted] stated that the problem with CORE is that it is dominated by a group which refuses to be objective and which launches demonstrative actions which sometimes force costly retreats. It was further agreed at the meeting that the emphasis in this field should be changed from "blockbusting" to "checker-board" housing integration, with concentration on lower and middle class housing and rental units, rather than on high-cost housing. [redacted] desired to establish District-wide coordination in this field of activity through this special committee. (U)

LA T-6 (10/7/63) (U)

At a section council meeting of the Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP), held in Los Angeles in early October, 1963, a report was given concerning recent developments in the Negro community. An announcement was made that the SCDCP Board had called for a concentration of forces at the forthcoming meeting of the Los Angeles City Board of Education, at which meeting the report of an ad hoc committee on de facto segregation was to be discussed. (U)

LA T-6 (10/28/63) (U)

At an enlarged meeting of Section Organizers of the SCDCP, held in Los Angeles on October 23, 1963, DOROTHY HEALEY, Chairman, SCDCP, in speaking of the Negro struggle, stated that the main reason that the Negro movement is ahead today in its campaign for civil rights is because of the (U) fact that the movement has taken to the streets in its demonstrations. She continued that on the other hand, the CP should not fail to recognize that with the growth of the Negro people's movement in the United States, a reaction in the form of the growth of the ultra-right has also been produced. She stated that the CP must sharpen the militancy and the awareness of the trade unions of this growing ultra-right menace and must show that the campaign against civil rights is also a campaign against labor. (U)

A Section Leadership meeting of the Moranda Smith Section, SCDCP, was held in Los Angeles in early October, 1963. BILL TAYLOR, a leading Negro functionary in the SCDCP, reported at this meeting that a gigantic power struggle was taking place between the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), and the National Association For The Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), for the leadership of the Negro Freedom movement and that the CP should unify or attempt to unify this leadership. TAYLOR also stated that all CP members should attend school board meetings and express their opinions on the racial struggle; that CP members should start a letter writing and telegram campaign to aid in getting the Civil Rights Bill passed; and that CP members should demand that their labor unions set up civil rights committees. (U)

At the above mentioned Section Leadership meeting of the Moranda Smith Section, SCDCP, held in Los Angeles in early October, 1963, BILL TAYLOR, Field Representative for the SCDCP, stated that the CP membership in general is needed to push demands for civil rights and complete freedom for the Negro people. He continued that letters must be sent to U. S. Legislators to further develop the August 28, 1963, Negro Freedom march to Washington, D. C.; and that a push must also be made in trade unions in the struggle for jobs for Negroes. (U)

[redacted] SCDCP, reported concerning a recent meeting of section organizers of the SCDCP. In her report, [redacted] stated that the CP must clarify its position on the Black Muslims; that the CP must support the struggle of the Black Muslims against police brutality and for their right to worship, but not their race-hate anti-white policy; and that the CP feels that the Black Muslims will begin to move in the proper direction. (The term "Black Muslims" refers to members of the Nation of Islam). (U)

[redacted] further reported that several proposals were made at the recent meeting of SCDCP section organizers among which were the following: (U)

That there be a fight for the creation of new jobs for Negro people; that there be a fight for a shorter work week;

that there be concrete support in labor unions in terms of security and apprenticeship for Negro workers;

that the CP find a way in all mass organizations to unite with the Negro Freedom movement and build the CP. (U)

[redacted] further informed that on the issue of the Christmas boycott nationally in commemoration of the Negro children who were killed in a recent bombing in Alabama, that a campaign is proposed to all mass organizations to get out leaflets and letters in support of a national Christmas boycott in terms of no purchasing of gifts, toys, Christmas cards and the like, in order to bring about economic pressure on big business to support the Negro Freedom movement. (U)

A lengthy discussion followed the report of [redacted] and a motion was adopted to support all of the proposals made in [redacted] report. (U)

At a meeting of the District Committee of the SCDCP, held on October 12, 1963, in Los Angeles, PETTIS PERRY, a member of the National Committee, CP, USA, and a member of the SCDCP Committee, stated to the effect that the CP must work through the churches to reach the Negro masses since Negroes are a deeply religious people. U

A meeting of SCDCP Section Organizers was held during the latter part of October, 1963, with DOROTHY HEALEY, Chairman, SCDCP present to give the principal report on the status of the Party. Among other remarks, HEALEY stated that the Party must resolve its own difficulties in order to be able to assist the mass movement. She said the membership must develop and express the concept of class unity and recognize that no class unity is possible without Negro-white unity. This unity must be expressed around the struggle for jobs, against automation, shorter work week, etc. She named the "three key struggles" in mass work as civil rights, jobs and peace. (U)

HEALEY stated that the major lesson for labor to be learned from the Negro movement is that the Negro masses "took to the streets" and the impact of their revolutionary struggles has forced Congress to consider civil rights legislation. She observed that the "do-nothing" attitude of labor has not achieved such results. (U)

Informant advised that the SCDCP Mexican Commission is reassessing the Party's role in the Mexican-American Political Association (MAPA). It was noted that the MAPA is gradually growing in its respectability and importance, particularly as a result of the attendance of Governor BROWN at the last convention of MAPA, and because other organizations are beginning to recognize MAPA as an important political force. It was also noted that MAPA would take on a "less progressive" note because of the leadership of its present full time organizer who is well known as a friend of many important politicians. The feeling was that as a result of these developments the Party would have to take a less dominant position in MAPA. DOROTHY HEALEY, Chairman, SCDCP, stated that there is need for a communist and left wing caucus in MAPA. She noted that the SCDCP is the only District with any Mexican representation and that it would therefore, be necessary for Southern California members to take the initiative in setting up such a caucus based on their own contacts in MAPA. (U)

A meeting of the SCDCP Negro Commission reportedly was held on April 8, 1964, at 4011 West 29th Street, Los Angeles. DOROTHY HEALEY, Chairman, SCDCP, read from a report of a national functionary of the CP, USA, which report stated to the effect that the CP, USA, had decided to concentrate its efforts on the Negro Question at a neighborhood level in four neighborhood communities in the United States, one of which was Los Angeles. A joint meeting of the SCDCP Negro Commission and the Moranda Smith Section, SCDCP, Committee was held on October 2, 1964, at 1251 South St. Andrews Place, Los Angeles. HENRY WINSTON, a national functionary of the CP, USA, was present and spoke to the effect that if integration of the Negro people is to be fully achieved in the United States, it can only be done by such organizations as the CP, NAACP, the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, and other such organizations all working together. He stressed the need for a smashing defeat of both BARRY GOLDWATER in his campaign for election to the Presidency, and of Proposition 14 on the California ballot (an initiative which if passed would repeal the Rumford Act, a California fair housing law). (U)

WINSTON stated that if GOLDWATER and Proposition 14 are not defeated in November, 1964, it will cause a setback in the Negro freedom struggle that will take decades to overcome. (U)

PETTIS PERRY, a member of the National Committee, CP, USA, was present and stated to the effect that the three major church denominations are playing a great role in the civil rights and Negro Freedom movement and that if the CP is to grow, it must work with and through the churches. (U) has on numerous occasions on all levels of the SCDCP discussed the racial situation in the general Los Angeles area, and has put forward proposals, made resolutions, and/or suggested plans of action in connection therewith. However, none of these plans have been put into effect, and at top level meetings of the SCDCP [redacted] SCDCP leaders have frankly admitted that the SCDCP, and the CP, USA, in general have been unable to provide any leadership and have been generally ineffective in the civil rights struggle and Negro freedom movement. These leaders have further recognized that the SCDCP, and the CP, USA, are still without any effective plan that may be implemented to gain for the CP a leadership position in that struggle and movement. LAT-27 (7/27-28/64)

Above source advised that on July 27-28, 1964, the POC held its West Coast Conference at the Anglo Hotel, 241 6th Street, San Francisco, California.

At the above conference, Comrade [redacted] read a report entitled, "The Role of the Negro Worker in the Liberation of the American Working Class." He stated that "the fight for the liberation of the Black Belt and its co-ordination with the fight for the liberation of the rest of the country is the problem confronting the POC. The overall situation is the development of the proletarian movement in the United States, in two aspects: 1) The fight for the National Liberation in the colonies, specifically within the Continental United States; and 2) The overall fight for socialism and communism." He then gave a lengthy history of the Negro settlement and how they have fared in the United States. He did not believe there will be a liberation of the Black Belt without the establishment of socialism in the United States because the imperialists would not tolerate this planned development. He said that "as the situation becomes more acute, the revolutionary potential of the people will grow and with the leadership of a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party will reach the point of open rebellion in the most oppressed areas, namely in the Black Belt itself."

He added, "This situation can be seen today by the increasing opposition by the southern state governments and the increase in Negro discontent in the south. Presently, demonstrations are taking place in the cities. But as the situation becomes intensified, there will develope insurrectionary or guerilla movements in the southern countryside. The task of the communists in this struggle is to co-ordinate the fight for the liberation of the American working class in both the colonial and home base areas. This task entails the establishment of an underground network capable of sustaining and winning a war in this country for the liberation of the American working class. This network must be able to facilitate unlimited movement for cadres moving between north and south, to co-ordinate and fuse together the overall struggles for the liberation in the Black Belt, in the Northern big cities and intervening countryside, so that the war can be efficiently conducted and won." PROVISIONAL ORGANIZING COMMITTEE FOR A MARXIST-LENINIST C.P.

[redacted] of the POC, responded to [redacted] report by pointing out that it was erroneous theory. He said "it is class warfare not minority warfare that the POC advocates."

[redacted] of the POC, in commenting on [redacted] report said that, "There is a revolutionary fervor among the Negro people, particularly in the South and New York but we are not ready for the question of guerilla warfare, we do not take the lives of the working people. Our job is to harness this revolutionary fervor and raise it to a higher level. Experience has shown that we cannot work among established organizations of the Negro people. We have attempted it and it did not work."

[redacted] pointed out that those comments were not responsive to [redacted] report which dealt only with possible future developments.

[redacted] stated that, "the Negro liberation movement is not the property of the Negro park of the working class. What is involved here is the projection of transition. Our line gives the lie to the assertion by the revisionist that the Negro can achieve freedom through non-violence. LENIN said there was only one week in September when there might have been a peaceful transition to socialism in Russia. In fact, there has not been one single case of peaceful transition in history. Is the American working class going to make the transition peacefully or not peacefully? It must be violently. The time for arms for the Negro people will have to come at the same time as the American working man. We are giving ourselves two years to complete our education and strengthen ourselves to face the music that is to come."

Above source furnished a mimeographed announcement captioned, "Freedom for the People" announcing that Freedom for the People (F.F.T.P.) is sponsoring a series of studies concerning the national liberation struggles. The studies are being conducted by the POC which supports the F.F.T.P. in its fight for the liberation of the Negro people. The announcement reflects that F.F.T.P. fights for:

"1. The right of the oppressed Negro Nation to self-determination.

2. The Negro people's struggle for freedom. The Negro people will never be 'given' their freedom-it must be fought for through long and bitter revolutionary wars.

3. We fight for the unity of all oppressed people.

4. We fight for equal rights of the Negro national minority and other national minorities.

In order to win our freedom, we must know our enemies and learn how to best fight them. We believe in the need to train ourselves for revolutionary struggle."

Demonstration 10/10/63

LA T-4 (10/15/63)

Informant reported that CORE conducted a "study-in" demonstration at the LABE, 450 North Grand Avenue, Los Angeles on October 10, 1963.

The demonstration commenced at 3:45 PM when a group of students assembled at the Old Plaza at Sunset and Main Streets, Los Angeles.

The march began at 4:30 PM and proceeded to the LABE. [redacted] was [redacted] of the march. The march itself consisted primarily of high school age students with a total count of 290 marchers, 75 of which were Negros.

The regular meeting of the LABE was convened at 4:35 PM and the meeting was interrupted by the arrival of the students who were going to demonstrate by a "study-in." The chairman of the board was called out of the meeting to confer with the Fire Department captain and the students were instructed that seating themselves in the corridors and on the floor would have tobe done in such a manner that would comply with the fire ordinance. The chairman further requested that the students occupy the seats in the auditorium as there was more than ample seating available. There were some 300 students in the "study-in."

Informant advised that there is no current program on the part of the SCDCP to infiltrate or attempt to gain domination of the NAACP in Los Angeles. B. UNITED CIVIL RIGHTS COMMITTEE (UCRC)

A publication of the United Civil Rights Committee (UCRC) reflects that their office is located at 8501 South San Pedro Street, Los Angeles, California, and that they maintain a mailing address of Post Office Box 8-344, Los Angeles, California.

The above leaflet in substance states that following a mass protest of 45,000 persons at Wrigley Field, Los Angeles, on May 26, 1963, addressed by Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., the "Civil Rights leaders decided to continue their association by forming the United Civil Rights Committee which would continue to work for integration of Negro and other minority citizens in Los Angeles" and "is dedicated to achieve with all urgency and unity the integration of Negro and all other minority citizens into the life of the Los Angeles community." The objectives of the group are to define the needs and grievances of minority groups, to negotiate with responsible persons on the grievances and to demonstrate, through non-violent action for such negotiation of these grievances.

The leaflet further states that the UCRC "is composed of representative individuals drawn from the many Los Angeles organizations that have a common commitment to integration -- now."

Source, from whom sufficient information has not been received to determine reliability, on above date, advised that a large group of leaders in the Negro community who believe in responsible leadership in the integration movement have become disenchanted with the leadership of Doctor CHRISTOPHER L. TAYLOR, Chairman of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), United Civil Rights Committee (UCRC), and doubt the effectiveness in the integration movement so that continuing effort is being made to change this leadership.

An article by PAUL WEEKS, Staff Writer, "Los Angeles Times", a metropolitan daily newspaper, Part I, page 19, on June 17, 1964, reported the following officers for the second year of operation for UCRC:

Dr. H. HARTFORD BROOKINS, Chairman
PERRY C. PARKS, Vice-Chairman
EARL WALTER, Vice-Chairman
Mrs. JOAN GREEN, Secretary
VICTOR LUDWIG, Treasurer
FRANK MUNOZ, Treasurer

The "California Eagle", a newspaper in regular circulation, Los Angeles, California, on July 9, 1964, on page 10, set forth a steering or policy committee named by Reverend BROOKINS to review the organizational structure of the UCRC:

WESLEY BRAZIER (of the Urban League)
JOHN BUGGS (of the County Commission on Human Relations)
EARL WALTER (of the Congress of Racial Equality)
EASON MONROE (of the American Civil Liberties Union)
Mrs. MARNESBA TACKETT (of the NAACP)
NORMAN O. HOUSTON (Businessman)

The above UCRC publication states that the organization works through the following committees "which are open to all who desire to work and cooperate together for the aims of the organization":

Direction Action, Chairman, EARL WALTER
Education, Chairman, MARNESBA TACKETT
Employment, Chairman, E. J. FRANKLIN
Health and Welfare, Chairman, RAY JOHNSON
Housing, Chairman FLORENCE VAUGHN
Law Enforcement, Chairman, THOMAS G. NEUSOM

LA T-63 (8/2/63)

Source advised that on June 25, 1963, at a meeting of the Jewish Commission, Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP), Los Angeles, California, BEN DOBBS, Executive Secretary, SCDCP, in substance, reported that he had attempted to establish relations with the UCRC, which was founded in Los Angeles by prominent Negro leaders to aid in integration,

(U)

to assist in UCRC efforts and activities. DOBBS said the Communist Party (CP) was rebuffed and rejected by UCRC "in no uncertain terms" because UCRC questioned the motives of the Party. He emphasized that even though rejected, the Party must continue attempts in this direction. (U)

LA T-64 (7/19/63) (U)

Source advised that [redacted] SCDCP, at a Communist Party meeting on July 3, 1963, said that the CP must stay in the background and have their members work through the organizations to which they belong in integration matters. (U)

LA T-4 (9/23/64)

Source, on above date, advised that there has not been any indication that the UCRC was organized, controlled, or dominated by the CP. Source further stated that at the most, there are a few individuals, from other organizations, that have CP background; however, the number is so small that they have not been able to exert any influence. Source noted that the UCRC has no actual membership and the entire group of delegates from other organizations, of which a few have CP background, have been technically designated as an executive committee for publicity purposes, but actually do not formulate the policy.

Above source, on August 6, 1964, reported that from the beginning UCRC has attempted to operate independently of any one organization. Further, with the sixty to seventy different organizations joining together, they decided there would be no actual membership, and when a decision is to be made, it is referred for vote to each one of the participating groups through the delegate and is then carried out by one of the action committees. Also, each of the groups is responsible to furnish their quota of members to assist the action committee.

(C) CONGRESS OF RACIAL EQUALITY (CORE)

BACKGROUND

"Valley News and Valley Greensheet," Van Nuys, California, a newspaper published four times weekly, Issue of July 4, 1963

Article announced a meeting to be sponsored by CORE on July 5, 1963, and quoted Doctor IRVING TAYLOR, President of the Los Angeles Chapter of CORE as follows:

"CORE represents one of many action groups attempting to make the constitutional map correspond to national behavior. It has a major goal-the breaking down of artificial barriers between racial groups-the arbitrary either/or concept of race."

CORE was founded in Chicago in 1942 and has sixteen chapters in California. The Los Angeles Chapter has existed since 1945.

At a meeting of the Negro Commission, SCDCP, on June 18, 1963, discussion concerned the progress of Negro groups. A desire was expressed that the CORE delegation make an effort for their group becoming more inclusive. Also discussed was the desirability of CORE sponsoring a school picket if there was no change in the defacto segregation picture. The Commission was generally unhappy over the fact that CP people had almost no role in the situation.

LA T-5 (6/26/63)

At a meeting of the Trade Union Committee, Southern Coordinating Council, SCDCP, on June 24, 1963, the [redacted] discussed the struggle for Negro rights. [redacted] urged that the Southern Coordinating Council support CORE picket lines in the housing integration fight in Torrance, California. b6 b7C

LA T-14 (7/2/63)

During a meeting of the Parsons Club, 24th CD Section, SCDCP, on June 26, 1963, the chairman gave a report on the results of a recent meeting of the 24th CD Section concerning CORE. It was concluded at this meeting that there was danger of a split in the Negro movement which could be brought on by a number of things. The decision was handed down that CP members in CORE and other organizations are to do everything possible to prevent any split in the Negro movement; that CP members are to use their influence through contacts in the Negro community to assist in any way they can.

LA T-15 (7/19/63)

At a meeting of the District Board, SCDCP, held June 6, 1963, discussion concerned the meeting which had been held by Negro officials and Los Angeles City officials. DOROTHY HEALEY stated that one of the main topics for the CP at this time is the support of the picket lines around the Beverly Hilton Hotel and the Palladium. She said that CORE is the most advanced group fighting the question of civil rights in the Los Angeles area.

On October 2, 1964, source advised that CORE tolerates CP members on their picket lines and other affairs where weight of numbers is important for effectiveness; however, the CORE leadership in Los Angeles continues to oppose CP tactics, refuses to allow distribution of other than CORE literature at their demonstrations and generally resists CP attempts to influence the organization. 4

During the course of a meeting of the District Board, SCDCP, on October 1, 1964, [redacted] invited guest, remarked that in his opinion the CORE organization in the Los Angeles area is falling apart; that the activities particularly attractive to members of CORE have been very slack in recent months largely because of the agreement of the national leadership to refrain from active demonstrations during the election campaign. (2) take a non-violence oath. (U)

The January 24, 1964 issue of "The Militant" (See Appendix) carries an article captioned, "Los Angeles Rights Group Opens Fight" by LESLIE EVANS (Supra). The article reflects, in part, "Los Angeles, Jan. 4--. This city, frequently touted as 'the most integrated in America,' has had its boast called into question by a civil rights battle between the Non-Violent Action Committee (N-VAC) and the Wich Stands, a chain of drive-in restaurants."

LOS ANGELES FRIENDS OF STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE (LA-SNCC)

Meeting to Organize SNCC

LA T-18 (1/13/64)

On January 4, 1964, a meeting was held to organize LA-SNCC at 151 Hart Street, Venice, California. This meeting was sponsored by [redacted] At this meeting it was predicted that more than 2,000 northern students would travel to the southern part of the United States during the summer of 1964.

Purpose of LA-SNCC

Source furnished information which disclosed the following:

The objectives of LA-SNCC are three-fold, namely Education, Mobilization and Fund Raising. In the past activities of LA-SNCC have been concentrated in a central office, however Southern California is a well spread out area which calls for a broader base of operations. Due to the events which transpired in Mississippi and the role SNCC played in the formation of the Council of Federated Organizations this past summer the functions of SNCC have greatly increased and its successes have been hampered by the lack of mobility.

This calls for the need for decentralized offices. Therefore LA-SNCC will become known in the future as Southern California Friends of SNCC, working out of already established offices. Each of these local groups have officers which would conduct their own programs of education and fund raising in their respective areas and coordinate their activities for larger functions. These local groups would be responsible to the Southern California Office concerning national policy of SNCC. The Friends of SNCC Program is geared toward students and adults who are interested in the national policies of SNCC, its program and its work throughout the South. 4

SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA DISTRICT, COMMUNIST PARTY (SCDCP) 4

Program to Infiltrate LA-SNCC and Influence its Policies

LA T-6 (5/29/63)

On May 25, 1963, a meeting of the District Board, SCDCP, was held at 1733 84th Street, Los Angeles, California. At this meeting DOROTHY HEALEY, Chairman, SCDCP, stated that she feels that some of the young people in the CP in the Los Angeles area must go to the southern part of the United States during the summer of 1963 and work with SNCC. (U)

LA T-6 (6/21/63)

On June 20, 1963, a meeting of the SCDCP was held at 5731 South St. Andrews Place, Los Angeles, California. At this meeting CARL BLOICE, of the Youth Commission, CP of Northern California, and who has been writing for the "People's World" and had just returned to California from a trip to the South, was present as a guest and made the main report which dealt with a political estimate of the developments in the South. BLOICE stated he visited Atlanta, Georgia, while traveling through the South and spent a great deal of time with SNCC. BLOICE displayed a map he obtained at the SNCC Headquarters in Atlanta, showing the counties of heavy concentration of Negroes. BLOICE indicated that among SNCC's leadership, most of the Marxist classics are very familiar and they are deeply concerned with the need of solving all of the economic, as well as political problems of the South. (U)

LA T-6 (6/26/63)

On June 22, 1963, a meeting of the District Committee, SCDCP, was held at the Hungarian-American Cultural Center, Los Angeles, California. At this meeting DOROTHY HEALEY advised that BEN DAVIS was very impressed with the dedication of the people within SNCC and commented that we (meaning the communists) need this spirit among our own workers and especially among our own young people today. (U)

LA T-46 (7/19/63)

On July 16, 1963, a meeting of the Scientists and Engineers Club, SCDCP, was held at 8333 West Fourth Street, Los Angeles, California. At this meeting SAM KUSHNER stated that SNCC may have individual communists among its rank and file members, but leadership positions in this organization are not held by communists. The main leadership is coming from southern ministers. (U)

LA T-6 (9/30/63)

On September 26, 1963, a District Board meeting of SCDCP was held at 1142½ Serrano, Los Angeles, California. During the course of the discussion at this meeting it became apparent that the Youth Committee is considering encouraging certain individuals to go South to work for the SNCC organization if possible. The attitude of the Party, (U) is that it does not encourage such migration, especially not on the part of white youths who could do very little, it is also not opposed to the migration, particularly from individuals who can help the SNCC organization in public relations work where they feel a need for assistance.

DOROTHY HEALEY stated that assistance should not be given in the spirit of adventure but rather in the terms of individuals who want to accept specific assignments.

LA T-1 (12/16/63)

On December 9, 1963, a youth club of the Moranda Smith Section (MSS), SCDCP, was held at 2128 Third Avenue, Los Angeles, California. At this meeting it was mentioned that SNCC had been organized specifically with the intention of working within the communities, but since the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) is now moving toward the community, this group was being faced with the decision as to dissolvement or affiliate with CORE. (U)

LA T-10 (2/14/64)

On February 10, 1964, a meeting of the MSS, SCDCP, was held at 150 West 65th Street, Los Angeles, California. At this meeting a report was given on the activity of SNCC in the southern part of the United States by [redacted] According to [redacted] SNCC must be accredited for its work, as it follows the Marxist-Leninist Ideology. b6 b7C

LA T-6 (2/14/64)

On February 13, 1964, a District Board meeting of SCDCP was held at the residence of DOROTHY HEALEY, 1733 84th Street, Los Angeles, California. At this meeting CARL BLOICE stated that the CP is disillusioned with SNCC because of the fact that SNCC was developing small business plans and trying to endorse the concept of capitalism in the South. A small progressive labor group is now operating SNCC in Atlanta, Georgia, headquarters of this organization. BLOICE has been in close contact with the Atlanta Office of SNCC.

LA T-47 (3/17/64) (U)

On March 11, 1964, a meeting of the Joe Hill Club, SCDCP, was held at 967 East Edgeware Road, Los Angeles, California. At this meeting a petition was passed around, which was addressed to the President of the United States, which allegedly advised of the participants in the picketing in Albany, Georgia, by SNCC. All or nearly all present signed this petition.

LA T-15 (7/28/64) (U)

On July 8, 1964, a combined meeting of the Executive Board and Section Organizers, SCDCP, was held at Hungarian Hall, 1251 South St. Andrews Place, Los Angeles, California. At this meeting it was announced that there would be a meeting of LA-SNCC on July 12, 1964, at 3 p.m. at the Hope United Church, 92nd and Anzac, Los Angeles, California. (U)

LA T-48 (8/20/64) (U)

On August 18, 1964, a regular meeting of the Watts Club, MSS, SCDCP, was held at 11109 Wouth Wilmington Avenue, Los Angeles, California. At this meeting [redacted] mentioned that he had [redacted] b6 b7C

LA T-3 (9/18/64) (U)

In September, 1964, SAMUEL KUSHNER, Los Angeles editor of the "People's World" was in contact with LA-SNCC. KUSHNER allegedly claimed that he knew of an individual that desired to donate clothing and canned foods for the people in Mississippi and this offer was being made to LA-SNCC. (U)

"People's World" is a weekly west coast communist newspaper. U

LA T-6 (10/19/64) (U)

In the Los Angeles, California, area there are not more than twenty individuals who participate in functions of LA-SNCC. This is not a membership organization. LA-SNCC is trying to secure field workers to assist them in their various programs and functions. Two CP members have indicated an interest in LA-SNCC. (U)

LOREN MILLER

LA T-4 (9/8/55)

LOREN MILLER, Attorney, was a local sponsor of the American Committee for Spanish Freedom (ACFSF) in 1948.

LA 100-66073
DJK/slp

The ACFSF has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

"California Eagle"
Issue of 5/24/51

This first issue of the "California Eagle" newspaper printed after LOREN MILLER became the publisher thereof, contained an editorial captioned "Here's Where We Stand." This editorial stated that LOREN MILLER had assumed the position of publisher, and that the change of ownership would result in a repudiation of its stand on many issues. Included in the editorial was the following: "We shall oppose Communism, and oppose it vigorously and with every means in our power, because its triumph would mean the destruction of the democratic system to which we are committed. That means that we shall oppose Communists and their stooges, Negro and white, in their attempts to win converts to cause, or win political office, or assume leadership in civil and community organizations." (4)

LOREN MILLER was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI at Los Angeles, California on February 20, 1952. He stated that he had long been active in the fight against racial discrimination and had attended meetings in the civil rights field at which communists were present in the early 1930's. He said that during this period he had been affiliated with the International Labor Defense; that he had gone to Russia in the early 1930's with a group of Negroes to make a film, but that the idea was eventually rejected by the Russian Government. He said that the motive of those who went was simply the making of a film and that their interests were not political. After returning from Russia, he worked in New York for a while and then returned to Los Angeles to practice law, at which time he became active in the National Negro Congress and was Executive Secretary of that organization in Los Angeles in about 1938. He said that during this period he was undoubtedly a member of other organizations sponsored by the communists.

OTHER Per Sealed Court Order

The International Labor Defense and the National Negro Congress have been cited by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

MILLER said he had never been a member of the CP, primarily because he did not want to submit to their complete discipline. He said efforts had been made to recruit him into the CP, but he had resisted such efforts.

MILLER described himself at the time of this interview as being anti-communist. He said that he had a great interest in seeing the Negroes achieve complete equality and integration with all other American citizens. (U)

"Los Angeles Tribune"
a former weekly Los Angeles,
California, newspaper
which is now defunct;
Issue of 11/21/58

This issue set forth a statement to the effect that LOREN MILLER was one of the supporters of a petition campaign to rescind the mandate of the House Un-American Activities Committee.

CENTINELA-BAY HUMAN RELATIONS COMMITTEE

A source advised on January 3, 1961, that the Centinela-Bay Human Relations Committee (CBHRC) was organized in August, 1960, by OLA PACIFICO and JACK ROSE, both Communist Party (CP) members of the Centinela Club, Southern California District, CP, (SCDCP) as a result of a minority race moving into an all white neighborhood in Lennox, California. OLA PACIFICO was the first organizational secretary of the CBHRC. Included as officers and sponsors of the CBHRC are CP and non-CP members, and its "Statement of Principles" welcomes the support of all residents of the local communities to assist in preventing violence and promoting a peaceful, democratic way of life for all.

This same source advised on May 12, 1964, that OLA PACIFICO was Chairman and the motivating force of the CBHRC. As of May 12, 1964, OLA PACIFICO and JACK ROSE were members of the Centinela Club, Southern Coordinating Council, SCDCP. As of May 12, 1964, the CBHRC was in existence.

CENTRAL LOS ANGELES DU BOIS CLUB, formerly known as the Youth Action Union and Los Angeles Youth for Peace and Socialism

A source advised on May 12, 1964, that during the period January through March, 1962, a series of formation meetings to establish a "Socialist Youth Organization," was held in the Los Angeles area. [redacted] was acting chairman in charge of the group and [redacted] and [redacted] were named to a provisional committee to help [redacted] the new group. On April 3, 1962, the group officially selected the name of Los Angeles Youth for Peace and Socialism, (LAYPS), and elected officers. b6 b7C

This source further advised that [redacted] as of [redacted] were all members of the Southern California District Communist Party, (SCDCP).

A second source advised on May 12, 1964, that the LAYPS was organized with the full knowledge and assistance of DOROTHY HEALEY, chairman of the SCDCP and that several Communist Party (CP) members had been approved by HEALEY to teach Marxist theory to members of the LAYPS. This source further advised that the LAYPS was to be a Marxist study and action group and that the teachings of KARL MARX were to be followed. Source also advised that although the alleged purpose of the group was to promote "Socialism" in the United States, the group considered themselves to be "Communist Party Orientated" and were anxious to study the brand of Marxism associated with the CPUSA.

The first source above further advised that in June, 1963, LAYPS changed the name of the organization to Youth Action Union (YAU) for two reasons: The first being that it was felt the LAYPS had gained a bad reputation because of its association with CP groups, the second because it was felt the word "Socialism" in the title was driving away possible recruits.

The first elected chairman of the LAYPS and YAU who continued in this position until early 1964, was MARVIN TREIGER, who as of April, 1964, was chairman of the Youth Commission, SCDCP.

CITIZENS COMMITTEE TO PRESERVE AMERICAN FREEDOMS

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations", revised, December 1, 1961, pp. 43-44, describes this committee as follows:

"The Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms * * * specializes in propaganda aimed at abolishing the Committee on Un-American Activities and discrediting the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Created in Los Angeles in 1952, the front organization is run by FRANK WILKINSON, an identified Communist who recently resumed the full-time, paid post of executive secretary after approximately a year's leave of absence to assist in a similar campaign by another front in New York City, the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee.

"When the Committee on Un-American Activities held hearings in Los Angeles, September 2-5, 1958, to inquire into the nature of the Party's recent reorganization in California, the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms sponsored a series of public meetings to protest the hearings and the very existence of the Committee. Communists subpoenaed as witnesses were guests of honor.

"At this time, leaders of the party's Southern California District, were mobilizing Communists in the area for participation in an intensified campaign to abolish this committee of Congress. How the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms served the party in this effort was revealed by (Communist Party) District Chairman DOROTHY HEALEY in a report to the party's Southern California District Council on September 21, 1958. Mrs. HEALEY declared that the party preferred public protest meetings to be held by the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms rather than under party auspices because Communists could attend without danger of being exposed as members of the party. She also noted that Communists scheduled as congressional committee witnesses could not appear beforehand at openly Communist rallies without creating the impression that the party was conspiring with witnesses to withhold information from the committee."

COMMITTEE TO AID THE MONROE DEFENDANTS

A source advised on May 10, 1962, that the Committee to Aid the Monroe Defendants (CAMD) was formed during September, 1961, by the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in New York City. The SWP originally proposed the formation of this committee during discussions with various left-wing and liberal tendencies and offered a sum of money to initiate activities.

Source advised that the SWP, however, was unsuccessful in forming a committee of various tendencies and proceeded to organize the CAMD and promote its activities under the domination and control of the SWP.

Source advised that the aims of the CAMD are to afford financial support and counsel for ROBERT F. WILLIAMS and four other defendants who were involved in a racial incident on August 27, 1961, at Monroe, North Carolina. The SWP hopes to dramatize this incident nationally and internationally through the CAMD and thus attract individuals to the SWP aims and principles by playing a leading role in the integration struggle.

According to the source, the organization and impetus of CAMD activities throughout the various parts of the United States such as obtaining sponsors and the raising of funds, are the results of the efforts of various SWP branches.

The above source advised on September 6, 1962, that the headquarters of the CAMD is located at 168 West 23rd Street, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

COMMITTEE TO SECURE JUSTICE FOR MORTON SOBELL

A source advised on May 12, 1964, that the Los Angeles Sobell Committee is the Los Angeles, California affiliate of captioned organization.

Following the execution of atomic spies ETHEL and JULIUS ROSENBERG in June, 1953, the "Communist campaign assumed a different emphasis. Its major effort centered upon MORTON SOBELL," the ROSENBERGs' codefendant. The National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg case - a Communist front which had been conducting the campaign in the United States - was reconstituted as the National Rosenberg-Sobell Committee at a conference in Chicago in October, 1953 and "then as the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell in the Rosenberg Case."

In September, 1954, the name "National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell" appeared on literature issued by the Committee. In March, 1955, the current name, "Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell," first appeared on literature issued by the Committee.

The Address Telephone Directory for the Borough of Manhattan, New York City, as published by the New York Telephone Company on April 16, 1963, lists the "Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell" as being located at 940 Broadway, New York, New York.

CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTIES INFORMATION CENTER (CLIC)

A source advised on April 25, 1962, that Constitutional Liberties Information Center (CLIC) was formed in July, 1961, in Los Angeles, California, as a Communist Party (CP) defense committee to combat the U.S. Supreme Court decisions of June 5, 1961, upholding the Internal Security Act of 1950 and the membership provisions of the Smith Act. Formation of a committee was announced at a CP meeting of the District Committee, Southern California District CP (SCDCP) on July 8, 1961, by DOROTHY HEALEY, Chairman, SCDCP. Officers of CLIC include REUBEN W. BOROUGH, Chairman, and HUGH DE LACY, Vice Chairman.

Another source advised on August 8, 1961, that REUBEN W. BOROUGH and HUGH DE LACY were then current members of the Professional-Cultural Section, SCDCP.

A third source advised on March 23, 1964, that CLIC is a non-membership organization which continues to function as an information distributing center opposing the application of the 1950 Internal Security (McCarran) Act. It issues a newsletter on an irregular basis. It is under the complete control of the SCDCP.

DISCUSSION UNLIMITED

Records of the Division of Corporations, California State Department of Investments, Los Angeles, California, indicate that Discussion Unlimited filed its Articles of Incorporation as a nonprofit corporation, with the Secretary of State, Sacramento, California, on or about June 4, 1963, noting its principal site of office as Los Angeles County, California. The aims and purposes of the organization, as listed in the Articles of Incorporation, are "... to promote full and open discussion on our society and problems."

A source advised on May 8, 1963, that Discussion Unlimited actually was originated in Los Angeles, California, in May, 1962, and was composed largely of a number of present and former Communist Party members who assist in staging panel forums and in promoting such events. Original [redacted] of the group was [redacted] who in [redacted] was [redacted] of the Southern California District Communist Party. b6 b7C

This source was recontacted on May 15, 1964, and indicated that the basic concept of Discussion Unlimited has not changed. It continues to present "left ideas" to at least partially non-committed audiences. It proposes to develop special activities around various issues on an irregular basis. It is not a membership organization, and does not hold regular meetings as such, but rather is strictly a forum type organization.

ECHO PARK-SILVERLAKE FREE PRESS COMMITTEE

A source advised on May 19, 1964, that the Echo Park-Silverlake Free Press Committee was organized in Los Angeles in February, 1962, by the Press Directors of seven Communist Party (CP) clubs which formerly composed the 24th C. D. Section, Southern California District, Communist Party (SCDCP). It was organized as a front type organization for the purpose of raising funds to maintain the "People's World" and to hold forums through which contact could be maintained with former CP members, potential CP members, and loyal CP sympathizers. It is controlled by the CP through the assignment of current CP members to serve as officers of the organization.

The "People's World" is a west coast weekly communist newspaper.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE,
LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA

A source advised on June 20, 1963, that the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) was formed in New York City in Spring, 1960, under the sponsorship of certain well known pro-communists and "liberals" for the announced purpose of defending the "truth" about Cuba against alleged distortion by Cuba's enemies. A Greater Los Angeles Chapter of the FPCC (LA-FPCC) was formed in Los Angeles, California, in December, 1960 under the stimulus of the Los Angeles local of the Socialist Workers Party (LAL-SWP). The LAL-SWP was able to dominate and control the activities of the Los Angeles chapter without difficulty until 1962, at which time the Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP) succeeded in gaining a foothold in the LA-FPCC executive committee, thereafter gradually reducing the control of the LAL-SWP.

The same source advised on May 13, 1964, that the LA-FPCC ceased outward activity in December, 1963, following unfavorable publicity resulting from the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. b6 b7C

A second source advised on April 28, 1964, that the LA-FPCC went out of existence without any notice, and that although at meetings of the [redacted] LAL-SWP, [redacted] made no mention of it, [redacted] of the LAL-SWP, mentioned in [redacted] that the LA-FPCC was "no more".

Both the Communist Party (CP) and the SWP have been cited by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

INDEPENDENT PROGRESSIVE PARTY (IPP)

An informant advised on December 11, 1956, that the IPP was formed in California in 1948 and went out of existence following the 1954 election when it failed to poll sufficient votes to retain its place on the ballot.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations," revised, December 1, 1961, p. 85, describes the IPP as follows:

Characterized as "the California section of the national Progressive Party." "The Progressive Party, including its California branch, certainly ranks as one of the largest and most successful fronts ever created by the Communists."

INDEPENDENT STUDENT UNION

On May 17, 1962, a source advised that the Independent Student Union (ISU) was formed by a group of Los Angeles City College students in March, 1960.

The preamble to the ISU constitution states in part:

> "We, the members of the ISU, are dedicated to giving our energies to building a world of peace, wherein the peoples of all lands will not have to live in constant fear of nuclear, biological and chemical warfare.
> "We pledge our efforts to ending of all social inequality based upon race, creed or national origin and to further the eradication of discrimination in all walks of American life.
> "We affirm the right and value of both students and instructors to take an active role in the political life of the nation, and believe that no restriction should be placed upon the free expression of ideas and opinions within and outside the classroom."

The source stated that the ISU was originally controlled by three co-chairmen, one of whom was FRANKLIN ALEXANDER, a member of the Southern California District Communist Party (CP). In September, 1960, ALEXANDER was elected to be president of the ISU and served until April, 1961. In September, 1961, he was again elected president of ISU and served until May, 1962, at which time the ISU was dissolved because it had outlived its purpose and usefulness and absorbed into a new Communist Party youth front group known as the Youth for Peace and Socialism.

The source stated the ISU during its existence claimed to have a membership of 200; however, average attendance at meetings did not exceed 30-40 at the most. The ISU did have members on most of the major college campuses in the Los Angeles area; however, membership in the ISU did not necessarily indicate sympathy toward the CP.

JEWISH FRATERNAL CO-ORDINATING COMMITTEE
formerly known as Jewish Information
Service (Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs; Fraternal Medical Plan
of the California Fraternal Service Association)

A source advised the following on May 12, 1964:

The Jewish Information Service was formed about January, 1954, in Los Angeles for the purpose of continuing the activity of the defunct International Workers Order. Prior to March 4, 1956, the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs were identified as the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural Clubs, this group being formerly known as Lodges of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order. The Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs are currently active in the Los Angeles area.

The Fraternal Medical Plan of the California Fraternal Service Association was formed about January, 1954, for the purpose of continuing the activity of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order Medical Plan. Since that date the functioning of the Fraternal Order Medical Plan of the California Fraternal Service Association has been integrated into the operation of the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs, inasmuch as the service provided by the Fraternal Medical Plan of the California Fraternal Service Association is made available most exclusively to members of the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs; further, effort is made to have members of the Los Angeles Jewish Cultural and Fraternal Clubs also become members of the Fraternal Medical Plan of the California Fraternal Service Association.

The Fraternal Medical Plan of the California Fraternal Service Association is currently active in the Los Angeles area.

On February 3, 1963, it was announced at a meeting of the Westside Jewish Cultural Club in Los Angeles, that henceforth, the Jewish Information Service would be

LOS ANGELES COMMITTEE FOR PROTECTION OF FOREIGN BORN

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations", revised, December 1, 1961, pp. 103-104 describes this committee as follows:

"A 'branch' of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born found to be under the 'actual management, direction and supervision' of Communist Party members. The Los Angeles Committee was reorganized in October, 1950 and reported that it 'shall be affiliated to the national organization known as the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born * * *' The American Committee and the 'various area or local committees * * * constitute * * * one organization within the meaning of the * * * statute (Internal Security Act) 'under which the Subversive Activities Control Board found the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born to be a 'Communist front organization' and ordered it to register as such with the Attorney General".

(Subversive Activities Control Board, Docket No. 109-53, Report and Order with respect to the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born, June 27, 1960, pp. 41, 8, 12 and 51.)

"Cited as a 'regional' organization of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born and one of its 'most complex affiliates.' The Committee on Un-American Activities found that in early publications the local affiliates frankly identified themselves as chapters of the American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born; their representation of themselves as independent groups came only after enactment of the Internal Security Act which would have required them, as affiliates, to register as Communist-front organizations."

"Control of the local organizations * * * was made possible primarily by virtue of the fact that the leaders of the local groups were Communist Party members and therefore subject to the discipline of the Party. * * * The local affiliates * * * were actually little more than administrative staffs, whose purpose it was to implement the program of the Communist Party in their respective areas."

LOS ANGELES LOCAL - NEWS AND LETTERS COMMITTEES (LAL-NLC)

On August 1, 1958, a source advised that as a result of the split within the Johnson-Forest Group (JFG), which occurred in 1955, two factions emerged--the Johnson Faction and the Forest Faction. The Johnson Faction is composed of the followers of C. L. R. JAMES, also known as JAMES JOHNSON, and the Forest Faction is composed of the followers of RAE DWYER, also known as FREDDIE FOREST and RAYA DUNAYEVSKAYA. The co-founders of the JFG were C. L. R. JAMES, known as JOHNSON, who was deported from the United States as an undesirable alien in 1953, and RAE DWYER, known as FOREST.

On September 10, 1957, two other confidential sources advised that, as of September, 1957, the Forest Faction of the JFG was known as the News and Letters Committees (NLC) of which RAE DWYER was referred to as National Leader. "News and Letters" is an official publication of the NLC.

On May 26, 1964, the last two sources advised that the LAL-NLC is an affiliate of the NLC whose national headquarters are located at 8751 Grand River, Detroit, Michigan, and that the LAL-NLC has been active since the founding convention held in 1956. The LAL-NLC carries out the policies and instructions issued by the national headquarters of the NLC.

The JFG has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

LOS ANGELES PREPARATORY COMMITTEE FOR THE 7th WORLD YOUTH FESTIVAL, aka., The Los Angeles Festival Committee

On May 3, 1961, a source advised that the Los Angeles Preparatory Committee for the 7th World Youth Festival, also known as the Los Angeles Festival Committee, was created early in 1958 by a group of youth who had attended the 6th World Youth Festival held in Moscow, Russia, in 1957. The Committee was established for the purpose of supporting and urging attendance at the 7th World Youth Festival which was held in Vienna, Austria, in July and August, 1959.

The original officers of the Los Angeles Festival Committee were all members of the Labor Youth League (LYL) and in effect the Committee, since its inception, was dominated by individuals who were members of the LYL. The chairman of the Committee, ROBERT KAUFMAN, was a member of the LYL prior to its dissolution in February, 1957.

Meetings of the Organization, however, were open to all individuals interested in attending the Festival, and attendance at meetings of the Committee does not necessarily indicate a sympathy for the Communist movement. The Committee attempted to gain broad support for the Festival on the various high school and college campuses in the Los Angeles area.

Following the holding of the Festival and the return of the Los Angeles Delegates, the Committee continued in the form of a propaganda bureau providing speakers and films depicting the Festival. It also had as its purpose the publicizing of future youth festivals and to promote the theme "peace and friendship". This activity gradually decreased during the year 1960, and the committee has now ceased to exist.

The LYL has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

MAY DAY COMMITTEE, aka.,
United May Day Committee

A source advised on May 7, 1964, that the May Day Celebration in Los Angeles, in recent years, (excepting 1958) has been covertly organized by the leadership of the Southern California District, Communist Party (SCDCP) using the name May Day Committee, United May Day Committee, "Committee for '75 Years of May Day'", or variations thereof. Source advised that no actual committee is formed for this purpose, but an appropriate name is selected for purposes of advertising and sponsorship of the celebration. The actual arrangements for the celebrations have usually been made by BEN DOBBS, Executive Secretary of the SCDCP, with DOBBS and DOROTHY HEALEY, Chairman, SCDCP, sharing responsibility for chairing the celebration and making the "pitch". Funds raised through the rally are usually used by the SCDCP to offset current deficits. In 1958, the May Day Celebration was openly sponsored by the SCDCP.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO
ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" issued December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activites, U. S. House of Representatives, page 115, contains the following citation regarding the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

"Cited as a 'new organization' set up in the Summer of 1960 to lead and direct the Communist Party's 'Operation Abolition' campaign. Seven of the national leaders of this group have been identified as Communists.

(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1278 on the Truth About the Film 'Operation Abolition,' Part 1, October 3, 1961, p. 5.)"

A source has advised that the NCAUAC changed its name on March 3, 1962, to include the word "House" in its name, thereby becoming known as the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC). A national meeting of this organization was held in Chicago, Illinois, on April 27 and 28, 1963.

PROVISIONAL ORGANIZING COMMITTEE FOR
A MARXIST-LENINIST COMMUNIST PARTY (POC)

The Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications revised and published December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, contains the following on pages 142-143.

1. Found to be "a new Communist splinter group." The Provisional Organizing Committee for a Marxist-Leninist Communist Party "also known as the POC * * * was formed in August 1958 by a number of Communist Party members who were dissatisfied with the trends and policies of the party and, while within it, had referred to themselves as the Marxist-Leninist Caucus."

"The leaders and participants in the Provisional Organizing Committee group had been expelled from the Communist Party on the technical charge of 'disruptive, factional, anti-party activities.'

"The POC group is composed largely of extreme left-wing elements from the Communist Party. Throughout the party's history, there have been contending right and left-wing factions which, in periods of turmoil such as the party has gone through in the recent past, have fought for control. The POC elements lost out in this recent struggle within the U.S. party ***."

"The one fact that is completely clear today is that the POC group is made up of hard-core, dedicated, and extremist Communists, who, despite their present differences with the Communist Party leadership, are intent upon doing all within their power to speed the achievement of the goals of international communism."

(Committee on Un-American Activies, Annual Report for 1959, House Report 1251, February 8, 1960, pp. 69 and 70.)

THE UNITED STATES FESTIVAL COMMITTEE, INC.
(EIGHTH WORLD YOUTH FESTIVAL)

The third 1961 issue of "World Youth," a publication of the World Federation of Democratic Youth (WFDY), reported that the first meeting of the International Preparation Committee (IPC) took place at Helsinki, Finland, on February 20-22, 1961, to prepare for the Eighth World Youth Festival to be held in Helsinki, in 1962. At the meeting, the IPC elected a permanent commission composed of representatives of a number of countries including Canada, the United States as well as representatives of WFDY and the International Union of Students (IUS).

The IUS with headquarters in Prague, Czechoslovakia, and the WFDY with headquarters in Budapest, Hungary, are cited as communist organizations in the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications" dated December 1, 1961, published by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., pages 91 and 177.

A source advised that in April, 1961, DANNY RUBIN, National Youth Director, CPUSA, advised that CP districts should concentrate on getting broad groups to sponsor the United States Festival Committee (USFC).

A pamphlet issued by the USFC describing the program for the Festival and advised that the USFC was organized by students and youth leaders at a founding conference at Chicago, Illinois, October 15, 1961, to publicize and encourage participation in the Helsinki, Festival. The USFC had been recognized by the IPC, the sponsoring body of the Festival, as the United States Committee to administer United States Participation in the Festival.

On February 4, 1963, a second source reported the USFC had changed its address from Room 807, 460 Park Avenue South, New York, New York, on February 2, 1963, to Post Office Box 172, Highbridge Station, Bronx 52, New York.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963 a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including National Functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates to this meeting were cautioned against the germ of anti-soviet and anti-CP ideologies. These delegates were also told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second conference of over 20 persons met in Chicago on December 28-29, 1963 for the purpose of initiating a "call" to the new youth organization and planning for a founding convention to be held in June, 1964.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964 at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are, "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful co-existence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people. As young people in the forces struggling for democracy, we shall actively strive to defeat these reactionary and neo-fascist elements and to achieve complete freedom and democracy for all Americans, thus enabling each individual to freely choose and build the society he would wish to live in. Through these struggles we feel the American people will realize the viability of the socialist alternatives."

The constitution further states that this new organization shall be a membership organization open to individuals or if five or more people so desire a chapter can be formed which shall in turn be guided by the policies and principles of the parent organization.

The second source has also advised that at the founding convention it was voted that the organization should be temporarily headquartered in San Francisco, California, although no specific physical location was decided upon. This same source advised on June 29, 1964 that the temporary headquarters of this organization is 1007 McAllister Street, San Francisco, which is the headquarters of the W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco.

Both sources have advised that at the founding convention two officers were elected:

PHILIP CHAPIN DAVIS, President, and
CARL ELLENGER BLOICE, Publications Chairman,

A third source has advised that on [redacted] b6 b7C attended a CP recruiting class held at 1579 Scenic Avenue, Berkeley, California.

A fourth source has advised that CARL BLOICE, reporter for the "People's World" newspaper, was, on April 3, 1964, elected to the newly organized San Francisco County Committee of the CP.

The "People's World" is a West Coast communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco, California.

LA 100-00078 W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUB OF WEST LOS ANGELES

A second source advised on April 17, 1964, that as of [redacted] was a member of the Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP) and that MARVIN TREIGER was chairman of the Youth Commission, SCDCP.

The first source above stated that the DuBois Club was organized mainly to meet the needs of Marxist-Orientated students at the University of California at Los Angeles, (UCLA), but that the club eventually hopes to spread its influence into other areas in West Los Angeles.

The records of the Office of Dean of Student Activities at UCLA, revealed that the DuBois Club has filed for permission to hold meetings and other special functions on the UCLA campus and that permission has been granted. The chairman of the DuBois Club is listed as RUTH GREENBAUM. In making this application, the club listed a statement of purpose which states in part, "We the members of the W. E. L. DuBois Club of West Los Angeles, join together to help further the development of a socialist system, free from ignorance, poverty, fear and the economic power exercised by the few over the many.

"Although we view socialism as the likely solution to the ills of the present society, we do not make this an a priori commitment for any honest person to join with us in fighting for a better America and a more rational world."

A third source advised on March 12, 1964, that at a Communist Party (CP) meeting held in Los Angeles, February, 1964, BEN DOBBS, Executive Secretary of the SCDCP, spoke on the CP youth movement and stated that the DuBois Club was one of two youth groups operating in the Los Angeles area, both groups were Marxist-Orientated and that members considered themselves Marxist.

WOMEN FOR LEGISLATIVE ACTION

A source advised on May 1, 1963, that the Women for Legislative Action was formed in 1952, claiming to be an independent organization dedicated to non-partisan participation in legislative and civic activities. Its position in favoring or opposing legislation usually parallels the position of the Communist Party and related groups. It also supports legislation to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Membership in the Women for Legislative Action does not, of itself, connote membership in or sympathy with the Communist Party.

Another source advised on May 21, 1964, that the Women for Legislative Action continues to be active in the Los Angeles area.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

On May 6, 1964, a source advised that in January, 1959, an unnamed organization was formed in Los Angeles by youth members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) to support the newspaper "Young Socialist" (YS). This organization was formed as a result of the National Conference of Young Socialist Supporters held in Detroit, Michigan, in December, 1958, where a loose national organization was created around the YS with headquarters in New York City.

The organization remained unnamed, although commonly referred to as the Los Angeles Committee of Young Socialist Supporters (LACYSS) until February, 1960, when they adopted the name Young Socialist Alliance (YSA).

A second National Conference of YS Supporters was held April 15-17, 1960, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, at which the national organization YSA was created. The YSA at Los Angeles is an integral part of the National organization and receives its directives from YSA Headquarters in New York City.

The YSA in Los Angeles is actually the youth organization of the SWP and follows the SWP aims and purposes to the letter.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The October 27, 1964, edition of the "Baltimore Afro-American," a newspaper published twice weekly, reflected that the Reverend Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING will speak in Baltimore at a Saturday afternoon "Get-Out-To-Vote" rally on October 31, 1964. This announcement was made by the Reverend A. J. PAYNE, Chairman of a ministers' committee planning the arrangements and the Reverend SIDNEY DANIELS, Co-Chairman.

News sources in the Baltimore area on October 31, 1964, and November 1, 1964, reflected that Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING arrived at the Baltimore Friendship International Airport on the evening of October 30, 1964. On Saturday, October 31, 1964, Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING travelled in a motorcade from the Lord Baltimore Hotel to Gay and Aisquith Streets in Baltimore. At this point Dr. KING briefly addressed a large crowd from the back of a truck after being introduced by BAYARD RUSTIN. In this address he urged that the crowd vote for a state-wide public accommodations law and he also urged them to maintain the posture of nonviolence in their drive for equal rights.

After speaking to the crowd, Dr. KING then proceeded to the Faith Baptist Church where he had breakfast and spoke to approximately 150 local Negro ministers and leaders.

Following the breakfast, Dr. KING proceeded by motorcade to the Masonic Temple at 1300 North Eutaw Street, Baltimore, Maryland, where he again spoke. Also on the program were the Reverend RALPH ABERNATHY, Treasurer of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Mayor THEODORE MC KELDIN of Baltimore, and the Reverend MARION C. BASCOM of the Douglass Memorial Church in Baltimore.

Following the affair at the Masonic Temple, Dr. KING's motorcade proceeded to the Lafayette Market. After speaking there he was escorted to Friendship Airport.

Throughout Dr. KING's 24-hour stay in the Baltimore area, he was escorted by eight members of the Baltimore Police VIP

BAYARD RUSTIN

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, BAYARD RUSTIN is the subject of a feature article captioned "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights." In it, RUSTIN is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party." Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, RUSTIN gave most of his earnings to the "Party." He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states. (U)

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450. (U)

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, Page 1, Column 2, reported that BAYARD RUSTIN, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP,USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957. (U)

The "Daily Worker" was an east coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958. (U)

Confidential Source One advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date BENJAMIN J. DAVIS remarked that, "RUSTIN calls me constantly -- openly." (U)

Confidential Source Two advised on February 19, and 20, 1964, that BAYARD RUSTIN contacted BENJAMIN J. DAVIS on those dates, and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, DAVIS told RUSTIN that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which RUSTIN was to speak. (U)

Confidential Source Three advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, BENJAMIN J. DAVIS was National (U)

[redacted] was interviewed by SA's [redacted] and [redacted] on August 13, 1963. b6 b7C

The Special Agents who observed FRANK WILKINSON on January 16, 1964, at Cincinnati, Ohio, were SA's [redacted] and THOMAS P. SCOLLARD.

It is noted that Reverend FRED L. SHUTTLESWORTH resides at 965 Dana, Cincinnati, Ohio. He is Pastor of Revelation Baptist Church, 1556 John Street, Cincinnati, Ohio. SHUTTLESWORTH is a national integration leader and is a close associate of Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING and other national civil rights leaders.

SHUTTLESWORTH is the current President of Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF). The New Orleans Office is Office of Origin in connection with investigation of SCEF.

Racial sources in the Cincinnati Division have advised that Reverend SHUTTLESWORTH has no active involvement with civil rights groups in Cincinnati, Ohio. He does not attend meetings of any of the groups. SHUTTLESWORTH travels extensively and usually makes appearances at large civil rights demonstrations. Since SHUTTLESWORTH has not taken an active part in civil rights demonstrations in Cincinnati, Ohio, he has not been included in this report.

In connection with the section of this report dealing with COFO training at Western College for Women, Oxford, Ohio, during June, 1964, and the Mississippi Summer Project, it is noted individuals involved were characterized from Letterhead Memoranda submitted by the various offices. In review of this file for preparation of instant report, it was noted LHM in connection with several individuals involved in this activity contain subversive derogatory information; however, the LHM's are not fully documented and could not be utilized for inclusion in instant report. Individuals and offices involved are as follows:

In connection with the above individuals, Cincinnati will communicate separately with these offices and request complete documentation of pertinent subversive information, and this information will be included in next report in this matter.

It is also noted that by airtel dated October 19, 1964, captioned, "MISSISSIPPI SUMMER PROJECT," Bureau advised numerous offices that a list of names was obtained by the Bureau believed to include names not previously known of individuals who attended the COFO training at Western College for Women, Oxford, Ohio. In this communication Bureau instructed that LHM's be prepared and copies be furnished Bureau and Jackson. Bureau did not instruct copies of LHM's concerning these additional individuals be furnished Cincinnati although this COFO training took place in the Cincinnati Division and letter containing instructions for this report indicated that office covering place where activity occurred should report it. Cincinnati Office will communicate with the Bureau under the Mississippi Summer Project caption and request authority to have offices submit copies of LHM's concerning these additional individuals to the Cincinnati Office.

I - COMMUNIST STRATEGY

No information has been developed in the Cincinnati Division territory concerning Communist strategy in racial matters.

II - COMMUNIST TACTICS

(A) PICKETING, COLUMBUS, OHIO, JULY 11, 1963

On July 11, 1963, CI T-1 advised that approximately twenty-five individuals engaged in a peaceful picketing sponsored by Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) of the mansion of Governor JAMES A. RHODES in Columbus, Ohio, from 9:00 PM, EST, to approximately 10:30 PM on that date. The source said that some persons who were not known to be affiliated with the Columbus Chapter of CORE joined the picket line.

The July 12, 1963, edition of the "Columbus Evening Dispatch," a newspaper in general circulation in the Columbus, Ohio, area, contained an article entitled, "CORE to Keep Pickets at Governor's Home". The article indicated it was expected that fair housing pickets would keep up their demonstrations at the Ohio Governor's mansion indefinitely. The article showed that among those joining the thirty or more marchers at the mansion was OSCAR SMILACK. The article indicated SMILACK was questioned by the newspaper, and he acknowledged he had been among the pickets and that he was a member of the Columbus CORE Chapter.

OSCAR SMILACK

CI T-2 advised in September, 1950, that OSCAR SMILACK was a member of the North End Club of the Franklin County Section of the Communist Party, USA (CP) in Ohio in 1950.

CI T-3 advised on various dates in 1950 and 1951 that OSCAR SMILACK attended CP meetings in the

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

(U) b6 b7C

Columbus, Ohio, area during the period of 1950 to 1951. (X) (U)

OSCAR SMILACK paid a fine of $300.00 and costs in Franklin County, Ohio, Common Pleas Court in May, 1954, for contempt for refusal to answer questions of the Ohio Un-American Activities Commission in May, 1953.

(B) MEMORIAL SERVICE, MARTINS FERRY, OHIO, SEPTEMBER 22, 1963

On September 22, 1963, CI T-4 advised (X) (U) that on this date a memorial service described as a eulogy was held at the Second Methodist Church, Hanover Street, Martins Ferry, Ohio, for the six Negro children killed recently in racial strife at Birmingham, Alabama. The eulogy was conducted from 2:00 PM until 3:30 PM, with ministers from the surrounding area participating in the service. Approximately fifty persons were present for the eulogy. CI T-4 advised (U) (X) (U) for this affair through a committee known as the March on Washington Committee, Martins Ferry, Ohio did not attend the eulogy.

CI T-5 advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date of the CP and resides at (U)

(C) MARCH IN CINCINNATI, OHIO, OCTOBER 29, 1963

On October 24, 1963, CI T-6 advised that on October 19, 1963, ANTHONY KRCHMAREK, Cleveland, Ohio, received information concerning the "March in Cincinnati for Jobs and Freedom" scheduled for October 29, 1963, sponsored by CORE, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP), and (X) (U) other religious, social, and labor organizations. KRCHMAREK remarked that this is a very important event and instructed that immediately following the March, news stories appearing in Cincinnati newspapers concerning the march should be mailed directly to JAMES E. JACKSON, 23 West 26th Street, New York, New York. (U)

ANTHONY KRCHMAREK

CI T-7 advised on March 15, 1963, that on March 14, 1963, ANTHONY KRCHMAREK was identified by his wife as being Chairman of the CP in Ohio. (U)

CI T-8 advised on April 9, 1964, that KRCHMAREK is currently a member of the newly formed National Board of the CP, USA, from the Ohio District CP. (U)

CI T-9 advised on October 14, 1964, that JAMES JACKSON is a member of the National Committee of the Communist Party, USA.

The masthead of "The Worker," October 20, 1964, lists JAMES E. JACKSON as Editor and shows it is published at 23 West 26th Street, New York 10, New York.

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

(D) PICKETING, COLUMBUS, OHIO, DECEMBER 7, 1963

On December 7, 1963, Officer [redacted] Columbus Police Department, Columbus, Ohio, advised that thirty individuals representing the Monroe Defense Committee and the Columbus Chapter of CORE picketed the mansion of Governor JAMES A. RHODES, Columbus, Ohio, from 12:15 PM to 3:25 PM on that date. [redacted] said the picketing was orderly and no incidents resulted. Officer [redacted] stated that [redacted] was observed as a participant in this picketing, and [redacted] was also observed talking to many of the pickets individually.

The December 8, 1963, edition of the "Columbus Sunday Dispatch," a newspaper in general circulation in the Columbus, Ohio, area, carried an article entitled, "Mallory Extradition Opponents Picket Governor's Mansion". The article showed that demonstrators opposing the extradition of Mrs. WILLIE MAE MALLORY of Cleveland to face kidnaping charges in North Carolina had picketed the mansion of Governor RHODES on Saturday, December 7, 1963. The article said that some thirty marchers, chiefly from Cleveland, Youngstown, and Columbus, Ohio, had taken part in the demonstration and that OSCAR SMILACK was one of the demonstrators. The article noted the Ohio Supreme Court had refused to intervene in Mrs. MALLORY's case and Governor RHODES had said the extradition order would stand.

(F) DEMONSTRATION AT YELLOW SPRINGS, OHIO, MARCH 14, 1964

On March 14, 1964, Chief of Police JAMES A. McKEE, Yellow Springs Police Department, Yellow Springs, Ohio, advised that [redacted] a barbershop located on Xenia Avenue, which is U.S. Highway 63, the main thoroughfare in Yellow Springs, Greene County, Ohio. [redacted] was ordered by the Ohio Civil Rights Commission to cease refusing to serve Negroes. Judge WARREN YOUNG of Lebanon, Ohio, sitting in Greene County Common Pleas Court, ruled it is unconstitutional to apply Ohio's Anti-Discrimination Law to a barbershop operation.

The Ohio Second District Court of Appeals reversed Judge YOUNG's ruling, and the matter was before the Ohio Supreme Court. On March 13, 1964, Judge HERMAN WEBER, Greene County Court of Common Pleas, issued an injunction restricting the number of demonstrators in front of [redacted] barbershop to three individuals.

On March 14, 1964, Chief McKEE observed at about 8:00 AM there were three pickets in front of [redacted] shop and the picketing appeared to be orderly. At about 2:00 PM that date numerous students were observed approaching the barber-shop from the direction of Antioch College. At this time Chief McKEE and Sheriff [redacted] Greene County Sheriff's Office, approached the group, calling their attention to the injunction order of Judge WEBER. The group thereupon lay down on the sidewalk, and officers from the Sheriff's Office, Yellow Springs Police Department, Xenia Police Department, Montgomery County Sheriff's Office, and other law enforcement officers began placing those on the sidewalk under arrest and transferring them to the Police Department. Groups of individuals continued in numbers to enter the area and began lying down in the street, blocking U.S. Highway 68 by forming a human chain across the highway. Demonstrators interlocked their arms and were about five deep. Chief McKEE ordered the Yellow Springs Fire Department to utilize fire hoses to spray water on the group after pleas by all law enforcement officers in the area failed to get any response. The demonstrators continued to defy the requests of the police, and tear gas was utilized in an attempt to disperse the demonstrators.

(K) TRAINING OF CIVIL RIGHTS WORKERS AT WESTERN COLLEGE FOR WOMEN, OXFORD, OHIO, JUNE 15 - 26, 1964

During the period of June 15 - 26, 1964, CI T-29 furnished information regarding the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO) orientation conferences held at Western College for Women (WCFW), Oxford, Ohio, during June, 1964. Source advised that COFO is composed of members of the various civil rights groups, i.e., CORE, SNCC and others.

Source advised that HERRICK B. YOUNG, President of WCFW, was the welcoming speaker for the COFO conference and announced to the assembled volunteers that the facilities of WCFW were made available for this training program after a request from the Religion and Race Commission of the National Council of Churches.

Source advised the orientation conference or training program was divided into two sessions of five days each, the first session June 15 through 19, 1964, and the second session June 22 through 26, 1964. The first session had approximately 250 young people and the second session had approximately 200 young people in attendance. It was noted that the volunteers were mostly all of college age level and approximately 85 per cent were Caucasian while 15 per cent were Negro. These volunteers were recruited throughout the United States by various civil rights groups.

The purpose of the orientation conference was to train volunteers for field work in the State of Mississippi during the summer of 1964 and this activity would be known as the "Mississippi Summer Project" (MSP). Training consisted of voter education and registration of Negroes, as well as freedom schools.

Numerous speakers identified as civil rights leaders spoke to the students. One speaker, ROBERT MOSES, SNCC, spent considerable time explaining the necessity of having persons from other areas of the United States go to Mississippi for civil rights demonstrations and agitation. Other speakers identified at the conference were ED KING, from the State of Mississippi, and FRANCIS H. MITCHELL, Mississippi Project Communication Director.

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

(U) SECRET

Participants were initially advised that two representatives, BURKE MARSHALL and JOHN DOAR, attorneys from the United States Department of Justice, had been invited to speak at the conference. These two men were described as "good guys who would talk to the volunteers on matters which would help them."

On June 20, 1964, the "Dayton Daily News," a newspaper of general circulation in the Dayton, Ohio, area, published an article relating to the speech by JOHN DOAR, First Assistant to BURKE MARSHALL, Assistant Attorney General for Civil Rights. This article stated, "U. S. Can't Protect You, Students Told."

This article showed in part:

"Doar told the students, the first contingent of 1,000 expected to work on various civil rights and education programs with Mississippi Negroes, that 'I admire what you intend to do. The real heroes in this country today are the students.'

"He said that Mississippi is 'a state that has gotten off the track.'

"'It appears to me,' Doar said, 'that there are a great many people (in Mississippi) who recognize that Mississippi is part of the United States and want to change, but for the most part they have been silent.'

"He said that the extremists are trying to mark the students as people bent on 'creating mass disorder in the streets of Mississippi.'

"He warned the students that, since under the federal system, it is the state of Mississippi's job to keep law and order, that it is 'impossible for Negroes to be protected' by the federal government.

"'I suggest that for now you accept that as a fact,' he quietly told the students who listened with tense expressions on their faces."

On June 25, 1964, CI T-28 advised that a rally sponsored by the Non-Violent Direct Action Committee, Dayton, Ohio, headed by W. S. McINTOSH, was held on that date. During the rally it was announced by McINTOSH that he was considering a boycott of the Coca-Cola Bottling Company at Dayton, Ohio.

According to the source, a few days after the rally the boycott was called off by the group, but McINTOSH disagreed and stated he would continue the boycott himself.

On June 25, 1964, the "Journal Herald," a daily morning newspaper of general circulation in the Dayton, Ohio, area, published an article captioned, "Coca-Cola Firm and NDAC Come to No Agreement." According to the article, representatives of the Non-Violent Direct Action Committee and the Coca-Cola Bottling Company met to discuss the firm's employment practices, and both sides indicated they had come to no agreement during the session and this could signal a resumption of a boycott against the firm. According to the article, W. S. McINTOSH, Executive Secretary of the group, said he would continue the boycott himself. Yesterday, McINTOSH and JESSE GOODING, Chairman of the group, announced postponement of the boycott and refused to comment on the disagreement. The article noted that C. J. McLIN, JR., member of the Non-Violent Direct Action Committee, said the Coca-Cola firm had in the past contributed money to his group. McLIN was quoted as saying the company gave $75.00 to the former Dayton CORE Chapter which lost its national franchise and $50.00 to the Non-Violent Direct Action Committee earlier this year.

CITIZENS COMMITTEE TO PRESERVE AMERICAN FREEDOMS

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations," revised, December 1, 1961, pp. 43-44, describes this committee as follows:

"The Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms  specializes in propaganda aimed at abolishing the Committee on Un-American Activities and discrediting the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Created in Los Angeles in 1952, the front organization is run by FRANK WILKINSON, an identified Communist who recently resumed the full-time, paid post of Executive Secretary after approximately a year's leave of absence to assist in a similar campaign by another front in New York City, the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee.

"When the Committee on Un-American Activities held hearings in Los Angeles, September 2-5, 1958, to inquire into the nature of the Party's recent reorganization in California, the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms sponsored a series of public meetings to protest the hearings and the very existence of the Committee. Communists subpoenaed as witnesses were guests of honor.

"At this time, leaders of the Party's Southern California District, were mobilizing Communists in the area for participation in an intensified campaign to abolish this committee of Congress. How the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms served the party in this effort was revealed by (Communist Party) District Chairman DOROTHY HEALEY in a report to the Party's Southern California District Council on September 21, 1958. Mrs. HEALEY declared that the Party preferred public protest meetings to be held by the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms rather than under Party auspices because Communists could attend without danger of being exposed as members of the Party. She also noted that Communists scheduled as congressional committee witnesses could not appear beforehand at openly Communist rallies without creating the impression that the Party was conspiring with witnesses to withhold information from the committee."

EMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES COMMITTEE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following concerning the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee:

"Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

"1. 'The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI. * * * The committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.'

'FRANK WILKINSON was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956 WILKINSON was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions was, "I am answering no questions of this committee." This also became his stock reply to questions when he appeared during the Atlanta hearings. * * * WILKINSON has since been convicted of contempt of Congress and sentenced to one year in jail.'

'Disputing the non-Communist claim of the organization, the committee finds that a number of other individuals connected with the ECLC also have been identified under oath as Communists.
(Committee on Un-American Activities, Annual Report for 1958, House Report 187, March 9, 1959, pp. 34 and 35.)

'To defend the cases of Communist law-breakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these fronts offer a bulwark of protection.'
(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)"

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening In Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. Charles A. Santos-Buch identified himself and Robert Taber as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and Taber obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. This source added that during the past year there had been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that their influence as of May, 1963, was negligible.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The Spring, 1964, issue of "Freedomways" is self-described as "A Quarterly Review of the Negro Freedom Movement" published by Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, 799 Broadway, New York City.

On May 24, 1961, a source advised that a report was given on "Freedomways" at a meeting of the National Board, Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), held on May 24, 1961. It was stated that the original plan called for the publication to be openly Marxist, but that it was later decided it would not be avowedly a Marxist publication. Editorials are in the hands of a mixed group of Marxists and non-Marxists. It was stated that the central purpose of "Freedomways" is to develop a theory and positive criticism of currents in the Negro movement, as well as to raise the level of understanding and discussion taking place in Negro life today and to project a socialist and pro-Soviet orientation.

On May 25, 1961, another source advised that "Freedomways" was set up for the CPUSA by JAMES JACKSON, a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA. (S)(U)

On January 16, 1957 [redacted] advised that the College records show that the SDC filed a report September 14, 1956, showing its purpose is "to study and disseminate socialist ideas."

On November 5, 1959, [redacted] advised that the SDC had filed with the Community Government of Antioch College a statement of purpose. She stated that the statement describes the SDC as a weekly discussion group in resource material on the socialist movement. SDC claims membership on the Antioch campus consisted of active participation in these discussion meetings and/or a willingness to assist the Club in arranging programs, speakers, etc. The SDC plans weekly discussions for the coming school quarter, including outside speakers who are invited to make appearances before the Club. SDC claims to have no affiliation with any outside group.

Two sources advised on June 5, 1958, and June 9, 1958, respectively, that the SDC is a local active campus organization at Antioch College formed by students for the purpose of discussing socialism. Each stated that in the past, the SDC has had speakers of various political hue, including persons who were or had been associated with the Communist Party, the Socialist Workers Party, and the Independent Socialist League, but that the organization has also had speakers representing more mild forms of socialism and also speakers who were supporters of capitalism and free enterprise. Each source stated further that to his knowledge the SDC is not affiliated with or under the control of any other organization.

On May 22, 1962, [redacted] advised that the SDC continues to be an active group on the Antioch campus.

The Communist Party, USA, and the Socialist Workers Party have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

THE UNITED STATES FESTIVAL COMMITTEE, INC.
(EIGHTH WORLD YOUTH FESTIVAL)

The third 1961 issue of "World Youth," a publication of World Federation of Democratic Youth (WFDY), reported that the first meeting of the International Preparatory Committee (IPC) took place at Helsinki, Finland, on February 20-22, 1961, to prepare for the Eighth World Youth Festival to be held in Helsinki in 1962. At the meeting, the IPC elected a permanent commission composed of representatives of a number of countries including Canada and United States as well as representatives of WFDY and the International Union of Students (IUS).

The IUS, with headquarters in Prague, Czechoslovakia, and the WFDY, with headquarters in Budapest, Hungary, are cited as Communist organizations in the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," dated December 1, 1961, published by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., pages 91 and 177.

A source advised that in April, 1961, DANNY RUBIN, National Youth Director, Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), advised that CP districts should concentrate on getting broad groups to sponsor the United States Festival Committee (USFC).

A pamphlet issued by the USFC described the program for the Festival and advised that the USFC was organized by students and youth leaders at a founding converence at Chicago, Illinois, October 15, 1961, to publicize and encourage participation in the Helsinki Festival. The USFC had been recognized by the IPC, the sponsoring body of the Festival, as the United States Committee to administer United States Participation in the Festival.

On February 4, 1963, a second source reported the USFC had changed its address from Room 807, 460 Park Avenue South, New York, New York, on February 2, 1963, to Post Office Box 172, Highbridge Station, Bronx 52, New York.

W. E. B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates to this meeting were cautioned against the germ of anti-Soviet and anti-CP ideologies. These delegates were also told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second conference of over 20 persons met in Chicago on December 28-29, 1963, for the purpose of initiating a "call" to the new youth organization and planning for a founding convention to be held in June, 1964.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are: "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people. As young people in the forces struggling for democracy, we shall actively strive to defeat these reactionary and neo-fascist elements and to achieve complete freedom and democracy for all Americans, thus enabling each individual to freely choose and build the society he would wish to live in. Through these struggles we feel the American people will realize the viability of the socialist alternatives." (U) SECRET

The constitution further states that this new organization shall be a membership organization open to individuals, or if five or more people so desire a chapter can be formed which shall in turn be guided by the policies and principles of the parent organization.

The second source has also advised that at the founding convention it was voted that the organization should be temporarily headquartered in San Francisco, California, although no specific physical location was decided upon. This same source advised on June 29, 1964, that the temporary headquarters of this organization is 1007 McAllister Street, San Francisco, which is the headquarters of the W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco.

Both sources have advised that at the founding convention two officers were elected:

Philip Chapin Davis - President
Carl Ellenger Bloice - Publications Chairman

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE (Known in the San Francisco Bay Area as the Bay Area Young Socialist Alliance, aka The Bay Area Committee of the Young Socialist Alliance, Bay Area Committee for the Young Socialist)

A source advised on May 16, 1960, that the Bay Area Young Socialist Alliance (BAYSA) was formed in February, 1958, as the Bay Area Committee for the Young Socialist (BACYS). At a later stage in its development prior to adoption of the name BAYSA, the organization was known as the Bay Area Committee of the Young Socialist Alliance (BACYSA).

The source advised that as a result of a national convention held April 15-17, 1960, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, the BAYSA became a branch of a national organization to be known as the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) and will carry out in the Northern California area the policies of the YSA. The BAYSA is divided into two working units, the San Francisco YSA and Berkeley YSA.

The source advised that the BAYSA, although ostensibly an independent organization, is in reality controlled by the San Francisco Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and Oakland Branch SWP.

The source advised on April 17, 1962, that the BAYSA is currently active.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled, "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA), was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of the YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 10, 1962, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City, by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 10, 1962, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise, almost exclusively, the national leadership of the YSA. The YSA, in reality, is the youth section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The "Young Socialist," a monthly publication self-described in the April, 1960, issue as the official organ of the YSA, discloses the headquarters of YSA as 10 East 23rd Street, New York City.

ReNYlet of 9/23/64, regarding information from NY 694-S* pertaining to STANLEY LEVISON and the National Jewish Committee (NJC), and Bulet of 10/7/64, directing that NYO conduct an inquiry to ascertain information as to the NJC and STANLEY LEVISON's involvement therein. (S) (U)

As pointed out in reBulet, the National Jewish Congress is not identifiable in Bu files. A review of New York files drew the same conclusion with regard to the NJC. However, a review of the LEVISON files disclosed that on 1/21/64, NY 1300-S* furnished photographs of material maintained at the office of STANLEY LEVISON, 6 E. 39th St., NYC. Among the information was a photograph of a letter dated 12/11/63, on the stationery of the Interracial Council for Business Opportunity, 15 East 84th St., NYC, addressed to members of the Steering Committee of this Council from the Co-Chairman. The letter enclosed minutes of the Steering Committee Meeting of 10/2/63, as well as an up-dated list of the six Co-Chairmen of the Standing Committees. The minutes of the Steering Committee of 12/3/63, listed among those present STANLEY D. LEVISON. In the minutes of this meeting, under the sub-heading "Report of Finances", STANLEY LEVISON was referred to as the Co-Chairman of the Council's Finance Committee. LEVISON was also listed as a member of the Steering Committee and on the list of Standing Committees he was listed as a member of the Committee on Finances. (S) (U)

NY 1300-S* also made available a photograph reflecting the Statement of Purpose of this Council in which it was stated, "In an attempt to cope with this problem, the Metropolitan Council of the American Jewish Congress and the Urban League of Greater New York have created the Interracial Council forBusiness Opportunity, whose goal is to strengthen and encourage the development of Negro operated and owned business enterprises." The problem referred to in the above quote is the problem of strengthening the Negro community economically. (U)

[redacted] advised that there was no such organization as the National Jewish Committee (NJC) [redacted] advised that there is the American Jewish Congress and the American Jewish Committees, both of which have been in existence for many years. (U)

It is obvious from the information from NY 1300-S* that LEVISON is affiliated with the American Jewish Congress, of 15 E. 84th St., not the National Jewish Committee (NJC) as reported by NY 694-S*. The NY Telephone Company Directory reflects that the American Jewish Congress is located at 15 E. 84th St., NYC. (U)

The files of the NYO reflect that the American Jewish Congress is the subject of a "COMIFL" case, Bu file 100-120277; NY file 100-6769. In a report of SA [redacted] NYO, 1/24/55, it was noted that the (AJC) was reorganized in 1922 to be a "live and vital force ready to deal with the pressing problems confronting Jews throughout the world." (U)

In view of the foregoing, the NYO does not plan to conduct additional investigation to identify the NJC.

CALLED ATTEMPT TO CONFUSE NEGROES

King Opposes Write-In Vote For Him

A drive to promote a write-in campaign for Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. apparently has Louisville ties.

King today denounced the move as a "cruel and vicious attempt to confuse Negro voters." He urged Negroes not to vote for him.

A Chicago advertising executive said radio spots for the movement had been ordered by an organization called the Committee for Negroes in Government of Louisville, Kentucky.

He said information provided by the organization was signed by Thomas H. Frazier, 1905 Cedar, Louisville, as chairman, and Oliver Miles, 1533 W. Walnut, Louisville, as secretary.

King Blames Republicans

According to the City directory, both men are City employees.

City accountant J. P. McTighe said a man with Frazier's name and address is an employee of the City works department. He said a man with Miles' name and address of 1420 W. Walnut is in the City Sanitation Department.

Neither man could be reached by telephone this afternoon.

King said today that handbills and radio spot announcements had been prepared urging his candidacy. He said he believed workers from within the ranks of the Republican Party were responsible. United Press International said King has endorsed President Johnson.

In Chicago, Nathan Jacobs, president of the Illinois branch of Bozell & Jacobs Advertising Agency, said his firm had prepared spot radio announcements but then killed them at the request of the stations.

He said the pro-King spots were part of a three-day series of spots ordered by the Louisville based committee. The spots for the first two days news of the plan when a West Coast radio station telephoned about an advertising agency buying commercial time to urge the write-in vote.

He said the Washington office of his Southern Christian Leadership Conference had informed him that "millions of handbills were being circulated.

Leaflets Also Circulated

King called a news conference to urge the nation's 6.5 million registered Negro voters to vote for one or the other of the candidates on the ballot.

King said the Chicago advertising agency was attempting to place the spot announcements today on stations with large Negro audiences.

The leaflets displayed by King were signed by "Committee for Negroes in Government, Louisville, Ky."

Reproduced on a yellow sheet of paper with a heading, "Western Unity," to symbolize the format of a regular telegram, the leaflets said:

"A write-in vote for Dr. King shows that Negroes are united. If you are not sure how to make the write-in at the polls before you vote. They must show you how."

He said the Southern Christian Leadership Conference is conducting a full investigation and lawyers are being consulted about possible legal action.

criticized the record of President Johnson on civil rights.

The third day was devoted to the King appeals.

Bozell said the first two days' spots ran as planned.

He said they were booked into 10 or 12 Negro radio stations around the country. He estimated the cost at up to $8,000. "You can't influence a hell of a lot of people with seven-eight thousand dollars," he said.

Jacobs said the names and addresses of Frazier and Miles were appended, along with signatures to a certificate in his office. He said the certificate was required to show that the sponsoring group was a bona fide organization.

Many Handbills Reported

King said he was "willing to risk a guess that it was supporters of Senator (Barry) Goldwater who contrived this venomous act."

"I would trust that no responsible officials of the Republican Party would approve such a gesture but this campaign has attracted and encouraged the worst racist elements in this country to flood the party ranks."

King said he first received

Louisville Linked

King Denounces Write-In Drive

A Louisville-linked campaign to get Negroes to write in the name of Dr. Martin Luther King for president was denounced yesterday by the civil-rights leader and the Democratic National Committee.

Handbills and radio spot announcements supporting the nationwide drive listed their origin as the Committee for Negroes in Government of Louisville, Ky.

King, head of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, called the action "a cruel and vicious attempt to confuse Negro voters and nullify their votes."

Speaking at a press conference in Atlanta, he urged "every Negro voter to vote for one of the candidates on the ballot" and termed the write-in effort "an insult to me and to Negroes generally."

Connection Denied

King and the Democratic National Committee ascribed the campaign to supporters of Senator Barry M. Goldwater, Republican presidential nominee. However, Louisville and Jefferson County Republican leaders and national G.O.P. organizations denied any connection with it.

In Chicago, Nathan E. Jacobs, president of Bozell & Jacobs, the advertising firm handling placement of the radio advertisements, said they were ordered by the Louisville-linked committee.

Jacobs said Thomas H. Frazier, 1905 Cedar, was listed as chairman of the organization and Oliver Miles, 1533 W. Walnut, as secretary.

Printed In New Jersey

A man with Frazier's name and address is a laborer in the City Street Repair Department. A man with Miles' name and an address of 1420 W. Walnut is a City incinerator operator. Neither man could be reached for comment.

New Jersey Attorney General Arthur J. Sills said in Trenton last night that 1,400,000 of the write-in handbills were printed at Brooks & Idler, an Atlantic City printing firm.

Write-In Vote Campaign Denounced By Dr. King

He said the order was placed by a man who gave the name of Clay Claiborne who told the printer to bill the Committee for Negroes in Government and gave its address as 1905 Cedar, Louisville.

Paid $2,500 In Bills

Sills said an unidentified man paid the $2,500 bill in cash on delivery of the leaflets. The attorney general said New Jersey election law requires printers of political material to keep available for two years records of the number of copies printed and the names and addresses of those ordering them.

A Clay Claiborne is a special assistant to the chairman of the Republican National Committee. Efforts to reach him in Washington last night were not successful.

Spots Placed

But L. Richard Guylay, national public-relations director for the G.O.P., said the Republican National Committee knew nothing about the Committee for Negroes in Government. A similar statement was made by a spokesman for Citizens for Goldwater and Miller.

Jacobs, the advertising executive, said "only a matter of a couple of thousand dollars" was involved in the radio advertising order.

He said two other radio announcements were placed earlier with "about 10" Negro stations. These didn't mention King, Jacobs said, but did attack the civil-rights record of President Johnson. He said the final ad was canceled at the request of the stations.

Harold Leventhal, counsel for the Democratic National Committee, filed a protest with the Federal Communications Commission about the write-in radio advertising.

He said his protest was based on two points:

That the stations have a duty to make public the real identity of those purchasing political advertising time, and that the ad was a fraud unless it also noted King is opposed to any write-in effort.

Called 'Phony' Group

A Democratic spokesman called the Committee for Negroes in Government "a phony committee" and said the organization had not filed with the clerk of the House of Representatives as a bonafide campaign organization as required by law.

Disclaimers about knowledge of the group came from S. Tilford Payne, chairman of the Louisville and Jefferson County Republican Committee; Lawrence P. Layne, G.O.P. county campaign chairman, and Lewis Tingley Jr., the Mayor's executive assistant.

But King, who has indirectly endorsed President Johnson, said he was willing to guess "it was supporters of Senator Goldwater who contrived this venomous act."

"I would trust that no responsible officials of the Republican Party would approve such a gesture," he said. "for this campaign has encouraged the worst racist elements in this country to flood the party ranks."

Can Invalidate Ballot

In some states, King said, a voter can invalidate his ballot by writing in a name. He said many new Negro voters "may not have acquired political sophistication" and "it is ... all the more damnable that anyone attempt to employ such chicanery to deprive them of a voice in choosing the president."

Circulation of the leaflets in Harlem drew a protest from the United Council for Harlem Organizations, representing 76 civil-rights groups.

"We urge Negroes everywhere to march to the polls tomorrow and freely vote for a candidate who can be elected, rather than throw their vote away on a meaningless protest," the council said.

In letterhead memorandum dated November 3, 1964, information was set forth concerning arrests of [redacted] by the Montgomery, Alabama Police Department on November 2, 1964, during demonstrations at the State Capitol Building. It was set forth in that letterhead memorandum that 9 adult [redacted] had been arrested.

On November 3, 1964, Captain [redacted] Officer in charge of the City Jail, Montgomery, Alabama Police Department, advised that only 8 adult Negroes had been arrested during demonstrations on November 2, 1964, rather than 9, as he had previously reported. The 8 were charged with Parading Without a Permit, and bond was set at $100 each. This bond has not been made by any of the 8, as of November 3, 1964.

Re: Communist Influence
in Racial Matters

On November 2, 1964, Detective [redacted] b6 b7C Special Investigations Bureau, Detroit Police Department, furnished the following information concerning the visit of Martin Luther King, Jr., President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, Atlanta, Georgia, to Detroit on October 30, 1964. Martin Luther King arrived from Chicago, Illinois, via chartered airplane at 11:50 AM at the Detroit City Airport. He traveled in a motorcade comprised of nine cars throughout Detroit and was accompanied by local politicians and clergymen. During the course of his speeches, he advocated non-violence and stated he was not in favor of an all-Negro party. He stated he was opposed to the Freedom Now Party.

"The New York Times", August 24, 1963, page one, carried an article entitled, "An All-Negro Party for 1964 is Formed". The article related that a national all-Negro political party was being organized. It hoped to run its own slate in the congressional and local elections in 1964. A tentative national committee had obtained offices at 81 East 125th Street, New York City.

A leaflet entitled, "A Call for a Freedom Now Party" was publicly circulated in the summer of 1963 and called for the formation of a Freedom Now Party "with an all-Black slate and a platform for liberation".

Martin Luther King, Jr., stated he would not endorse either presidential candidate, however, he was not going to vote for Barry Goldwater for president. He then urged all the people he talked to to vote for the candidate who would serve them best. Martin Luther King, Jr., spoke at the following locations during the above-mentioned visit to Detroit:

On October 28, 1964, Officer [redacted] Human Relations Section, Chicago Police Department, advised the Chicago Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that the so-called "training institute" previously operated by the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) during the summer months of 1964 in Chicago is no longer in operation as such. Officials of the CORE have since consolidated their efforts in this regard and are now operating CORE functions under the single banner of the Chicago Congress of Racial Equality.

Officer [redacted] stated that all of the freedom houses originally established for the purpose of conducting the business of the training institute have been re-located. They are now functioning for Chicago CORE as freedom houses and are located as follows:

A story in the Louisville Times, Louisville, Kentucky, a newspaper of general circulation, on November 3, 1964, reports as follows:

Posters and handbills urging Negroes to vote by write-in for Dr. Martin Luther King, for Presidency of the United States in the current election have been distributed nationally. These posters and handbills carried the name of the "Committee for Negroes in Government", Louisville, Kentucky, as the sponsoring organization.

The Attorney General of the State of New Jersey reportedly announced that 1.4 million of the handbills were ordered by identified as who furnished a copy and told the printer to bill the Committee for Negroes in Government, 1905 Cedar, Louisville, Kentucky." was further identified as reportedly said that although the printer was told to bill the "Committee" in Louisville, Kentucky, an unidentified man came to the printing plant and paid $2,500 cash.

(The Courier-Journal, Louisville, Kentucky, a newspaper of general circulation, on November 3, 1964, in a story regarding these handbills identified the printer as Brooks-Idler, Atlantic City, New Jersey. This article also quoted allegations that the "Committee for Negroes in Government" was a "phony" committee and was not registered with the House of Representatives as a bona fide campaign organization as required by law.)

[redacted] Chicago, Illinois, [redacted] b6 b7C of Bozell and Jacobs, an advertising agency, said that [redacted] was hired to place spot radio announcements by the "Committee" [redacted] identified [redacted] as [redacted] of the "Committee" and [redacted] as [redacted] said that [redacted] paid [redacted] for the spot announcements to be broadcast in eleven cities.

Two of the spot announcements were critical of President Johnson on civil rights and a third was devoted to the write-in campaign for Dr. King. The announcements were halted when Reverend King denounced them.

Thomas H. Frazier, identified as chairman of the "Committee for Negroes in Government" is a Republican co-captain in the 20th Precinct of the 20th Ward and was working at a polling place at 1926 West Jefferson, Louisville, Kentucky, on November 3, 1964. Frazier refused to comment concerning the "Committee" or his connection with it, the story said. A reporter who sought to talk to Frazier was ejected from the polling place.

Miles, about forty years old, was identified in the story as a Republican worker at a polling place at 428 South 16th Street, Louisville (23rd Precinct, 10th Ward). Miles reportedly refused to comment concerning the "Committee". The story noted that a "Vote For King" placard was posted on a utility pole near the polling place where Miles was working.

The story indicated that Frazier and Miles were employees of the City of Louisville in the Works and Sanitation Departments, respectively.

In connection with the story there appeared a photograph of [redacted] identified as [redacted] as he contemplated a poster urging Negroes to vote for Dr. Martin Luther King. [redacted] reportedly had a number of the posters in his car and indicated that [redacted] had given him the posters with instructions to put them up at polling places.

Denunciations of the "write-in" campaign by Dr. Martin Luther King and denials by local and national Republican sources of knowledge of the campaign were reported.

Enclosed herewith for the Bureau, Atlanta and Birmingham are the indicated number of copies of Letterhead Memorandum captioned "RACIAL SITUATION, MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA AND MOBILE, ALABAMA" reflecting information concerning these two localities for November 2 and 3, 1964. Copies of this LHM are being disseminated locally to intelligence agencies. b6 b7C

Lt. [redacted] Montgomery, Alabama Police Department, advised SA [redacted] that state law prohibited the release of the names of juveniles arrested at Montgomery on November 2 and that Family Relations Court Judge WILLIAM THETFORD insisted that the law be carried out and that the names of the juveniles not be released.

Mobile is obtaining the names and descriptions of the nine adults arrested and the Bureau and interested offices will be furnished this information.

The fisur conducted at Montgomery as mentioned

On November 2, 1964, [redacted] advised that he understood that a small number of Negroes would picket the Alabama State Capitol Building on November 3, 1964. He did not rule out the possibility that the picketing would take place November 2, 1964. The picketing is to protest the alleged unfair methods preventing Negroes from registering and voting in Alabama, as well as protesting the inability of Alabama citizens to vote for President Johnson. [redacted] said that the pickets would be prepared to go to jail and to stay there as long as necessary and that they would refuse to make bond. He said the project is sponsored by affiliates of the SCLC [redacted]

Information concerning this proposed picketing was furnished to Assistant Chief of Police [redacted] and to Major [redacted], Department of Public Safety, Montgomery, on November 2, 1964.

At 1:10 PM, November 2, 1964, Assistant Chief [redacted] advised that approximately 50 Negroes were at that time en route to the State Capitol Building carrying signs, the group having left from the MIA Headquarters at 712 Dorsey Street, Montgomery.

Special Agents of the FBI observed Negro groups in front of the State Capitol Building beginning demonstrations at about 1:20 PM and again at 1:30 PM on November 2, 1964. They were carrying signs reading "We are going down to the grave with Wallace" and "We demand the right to vote."

Racial Situation
Montgomery and Mobile, Alabama

Officers of the Montgomery Police Department were on the scene and arrested a number of the Negro demonstrators.

On the afternoon of November 2, 1964, Captain [redacted] Officer in Charge of the Montgomery City Jail, advised that nine adults and 31 juveniles, all Negroes, had been arrested in the demonstrations at the State Capitol Building that afternoon. The juveniles were turned over to the Juvenile Department of the Police Department to be handled as juveniles and the nine adults were placed in jail in default of $100 bond, being charged with parading without a permit. Of these adults, [redacted] listed residence in [redacted] Alabama; [redacted] Alabama; [redacted] Alabama; [redacted], and one furnished no address. b6 b7C

At approximately 3:20 PM, Captain [redacted] Detective Division, Montgomery Police Department, advised that the Montgomery Police Department was leaving the State Capitol Building area at that time as the demonstrations appeared to be over and as the police had received information that no further demonstrations would be held that date, but that the Negro group was to hold a meeting at the Franklin Street Baptist Church that night to discuss further activity. b6 b7C

On the morning of November 3, 1964, Detective Sergeant [redacted] Montgomery Police Department, advised that [redacted] informed him that a [redacted] group at Montgomery had decided not to hold any further demonstrations in Montgomery and none are planned. [redacted] advised that the adults who were arrested on November 2, 1964, are still in custody, not having made bond on the charges of parading without permit. The juveniles who were arrested November 2, 1964, were charged with truancy and most of them have been released to their parents. He advised that the persons arrested on November 2, 1964, ranged in ages from [redacted] to 22. b6 b7C b7D

On November 2, 1964, Captain [redacted] Intelligence Unit, Mobile Police Department, advised that the proposed Negro school boycott in Mobile for November 3, 1964, was not expected to be any real success and that the local newspaper was not planning to give any publicity to the boycott. Captain [redacted] stated that [redacted] had told [redacted] that they were trying to get only the seniors in the Negro high schools to stay away from school on November 3, 1964, [redacted] did not feel that the movement would have any success.

b7D

[redacted] advised on November 2, 1964, that the principal [redacted] leaders in Mobile had conferred on the subject matter of the proposed school boycott and all reflected opposition to [redacted] efforts in this regard. Accordingly, [redacted] did not feel that the boycott movement for November 3, 1964, would have any appreciable success.

b7D

On the morning of November 3, 1964, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the following throw-away had been passed out by Negroes at the different Negro schools in Mobile:

"BLACK TUESDAY!

"November 3, 1964

"ALL STUDENTS ARE ASKED TO REPORT TO
WARREN STREET METHODIST CHURCH ON NORTH
WARREN BETWEEN ADAMS & CONGRESS SOUTH
OF DAVIS AVE. 10:00 A.M. INSTEAD OF REPORTING TO SCHOOL TUESDAY ONLY:
IN PROTEST THAT THE PEOPLE OF ALABAMA ARE NOT ABLE TO VOTE FOR THE CANDIDATE OF THEIR CHOICE."

This source advised that apparently the boycott had been a failure inasmuch as a check which had been made with all the Negro schools in Mobile reflected that the attendance at these schools was normal on November 3, 1964.

On the morning of November 3, Captain [redacted] advised that he had gone to the Warren Street Methodist Church at 10:00 AM and found that only about twelve (12) Negro youths of school age showed up at the church. He advised that attendance at the Negro schools was normal and that the school boycott was thus a complete failure. b6 b7C

Memorandum

TO : Director, FBI (100-442529) DATE: 11/2/64

FROM : SAC, Jackson (100-47)

SUBJECT: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

ReBulet to Albany dated August 28, 1964.

Jackson is in the process of correlating a voluminous amount of material which has been and is still being furnished by other offices concerning backgrounds of persons who traveled to the State of Mississippi in connection with the Mississippi Summer Project. Because of the numerous "specials" being handled by the Jackson Office in the Racial Matters, Civil Rights and Election Law fields, personnel have been of necessity allocated to those investigations, and it has not been possible to assign sufficient personnel to this matter to complete the necessary review in time for submission of a report by November 1, 1964. There is no Communist Party within the State of Mississippi and all persons with Communist Party or splinter group backgrounds presently in the State have come into Mississippi from other areas in connection with the Mississippi Summer Project.

Every effort is being made to complete this project as soon as possible. It is not believed a report should be submitted prior to the completion of this project as it would be meaningless.

UACB a comprehensive report will be submitted by December 10, 1964.

BUDED: 11/30/64

Reurlet 10/30/64 which advised that the files of the Jacksonville Office contain no information indicating any communist influence in racial matters. In view, thereof, your Office submitted relet in lieu of an investigative report.

Your Office is instructed to immediately thoroughly review Bulet 8/28/64 to Albany, copies to all offices, which set out the original instructions relative to the preparation of reports in captioned matter. It is believed that there has been activity in the territory of your Office which lends itself to reporting according to the outline and guidelines submitted with the 8/28/64 letter. Note particularly in the outline the main heading entitled "COMMUNIST TACTICS" where provision is made for reporting information on communist direction and influence of and participation in racial demonstrations, disturbances, and any other similar activities with racial overtones. It will be recalled that during the past summer St. Augustine, Florida, was the scene of considerable racial activity, much of which was directed by Martin Luther King, Jr., and other officials of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference which he heads. Certain of these officials have a communist background. Specific attention is directed to various Atlanta airtels and letterhead memoranda bearing the dual caption of CIRM and Racial Situation, St. Augustine, Florida, RM. See those dated 6/8, 10, 16 and 17/64. The involvement of [redacted] b6 b7C is spelled out. Also Boston airtel and LHM 6/25/64, same dual caption, has information concerning [redacted] Your Office was furnished copies of those communications.

A source advised on April 9, 1963, that on April 7, 1963, at a meeting of the District Committee of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA) of New England, held in Boston, Massachusetts, HERBERT APTHEKER stated he was developing an organization called American Institute For Marxist Studies (AIMS), which would eventually legalize the CP. He stated AIMS would publish literature on History, Science, Physics, Archeology and other subjectswhich would be put out quarterly with various supplements.

A second source advised in December, 1959, that HERBERT APTHEKER was elected to the National Committee, CP, USA, at the 17th National Convention of the CP, USA, held in December, 1959.

A third source advised on June 7, 1963, that on June 3, 1963, HERBERT APTHEKER spoke at the CP, USA, New York District Board meeting concerning AIMS. APTHEKER stated that AIMS would unite and strengthen the CP although the CP would not be connected with it. He stated AIMS was being formed to operate within the scope of the MC CARRAN and SMITH Acts and would legally bring Marxist material and opinions to the attention of American scholars and the general public.

A fourth source advised on May 15, 1964, that, as of that date, AIMS was located on the fifth floor west at 20 East 30th Street, New York City, New York.

FREEDOMWAYS ASSOCIATES, INCORPORATED

The records of the New York Secretary of State, Albany, New York, show that the certificate of incorporation of Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, was filed on March 2, 1961.

The Spring, 1964, issue of "Freedomways" is self-described as "A Quarterly Review of the Negro Freedom Movement" published by Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, 799 Broadway, New York City.

On May 24, 1961, a source advised that a report was given on "Freedomways" at a meeting of the National Board, Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), held on May 24, 1961. It was stated that the original plan called for the publication to be openly Marxist, but that it was later decided it would not be avowedly a Marxist publication. Editorials are in the hands of a mixed group of Marxists and non-Marxists. It was stated that the central purpose of "Freedomways" is to develop a theory and positive criticism of currents in the Negro movement, as well as to raise the level of understanding and discussion taking place in Negro life today and to project a socialist and pro-Soviet orientation.

On May 25, 1961, another source advised that "Freedomways" was set up for the CPUSA by JAMES JACKSON, a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA.

WACHTEL INSTRUCTED RUSTIN TO SPEAK WITH RALPH BUNCHE /OF THE UNITED NATIONS/ AND TELL HIM THAT THE UNITED NATIONS LUNCHEON FOR KING WOULD BE BETTER AFTER KING RETURNS, BUT TO LEAVE THE FINAL DECISION TO THEM. WACHTEL SUGGESTED DECEMBER FOUR, WOULD BE BETTER THAN DECEMBER SEVENTEEN, BECAUSE IT IS JUST AFTER THE OPENING OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND THERE WILL BE MORE PROMINENT PEOPLE THERE. CONTINUING, WACHTEL SAID THE POSSIBILITY EXISTS NKRUMAH AND BREZHNEV WILL BE THERE TO CREATE A "REAL HEAD OF STATE DEAL". WACHTEL ASKED, "CAN YOU IMAGINE BREZHNEV EMBRACING MARTIN LIKE KHRUSHCHEV DID CASTRO". RUSTIN REPLIED IN THE AFFIRMATIVE.

RUSTIN ASKED WACHTEL ABOUT GOING TO OSLO, AND WACHTEL SUGGESTED RUSTIN DO AS HE HAD DONE. WACHTEL STATED HE TOLD KING THAT HE HAS "MY RESIGNATION IN YOUR POCKET" AS FAR AS GOING IS CONCERNED, AND WACHTEL FURTHER STATED HE WOULD NOT FEEL BAD IF KING THOUGHT HIS /WACHTEL-S/ PRESENCE MIGHT CAUSE KING SOME EMBARRASSMENT AND CAUSE KING TO ACCEPT THE RESIGNATION. WACHTEL SAID HE TOLD KING THAT KING AND BUNCHE COULD GO ON ONE PLANE AND THE REST OF THE PARTY WOULD TRAVEL ON A DIFFERENT PLANE. ReNYtel 9/28/64, regarding dynamite in Harlem during riots as reported by BAYARD RUSTIN.

On 11/4/64, Lieutenant [redacted] Bureau of Special Services, NYCPD, advised his department made no further inquiry into statements attributed to RUSTIN concerning dynamite in Harlem during riots. [redacted] stated District Attorney's office made some inquiry concerning RUSTIN's statement, but does not know outcome of this inquiry. [redacted] stated RUSTIN's allegation is "dead issue".

Contact with office of Deputy Commissioner WALTER ARM, NYCPD, indicated on 10/5/64, RUSTIN and his attorney [redacted] were interviewed by NYCPD at offices of Workers Defense League, 112 E. 19th St., NYC. [redacted] would not permit client RUSTIN to answer NYCPD questions. Later on 10/5/64 [redacted] telephoned NYCPD and stated RUSTIN did not know names and addresses of people who had dynamite, but would recognize them if he saw them again.

The first confidential source advised that on August 28, 1964, Clarke stated he had been appointed Director of the Heritage Program of the HARYOU - ACT Project in Harlem about a month previously and was, for the first time in many years, making a decent salary.

The same source also furnished information reflecting that in October , 1964, Clarke, as Associate Editor of "Freedomways", contacted the Chief Editor of Seven Seas Publishers, Glinkastrasse 13-15 Berlin W8, Germany. Clark noted that he was pleased with the development of "Harlem: USA", that the HARYOU - ACT Project in Harlem would be making use of this book as a text of the Heritage of the Harlem Community, and that at a later date he would be ordering copies of the book in bulk for this purpose. He also noted he would send to the Chief Editor a list of the book stores in the United States that sell "Freedomways" and that when he received a copy of the book he would also send the names of all contributors with their addresses.

A confidential source abroad advised on February 25, 1964, that the Seven Seas Publishers is controlled by the division of the East German Ministry for Culture dealing with publishing houses and book sales and also by the Central Committee of Sozialistische Einheitspartei - (SED - Socialist Unity Party of Germany, East German Communist Party.) The source said that this publishing house is part of East Germany, having the purpose of developing and enhancing through the dissemination of literature, a revolutionary consciousness among readers in the English language speaking world.

of "Freedomways" were pleased with the desire of "Presence Africaine" to translate the Harlem issue of "Freedomways" into French but that they already had signed a contract with the Seven Seas Publishers in Germany for the publication of the Harlem issue in Europe and that the Seven Seas edition would be supplemented by additional material making it a full-length book.

The source advised in June, 1964, that John Henrik Clarke on June 4, 1964, noted that he was editing a book "Harlem: USA" for Seven Seas Publishers in Germany.

On October 18, 1964, the first confidential source made available a copy of a throwaway announcing that "Seven Seas Books, the Paperbacks in the English language, published in the German Democratic Republic, presents a SCOOP in the world of books! 'Harlem: USA'". It notes that this book was edited and contains an introduction by John Henrik Clarke, and that it could be ordered now from the Jefferson Book Shop Incorporated, 100 East 16th Street, New York, New York. It adds that this is a book for all who want to know about the Negro in the United States.

A characterization of the Jefferson Book Shop Incorporated is set forth in the appendix pages.

JEFFERSON BOOK SHOP, INCORPORATED

A source provided information in the spring of 1945 which indicated that the Jefferson Book Shop, Incorporated, (JBS) had officially opened on April 1, 1944.

The records of the New York County Supreme Court reflected that on December 3, 1946, papers were filed with the Department of State, State of New York, incorporating the JBS, Incorporated, to sell books and magazines at wholesale and retail among other purposes.

LOUIS F. BUDENZ, former Managing Editor of the "Daily Worker," an East Coast Communist newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958, and a self-admitted member of the Communist Party (CP) until 1945, advised in March, 1947, that the JBS was one of a number of outlets for Communist Party literature which had been set up by the CP.

A second source advised on February 14, 1961, that at a meeting of the New York District CP Staff held that date, [redacted] gave a report on the operation of the JBS. He announced that it had shown a small profit in 1960 and that approximately 35 per cent of the sales was of Marxist - Progressive material. A number of suggestions were advanced by those present to improve the sales of CP literature at the JBS and it was announced that 63 young people, who had come into contact with the party through the JBS, were thinking about joining the party and some were recurits into the party. b6 b7C

A third source advised on February 1, 1961, that on that date HY LUMER, CP, USA Educational Director, referred to [redacted] as being in charge of [redacted] of [redacted] of the CP, USA.

The Address Telephone Directory for the Borough of Manhattan, New York City, as published by the New York Telephone Company on April 20, 1964, lists the JBS as being located at 100 East 16th Street, New York City.

Reference is made in paragraph one, page one, to the fact that Martin Luther King, Jr., was pleased in getting [redacted] (phonetic) to handle a matter pertaining to the welcoming back to New York City of King after he receives the Nobel Peace Prize. From a review of your files and established sources available, attempt to identify [redacted] (phonetic) and advise the Bureau. b6 b7C

On page two there is reported a discussion between Harry Wachtel and Bayard Rustin wherein reference is made to the fact that Wachtel had told King that he has "my resignation in your pocket." This reference came up in a discussion concerning the possibility of Wachtel accompanying King to Oslo, Norway. It is also reported that Wachtel's presence might cause King some embarrassment and thus cause King to accept the resignation. The Bureau recognizes that the nature of the source of this information is such that it may be difficult to determine the exact meaning of the information. However, the Bureau would welcome any explanation or further information your Office may have which would explain the conversation concerning a possible Wachtel resignation and possible embarrassment to King.

On November 3, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information that Bayard Rustin contacted Dr. Ralph Bunche's secretary on that date. Rustin said he was speaking on behalf of Martin Luther King, Jr., (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference) (SCLC), who would be in New York City on Thursday, (November 5, 1964). Rustin indicated that King would like to speak with Bunche (the Under Secretary for Special Political Affairs, United Nations), regarding some matters relating to the Nobel Peace Prize. Rustin stated that he would like to see Bunche before King arrives in New York City, and he mentioned that there is to be a meeting at noon on Thursday regarding King's receiving the prize. (U)

Rustin informed Ralph Bunche that upon King's return to New York City, after receiving the Nobel Peace Prize, there is to be a committee formed to welcome him at either a large dinner at the Waldorf Astoria or at an affair at Carnegie Hall. Rustin stated that King wanted to know if Bunche would be prepared to be Chairman of the welcoming committee, and Rustin mentioned that the committee will include civil rights leaders and "a number (U) of key liberals". In response to this, Bunche said he would be glad to be Chairman, but he said that he would have to be informed of the others who will be on the committee since there are some people with whom he will not work. Rustin told him that they would discuss this matter. (u)

Bunche told Rustin that he had sent a letter to King advising him that the Secretary General of the United Nations was hoping that King could visit the United Nations upon his return. Rustin stated that this was being planned and the matter would be worked out at the meeting on Thursday. Rustin advised that he would personally meet with Bunche and go over the details to be sure that everything is satisfactory. (u)

Rustin told Bunche that an invitation had been extended by the President of Brazil to have King visit Brazil on his way back to the United States. Rustin stated he felt that this was not due to certain aspects of the regime in power. Rustin inquired as to what Bunche's thoughts were on this matter, and Bunche stated that he agreed that it was not a very good idea to go at this time. (u)

In response to Bunche's question regarding the length of King's visit to New York City, Rustin said that King would be in town only one day and would be leaving on Thursday evening. (u)

Harry Wachtel, 200 East 66th Street, New York, New York 11/3/64 Lawrence D. Reddick

The same confidential source furnished information that Rustin contacted Harry Wachtel on that date. They discussed the meeting (to be held on November 5, 1964, in New York City), and Wachtel mentioned that Larry Reddick would attend the meeting but would not be there until the evening. Wachtel stated that King felt that he (Reddick) would not be interested in the structural arrangements anyway. (u)

Wachtel mentioned that he had conferred with King L.K. Reddick b6 b7C

the conference was to discuss some pamphlets which were issued by a man named [redacted] of the Republican National Committee urging Negroes to write in King's name for the Presidency. Wachtel mentioned that in regard to this, the Democratic National Committee wanted King to do certain things which King was reluctant to do. It was finally agreed that four things should be done: (U)

1. To warn radio and television about taking advertisements from unidentified groups in violation of the Federal Communication Commission. (U)

2. To have a press conference for King. (U)

3. To give the matter wide coverage. (U)

4. To [redacted] prepare a statement on the affair on the theme "Waste Your Vote". (U)

Rustin remarked [redacted] Rustin said that in Detroit, a group of [redacted] "crowd" had prepared signs that King was supporting the Freedom Now Party, and he said that "we" had to argue [redacted] Rustin stated [redacted] Wachtel indicated that he was glad to know this and that [redacted] (U)

Rustin mentioned that King is giving consideration (with regard to his returning after receiving the Nobel Peace Prize) to his making a speech at Carnegie Hall and selling tickets for this affair which would start at $100.00. He stated that King would be directing this toward the wealthy crowd. Rustin mentioned King was thinking about doing this instead of having a dinner. Wachtel said that the wealthy people do not like to go to Carnegie Hall. According to Wachtel, he has inquired about the possibility that the President might attend, but he said that he had learned the President would not give an answer until after the election. (U)

Wachtel remarked that told him that "the answer is not no" and indicated that if the President could not come he would send the Vice President. Both Rustin and Wachtel agreed that the Carnegie Hall idea would be more simple than a dinner. Rustin said a cocktail party would be held before the speech for "the $100.00 people" from 7:00 to 8:30. (U)

Rustin stated that Wachtel had mentioned two people who might be interested in the thing and he wanted to know what they had said. Wachtel stated that is interested and has submitted a memorandum of ideas on the subject, but Wachtel added that "you" will have to make the decision. At Rustin's suggestion, both men agree to meet with to discuss the matter. Wachtel said that he would send Rustin a copy of the memorandum. In referring to the memorandum, Wachtel said that it is too ambitious and includes an address to Congress and a ticker tape parade. Rustin made the comment that they would cut him down to size. (U)

According to Rustin, he will be in Oslo during the preparations. Wachtel said there will be three events in Oslo: a presentation of prizes at 1:00 PM, on the afternoon of the 10th, at which King will make a five minute speech; a formal dinner-ball that evening; and the Nobel Lecture of 45 to 50 minutes the next evening at the university. Wachtel said he is handling the details of the trip and has spoken to the Norwegian Ambassador. According to Wachtel, King will have to be in Oslo by the 9th (of December) at the latest. (U)

Rustin informed Wachtel that King wants to have Ralph Bunche and some person to act as co-chairman of the affair (to welcome King home) but that Bunche will not accept until he knows who the person will be. Rustin indicated that he had considered having (Robert) Kennedy and Javits (Senator Jacob Javits) as co-chairman to be non-partisan or to have Theodore Kheel (former President of the Gandhi (U)

Wachtel informed Rustin that he has been raising some funds for the trip expenses. It was agreed that King would have to be there on the 9th and would not be able to leave before the 12th. Rustin remarked that he felt King should be home by the 17th (of December).

Rustin informed Wachtel that King had been invited by the President of Brazil to stop there on his way back to the United States from Oslo. Rustin said that King should tell Brazil that he would like to come but cannot on his way home from Oslo and cannot until after New Year's. Wachtel agreed and said he would not like for King to be associated with the "crowd" in Brazil since he (Wachtel) does not like that regime.

In referring again to the reception (for King upon his return), Wachtel said that he has gotten some dates at various hotels which could be used for the reception and the speech. He stated that the Americana is all right for the 17th (of December) and the Waldorf is free for the 15th. Both men agreed that the affair should be held before the 18th of December.

Dear [redacted] b6 b7C

A confidential source of this Bureau who has furnished reliable information in the past supplied the following information concerning a contact between Martin Luther King, Jr., and [redacted] on [redacted]

[redacted] said that now that the election is over they should think about what form "of struggle they should use," adding that he had been discussing it with "our friend." [redacted] said [redacted] had heard rumors from responsible Democratic people in New York that King may be offered an official role in the Administration. [redacted] told King that King should think about this and that King must translate his moral influence into political power. King replied that he would think about the matter, taking into consideration "the movement and my personal goal." [redacted] told King that King should think about what role "our friend" can play in this period, commenting that "our friend" had been helpful and has abided by the "decisions." [redacted] expressed the belief that "our friend" should be given some role inasmuch as "we're not in the same situation as we were with the Kennedy Administration." [redacted] referred to the fact that the Civil Rights Bill is now the law. King replied "Good, after the election it would be a new situation."

[redacted] is a [redacted] to King and in the [redacted] Labor Youth League, an organization which has been designated as subversive pursuant to Executive Order 10450. According to confidential sources of this Bureau who have furnished reliable information

Confidential sources of this Bureau who have furnished reliable information in the past have supplied the following information concerning plans being made by Martin Luther King, Jr., and his associates concerning King's receipt of the Nobel Peace Prize which is to take place December 10, 1964, at Oslo, Norway.

On November 3, 1964, Bayard Rustin contacted the secretary of Dr. Ralph Bunche, Undersecretary for Special Political Affairs, United Nations (UN). Rustin stated that he was speaking on behalf of Martin Luther King, Jr., and requested to see Bunche regarding the receipt of the Nobel Peace Prize by King.

Subsequently on November 3, 1964, Rustin conferred with Bunche and told him that upon King's return to New York City, after receiving the Nobel Prize, there is to be a welcoming affair at either a large dinner at a hotel or an activity at Carnegie Hall. Rustin told Bunche that King wanted to know whether Bunche would be prepared to be chairman of the welcoming committee which will include civil rights leaders and "a number of key liberals." Bunche said that he would be glad to be chairman, but that he would have to be informed as to the others who will be on the committee since there are some people with whom he will not work. Bunche told Rustin that he had sent a letter to King advising King that the Secretary General of the UN was hoping that King would visit the UN upon his return. Rustin told Bunche that he would personally meet with Bunche later and go over the details relative to King visiting the UN. Rustin also told Bunche that an invitation had been extended by the President of Brazil to have King visit Brazil on his way back to the United States. Rustin stated that he felt that this was not wise due to certain aspects of the regime in power in Brazil and inquired as to what Bunche's thoughts were on this matter. Bunche agreed that it was not a very good idea for King to visit Brazil at this time.

On November 3, 1964, Rustin was in contact with Harry Wachtel concerning King's return to the United States from Norway. Rustin stated that King is considering making a speech at Carnegie Hall and selling tickets for the affair, the minimum price to be $100. Wachtel said that King has inquired about the possibility that President Lyndon B. Johnson might attend such an affair, but that the President would not give an answer until after the election. According to Wachtel, [redacted] has stated relative to the President's attendance "the answer is not no." [redacted] has indicated that if the President could not attend, the President would send the Vice President in his place. Rustin indicated that a cocktail party would be held before the Carnegie Hall address by King. b6 b7C

Rustin and Wachtel then discussed who might assist in the arrangements. Wachtel stated that [redacted] had handled the arrangements for a concert for "us" and had made [redacted] for "us." According to Wachtel [redacted] is interested in the King affair and has submitted a memorandum of ideas on the subject. Rustin and Wachtel agreed to meet with [redacted] to discuss the matter. Wachtel stated that he would send Rustin a copy of the memorandum by [redacted] and in reference thereto Wachtel said that he thought the plans in the memorandum were too ambitious for they included an address by King before Congress and a ticker tape parade.

Wachtel told Rustin that he is handling the details concerning King's trip to Norway and has spoken to the Norwegian Ambassador.

Rustin then informed Wachtel that King desires to have Dr. Bunche and [redacted] person to act as cochairmen of the affair welcoming King back to the United States, but that Bunche will not accept until he knows who the [redacted] person will be. Rustin indicated that he had considered having Senators Robert Kennedy and Jacob Javits as cochairmen so that there would be a nonpartisan element present. Rustin stated that after due consideration he thought it would probably be best to just have Bunche as chairman and have a subcommittee assisting him. Wachtel agreed with this idea. Rustin also informed Wachtel that King had been invited by the President of Brazil to visit that country, but that King should tell the Brazilian President that while he would like to visit that country, he will be unable to do so on his return trip from Norway and would be unable to visit Brazil until after the beginning of the new year.

On November 7, 1964, Wachtel contacted Rustin concerning the plans for welcoming King back to the United States and Wachtel stated that he had spoken to the White House and "the Kennedy front" regarding this matter. Wachtel said that he has [redacted] of the Democratic National Committee "lined up." It is Wachtel's belief that President Johnson will come to New York City. Wachtel stated that he is waiting to hear from Senator Robert Kennedy in this matter as well. b6 b7C

Wachtel instructed Rustin to speak with Dr. Bunche and tell him that if the UN gave a luncheon for King, it would be better if held after King's return to the United States, but that the final decision is being left to the UN people. Wachtel suggested that if the UN affair was held before King's departure for Norway, December 4, 1964, would be a good date because it is just after the opening of the General Assembly at the UN and there will be many prominent people there. Wachtel noted the possibility of Leonid I. Brezhnev, First Secretary, Communist Party of the Soviet Union and Kwame Nkrumah, President of Ghana, being at the UN. Wachtel asked "Can you imagine Brezhnev embracing Martin like Khrushchev did Castro?" Rustin replied in the affirmative.

Wachtel stated that no plans will be made for a ticker tape parade for King until an answer is received from President Johnson. According to Wachtel, [redacted] should be given something to do "even if it is just selling tickets." Rustin mentioned the possible use of an armory and stated it would be necessary to contact Governor Nelson Rockefeller of New York who is vacationing in Spain. Wachtel indicated that this could be done later by telephone since there will be additional ideas for the Governor's participation. Summarizing, Wachtel mentioned that Mayor Robert Wagner of New York City could have the ticker tape parade; U Thant, Secretary General, UN, could have the dinner for King; and Governor Rockefeller could have the reception for King.

On November 7, 1964, Rustin was in contact with King and mentioned that he is beginning the draft of the major speech which King is to deliver and that King can complete it. On November 7, 1964, Rustin also contacted Peggy Duff, a resident of London, England, who is Executive Director of the Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament. Rustin told her that King will be in London on December 6 and 7, 1964, and that Rustin wanted to know if Harold Wilson, Prime Minister of England, would be prepared to receive King. Duff indicated that she would check into this. Rustin said that it should not appear as though this was King's idea and that it was preferred that Wilson announce that he is inviting King to visit him. Rustin inquired of Duff as to whether there is a group of "peace-minded people" in London who would work to raise money for "our work in Mississippi." Duff replied in the affirmative and Rustin explained that the reason for raising funds is that "we" are some $2,000,000 "in the hole on the Mississippi business" and that there are about 17 churches which have to be rebuilt. Rustin suggested that arrangements might be made to have the London Embassy of some African nation have a reception for King while he is there.

On November 9, 1964, Rustin told an associate that he was departing for London on November 11, 1964, for the purpose of clarifying a confusion which has developed surrounding King's trip to Europe in December, 1964. The confusion arises from the fact that the Archbishop of Canterbury desires to receive King, but has been opposed by certain elements since King is a Baptist. Rustin also indicated that while in London he is going to determine whether or not King will be able to meet with Prime Minister Wilson.

Bayard Rustin is a frequent advisor to King and is a former member of the Young Communist League, an organization which has been designated as subversive pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Harry Wachtel, also a frequent advisor to King, is the Executive Vice President of the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, a fund-raising adjunct of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, which Conference is headed by King. On March 5, 1944, a source of this Bureau advised that Wachtel's name was on a list of names, significance not known, maintained at the headquarters of the Kings County Communist Party, New York. The same source also advised on March 5, 1944, that the name of [redacted] was maintained on a list of names of [redacted] b6 b7C

On November 7, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information that Harry Wachtel contacted Bayard Rustin on that date. Wachtel mentioned that he arranged with the approval of Martin Luther King, Jr., (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference) (SCLC), for the man who ran the affair for Eleanor Roosevelt to run this affair (the affair at which Martin Luther King, Jr., will be honored upon his return from receiving the Nobel Peace Prize in Oslo, Norway, in December, 1964). Wachtel also mentioned that King was quite pleased in getting [redacted] to handle this matter. Continuing, Wachtel remarked that this man [redacted] will be in charge but will be [redacted] Wachtel made the comment that it will be worth it to have a professional in charge. Wachtel stated that he had contacted the White House and "the Kennedy front" on this. Wachtel suggested that he and Rustin meet with [redacted] in order to discuss the matter. (U)

Wachtel stated that he has [redacted] of the Democratic National Committee) "lined up", and believes the President will come, and Wachtel stated that he is still waiting to hear from Kennedy (Senator-elect Robert Kennedy of New York) on whether he plans to attend the affair. (U)

Wachtel instructed Rustin to speak with Ralph Bunche (of the United Nations) and tell him that the United Nations luncheon for King would be better after King returns, but he told Rustin to leave the final decision to them. Wachtel said that December 4th would be better than the 17th because it is just after the opening of the General Assembly and that there will be more prominent people there. Wachtel suggested the possibility that Nkrumah (of Ghana) and Brezhnev will be there and that it might become a "real head of state deal". Wachtel asked, "Can you imagine Brezhnev embracing Martin like Khrushchev did Castro?" Rustin replied in the affirmative. (4)

Rustin remarked that it might be necessary for him to make several calls to London, and he inquired of Wachtel how to pay for them. Wachtel stated that they should have an SCLC credit card for such things. Wachtel stated that he does not mind working for the SCLC "on the cuff but that the out of pocket expenses are killing" him. Wachtel instructed Rustin to speak with King or [redacted] of Martin Luther King, Jr.) about it. (4) b6 b7C

Rustin inquired about going to Oslo (with King), and Wachtel suggested Rustin do as he had done. Wachtel stated that he told King that he has "my resignation in your pocket" as far as going is concerned, and Wachtel further stated he would not feel bad if King thought his (Wachtel's) presence might cause King some embarrassment and cause King to accept the resignation. Wachtel said he told King that King and Bunche could go on one plane and the rest of the party could travel on a different plane. Wachtel also mentioned if volunteers (to go on the trip) are wanted [redacted] want to go. (4)

Wachtel stated that [redacted] and [redacted] will have suggestions and proposals which will be submitted for "our" approval. Wachtel stated that no plans will be made for a ticker tape parade (for King) until the answer is received from the President. According to Wachtel, [redacted] should be given something to do even if it is just selling tickets. (4)

Rustin made mention of using an armory (in New York City in connection with King's return), and he stated that it would be necessary to contact the Governor (Governor Nelson Rockefeller of New York) who is vacationing in Spain. Wachtel indicated that this could be done later since there will be more ideas for the Governor's participation. Wachtel mentioned that the Mayor (Mayor Robert Wagner of New York City) will have the ticker tape parade, U. Thant (Secretary-General of the United Nations) can have the dinner, and the Governor can have the reception for King. (4) N.Y.

Rustin contacted [redacted] on November 7, 1964, and mentioned that Wachtel had gotten [redacted] to help out with the affair (for King). [redacted] stated that he did not remember [redacted] except from the [redacted] and that was all he knew about him. Rustin stated that [redacted] was the same person, and Rustin suggested that [redacted] could do some of the leg work but "they" do not want him out in front. Rustin made it known that they were not certain about the President's attendance at the affair, and both agreed that the success of the affair depends on the President's attendance. (4)

Bayard Rustin contacted Martin Luther King, Jr., on November 7, 1964, and Rustin brought up the question of whom King will have with him on the trip (to Oslo). Rustin suggested that King and two or three others go on the plane and the rest of the group follow. King agreed and stated he felt six could go with him and this would be a reasonable group. Rustin stated it was necessary to send a cable to Governor Rockefeller in Madrid, Spain, in order to obtain permission to use the armory for the meeting; King gave permission to do this. Rustin mentioned he is beginning the draft of the major speech which King will deliver and King can finish it. (4)

The source advised that on November 7, 1964, Rustin was in contact with Peggy Duff of London, England, Executive Director of the Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament. He informed her that Martin Luther King would be in London, (4) on December 6 and 7, 1964, and inquired of Duff as to whether Prime Minister Wilson would be prepared to receive King on either of these dates. Duff said she would check into that. Rustin said it should not appear as though it was King's idea, and said it was preferred that Prime Minister Wilson announce he was inviting King to visit him. X(4)

Rustin inquired if there was a group of peace minded people in London who would work to raise money for "our" work in Mississippi, to which she replied in the affirmative. He explained that the reason for the fund raising was that "we" are some two million dollars in the hole in Mississippi business and there are about seventeen churches which have to be rebuilt. X(4)

In conclusion, Rustin suggested that Duff might make arrangements to have the London Embassy of some African Nation have a reception for King while he is in London. X(4)

The same confidential source advised on November 9, 1964, that Bayard Rustin and [redacted] were in conference during [redacted] that date. Their contact, the source said, was in regard to Rustin making a trip to London on Wednesday, November 11, 1964, for the purpose of clarifying some confusion existing over the fact that the Archbishop of Canterbury desired to meet with King but due to King's affiliation with the Baptist Church, there was opposition to his receiving King. X(4) b6 b7C

Furthermore, Rustin said his trip would also be for the purpose of ascertaining if King could meet with Prime Minister Wilson while in London. X(4)

Rustin told [redacted] that he would [redacted] and would charge it to the SCLC account. X(4)

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

It was reported that at a 11/7/64 meeting of the Party's National Negro Commission, Claude Lightfoot made reference to a forthcoming national conference of top Negro leaders scheduled to take place in Washington, D. C., during January, 1965. Lightfoot told the meeting that Party members should attend this conference and he directed certain Party functionaries concerning the numbers of Party people who should go to the conference from Maryland; the southern part of the U. S.; Philadelphia, Pennsylvania; Detroit, Michigan; Chicago, Illinois; and Boston, Massachusetts.

"The Cleveland Plain Dealer", a local daily newspaper of general circulation in the Cleveland area, in its issue of November 3, 1964, advised that "BAYARD RUSTIN, civil rights leader, who directed last February's school boycott in New York City, will speak Friday at the City Club of Cleveland."

BAYARD RUSTIN

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, BAYARD RUSTIN is the subject of a feature article captioned "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". [redacted] advised on November 9, 1964, [redacted] the City Club Forum at which BAYARD RUSTIN spoke, and that RUSTIN presented his views in a fair manner, stating that all the Negroes wanted was equality of opportunity and protection under the law. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] in response to a question of what he thought of the Black Muslims, RUSTIN commented that the Black Muslims have given up all hope of the Negro bettering himself; that the Black Muslims are the lowest segment of the Negro community; that MALCOLM X's claim to being able to rehabilitate prostitutes, narcotic addicts, and drunks is a hoax on the Negro people. [redacted] advised that RUSTIN was also asked about the activity of Communists in the civil rights movement, and he replied that Communists have no place in the civil rights movement; that they are very sharp and must be watched at all times.

[redacted] advised that RUSTIN was well received at the City Club and was given an ovation at the conclusion of his talk. [redacted] stated that the account of his talk, as set forth in the "Cleveland Press" is factual and accurate.

"The Cleveland Press", daily newspaper of general circulation in the Cleveland area, in its issue of November 6, 1964, summarized BAYARD's talk before the City Club as follows:

> "If the Negro's drive for equal rights falls short, social disorder that will make last summer's street violence 'seem mild' was predicted today by BAYARD RUSTIN.
> " 'I don't want this to sound like a threat because it isn't,' the civil rights leader told the City Club Forum. 'It's just a plain statement of fact.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

" 'We've got to move along on social progress for the benefit of whites as well as Negroes. Seventy per cent of the poor in America are white. We've all got to be made to feel that we are part of the democratic process, part of America.'

"RUSTIN, an assistant to Rev. MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr. and deputy director of the civil rights march on Washington, deplored the fact that Negro demonstrations had made Negroes seem, in the eyes of some whites, to be advocates of violence.

" 'Scratch a Negro and you'll find a truly loving person,' RUSTIN declared. 'No other group would have put up with as much as the Negro has put up with in this country.'

"In an interview before his speech, RUSTIN said:

" 'We'll be returning to the streets in ever greater numbers now that the election is over. This time, however, we must broaden the participation to include many more whites, and we must concentrate on economic measures and not so much on public acccomodations.

" 'The right to use accommodations doesn't mean anything for the Negro if he doesn't have the money to use them.

" "If President JOHNSON is really interested in creating the Great Society he speaks of, then he should welcome the Negro's return to the streets.

" 'If there had been no Negro demonstrations for jobs, there would be no war on poverty by the JOHNSON Administration.

" 'If there had been no Negro demands for school integration, there would have been no great debate on establishing 20th Century education in this country to supplant the 19th Century system we have.

" 'If there had been no Negroes in motion, there would have been no ecumenical religious movement concerned with social issues.

" 'The Negro alone has been the catalyst in advancing social progress.' "

Cleveland radio station WGAR, at 1 PM on Saturday, November 7, 1964, broadcast RUSTIN's talk before the Cleveland City Club.

On November 12, 1964, a source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr. arrived at Oberlin College, Oberlin, Ohio, at approximately noon on October 22, 1964. He addressed the student body shortly after his arrival, had luncheon with the college faculty, held a press conference, and then a forum for students and left Oberlin at approximately 4:30 PM on October 22, 1964 for Cleveland, Ohio. The source stated there were no incidents or demonstrations during Reverend KING's stay in Oberlin.

An article in the "Oberlin Review", Oberlin College student newspaper, issue of October 23, 1964, reflected that Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr. in his appearance at Oberlin on October 22, 1964, elaborated on his opposition to the Republican Presidential nominee, Senator BARRY GOLDWATER. The article quoted Reverend KING as stating, "GOLDWATER is not a racist himself, but his ideas unfortunately support those who are."

The article reflected that Reverend KING emphasized the long road ahead in achieving full rights for Negroes. He condemned the riots in Northern cities last summer and stated they were not connected with theorganized movement for Negro rights.

Commenting on specific actions in the Negro quest for equality, Dr. KING praised the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party as "one of the most creative ideas which has come out of the movement." He expressed admiration of the courage of students who go into the South to participate in such projects.

The article further reflected that when asked whether he prefers preferential treatment for Negroes, KING said, "I wouldn't like to see Negroes putting white men out of their "jobs, but after 300 years of segregation, we need special programs to help us close the cultural lag."

Neither the article nor the source furnished any information concerning the identities of persons who accompanied Reverend KING on his trip to Oberlin.

Enclosed for the Bureau are seven copies of an LHM reflecting that this conference has apparently been moved to NYC in January, 1964. Copies of the LHM are also being furnished to NY, BA, CG, DE, and BS since they have been furnished information about the conference.

WFO is closing it's case on the State of the Race Conference at Howard University.

NY should follow the scheduled NY conference and keep the Bureau promptly advised of all pertinent developments and insure development of information revealing any communist efforts aimed at the conference.

WFO will follow the National Urban League meeting in Washington, D.C., DEC 9-11,1964 through established sources and advise the Bureau and interested offices of pertinent developments.

"STATE OF THE RACE" MEETING
NEW YORK CITY, JANUARY, 1965

"The Evening Star" a Washington, D.C. newspaper, Monday, November 9, 1964, Page C-20, contained an article captioned "Negro Spokesmen Planning Talks on '65 Rights Activities," the article stated:

"Leading Negro spokesmen are planning a 'State of the Race' meeting in New York City sometime in January.

U.S.A.

"Walter E. Fauntroy, pastor of the District's New Bethel Baptist Church and director of the Washington office of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, said the meeting has been called by A. Philip Randolph, director of the March on Washington.

D.C.

" 'The purpose of the meeting will be to discuss what future activities will engage the civil rights organizations and what new directions the movement will take,' Fauntroy said.

"An earlier meeting of civil rights organizations is scheduled for Dec. 9-11 at the Sheraton Park Hotel. The National Urban League has invited representatives of 300 organizations here to plan a far-reaching drive to improve the Negro's position in the American economy.

"Urban League staffers and government officials are scheduled to explain how the antipoverty program and the Civil Rights Act can be used to wipe out poverty and racial discrimination.

"Fauntroy, who has just returned to Washington from a month-long assignment of directing SCLC's get-out-the-vote program in northern and western states, said the civil rights group will focus its efforts on political action and economic advancement.

" 'Demonstrations will continue where it is necessary to dramatize failures to implement the Civil Rights Act and where the right to vote is still denied Negroes,' Fauntroy said.

"Fauntroy coordinated the appearances of Dr. Martin Luther King, Nobel Peace Prize winner for 1964 and head of SCLC, in six metropolitan centers during the final week of the presidential campaign.

"King's appearances in the Negro areas of Cleveland, Baltimore, Cincinati, Los Angeles, Detroit and Chicago, Fauntroy said, helped deliver the Negro vote to President Lyndon Johnson. The crowds which greeted King on his 'people to people' tour ranged from an estimated 10,000 in Baltimore to about 5,000 in Cincinati, he said. King made at least 15 street-corner speeches in each city.

"Fauntroy said the tour convinced him that Negroes are becoming more aware of the significance of their vote. This, he added, means that Negroes will shelve the 'politics of disorder' tactic to achieve their goals."

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 11, 1964, that Bayard Rustin (Organizer of the March on Washington, D.C.) was in contact on that date with an unidentified woman. During their contact, Rustin was asked why he was not in London, England. He replied that he had planned to go to London on that date, but said he had waited too long to apply for his passport, and due to the holiday (Veterans Day), it was not processed. He said the passport office was closed [redacted] but nothing could be done since the Washington Passport Office was closed. He said he had tickets (airline) for tomorrow (November 12, 1964) and planned to go then. (U)

The source said Rustin also conferred with Peggy Duff of London, England (Executive Director of the Campaign for Nuclear Disarmament) on November 11, 1964. He informed her that he had trouble with his passport because of the holiday, therefore, would arrive in London on Friday, November 13, 1964, rather than on Thursday. (U)

Duff, according to the source, said there was nothing new on the Archbishop of Canterbury matter. Rustin asked if she thought he could take care of all the matters on Friday so that he would be able to return to New York on Friday night. Duff said she thought he could accomplish everything in one day. (U)

On November 9, 1964, the same source advised that Bayard Rustin and [redacted] were in contact [redacted] during which time they discussed the fact that confusion had arisen in London over Martin Luther King's trip to London in December, 1964. The confusion, according to the source, arose over the fact that the Archbishop of Canterbury desired to receive King, but due to King's affiliation with the Baptist Church, there was opposition to him greeting King. (U)

U.S.A.

It was agreed during their conference that Rustin would go to London on Wednesday, November 11, 1964, to try to clarify the confusion. (U)

The same confidential source advised on November 11, 1964, that Rustin was in contact [redacted] with [redacted] Rustin mentioned having met Ralph (believed to be Dr. Ralph Bunche) at a reception several nights ago, and that Ralph told him that he would like to have a big affair for Martin Luther King as a consequence of having won the Nobel Peace Prize. In that regard, Rustin said Ralph told him that he would wait until he heard more from him (Rustin) as to the type affair they should have... Rustin said he had not called him (Ralph) because there was a possibility that President Johnson might come to New York to attend an affair on King's return from receiving the prize. (U)

Rustin said that King had agreed on November 10, 1964, to meet with United Nations Secretary U. Thant before leaving for Europe on December 5, 1964. (U)

With regard to King's trip to Europe to receive the Nobel Prize, Rustin told [redacted] that he (King) would probably meet with the Archbishop of Canterbury and Prime Minister Wilson while in London. Rustin asked [redacted] if he did not think that "our people" (United States Embassy) in London should do something (apparently alluding to King's visit there). [redacted] replied in the affirmative, adding, however, that "we have a stuffy Ambassador there by the name of Bruce, but it may be possible". (U)

On November 11, 1964, the source advised that Bayard Rustin was in contact with Dr. Ralph Bunche on that date. Rustin related that he was in touch with Martin Luther King on November 10, 1964, during which time King said he would accept United Nations Secretary U. Thant's invitation to dinner on December 4, 1964. (U)

Bunche told Rustin that he would also like to hold a dinner party in King's honor. The party, Bunche said, would be composed of about eighteen to twenty people and would be held at his home on the evening of December 3, 1964. (U)

According to the same source, on [redacted] Rustin was in touch with [redacted] during which time Rustin relayed to [redacted] that King's presence was desired at a dinner by Secretary U. The copy designated for New York, Origin, did not indicate that it was sent by registered mail. It is assumed that it was so sent and that the "RM" was inadvertently left off cover page A. It is being added to Bureau copies; do likewise for your copies. On pages two and four there are set out certain subheadings with the statement "No information developed." In the future do not list subheadings with such a statement. Refer to Bulet 8/28/64 to Albany, copies to all offices, page five, item number nine. The statement "No information developed" should be used only when appropriate for main headings covered by Roman numerals. Characterizations of individuals were not set out in indented paragraphs as required. Examples are characterizations of Hosea Hudson on page three and of Hunter Pitts O'Dell on page eight.

O'Dell's last name is misspelled on pages eight and nine. The correct spelling is O'Dell. Correct your copies. Page nine, paragraph three, line two -- [redacted] is misspelled. Correct your copies. Cover page "C" indicates that T-11 and T-12 [redacted] b7D This is obviously in error since [redacted] information furnished by T-11 and T-12.

Line two of the synopsis as well as the third paragraph of page four identifies Hyman Lumer as the National Executive Secretary of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA). This is erroneous. Robert Thompson is the CPUSA National Executive Secretary. Lumer is the CPUSA National Educational Secretary.

The first paragraph on page four under point (1) states that there was no information developed concerning the plans, strategy or the Party line on a national level. This statement is not consistent with the information appearing in the third paragraph on page four which refers to directives issued by the CPUSA National Youth Commission and the CPUSA National Committee. In view of the foregoing, submit an amended page four. Delete points (1) and (2). The entire information on page four should be reported under subheading: (A) Communist Party, USA.

ReBulet 11/16/64 which referred to a reported discussion between Harry Wachtel and Bayard Rustin wherein reference was made to the fact that Wachtel had told Martin Luther King, Jr., that he has "my resignation in your pocket." The discussion was of such a nature as to give rise to a strong presumption that Wachtel has a "skeleton in his closet" and that the King group fears some exposure. Solicitation was made of your Office for any explanation or further information which might explain the conversation in question.

As your Office is aware, Wachtel is steadily assuming greater importance as one of King's group of advisors. His background therefore becomes of prime importance.

JOHN NOBLE TEXAS

On October 23, 1964, [redacted] Intelligence Unit, Fort Worth, Texas, Police Department, stated [redacted] had advised him that [redacted] was quite concerned about a speech made on October 12, 1964, at the Cornith Baptist Church in Abilene, by one John Noble, believed to be from Pennsylvania. In this speech, Noble told of a coming Negro revolution. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] stated he had obtained information from [redacted] to the effect that [redacted] that Noble originally came from Germany, that during World War II his father owned a camera shop. During the war, Noble and his father were placed under house arrest. Then when Russia over ran Germany, Noble was placed under arrest and taken to Russia, where he was a prisoner in a concentration camp for a period of nine years, at which time he was able to smuggle a post card out, which in turn got to President Eisenhower. The President, according to [redacted] was able to liberate Mr. Noble and since then he has been living in America. According to [redacted] Noble makes many speaking tours. [redacted] described him as being a 100 per cent loyal American citizen. He stated he did not know where Noble lived. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] On November 3, 1964, [redacted] stated he had been at the speech given by Noble. He said it was his recollection Noble said that if Goldwater was elected an immediate Negro demonstration would take place all over the nation. He said Noble also said that if Johnson won the election, demonstrations would not take place until after the Presidential inauguration. b6 b7C

On November 9, 1964, Warren Dodson (NA), Chief of Police, Abilene, advised he had a partial tape recording of the speech given by Noble and made this tape available. A summary of this tape is as follows:

JOHN NOBLE

The Negro people are not in favor of Communism as a whole. They are being used in the Communist conspiracy as they are being persecuted and are easily stirred to action. The first stage of the Communist takeover is the Negro revolution in America which will take place overnight and involve much bloodshed. Fourteen days later the second stage of the Communist takeover will take place after the "white backlash" has begun. These statements were predicated with "as we are told."

Noble advised he was not attempting to frighten the people but just to warn them of what was coming. He stated something is in the making. Arms and firepower are not going to be an issue or decisive during this Communist takeover. You can expect, following the first assault, that President Kennedy's executive order ordering seizure of all firearms will take effect. Frequent references are made to the "Indianapolis News."

Communist pressures are causing strikes in California and on the West Coast which are blocking the importing of foodstuffs into the country. Noble stated that he could not go into details at this time, but warned his listeners to expect the uprisings soon after the national elections.

SECURITY MATTER - COMMUNIST

We are recommending dissemination to the White House, Secretary of State Rusk and the Acting Attorney General, information concerning plans which are under way by Martin Luther King, Jr., and his associates (men with communist backgrounds such as Bayard Rustin) for welcoming-back festivities when King returns to the U. S. from Norway where he is to receive the Nobel Peace Prize 12/10/64. b7D

We have received information from our reliable sensitive sources in [redacted] regarding recent contacts between King, Rustin, Ralph Bunche of the United Nations (UN) and Harry Wachtel, the latter being another King advisor with a communist background. Such activities are in the planning stage as a fund-raising speech by King at Carnegie Hall; King being received at the UN with the possibility that others present at the UN will include Leonid I. Brezhnev, First Secretary, Communist Party Soviet Union, and Kwame Nkrumah, President of Ghana; and a possible ticker tape parade. Bunche is being considered as possible chairman of the committee honoring King and contact has already been made with White House [redacted] to have President Johnson present in New York City although no commitment has yet been made by the White House. Efforts also being made to have King see English Prime Minister Harold Wilson in London and to have an affair in London honoring King which will raise funds for King's work in Mississippi. b6 b7C

Concerning King possibly meeting Wilson in London, Rustin is scheduled to go to London 11/11/64 to work on this matter. A separate memorandum from F. J. Baumgardner to W. C. Sullivan was prepared today (11/10/64) concerning the Wilson matter and recommending alerting the British to King's intentions and background.

On November 12, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which indicated that Bayard Rustin, on that date, contacted [redacted] Rustin stated that he had finally gotten his passport which, he said, had been held up all day. Rustin further stated that he had gotten the White House, the Democratic National Committee, and [redacted] (who was not further identified), working on it. According to Rustin, [redacted] had determined that the passport was being held up because of Congressional investigation. [redacted] inquired if they were investigating Rustin, and Rustin replied that apparently they were because of the March on Washington. Rustin made the statement that he "would just love to be investigated". (U)

Rustin indicated that he wanted to get the matter of the passport cleared up because of the other trip to Oslo, Norway, with Martin Luther King, Jr., (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, who is to receive the Nobel Peace Prize in Oslo, Norway, in December, 1964). Rustin also stated that [redacted] "really went to bat" for him in order to get the passport. (U)

Communist Influence In Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states. (U)

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450. (U)

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957. (U)

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958. (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised [redacted] b7D [redacted] Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly." (U) and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak. (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA. (U)

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964. (U)

The March 1, 1954, issue of the "Young Socialist Challenge," published as page three of "Labor Action," an official publication of the Independent Socialist League (ISL), contained an article concerning the creation of the YSL, which pointed out that at a unity conference occurring February 12-14, 1954, at Labor Action Hall, New York, New York, a merger occurred between the Young People's Socialist League (YPSL) and the Socialist Youth League (SYL). The new organization was named the YSL. (U)

A confidential informant [redacted] which [redacted] that [redacted] SP (Socialist Party) Youth Committee," had objected to a statement appearing in "Commerce," a New York University journal, which indicated that the YPSL merged with the SYL to form the YSL. He explained that the YPSL did not merge with anyone, that it continued to exist as the youth section of the Socialist Party. He explained that a small group of the YPSL was dropped, expelled, or suspended from that organization and joined the SYL, which he characterized as the youth group of the "Trotskyite ISL." He explained that after these few former members of the YPSL joined the SYL, the SYL then proceeded to change its name for its own purposes. (U)

On April 9, 1956, another confidential informant advised as follows: (U)

The YSL has frequently worked in close sympathetic cooperation with the ISL toward similar objectives, although each major issue given mutual consideration is decided upon by these organizations individually. The YSL serves as an apprenticeship for the ISL, but ISL selection of members from YSL ranks is made on an individual and personal basis. In many instances YSL members are also members of the ISL. A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 2, 1964, that Jesse Gray, Director, Community Council on Housing, 6 East 117th Street, New York City, had originally scheduled a "World's Worst Fair" in the vicinity of headquarters of the Community Council on Housing for October 31, 1964. He had secured a permit from the local police precinct to hold this outdoor demonstration. At the last moment, Jesse Gray cancelled the "fair" and informed the police that the reason for cancellation was out of respect for the President of the United States, who was about that time in the New York area. The "World's Worst Fair" was to have been a portrayal by Jesse Gray of slum conditions in the Harlem area of New York City.

On November 17, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Bayard Rustin (organizer of the March on Washington) was in contact with [redacted] said, "This thing (reception in honor of Martin Luther King to be given by United Nations Ambassador Adlai Stevenson, December 4, 1964) is really going to be a big deal because they have decided at a staff meeting that they will have Rusk (Secretary of State Dean Rusk) there (at the reception) as well as all the foreign ministers." [redacted] said that in view of that, he wanted some kind of [redacted] so [redacted] could give [redacted] the go ahead on it (the reception). He then asked Rustin to send [redacted] a telegram, prompting Rustin to advise that he would send a telegram in the name of Martin Luther King. According to the source, [redacted] and Rustin agreed that the telegram would contain the following: (U)

[redacted] said [redacted] would make reservations for the King party to fly to London, England, on the night of December 4, 1964, following the reception. He said the reservations would have to be aboard a BOAC (British Overseas Airways Corporation) flight which leaves New York at 10:00 PM. Rustin, at [redacted] request, said the following people would be in the party: King, [redacted], [redacted], Bernard Lee (personal Secretary to King), Reverend Ralph Abernathy (Treasurer of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference), and Dora (Dora Mc Donald, secretary at Southern Christian Leadership Conference headquarters, Atlanta, Georgia). (U)

Rustin said that Coretta King, the wife of Martin Luther King, Jr., would fly to London, England, on a different flight because they never travel together on the same plane. (U)

Page 220, contains the characterization of the National Negro Labor Council. Advise where this organization appears in the details.

The following observations are made for your future guidance in the preparation of similar reports in this and other security matters:

While there is no objection to the preparation of a section of a lengthy report to be used to describe individuals mentioned therein, you should utilize some device, such as an asterisk (*) after each name so described as a flag to the reader.

In rerep there are numerous instances where newspaper articles, press releases, leaflets, the constitution of the Congress of Racial Equality, and lists of officers of organizations are set out verbatim, when good report writing practice would have indicated that synopsized portions of relevant items should have been used.

The Appendix page, used to describe the Freedom Now Party, was unnecessary since identical and more complete information was set out in the details of rerep. (See pages 104 and 210.) Further, this characterization is not Bureau approved and should not be used in future reports as an Appendix page.

Pages160 to 197 contain characterizations of individuals. In this section organizations and publications are described numerously times, yet each has its own Appendix page. For example, "The Worker" is described six times and "The Militant" is described five times. The Appendix contains eleven one-line characterizations, each on its own page, which according to current report writing practice could have been mentioned only once in the details and thereby eliminating eleven pages from this report.

Since dissemination of this report is being held in abeyance by the Bureau, you should promptly advise as to necessary corrective action. Form errors should be scored against responsible personnel.

The following observations are being made to recipient offices for the purpose of improving the administrative handling of information being developed in connection with captioned matter, investigation concerning Martin Luther King, Jr., and related matters. These observations are particularly applicable to information being constantly received through highly sensitive coverage concerning CIRM, King and related matters.

Frequently pertinent information received by the field is immediately furnished the Bureau by teletype, radiogram or telephone and subsequently followed up by airtel and letterhead memorandum (LHM). It is absolutely imperative that the follow-up communications always make reference to the prior communications furnishing the same information but usually in a briefer form. This is not being done in every instance.

Because the Bureau's dissemination of information in the indicated areas frequently varies, it is highly desirable that information pertaining to different subject matters be submitted in separate letterhead memoranda. To do so will enable the Bureau to make dissemination more promptly and will guard against the possibility of disseminating information which does not merit dissemination. In considering the foregoing it should also be noted that the caption "CIRM" should not be used indiscriminately as a "catch-all" but should be used only when justified.

The Bureau appreciates the efforts being made by recipient offices in connection with handling the matters referred to and foregoing observations are being made in an effort to even further improve the Bureau's over-all discharge of its responsibilities. This communication should be brought to the attention of all Agent and supervisory personnel handling the matters referred to.

SECURITY MATTER - C

The following observations are being submitted for the future guidance of the Miami Office in handling information concerning captioned subject.

As you are aware, the matter of the communist influence in the racial movement is of extreme importance to the Bureau and the subject of a continuing intensive investigation. The position of Martin Luther King, Jr., as a prime individual in the racial movement, coupled with known communist influences upon him, makes him also of prime investigative importance. His activities are closely followed and the Bureau desires prompt notification of all information pertaining to King.

Atlanta rad to Bureau and Miami 11/13/64 which reported that King and an associate were intending to go to Miami 11/15/64 and return 11/21/64, purpose of trip unknown, was the first information known by the Bureau of King's intentions to visit Miami. This radiogram prompted Butel of same date (11/13/64) to Atlanta and Miami soliciting further details. Subsequent teletypes from Miami (11/14/64) and Atlanta (two on 11/14/64) clarified the nature of King's trip and furnished sufficient specifics to enable the Bureau to be reasonably well informed.

Specific reference is now made to Miami airtel and letterhead memorandum (LHM), copy to Atlanta, 11/12/64 "Proposed Visit to Miami, Florida, and Bimini by Martin Luther King 11/15/64, Racial Matters," received at the Bureau 11/16/64. These communications contained sufficient information to inform the Bureau as to King's plans but because of their receipt not until 11/16/64, the use of several teletypes between the Bureau, Atlanta and Miami were necessary. Had the information obtained by Miami 11/12/64 been immediately given to the Bureau, there would have been a savings by all parties concerned.

Miami should insure that airtels leaving its Office are mailed on the same day as dated. Because King is the subject of a current Security Matter - C investigation, Atlanta origin, communications principally concerning him should be captioned as above. Of course, if the matter pertains primarily to the communist influence in racial matters, it should be captioned CIRM. Note also that the LHM referred to above indicated that King's visit to Miami and Bimini was for rest and relaxation " and has nothing to do with any proposed civil rights or racial matters." The Miami airtel therefore should not have been submitted with a "Racial Matters" character.

The foregoing should be brought to the attention of Agent and supervisory personnel who are in the future to handle matters pertaining to King and CIRM.

Reds in March Here, FBI Says

By the Associated Press

About 200 Communists, who tried to hide their party connections, were among the 200,000 Negroes and white in last year's civil rights March on Washington, Assistant FBI Director William C. Sullivan says.

Sullivan cited this as an example of how the Communists, in an effort "to divide and weaken this nation from within," put exploitation of the civil rights situation foremost.

After the march on Aug. 28, 1963, Rep. William H. Ayres, R-Ohio, protested that imposters dressed as clergymen participated in a massive "rigging" operation. He asked the FBI to see if Communist had in some way infiltrated the march in such garb in an attempt to discredit the civil rights drive.

Sullivan did not mention this or give any details in what he labeled as "Tenor of Remarks" at the annual banquet of the Merrick Boys Camp last night.

He quoted a Communist party official as saying last year that racial unrest in this country presented an excellent opportunity to raise up to $10,000 to finance party activities among Negroes.

But Sullivan noted that FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover had said it would be foolish to suggest that the aspirations of Negroes for equality are inspired by Communists.

Sullivan commented that another target of the Communists is the youth of America. One approach, he said, is to seek opportunities for Communists to speak on college campuses. Another, he said, is Marxist study groups for young people with instructors and leaders often having secret Communist affiliation.

Also, Sullivan said, the party has guided the formation of a national youth organization.

"In June, 1964," he said, "approximately 450 young Marxist partisans established the W. E. B. Du Bois Clubs of America with branches across the county. They are trying to capitalize on the name of the late Dr. William E. B. Du Bois, a prominent civil rights crusader and Communist front supporter who joined the Communist party at the age of 93.

"The goal of the youth organization is the promotion of the Communist 'line' and development of potential party members," he said.

What Next for Negroes?

Leaders Quarrel Over How to Use Election Victory Best to Advance Cause

By Jack Anderson

BUOYED BY THEIR vindication at the polls, Negro leaders are now quarreling over what to do next to advance their cause. Some are calling for a return to the streets. Others believe they should demonstrate less and do more to raise Negro standards.

Outside of the South, the voters overwhelmingly repudiated the white extremists. Yet, Negro extremists have seized upon the election results as justification for their militancy. They are now back upon their soap boxes, crying for riots and revolution.

It is no secret that a few Communists have managed to infiltrate the civil rights movement. Some members of the Freedom delegation that sought to represent Mississippi at the Democratic convention raised shrill objections to the slightest compromise and seemed more interested in stirring up trouble than in settling any issues.

Now they, and others like them, are trying to incite violence again in Harlem. Still others, a few decibels less shrill, are preaching nonviolent resolution.

BAYARD RUSTIN, the backstage organizer of last summer's march on Washington, is calling upon Negroes to enlist the support of poor whites in a "social revolution."

"We can't win alone against the entire white power structure," he shouted at a recent Washington rally. "We must prove to our poor white brothers that our cause is their cause."

Already he has set up a $5000 pilot project to work among the poor whites in a Chicago tenement section. He is also trying to raise money for a similar project in the impoverished Appalachia area.

As part of his pitch, Rustin has set up a cry against President Johnson's anti-poverty czar, Sargent Shriver.

"Sargent Shriver must go," roars Rustin. "He doesn't understand, nor is he in personal sympathy with our causes and problems.

"Shriver is immoral when he claims he can give your youths vocational training in his work camps. All he wants to do is get our boys off the streets. We must not allow our sons to be picked up and hauled off to remote concentration camps."

MOST RESPONSIBLE Negro leaders want to take advantage of the election gains to build a political power base, which would give the Negroes a greater voice in government affairs.

Negroes won seats for the first time in the legislatures of Iowa, Kansas, Oklahoma and Tennessee. New York elected seven Negro Assemblymen, three Negro State Senators, and a Negro Supreme Court judge. Michigan sent nine Negroes to its House, two to its Senate. The state also elected two Negroes to the United States House of Representatives.

In Massachusetts, Negro Edward W. Brooke was re-elected State Attorney General by a 900,000 landslide, thus emerging as the biggest Republican vote-getter in the state. He is already being mentioned as 72-year-old Sen. Leverett Saltonstall's most likely successor.

Noting these gains, Harlem Congressman Adam Clayton Powell has urged fellow Negroes: "The civil rights movement in America should now shift emphasis and area of involvement toward (a) greater political activity and (b) economic development for the Negro masses."

Though the moratorium on civil rights demonstrations has been lifted, many leaders believe demonstrations no longer are needed to dramatize racial injustice. The message has already been put across. Too many demonstrations, they feel, will only destroy their effectiveness.

MANY WOULD like to see more intensified economic retaliation against firms that discriminate against Negroes. Leaders are quietly checking the brand names, for example, of products that are manufactured in Mississippi and Alabama mills.

Companies which practice prejudice in the South may find their products boycotted in the North during the coming Christmas season.

Perhaps the most heartening development, however, has been a new appeal to racial pride. Don Warden, president of the Afro-American Association, has sounded the keynote with a challenge to Negroes to get off the welfare rolls and stand on their own feet.

"The Chinese came to America; they found us at the bottom and they moved up. We're still at the bottom," he recently declared. "The Japanese came to America; they found us at the bottom and they moved up. We're still at the bottom. Irish, Italians, Jews, Hungarians, Cubans came to America and found us at the bottom. These groups moved up. We're still at the bottom."

African students who come to America to study, he said, have a good scholastic average (22 per cent of them are "A" students, 33 per cent have a "B" average). Yet many members of the same race who live in America receive below-average grades.

"We must open up a gigantic war on dropouts and flunkouts," pleaded Warden, "if we're going to save the race. You cannot pass laws to make people want to learn. You cannot pass laws to require people to obtain economic skill. It's a problem of motivation . . ."

ReNYairtel bearing dual caption of "CIRM; Progressive Labor Movement, IS - PLM," New York files 100-153735 and 100-147372 dated 11/17/64 which set forth information indicating that William Epton, the Vice Chairman of Negro Affairs for the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM), had ordered that 12 copies of the PLM newspaper "Challenge" be sent to the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO) in Columbus, Mississippi, on a weekly basis. Three copies of referenced airtel were forwarded to the Jackson Office.

New York should promptly submit under the above caption a letterhead memorandum suitable for dissemination containing pertinent information regarding this matter. New York should thereafter remain alert for additional information indicating that the PLM is involved or is assisting in captioned project and insure that the Bureau is promptly furnished any additional information received.

Jackson should attempt to determine through discreet investigation the identities of persons presently connected with COFO in Columbus, Mississippi, and be alert for information indicating the newspaper "Challenge" is being distributed.

NOTE:

NY 4569-S* furnished information regarding order placed by Epton noted above. PLM is an ultra left Marxist-Leninist organization which follows the Chinese Communist Party line.

The following observations are being made for the future guidance of your office in the preparation of reports in instant and similar matters.

Several of the Appendix pages were noted to be outdated. Examples are characterizations appearing on pages 39, 41 and 44.

Characterizations of some of the individuals were noted to be unnecessarily lengthy. Examples are information contained in the first paragraph of the characterization of [redacted] on page 22 and information in the first paragraph of the characterization of [redacted] on page 32. Characterizations of individuals should be as brief as possible and confined primarily to the reporting of their subversive background.

Memorandum

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI (100-442529) DATE: 12/1/64

FROM : SAC, NEW YORK (100-153735)

SUBJECT: CIRM

ReBulet to NY, 11/20/64, and NY airtel and letterhead memorandum dated 11/10/64.

On 11/7/64, HARRY WACHTEL and BAYARD RUSTIN engaged in a conversation which according to the source, NY 4212-S*, concerned in part MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr!s trip to Oslo, Norway to received the Nobel Peace Prize. RUSTIN inquired about going to Oslo, and WACHTEL suggested RUSTIN do as he had done. WACHTEL stated that he told KING that he has "my resignation in your pocket" as far as going is concerned, and WACHTEL further stated he would not feel bad if KING thought his (WACHTEL's) presence might cause KING some embarrassment and cause KING to accept the resignation.

The phrase "my resignation in your pocket" suggests several possibilities regarding HARRY WACHTEL.

b7C

One possibility which would seem worthy of consideration is that MARTIN LUTHER KING, Jr. might be concerned over the size of the entourage which he plans to take with him to Oslo for the presentation of the Nobel Prize. It could very well be that KING and some of his advisers feel that he (KING) could conceivably be vulnerable for criticism if it became known that such a large group was accompanying him on a trip which obviously will require a large amount of money to finance. WACHTEL, realizing that a delicate situation might be created by even the slightest suggestion that SCLC (an organization presumably dedicated to civil rights) funds were being used to finance an expensive pleasure trip to Europe for a number of individuals, might have indicated to KING that he would be willing to tender his resignation, if by so doing it might help to avoid any embarrassment to KING. This possibility would seem worthy of credence in view of the fact that when the resignation phrase was used, WACHTEL and RUSTIN were discussing the group going to Oslo and those who would be available to go, and nothing was specifically said about anything in the backgrounds of WACHTEL or RUSTIN which might prove to be embarrassing to KING.

Another possibility which arises, as the Bureau suggested in the letter dated 11/20/64, is that HARRY WACHTEL has a "skeleton in his closet" something (possibly of a security nature) in his background which conceivably could be embarrassing to KING if it was made public. It is to be noted in this regard that HARRY WACHTEL and KING have freely communicated with one another and that KING, on several occasions, has met with WACHTEL and others in WACHTEL's office with no apparent attempt to conceal KING's presence there. It would seem inconsistent for WACHTEL at this time to bring up a matter relating to his (WACHTEL's) past in view of the close association he has had with KING over the past year which has included several meetings in New York, a meeting in Atlanta, and an appearance before the Supreme Court in Washington, in which WACHTEL represented KING.

In accordance with the instructions contained in Bulet dated 11/20/64, NYO is reviewing appropriate files in an effort to locate individuals in the Bath Beach Club of the CP who might be in a position to furnish information concerning WACHTEL.

Source advised that the Dayton Chapter of the National States Rights Party (NSRP) had planned to picket KING's appearance on 11/22/64. However, 11/29/64 is one of the dates for the NSRP Convention in Mobile, Alabama, and Dayton NSRP members plan to go to Alabama for the convention. Source did not know whether there will be any NSRP members left in Dayton, Ohio, to picket KING's appearance on 11/29/64.

Records of the Credit Bureau of Dayton, Inc., NEGRO Dayton, Ohio, show GEORGE W. LUCAS as a NM, born 4/1/10, and residing 2255 Soldiers Home and W. Carrollton Roads, Dayton, Ohio. Records of this agency show he has been Pastor of the Bethel Baptist Church, Dayton, Ohio, since 1945. His wife, ERMA LUCAS, born 4/10/15, has been employed by the Dayton, Ohio, Board of Education since 1959. The records show LUCAS was elected President of the Dayton, Ohio, Urban League in 5/58. He has a satisfactory credit record.

Records of the Dayton, Ohio, PD show one GEORGE W. LUCAS, NM, age 52 in 7/62, who resided at 2255 W. Carrollton Road, Dayton, Ohio, had been arrested nine times between the dates 8/3/49 and 7/3/62. Eight of the charges deal with moving traffic violations. Arrest on 8/3/49 shows charge D.W.I. - disposition withdrawn.

Records of Montgomery County SO, Dayton, Ohio, contain no record identifiable with Reverend GEORGE W. LUCAS.

Indices of the Cincinnati Office show a number of references indicating Reverend GEORGE W. LUCAS has been active in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and other racial matters.

On 6/21/50, a reliable source of the Chicago Office furnished an incomplete list of delegates to the Mid-Century Conference for Peace at Chicago, Illinois, on 5/29-30/50, which was reportedly sponsored by the Committee for Peaceful Alternatives. The list contains the name of one GEORGE W. LUCAS as a delegate from the State of Ohio.

Another reliable source of the Chicago Office characterized the Committee for Peaceful Alternatives on 12/17/50 as an organization which the CP does not endorse but that the CP will work with this organization. According to this source, the CP was opposed to many of the organization's policies, however, the party would submerge many of its ideas in order to work with the organization.

LHM will be submitted to Bureau and interested offices after appearance of KING in Dayton, Ohio, on 11/29/64. Bureau will be kept advised if any additional information received concerning planned picketing of this affair.

ReSVrep SA [redacted] 10/30/64.

The following is an analysis of rerep which indicates the necessity for the report to be revised and resubmitted.

(1) Character of case on page 1 incorrectly listed as "Internal Security - Communism." Should be "Internal Security - Communist."

(2) On page 2 the first main heading under Roman Numeral I is given as "Communist Party." It should read "Communist Strategy." See Bulet 8/28/64.

(3) On page 2 the statement "No information developed" is utilized for subheadings. Such statement is to be utilized only for main headings denoted by Roman Numerals. See item number 9, page 5, Bulet 8/28/64.

(4) Administrative pages B and C reveal that several individuals are concealed by T symbols. On page D it is stated that they were covered by T symbols due to [redacted] it appears that the reason these individuals were covered is that they requested their identities be concealed. If such be the reason the statement "by request" should appear after the individual's name. In the instances cited it is not believed that the reason given on page D is applicable. 100-442529-477

(5) On pages B and C there were several instances where the notation "Not furnished" was listed under the heading "File Where Original Information Located." Except where most unusual circumstances exist the necessary information should be included under the quoted heading. As a minimum there should be a listing of the location of the information in your Office's files. Of course wherever possible, there should be a listing of where the original information is.

(6) Appendix pages are not marked "Appendix" as required. Neither are they in alphabetical order as required. Further, neither of the two Appendix characterizations are current. It is necessary that only the latest Bureau-approved characterization of an organization be used in an Appendix, even if necessary to obtain from some other office. The failure to have an up-to-date characterization concerning Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, is not understandable in view of its inclusion in SAC letter 64-39. Page 14 contains a characterization of the National Lawyers Guild as cited by the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA). Characterizations quoting citations by the HCUA should be in the Appendix rather than the Details.

(7) Page 2, paragraph 1, line 2--correct spelling is "Gandhi." Harry Wachtel's name is misspelled on line 5, paragraph 1, page 14.

(8) Set out on pages 2-4 is a characterization of the Labor Youth League which consists of a HCUA citation. This organization has been cited pursuant to Executive Order 10450 and same should have been stated in the Details rather than setting out a lengthy HCUA citation. Of course, if a HCUA citation was appropriate it should have been in the Appendix rather than the Details. The same observation is applicable to the HCUA citation of the National Negro Labor Council on page 8. This organization has likewise been cited pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

(9) Information appearing in paragraph 2, page 5 is not clear. The sentence in question reads "In the ensuing conversation, King was overheard to introduce [redacted] to this same white male, but in this introduction King used the name Stanley Levison during the short period of time the group remained in the air terminal." It is not clear as to whether King used the name of Levison only during the introduction, only during the period of time the group remained in the air terminal, or a combination of both these times.

(10) Page 5 contains a characterization of Hunter Pitts O'Dell which reports his election to the National Committee of the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), under a pseudonym. Although it is permissible to characterize O'Dell by showing his connection with the National Committee, it is not desired that there be a reporting in connection with captioned matter of the fact that O'Dell's selections was under a pseudonym. Such references should be deleted.

(11) On pages 12 and 13 there is set out [redacted] b6 b7C b7D source is concealed [redacted] Inasmuch as effort was made to conceal the source's identity it is believed that further efforts should have been made by avoiding [redacted] Instead, the substance should have been reported without any indication that [redacted] If sources are to be concealed, imagination and ingenuity must be utilized in reporting information from those sources.

(12) On page 15, penultimate paragraph, there is reported a meeting between Carl Braden and Martin Luther King. It is stated that Braden was observed to shake hands with King and, thereafter, "kiss an unidentified Negro female while standing..." No purpose is evident in reporting the race of the individual so affectionately greeted by Braden. Reference thereto should therefore be deleted. On pages 15 and 16 there is a reporting of observations made by Bureau Agents. The fact that Bureau Agents made these observations was not included in the Details, but merely referred to in the cover pages. Report-writing rules provide for reporting observations of Bureau Agents as such. Therefore, the report should show that the observations were made by Bureau Agents. It is also believed that the information contained in the last three paragraphs of page 15 included much unnecessary detail. Such information should be summarized and restricted to only pertinent information.

(13) Pages 18 and 19 contain lengthy lists of individuals who had rooms at the Manger Hotel during a Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) Convention which rooms had been paid for by the SCLC. The mere listing of these individuals' names is not pertinent unless it can be shown that these individuals have some subversive background. For example, Randolph Blackwell is one of the individuals listed. He is a former member of the CPUSA. Bayard Rustin is listed and he is a former member of the Young Communist League. It is incumbent upon your Office to obtain the appropriate characterization and include same in the report. Do not list the names of individuals concerning whom no subversive information is known.

(14) Rerep was classified ~~"Secret"~~ (U) and the reason given was the fact that it contains information from highly sensitive sources. Classification justification must be more specific and should include the identities of sources concerned.

(15) Reference is made in both the synopsis [redacted] b7D [redacted] to Vice President-Elect Hubert Humphrey. The Bureau does not believe that there is sufficient significance to the reference to Humphrey to merit inclusion of his name in rerep. References should be deleted.

Immediately have rerep rewritten in line with the foregoing and submitted to reach the Bureau no later than 12/25/64. Insure that other offices receiving copies of rerep are appropriately advised.

It is obvious from the foregoing that rerep left much to be desired. The contents of this communication should be brought to the attention of SA [redacted] b6 b7C and the approving supervisory official, both of whom should be scored with form errors. The contents of this communication should serve as a basis for future guidance of SA [redacted] in the preparation of reports in instant and similar matters.

Rerep SA [redacted], dated 10/30/64, at Detroit, in the case captioned as above.

It is recommended that SA [redacted] be commended for the report submitted by him in this matter. It is pointed out that although eighteen agents of the Detroit Office participated in the various file reviews and preparation of some sections of this report, by far the majority of the work was performed by SA [redacted] He coordinated the report; he performed most of the necessary file reviews and he set up the organizational structure of this report, which is very detailed, comprehensive and factual. It is noted that this report is well documented and certainly gives a good picture of the Communist infiltration in the racial field in the Detroit Division.

It is pointed out that during the month of October, 1964, when most of the work on this report was in progress, SA [redacted] averaged four hours and four minutes per day overtime in order to complete his work in connection therewith.

Although it is realized that generally all Bureau reports are thorough and factual, it is felt that in this particular instance an exceptional job was done for which SA [redacted] should be commended.

SAC, Detroit, recommends that SA [redacted] be commended for having coordinated the preparation of a report submitted on the subject matter of communist influence in racial matters. SAC states that although 18 Agents participated in the necessary file reviews and the preparation of some sections of the report, SA [redacted] by far, performed the majority of the work. SAC notes the report is very detailed, comprehensive and factual, giving a good picture of communist influence in the racial field in the Detroit Division.

This report was prepared on the basis of instructions contained in Bulet to all offices 8/26/64. It is a "rehash" of information previously submitted under various captions. While it is agreed that this report is detailed, comprehensive and factual, a review of the report indicates that its organization leaves something to be desired and its content shows no ingenuity was used to make it concise. It contains minor errors in spelling,, dates and does not strictly conform to current report writing practices. It is not felt that SA [redacted] efforts are worthy of commendation by the Director. (Letter sent SAC 11/30/64)

RECOMMENDATION:

The Domestic Intelligence Division does not concur with the recommendation of the SAC, Detroit, that a letter of commendation be directed to SA [redacted]

NATIONAL MEETINGS
NOVEMBER 18 THROUGH 21, 1964

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 2, 1964, that on November 27, 1964, a Communist Party (CP) meeting was held in Baltimore, Maryland.

The source stated that at the above meeting GEORGE MEYERS, who is known to the source as a member of the CP National Executive Committee as well as Chairman of the CP District which includes Maryland, Washington, D. C., Virginia, and North Carolina, told CP members present that he had been in attendance at CP National meetings held on November 18 through 21, 1964.

MEYERS stated that at the National meeting, the leadership expressed their satisfaction with the fact that Senator GOLDWATER had been defeated in the recent National elections.

MEYERS further stated that although the CP had supported President JOHNSON, because of his civil rights stand, they still had to consider him a possible danger to world peace because of his continued support of Southern Viet Nam. MEYERS stated that the Viet Nam situation was more dangerous than the Cuban situation.

MEYERS told CP members present that the CP would come out with a statement of policy the following week on the CP's attitude toward President JOHNSON and the world situation and that it would be presented to the public in leaflet form.

MEYERS stated that the CP felt that the Negro people in the U. S. were on the move and that the CP must continue to keep up its fight for Negro and white unity.

MEYERS in answer to a question about the removal of former Premier KHRUSHCHEV of the USSR made the statement that the CP National leadership had expressed concern about KHRUSHCHEV's

MEYERS then stated that since KHRUSHCHEV's removal, the USSR has had better relations with Red China.

MEYERS commented that KHRUSHCHEV's son had abused his position and had travelled widely at public expense without rendering any accounting of his travels.

[redacted] stated that he was thrown in jail when he was in Jackson, Mississippi, but was "gotten off the hook" right away. He said that he had a card made out to him, but the two persons with him were listed only as authorized personnel. Before clearing up the matter with an attorney, they had been detained quite awhile. [redacted] informed that they were engaged in getting children to school for registration, which registration was refused. About one week later, one of the boys [redacted] was found drowned, and was listed by the sheriff as an accidental death by drowning, although the child had been beaten before he was thrown in the river. [redacted] stated that it is known in Mississippi, who the murderers are and it is also known who the murderers of the three boys are, but nothing is being done about it.

[redacted] said the situation down there is terrible. A body without a head was washed in and a sheriff kicked the body and remarked that it was the worst case of suicide that he has ever seen, and walked away.

[redacted] stated that not only did the FBI arrest no one, after Hoover said they knew who had done it, but a sheriff had the gall to say that the FBI was not cooperating with his office.

[redacted] observed that as far as the FBI is concerned, they do not act until a crime is committed, and then it is too late. He commented that he met about eight FBI men and they all were Southerners and all took the attitude that, "you knew what you were getting into when you came down here". He does not consider this a favorable attitude for a Federal Agent to take; the Agent should be upholding the law. [redacted] stated that they (his associates) had several good lawyers, a couple of whom just graduated from Harvard, and they felt that the FBI was withholding evidence, which the lawyers needed for court cases. [redacted] stated that no one can get a warrant to search the FBI Office; they are within the law, they are in your way, but there is nothing you can do about it.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

[redacted] stated that the apparent reason of the FBI assistance was to ferret out all the Communists. He said that some of the doctors in Mississippi say that there are all northern Communists down there. b6 b7C

[redacted] informed that a man from Michigan, goes to Jackson, every two weeks with food and clothing for the Negroes in Mississippi.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

NEWS FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE, November, 20, 1964

Statement by Claude Lightfoot, leading Negro Communist Spokesman regarding the remarks of J. Edgar Hoover about Dr. Martin Luther King.

The arrogant white supremacist attitude displayed by J. Edgar Hoover in his violent attack on the character and integrity of Dr. Martin Luther King reveals for the whole world to see what American Communists have long known, namely, that the F.B.I. under Hoover's leadership has constituted a government within a government. It has been an institution which has stood above public criticism. During these cold war years, the F.B.I. has hounded and persecuted Communists. It violated every norm of civil liberties with immunity. The success it stored up in this respect has now emboldened Hoover to attack the acknowledged civil rights leader in the country as well as the Supreme Court which took a hand in correcting some of the results of such violations.

No doubt Mr. Hoover's attack on Dr. King and the Courts reflects a growing desperation in the ranks of reactionary elements. Confronted with an overwhelming mandate for democratic advances arising out of the election results, frightened by the strength of the Negro people and their pro-democratic friends, Hoover's remarks were intended to stop this tide, to put the "uppity" Negro back into his so-called place and to reassert "that a Negro has no rights that the white man is bound to respect".

Such conduct must receive the condemnation of every decent American. In the national interest, J. Edgar Hoover must be removed from his post and conditions created where the F.B.I. is subjugated to public scrutiny as any other organ of government.

"We can no longer keep faith with the people we represent and continue to meet with those at the Board who make a farce of discussion and negotiation. We, therefore, have decided on the attached program of action, scheduled for February 3, 1965."

Attached to the above mimeographed letter was a list of "Demands" as follows:

"I. The upgrading of 165 Negro and Puerto Rican teachers to supervisory positions in the New York City School System.

II. The revising of the Construction program to conform with a city-wide plan for desegragation

III. Issuance of or commitment to the issuance of a city-wide plan and timetable for school desegregation

IV. For the 600 schools:

a. An objective evaluation by a study group not related to the Board of Education

b. The institution of a curriculum in the 600 schools

c. The institution of a screening process for the admission of pupils to the 600 schools and a screening process for their return to the mainstream of the school system."

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates to this meeting were cautioned against the germ of anti-Soviet and anti-CP ideologies. These delegates were also told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second conference of over 20 persons met in Chicago on December 28-29, 1963, for the purpose of initiating a "call" to the new youth organization and planning for a founding convention to be held in June, 1964.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are: "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people. As young people in the forces struggling for democracy, we shall actively strive to defeat these reactionary and neo-fascist elements and to achieve complete freedom and democracy for all Americans, thus enabling each individual to freely choose and build the society he would wish to live in. Through these struggles we feel the American people will realize the viability of the socialist alternatives."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

2. APPENDIX

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA

The constitution further states that this new organization shall be a membership organization open to individuals, or if five or more people so desire a chapter can be formed which shall in turn be guided by the policies and principles of the parent organization.

The second source has also advised that at the founding convention it was voted that the organization should be temporarily headquartered in San Francisco, California, although no specific physical location was decided upon. This same source advised on June 29, 1964, that the temporary headquarters of this organization is 1007 McAllister Street, San Francisco, which is the headquarters of the W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco.

Both sources have advised that at the founding convention two officers were elected:

PHILIP CHAPIN DAVIS - President
CARL ELLENGER BLOICE - Publications Chairman

A third source has advised that on October 26, 1962, PHILIP DAVIS attended a CP recruiting class held at 1579 Scenic Avenue, Berkeley, California.

A fourth source has advised that CARL BLOICE, reporter for the "People's World" newspaper, was, on April 3, 1964, elected to the newly organized San Francisco County Committee of the CP.

The "People's World" is a west coast communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco, California.

On November 24, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which reflected that Martin Luther King, Jr. (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference) (SCLC) was in contact with [redacted] on that date. King advised that he was in the process of writing his speeches which he would deliver in Oslo, Norway (where he will receive the Nobel Peace Prize in December, 1964). He said "they" (officials in Norway) have two speeches which are customarily made by recipients of the prize: the Nobel lecture, 45 minutes in length and given the night following the Nobel Presentation; and a five minute speech at the time of the Presentation. King said he had been working on the forty five minute speech but had done nothing on the five minute speech, therefore, he had in mind asking three people to put on paper what they felt he should say during the five minute speech. He said he was of the opinion that those remarks would be quoted in full and in that regard, told [redacted] that he wanted him to think (his speech) through with "our friend" the kind of thing that he should say from the platform. King requested that speech be sent to his house by Saturday (November 28, 1964). [redacted] agreed to comply.

Re Atlanta airtel to Bureau dated 10/27/64.

Knoxville sources available have furnished no information concerning any "freedom meetings", in Knoxville on 11/7-8/64. Knoxville Office has no specific sources which might disclose this information through a discreet inquiry due to the lack of CP activity and lack of CP members in the Knoxville area at the current time. Discreet inquiry will continue possible sources to obtain this information.

One source has advised that over the weekend of 11/7-8/64, there was a meeting of southeastern teachers held in Knoxville and source stated that a number of Negroes did attend this meeting; however, it is not known whether [redacted] may have been present and no information has been received that this was any type of "freedom meeting".

The Chairman of the first session on November 18, 1964, was TOM DENNIS. DANIEL RUBIN announced the agenda for the November 18-21, 1964, National Board meeting would be as follows:

Report on the USA Elections - JACK STACHEL

Report on International Situation - MY LUMER

Report on the Status of the Racial Conflict - CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT

Special Report on Viet Nam - ARNOLD JOHNSON

Report on CP, USA Organizational Problems - DANIEL RUBIN

Report on Legal Status of the Party - GUS HALL

Report on the Status of the "Peoples World" - HENRY WINSTON

Although the above was the announced agenda, following is the actual order of reports delivered at this National Board meeting:

Report on the election by JACK STACHEL was followed by HY LUMER's report on the international situation. These were followed by the report on Viet Nam by JOHNSON, then the report by LIGHTFOOT on the status of the racial conflict, and the last report was by DANNY RUBIN on CP, USA organizational problems.

The first report was that of JACK STACHEL on the results of the 1964 USA elections. STACHEL stated in essence as follows:

An estimate should be formed as to the character of the recent Presidential election. 1964 was a political crossroads election in which the path could swing in either direction; in the direction of reaction or in the direction of a smashing defeat for the forces of the ultra-right and fascism. As a result of the challenge of the reactionary forces, we had the opportunity to create mass movements and as a result we "reached the millions." We became a force to shape results of important issues. The defeat of Goldwaterism gave a thundering defeat to the forces of war, fascism, and racism. A new high level of political maturity was achieved by the American people. In spite of fraudulent efforts to confuse, the Negro people voted 99% in some cases for President JOHNSON.

There were those who saw no danger from the ultra-right. Some viewed this as a case of "tweedledum" and "tweedledee" or "the worse the better"; or "it can't happen here." The victory of President JOHNSON was so one-sided that some are now trying to prove that there was no danger from the ultra-right ever. Did we overestimate the danger from the ultra-right? The answer is no. Some people drew pessimistic conclusions on the Goldwater nomination. This reflected a lack of faith in the American people and traditions. But, this reaction was not inevitable. The CP recognized the danger and although defeated, the ultra-right has not yet been destroyed.

The following statistics in the recent election are particularly significant. 61.3% of the electorate voted for JOHNSON (in 1936 60.8% voted for FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT). JOHNSON received an electoral vote of 486 to 52 for GOLDWATER. JOHNSON received 68% of the vote in the 10 northeastern states; 63.7% from the border states; 61.9% from the eleven midwestern states; 60.07% from the five Pacific states; 56.6% from the eight mountain states. JOHNSON received barely a majority of 50.3% in the eleven southern states. In New York, JOHNSON received a plurality of two and a half million, a plurality of one million in Ohio, and a plurality of 880,000 in Illinois. GOLDWATER's strategy was that he would win if he could carry the South, the Rocky Mountain states, Texas, Ohio, Illinois, and California. A look at the figures shows that GOLDWATER was not mad but rather he just fell down and did not carry the states he hoped to carry. GOLDWATER only carried the four states that THURMOND carried in 1948 plus Georgia and just squeaked by in Arizona.

The most important gain by the election was in Congress. Forty-eight Republicans lost their seats. This was important not merely because of numbers, but also because of quality; the worst reactionaries were defeated. The coalition of Republicans and Dixiecrats has been broken for the first time since the days of FRANKLIN ROOSEVELT. There have also been tremendous changes in the state legislatures, some of which is due to reapportionment. There is a social and class background in the achievement of the GOLDWATER defeat. This was the broadest coalition of the working class people and the Negro liberation movement. These will not continue this fight on all issues but can be held together by a coincidence of interests, particularly on the question of peace. But the backbone of this coalition remains the working class, both Negro and white, and all the common people. In the northern big cities the vote increased from 68% for KENNEDY in 1960 to 74% for JOHNSON; in the suburbs it increased from 46% to 63%; and in the rural areas the percentage remained the same. The Negro vote overall was approximately 95% for JOHNSON and in Illinois it was 97% and Michigan 98%. Insofar as the vote was a measure of income, those of income $10,000 and over were in favor of GOLDWATER. In regard to the question of backlash, 16 counties in Maryland which returned 64% for WALLACE returned only 42% for GOLDWATER.

But was this victory inevitable? A shift of only eight million votes would have caused a change in the outcome of the election in 1960. The votes were pretty well evenly divided between KENNEDY and NIXON. I think we can say that peace was the overriding issue in this election. The women of the country gave 67% of the vote for JOHNSON. In regard to civil rights, I believe that this was the most positive factor in the shaping of the campaign. The Negro people's movement was decisive. The national ticket of JOHNSON and HUMPHREY campaigned on this issue. GOLDWATER's campaign was tied to the slogan "Riots in the Streets." On the economic issues--the 6 years of growth in the national economy was a factor, but the administration emphasized its campaign against poverty, for Social Security, etc. Insofar as the question of whether there was a danger of JOHNSON moving to the right, we saw that JOHNSON did not compete with GOLDWATER on who is more to the right. If the people's movement had not organized the forces of labor and the Negro people and the entire left, there would have been no guarantee that JOHNSON would not have moved to the right.

On the role of the Party and the left: the left played its biggest role since the campaign for HENRY WALLACE in 1948. Regarding our Party and its policies: we were never so united as we were in this campaign. The Party had a greater percentage of members active in the campaign, our members had better understanding of the issues, understood the line and brought it to the masses of the people. Organizations of the left and progressives worked hard. In contrast, we can say that the role of the forces around the "National Guardian" was one of inconsistency. The role of the Socialist Party was one of division.

The 26 million people who voted for GOLDWATER are not all fascists, but the danger from the right remains strong. Without specific demands for peace, economy, democracy, equality and on the question of youth, you can't really beat a fascist organization. There must be an expose of the violent fascist groups such as the Ku Klux Klan, the John Birch Society, the Minutemen, etc. The role of the Party is the correct policy based upon the unity of the working class and people generally. This smashing victory was due not only to fear of GOLDWATER but also due to changes in the national economy and social life.

This Party is against GOLDWATER's theory of realignment of the two national parties, Democrats and Republicans, into two parties with the liberals on one side and the conservatives on the other. We are not indifferent concerning who controls the Republican Party. This is not merely a struggle by ROCKEFELLER and ROMNEY against GOLDWATER. The people must intervene to support the people's demands in the state legislatures, in Congress, etc. Let the Republican Party compete for the people's favor. Both parties must be compelled to meet the people's demands. We must remember that GOLDWATER's base in the South is vulnerable. This is no idyllic approach to the Democratic Party. That party is also a party of monopoly but it has a different base. The forces of monopoly will always fight for the status quo. "JOHNSON's victory was no mandate," according to the "Wall Street Journal." The "National Guardian" and the Trotskyites say the same thing. We are justly critical of the JOHNSON Administration policies on Viet Nam, etc., but we must remain a part of a broad coalition. Without demands, there can be no general unity. Abstractions are not enough. Our future political activity must be based upon independent action and organizational action operating side by side. We must construct a permanent political machinery. We must lend our support to developing movements, lobbies, conferences and state, local and national movements. We must emphasize the importance of year-round political activity. We must develop an extensive struggle for the participation of mass organizations in governmental bodies. We must promote participation in the selection of candidates in advance of the primaries in order to make them logical candidates.

There is already activity along these lines by such organizations as Women Strike for Peace. There have been signature campaigns for cease-fire in Viet Nam, for trade with socialist countries and against U.S. intervention in Cuba, Congo, etc.

We must emphasize our program for the implementation of the civil rights law on every level, including trade unions, jobs, education, to enfranchise the Negroes in the South, for federal power to guarantee civil rights and for the impeachment of corrupt judges. The role of the trade unions must be to organize the unorganized in the South, providing they give up their chauvinism. We must struggle to bring about the enactment of medicare and aid to the region of Appalachia. The composition of Congress is now like it was in 1936 and is favorable for the enactment of a complete system of social legislation. There must be a fight for full employment. In this way, we can breathe life into the "Great Society" slogan. In regard to civil liberties, the fight must continue for the repeal of the McCarran Act, the indictment of the Ku Klux Klan, Minutemen, and Nazis. Insofar as our relations with the other members of the left are concerned, they must remain friendly and we must differentiate the Trotskyites from the others.

This was the end of STACHEL's report. It was followed by discussion which was begun by ARNOLD JOHNSON who stated as follows:

On the role of the CP in the election. When KENNEDY was in office but six months, GUS HALL, in a speech, warned of the danger from the ultra-right. We made a great contribution in this election to defeat the ultra-right, and we mobilized the entire left also on the issues of civil rights and economic issues. PHIL BART estimates that the CP distributed 800,000 to one million pieces of literature during this campaign. The speeches and trips made by GUS HALL and HENRY WINSTON were of great significance. They and our local people also reached the people with our message via the press, radio and TV. However, use of "The Worker" did not pick up despite the publicity.

The discussion was then continued by CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT who stated as follows:

This election the people not only voted against something, but also for some things. The material conditions now exist for achieving a breakthrough for civil rights during the next four to six years. Certain subjective factors need to be brought into play. For some time the Negro civil rights movement alone stood out as a protest; today, this is not only one issue by itself but covers an entire spectrum of people and demands ranging from the broad issue of peace on into other areas. The Negro people are now no longer alone as results have shown. The goal of two million Negro voters in the South, when realized, will result in a realignment and retirement of Dixiecrats.

[redacted] next reported on the role of youth in the election as follows: b6 b7C

The attitude of youth during this election was such that according to reports on activities in various colleges 70% rejected GOLDWATER compared to the 60% rejection by adults. There was, during this campaign, greater activity on the part of youth than ever before during the last 20 years. The task now is to find ways to use the pro-election momentum to build a united movement of youth on peace and economic issues, on democratization of education, on federal aid to education and on integration. The war in Viet Nam and the elimination of the draft also are real issues.

[redacted] commented that the victory over the forces of the ultra-right was achieved by the forces of labor combined with the Negro movement, including the youth.

Following the above discussion, GIL GREEN read a first draft of a resolution which was to set forth the position of the CP, USA on the recent elections. No copies were available to be passed out to those in attendance and, therefore, GREEN read the entire statement. The text of GREEN's first draft with a small change subsequently incorporated was as follows:

1) The electorate has spoken. It has given a stinging rebuff to the defiant bid of extreme reaction for governmental power. It has made the term Goldwaterism synonymous with Mc Carthyism, with rabid anti-communism and war-mongering, with Dixiecratism and violent racism, with haughty indifference to the plight of the unemployed, the aged, the young and the poor.

November 3rd represented an important people's victory. It was a bridge that had to be crossed, a battle that had to be won. It has placed the political struggle on new terrain from which great new victories are possible. But it is no guarantee that what the people voted for--peace, civil rights, greater democracy and a real war on poverty--are now assured. The election landslide has given the common people an indisputable advantage in the fight for their rights and their needs. Whether that advantage is fully utilized, or whether it is frittered away or completely lost, depends upon how the election victory is understood and what is done to realize its mandate.

There can be no reliance on the good intentions of the Johnson Administration and the newly-elected congress, despite the overwhelming character of the victory and the greatly improved composition of both the House and Senate. Whether the election returns will be read correctly by those elected to public office does not depend alone on their ability to interpret the national will accurately. It depends even more on the ability of the national will to make that interpretation stick, to so translate it into concrete forward-looking policies, and so fight for their realization, that they cannot be evaded without running into a buzzsaw of popular opposition. In this alone lies the guarantee that the election mandate will be fulfilled.

2) The struggle to achieve this will not be easy. The ultra-right, although badly beaten in the election, still represents a formidable and dangerous force. For it it was a win-all, lose-all election. There is evidence that the ultra-right did not actually expect to lose by so great a margin. It was nonetheless able to mislead some nearly 27 million Americans into voting for GOLDWATER, even though the vast majority of these cannot be considered as ultra-rightists. This is an ominous warning not to be ignored.

The Birchite-Dixiecrat-Goldwater camp is now seeking to regroup its ranks. It will endeavor to hold on to its dominant position within the GOP while making some overtures and concessions in the direction of party unity. It will do all in its power to exert a constant unremitting reactionary pressure on the JOHNSON Administration, on congress, and on the state governments. It is better organized than are the liberals and progressives and is well-heeled financially. It will seek to use every setback suffered by American imperialism abroad, every struggle between monopoly and the people at home, to sow confusion and demagogy. It aims to weld together a phalanx of racist and fascist-minded forces ready to go to any limits, even armed violence, to thwart the national will and to achieve their ultra-reactionary ends. The November 3rd election was only the first major battle with the ultra-right; not the decisive nor final one.

3) Now that the elections are over, a threat to the popular mandate also comes from many of the big business forces who, for their own reasons, opposed the GOLDWATER candidacy and gave varying degrees of support to the campaign of President JOHNSON. These capitalist groupings will now endeavor to interpret the election mandate in their own way and in their own interest. This will not be in the interest of the people.

It is true that these groups do not want a trigger-happy foreign policy that could blunder the nation into a nuclear disaster. That is why they feared a GOLDWATER victory. But neither do they want a complete end to the cold war and arms race and a true policy of peaceful coexistence with the Soviet Union, China, Cuba and all other socialist lands. Nor do they seek an end to colonialism, only an end to the discredited European brand while imposing their own neo-colonial forms of economic and political subjugation. They support the dirty wars in Viet Nam and the Congo and organize U.S. guerrilla armies and CIA financed and manipulated counterrevolutions to keep the peoples of Latin America, Asia and Africa from becoming masters in their own homes.

The big business groups that supported JOHNSON recognized that there could be no peace on our streets if GOLDWATER and the Dixiecrats won federal power. They realize that concessions to greater Negro equality are inevitable. Yet they do not want a complete end to discrimination NOW, and certainly do not want it in industry, for that would cut into their profits. Nor do they want a radical change in the South, for they fear that a South governed by a forward-looking Negro-white alliance would so weaken reaction nationally, and particularly in the halls of congress, as to give a new progressive thrust to the whole nation.

Likewise are they opposed to the kind of economic reforms and massive federally financed building programs which alone can create the jobs and decent housing without which the very promise of Negro equality becomes a mockery.

These capitalist groupings, other than those who supported GOLDWATER, find it in their interests to make certain concessions to labor in order to avoid all-out class conflict. But they are no less bitterly opposed to a new labor upsurge, to a new extension of labor's right to organize and to bargain collectively, and to a great new advance in progressive social legislation.

While these groupings of capital did not want Goldwaterism in power at this time, now that it has been decisively defeated, they do not want it totally crushed. They want it to remain strong enough to veto public pressure for more liberal and progressive domestic and foreign policies, and as an ace-in-the-hole should they some day prefer it in power.

4) One of the major objectives of these big business groupings is to try to halt the process of political regrouping which in this election, more than any previous one, indicates a radical transformation of the mass base of each of the two major parties. As these parties evolved historically, they were each composed of heterogeneous and conflicting class and sectional interests, which in the course of intra-party strife cancelled themselves out and thus made big business control easier. In fact, the parties were little more than corrupt electoral combinations held together to win elections and not bound by any platform or program. But starting with the Roosevelt New Deal a shift began to take place in the mass base of each party. The Democratic Party nationally became identified in the public mind as the party more responsive to mass pressure, especially from the workers, Negro people and lower income groups. The Republican Party became identified in the public mind with the vested interests. Both national parties remained in fact the parties of big business. The national Democratic Party tended to get more big business support when a course of compromise was deemed advisable or unavoidable. The national Republican Party was the greater recipient of this support when a policy of concessions was opposed, or when it was feared that the pressure for reform would get out of hand. Monopoly groupings and individual capitalists have leaned in one direction or the other, depending also upon the nature of their investments, their market problems, and the struggle within the ranks of finance capital for the lion's share of the yearly $100 billion of federal spending.

5) In this year's election, the shift in mass base reached a new high point. Every section of the labor movement supported the national Democratic ticket, something which did not take place even in the ROOSEVELT landslide of 1936. It is estimated that well over 80% of the working class vote went to JOHNSON. The Negro people, who up to the days of the New Deal were traditionally in the Republican column, this year voted Democratic by an estimated 95%. The huge Negro vote with its near unanimity was decisive in swinging the election in most northern industrial states. In the South too it played a special role, being decisive in all the Southern states won by JOHNSON and in a number of key Southern congressional districts as well.

The Dixiecrat hold on the South has up to now been used as the main mass counteracting force to the growing influence of the labor, Negro and liberal movements within the national Democratic Party. This year, the Dixiecrats broke with the national ticket and formed an alliance with GOLDWATER and the Republican Party. Some, like THURMOND, switched outright to the Republican Party. Thus the labor, Negro, liberal and progressive forces are in a relatively stronger position to wield influence in the national Democratic Party than ever before.

6) Contrariwise, the national Republican Party in this election became the die-hard party of extreme reaction, turning its back on many of its former supporters and embracing the Birchites, Kluxers and Dixiecrats as its natural allies. Even large sections of the northern farm vote, of the women's vote, of the relatively conservative suburban, small-town and old-age vote, swung away from the Republican national ticket in disgust. It is estimated that in the north GOLDWATER got his main vote from the upper income groups. Only in the South, where many white working people are still poisoned by racial prejudice, did he get large numbers of lower income voters.

This situation is causing considerable alarm in the ranks of certain big business groups and their political pundits. There is much talk about the danger of a one party system and of the Republican Party dwindling to a small minority party and going the way of the Whigs. The real fear is that the tweedle-dum and tweedle-dee aspect of the two party system may go out of existence and give way to parties based on specific class alliance and corresponding programs.

The Republican Party finds itself in deep crisis. If democratic reapportionment is won in the various states, and if the Negro people can win their right towote in the South, the crisis in the ranks of the Republican Party is bound to grow, for much of the strength it has exercised in state legislatures and in Congress has been out of proportion with its actual strength in the electorate. At the same time many forces inside the Republican Party now realize that it can survive as a potent political force in the industrial states at least by moving in an opposite direction to Goldwaterism. We are not indifferent to this trend and would like to see extreme reaction defeated in both major parties.

But the attempt to save the Republican Party by patching up the differences within it are not in most cases motivated by concern with giving the people alternative electoral choices. On the part of big business it is motivated by the single desire to keep the two-party system as it has been: safe vehicles thru which it can continue to exercise its political domination.

7) In the Democratic Party, too, the struggle is shaping up with new dimensions. The question is: Will the new mass base of the national Democratic Party reflect itself in policies, leadership and in the exercise of power? Or, will the Johnson Administration take this mass base for granted and seek instead to mend its political fences on the Right? Concretely: Will the Johnson Administration continue to give key posts in the cabinet to big business representatives, including Republicans, or will labor and the Negro people find representation in the cabinet for the first time? Will the Administration lead the fight for a change in seniority rules, or will it placate the Dixiecrats by giving them the very committee posts from which they can best smother and sabotage the carrying thru of the election mandate? Will the Administration give protection to the Negro people in the deep South and guarantee them their constitutional rights, or will it close its eyes to the reign of our forces in our pocket. This independent movement needs our help and then we can exert influence on the consideration of candidates in primaries to include Negro, women, and labor candidates.

We must find ways to involve the entire CP membership in this struggle. The left has never been so isolated as were such groups as those around the "National Guardian," etc. But they did have an influence on our cadre. As a result, we were too apologetic on the slogan "Defeat Goldwater at All Costs." The results of our elections could have been much greater if not for these influences of these "leftists." We have become victims of our own demands. We acted in the manner of "what is possible?" This makes us seem conservative in the eyes of the militant youth. We confuse immediate demands with longer range propaganda demands. We neglect the formulation of laws, etc. It would give our Party a different image if we now use longer range propagandist demands.

In summary, I agree with JACK STACHEL's report and I also believe that the resolution read by GIL GREEN is a good draft.

After HALL's comments, JACK STACHEL spoke in summary. In essence, he stated I believe this was a good discussion. Basically, there are no differences although there were some problems raised which can be incorporated in the resolution. The report will be re-written to include the ideas and suggestions brought out during the discussion. In addition to the resolution, I believe we should work up a program of action in regard to some immediate steps to be taken.

At the afternoon session on November 19, 1964, and for the sessions thereafter, the following individuals were not in attendance:

The first report delivered was the report on the international situation by HY LUMER who stated in essence as follows:

All this represents an important plus for the battles ahead, but only if these independent movements recognize that their job is not done. They need to find the basis for continued and permanent existence, fighting for progressive policies and for the complete fulfillment of the November 3rd mandate.

Secondly, these independent volunteer formations need to achieve a greater degree of cohesion and unity based upon greater clarity of program and perspective. What is needed to combat Goldwaterism in all its manifestations and to counter the organization and cohesion of the ultra-right, is a great people's coalition for peace, equality, security and opportunity. It is the organized labor movement, representing the most progressive, best organized and most militant class in modern society, which has the responsibility of taking the lead in the formation and heading-up of such a popular coalition.

The need for such a people's alliance has been recognized by certain labor leaders who have called for a National Coalition of Conscience. But this thought has not yet become the accepted goal of the entire labor movement and little has been done to implement it. One reason for this is that the majority of labor leaders are still tied too closely to the Democratic machine and tend to give a blank check to whatever Democratic Administration is in power. This is the major reason why the political action machinery of the labor movement, in the form of COPE, is still in most places something thrown together in the last weeks of an election campaign. It is not a permanent political arm of labor, working day in and day out around the year in every plant and working class community.

9) Of all social forces in our land, the Negro people are the most dissatisfied with their lot, unable and unwilling to live in the old way and determined not to sell their birthright and self-dignity for some minor advances. Yet the fulfillment of their battle cry, "Freedom Now," requires far reaching changes in American life and not least of all in its economy. For these reasons the Negro people's movement is the most determined and militant force in America today. Its courage, self-sacrifice and noble ideals have attracted to it also many of the best of the white young generation, who understand that by winning freedom for Negro America they will insure freedom for all America.

Because the root cause of Negro oppression is economic, and because the great majority of Afro-Americans are working people there is the basis for a natural alliance between the labor and Negro people's movements. This already exists in loose form and could exist in complete and solid form once the labor movement takes a greater initiative in the struggle for Negro rights and in the great battle for peace and against poverty. When the spirit which today animates the Negro people's movement sweeps over into the ranks of labor, a great new rebirth of the labor movement will take place. It will complete the job of organizing the millions of still unorganized industrial, white collar and professional workers and place itself in the recognized leadership of all those working for social progress in the United States. It is toward that day that all class-conscious and militant trade unionists should work.

10) The most important single task in helping to weld together a coalition that can block the path to Goldwaterism, no matter what form, face or guise it may take, is the building of an ever more united and ever stronger Left force in American life. The nature of our problems in the years ahead are such that only deep-going economic and political changes can counter the built-in tendencies of American capitalism toward retrogression and reaction. Only a stronger Left force which views American problems on the background of a world in revolutionary technological and social change, and which understands the nature of our present-day society and the meaning of socialism, can exert a consistently progressive influence on current struggles, giving them aim and perspective.

There is increasing evidence of a growing ferment in the ranks of progressive-minded people, especially young people; a growing realization that what has been referred to as the Triple Revolution of our time, will require answers more deep-going and fundamental than those faced by any previous generation. New times will require new values, new approaches, new answers. This means that the potential for the development in American life of an influential and ever more vital Left force is rapidly maturing.

The fact that new forces moving to advanced social thinking come from varied class and social backgrounds and have different levels of experience, explains the reason for the conflicting points of view in the ranks of the Left, both new and old, and why no single common approach to all basic questions has yet emerged.

This expressed itself during the election campaign. Every section of the Left recognizes that a basic political regrouping in American political life is necessary and inevitable. The day will surely come when socialist-minded people, trade unionists and progressives generally, will have a major electoral party of their own, representing their combined interests and not that of big capital. But what many on the Left fail to see is that the exact process of political regrouping taking place is different from that at the beginning of the century. It is not following the old classical pattern of straight-line third-party development. The process at work is more complicated and complex. It is still taking place within the framework of the institutionalized two-party system. Whatever independent volunteer forms of political expression exist of importance, these have as their immediate objective the aim of influencing the outcome of the struggle within and between the two major parties.

The whole Left should realize that subjective desires cannot replace objective reality. Nor can the Left achieve anything by standing on the side lines as super-critics of everything and everyone that does not accept its own overall viewpoint. The Left, seeking a more fundamental reconstruction of society, can only help bring this advanced thinking to the people by being a part of their daily struggles and not by separating itself from them or erecting artificial barriers between it and the much vaster mass of forward-moving Americans.

So long as the people see a concrete tangible difference between the two parties they will continue to cast their votes for the one which is somewhat better or, to put it another way, somewhat less worse. Nor will abstract arguments about the "lesser evil" change anything until the masses feel strong enough to go in the direction of a party representing the greater good. As things are developing today and have been since the New Deal, that day will most likely come when the party of the extreme Right is so badly routed and isolated that the fear of its national victory is no longer paramount. Then will come the day of reckoning in the Democratic Party as well. Until then, 3rd Party candidates should be put forward wherever this can help crystallize the mass movement and struggle, but they will be the exception and not the rule. Under no circumstances should they be put forward where this would mean a head-on collision with the labor or Negro people's movements or where the only result would be the victory of the ultra-right. But certainly the Left should actively urge the labor and Negro people's movements to begin fighting for increased representation, to put forth their own more advanced candidates in primary struggles, and to refuse to go along with machine-chosen political hacks. Likewise, it should help stimulate the formation of a liberal-progressive bloc in Congress and in state and city legislative bodies.

The Left should grasp the truth of all past experience that to run 3rd party candidates just for spite may solve problems of personal frustration with the slowness of events, but will not add anything to the far more difficult, painstaking and arduous task of political regrouping, not as one may want it to take shape but as it actually is. In fact, any careless approach to this question will only discredit the very idea of independent political action.

11) In the 1964 elections the Communist Party played an important and significant role. It helped bring greater clarity and a degree of unity to Left-minded people and by speaking to tens of thousands in its own name made a contribution to the victory that finally came. Recognizing the danger of the ultra-Right long before the brazen coup d'etat of Cow's Palace, the Communist Party was prepared for the specific character of the election struggle as it unfolded. This compares with those sections of the Left that had ridiculed the idea of an ultra-Right menace and were therefore caught completely unawares by the Goldwater-Dixiecrat bid for power. At first some of these groups tried to ignore its meaning. Even when they saw it for what it was, a specific form of American fascism, they recoiled from drawing correct tactical-political conclusions from their own analysis. For them there was no difference between going all out to defeat Goldwaterism and giving a blank check of endorsement for JOHNSON. For them it was either all the way or none of the way with JOHNSON, not just part of the way.

The Communist Party can be rightfully proud of its correct basic analysis, its line of policy and the way it worked during the campaign. Never before were the ranks of the Party so united behind party policy as in the election struggle.

Now a new phase of struggle is opening. This will be a continuation of the election struggle, yet different from it in many respects. In this period ahead we seek to strengthen our own party and its influence but not as against the rest of the Left or against the great popular forces not yet Communist or Left in their thinking. We seek to find the basis for a greater unity of the Left within the framework of a greater unity of all Americans fighting for their immediate needs and rights.

In the very next weeks the following tasks stand out:

1. First and foremost the development of the broadest movement to end U.S. involvement in the war in Viet Nam and to do all in our power to help end that war itself.

2. To exert maximum pressure for a change in seniority rules when the 89th Congress convenes in January; especially to keep the Goldwater-Dixiecrats from top committee posts.

3. To abolish HUAC as a step toward ending all aspects of McCarthyite witchhunting in American life.

4. To demand federal protection for the constitutional rights of the Negro people in the deep South, and to get the Johnson Administration to stop all federal funds to states that refuse to comply with federal law.

In addition to the above most immediate mass questions there is need to press for a further reduction in world tension and an end to the Cold War against the USSR, China and Cuba; for recognition of People's China; for a world conference of all nuclear powers to ban the bomb; for opening reciprocal trade relations with Cuba and China, and for immediate withdrawal of all aid and all forms of U.S. involvement in the mercenary war against the Congolese peoples.

In domestic policy there is need to press not alone for the immediate enactment of Medicare, but for a more basic extension of all social security and old-age benefits and for a crash program of ten billion dollars a year to combat poverty in America. In respect to strengthening the application of the Bill of Rights to all Americans it is necessary to win a new and stronger federal labor law which nullifies all anti-labor legislation and all so-called state right-to-work laws. It is also necessary to press state by state for real democratic reapportionment on the principle of one man one vote and to fight for the enforcement of the 14th Amendment to the Constitution for the reduction of congressional representation where states refuse to carry through such reapportionment or where they deny the right to vote to citizens. And together with all these it is necessary to get the incoming administration to stop all anti-communist prosecutions and persecutions under the McCarran or Smith Acts.

Certainly around these and other issues there is ample room and need for Left unity and Left initiative and for unity between the Left and all other liberal and democratic forces in the land.

Such are the lessons and such are the tasks as we see them. An important period of struggle is over. An important period of struggle has begun. New opportunities have been opened up for important gains by the people. But these opportunities must be seized or they can be turned into their opposite. We have confidence they will be seized. The Communist Party pledges to work and struggle with might and main to help fulfill the mandate of November 3rd and to make the elections the beginning of a new forward advance of the American people.

Following the reading of GREEN's resolution, the discussion continued. After a brief comment by GEORGE MORRIS, CARL WINTER stated that this was a victory of the Negro and trade union forces. Only last year some people said that labor has been passive. But the results of the election prove to the contrary. The mere fact of the AFL-CIO unanimous endorsement of JOHNSON and HUMPHREY is such proof.

MIKE DAVIDOW remarked that the Party has gained greater recognition of the soundness of the Party position as a result of this election. We must be aware of the fact that the Rosen group is planning a trip for a group to Cuba and South Viet Nam. In light of factors such as this, the Party must use more initiative.

This ended the first session of the meeting of the National Board.

Also, on November 18, 1964, an executive session of the National Board was held, attended only by National Board members. During the course of this executive session, it was decided that the following individuals would constitute the official delegation of the CP, USA to the December 15, 1964, meeting of the Preparatory Commission in Moscow, USSR, in preparation for the World Conference of Communist and Workers Parties scheduled for mid-1965:

HY LUMER
JIM JACKSON
MORRIS CHILDS
CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT
GIL GREEN

The second session of the National Board meeting was held on November 19, 1964, also at the Hotel Martinique, New York City. This session was chaired by [redacted] During the morning the discussion of STACHEL's report on the USA elections continued. After comments by JAMES ALLEN, DOROTHY HEALEY, TOM DENNIS, BOB THOMPSON, IRVING POTASH, and HICKEY LIMA, GUS HALL made the following comments in connection with STACHEL's report and GIL GREEN's resolution. HALL stated in essence as follows:

Concerning the resolution read by Gil, I think that in general it is O.K. and we will set time aside for discussion and a vote on it. This was an historic election and, as a result of it, the Party's prestige was tremendously increased. Right now, I will speak on some of the weaknesses in the campaign. We reject the concept enunciated by JAMES FARLEY that "nothing changes after conventions."

First of all, in the draft resolution we need a more careful and accurate formulation: we must be careful not to leave the concept that there was one kind of coalition before the elections and now there is another kind afterwards. This ignores the flexibility of the "anti-monopoly coalition."

Secondly, on the idea that a new Party may emerge only after ultra-right threat is over, this is too rigid a concept. Also, we should rather leave open decisions on the idea that a new Party may be a "labor party." It may not be a third party. It could be the masses of the working class, Negroes, etc., replacing the Dixiecrats. There may be only two Parties, one old and one new.

Thirdly, what do we mean by "Left"? This Left has to have a relationship to socialism in this world. This is necessary because socialist states do exist. Our approach to "left" needs further discussion. One tendency limits "left" to old groups or organized groups. We need to take into consideration trade unions and avoid giving the "left" in trade unions organizational forms. There are new formations in the trade union movement, but not necessarily an organized "opposition." There can be changes in trade unions. For example, the Steel Union may change. [redacted] who is challenging for leadership, has a different background than [redacted]

The peace issue is not unrelated to the test ban treaty. The Democratic Administration took a good position on this and also on the question of peaceful coexistence. Therefore, a real issue emerged. The same is true on the question of civil rights. These elections have shown an emergence of a new quality of mass thinking in the U.S. We, in the CP, USA, should raise our sights. The Party was too slow to accept this new fact of a fundamental political upsurge, which in some ways is like the upsurge in youth. We underestimated this upsurge and lagged behind. Electoral activity among the masses must be elevated to a new political level. We must understand that these elections were not merely a "political education." We need a new theoretical approach to view the elections as struggles, as beachheads of power in defense of democracy and ideas about socialism.

There are some special questions within the framework of the elections which need re-examination such as the victory of Proposition 14 in California. All progressive, active currents were mobilized on this question. But the Negro masses were not so concerned. I cite these as "diversions" because the constitutional guarantees still do exist. Such diversions will be faced with boycotts and challenges in the courts. We have seen how the masses understand their own self-interest and voted for JOHNSON primarily on the issues of peace, civil rights, and economic issues. Where we do not understand or the masses do not defeat such questions, then the self-interest of Negro and labor movements is not yet understood. These are contradictions which are still evident and which are responsible for the passage of Proposition 14 in California. But moralizing is not enough. What did we do to find areas of self-interest of the masses and put them across? Politicians work on this basis even if they do so with demagoguery, but we and the progressives have not been so concrete and talk more of moral and ethical problems. Our literature does not always reflect these issues in a concrete and in a positive way to build on the foundation of self-interest. I realize that this is not always possible or easy, but we can show how the long-range result outweighs the short-range interests of the masses of the people.

On independent political action: What did we do to promote and organize independent political actions? We must now find the next steps or next levels because old organizations such as COPE are not enough. Maybe the Teamsters Clubs organized as non-partisan organizations can be such a form. They can be on a higher political level than merely trade union election activity. During the campaign many of our Districts did not even know who are the people who are active in politics, such as the independents or progressive Democrats, etc. If we don't even know these forces, we cannot use initiative and, therefore, spontaneity is lacking. We do not want to be too narrow or keep our forces in our pocket. This independent movement needs our help and then we can exert influence on the consideration of candidates in primaries to include Negro, women, and labor candidates.

We must find ways to involve the entire CP membership in this struggle. The left has never been so isolated as were such groups as those around the "National Guardian," etc. But they did have an influence on our cadre. As a result, we were too apologetic on the slogan "Defeat Goldwater at All Costs." The results of our elections could have been much greater if not for these influences of these "leftists." We have become victims of our own demands. We acted in the manner of "what is possible?" This makes us seem conservative in the eyes of the militant youth. We confuse immediate demands with longer range propaganda demands. We neglect the formulation of laws, etc. It would give our Party a different image if we now use longer range propagandist demands.

In summary, I agree with JACK STACHEL's report and I also believe that the resolution read by GIL GREEN is a good draft.

After HALL's comments, JACK STACHEL spoke in summary. In essence, he stated I believe this was a good discussion. Basically, there are no differences although there were some problems raised which can be incorporated in the resolution. The report will be re-written to include the ideas and suggestions brought out during the discussion. In addition to the resolution, I believe we should work up a program of action in regard to some immediate steps to be taken.

At the afternoon session on November 19, 1964, the following individuals were in attendance:

JACK KLING
JOE NORTH

The first report delivered was the report on the international situation by MY LUKER who stated in essence as follows:

Two developments have taken place since our last discussion; first, the removal of KHRUSHCHEV and, secondly, the testing of the A-bomb by China. These two new developments occurred right after Gus' report at our last discussion. We had planned to publish Gus' report but in the view of some people, it was thought best not to publish it.

The Communist Party of China's (CPC) position today remains unaltered. An example of this was their message to Algeria on the occasion of their anniversary in which the CPC stated that armed struggle was the only path. The CPC in regard to our own election said that there was no difference between GOLDWATER and JOHNSON, the "blue-eyed monsters of monopoly."

AIDIT, head of the CP of Indonesia, recently remarked that an ideological agreement was far away because the CPSU persists in holding to the decisions of their 20th, 21st, and 22nd Congresses. The Japanese Party's reaction has been the same.

The CPSU ideological position has been reaffirmed and remains the same, both domestically and internationally. In his speech greeting the Cosmonauts, the policy of peaceful coexistence was reiterated by Brezhnev. However, leftists will nevertheless attempt to use KHRUSHCHEV's exit. In this connection, the Indian CP stated that this exit "was not a victory" and the leftists' "hopes were dashed" when the policies of the CPSU were reaffirmed.

Regardless of the reasons for the changes in the Soviet Union, there are now openings for exchanges with the CPC. The CPSU agreed to the CPC sending a delegation to the Soviet Union headed by CHOU En-lai for discussion of ideological matters and they have ceased the polemics. We greeted these as welcome developments.

While the indications are that ideological differences remain, there has been avoided for the time being an open collision and the hope for unity between the CPSU and other CPs has increased. These events deserve encouragement but this is a process and unity is not yet a reality. The question of the settlement of ideological differences cannot be on a piecemeal basis. When there is a basic shift, then there are tactical differences, too.

The drive by the CPC to split the world CP movement continues. The CPC has published letters of splinter groups. They have sent greetings to the Progressive Labor Party here in connection with their convention, which by the way has now been postponed until Easter. If there is a world conference, it is certain that such a conference could not invite these splintered groups.

On the question of KHRUSHCHEV's removal, there has been both public and private information received explaining it. Even if we disagree on some things, we have no right to tell the Soviet comrades what to do. They reached tens of millions of their people and explained their action. We must take into consideration the fact that they have a different history and background. But we still think they should have made public KHRUSHCHEV's resignation and their failure to do so shows a lack of sensitivity and created fears that peaceful coexistence was in jeopardy as KHRUSHCHEV was a symbol of this philosophy. However, it is clear that the Chinese split was not the main reason for KHRUSHCHEV's removal, although the Chinese cite this as the reason since he, KHRUSHCHEV, was the "architect" of the ideological differences existing between them and the CPSU. They say it is good thing he has been removed. The CPSU did not create the split and wants to heal it.

We do not need any more public statements at this time on KHRUSHCHEV's removal. We therefore do not go along with the Italians' sharpness on this matter.

The polemics on the Chinese ideological line continues to go on even if without the name calling. I am not sure that public polemics will stop and we may have to contend with both the leftists and the Chinese in this regard.

Recently we received a letter from GEORGE MEYERS about some leftists saying "JOHNSON's great society is fascism" and that "the working class is not a necessary ingredient for socialism." They cited the Chinese and Cuban revolutions as proof of this.

The CPSU has continued to emphasize the need for a world conference and this was repeated by BREZHNEV in his November 7th speech. We supported the idea of such a conference and we continue to do so. In regard to the December 15th meeting, we have no official knowledge of any change in plans. Maybe this will be a preliminary meeting and the main meeting postponed to some later date. We would go along but continue to press for a world conference at a later date.

On the matter of the Chinese Peoples Republic's A-bomb test. We have opposed the spread of nuclear weapons and testing by the United States, Soviet Union, NATO, West Germany, France, etc. On these same grounds we objected to China getting nuclear weapons from the Soviet Union which would cause the imperialists to spread the nuclear weapons. Thus, we object to the Chinese explosion of an A-bomb although we have no objection to nuclear energy advances for the benefit of humanity and socialism. Up to now the bomb has been used against colored people, the Japanese and tested in areas of colored people.

We must move in the direction of banning all tests. Any treaty in this connection would have no meaning unless in their negotiations, the Peoples Republic of China participates. This would have to include any negotiations at the United Nations or at any other location. Therefore, we must fight for the inclusion of China and while it will be difficult, we must do it.

Following LUMER's report, there was a report on Viet Nam delivered by ARNOLD JOHNSON. In essence, JOHNSON's report was as follows:

There is a big debate presently going on in Washington whether to withdraw from or extend the war in South Viet Nam. For us, the first point on our agenda should be "End the War in Viet Nam." Broad masses have now expressed themselves for peace and this was shown in the recent election results. However, such expression must become more vocal if the government is to listen. People object to the brutality in South Viet Nam and this is true the world over. Sentiment is building up but if there is no mass support in this country, there can be no mass action.

A vigil is set up every Saturday at Times Square and 29th Street in New York City on the Viet Nam war. General TAYLOR will shortly be in the country for five days and this would be a good time for demonstrations.

We should utilize all organizations and groups, etc., to speak up on the Viet Nam question at colleges, at universities, before women's groups, in private conversation, etc. Later, a conference should be held in Washington. A good CP pamphlet like Gus' "Eleventh Hour" is needed. Articles should be published in "The Worker" and in "Political Affairs."

In brief discussion following JOHNSON's report, GIL GREEN stated that the government may sharpen the war, creating a crisis and then get better footing for negotiations. We are in favor of a cease fire in South Viet Nam. We must get out and save lives and seek a 14 power conference.

GUS HALL stated that we must tell the world that South Viet Nam constitutes a crisis in world peace. We must tell the world this week and follow this with other actions.

On November 20, 1964, the meeting of the CP, USA National Board reconvened at the Hotel Martinique, New York City, and commenced with the discussion of HY LUMER's report on the international situation which had been given the previous day. This discussion was participated in by the following:

BOB THOMPSON

Maybe we should not have discussed Hy's report; maybe we were not ready for such adult discussion. Perhaps we should leave it alone until we are ready. Hy's approach to the problem was feeble--these are weighty problems. We still haven't gotten all the information we need and that we would like to have.

On the question of relationships in the international communist movement between socialist countries. When you say "prospects are opening up for changing the course" that lead to collision and for new relations, this is a serious change. Yet, Hy said nothing has changed. This is nonsense.

I am disturbed by Hy's article in "Political Affairs." He just charged into the serious problems with quotations. He just rules out the CPC as a Marxist-Leninist Party. I am convinced that there will be no departure from Marxist-Leninist principles. But there is a change of course from collision to increased unity of action and policy relative to the efforts of imperialism to spread war and colonialism. Both sides are changing. The CPSU leadership is making a determined effort to ease the discussion and to avoid foolish things, like their statement on opium. A period of "rational discussion" now lies ahead. There will be many changes. In regard to the Presidium meeting of the CPSU, the explanations given there were naive and frivolous.

We must remember that our prestige is at stake. If we repeat "it is not true," this is their explanation. We must give fuller explanation to the fact that we are a party of the American working class, the flesh and blood of our country. We must not like HY's article exacerbate the international situation or attack the Chinese as not being Marxist-Leninists.

GUS HALL

This is a problem at the moment and it is a fact of life. We thought of postponing this discussion. At the present time there is not yet a new situation but we don't know how it will develop in the future.

BOB's reaction to HY's report proves that we do need such a discussion as this. BOB's remarks were too sharp, uncalled for, it is horrible to use language like "feeble," "pedanic," "childlike," etc. Maybe there have been weaknesses in our handling of this problem but these were not weaknesses like those of children. HY was told to report on this matter in a "low key" by me.

BOB thinks that the CPSU has "changed course" away from collision. This is not so. But if we put it as BOB does, the CPSU-CPC differences are responsible for the removal of KHRUSHCHEV. How much KHRUSCHCHEV's personal role in relations with China figured in as the cause of his removal I don't know, but I do know it was not basic.

The reasons for the differences is rather the Chinese Party's departure from the basic principles of Marxism-Leninism. Life will develop and show the reasons for the change in the leadership of the CPSU.

On BOB's idea that we are a "part of the American working class." We have to see in what context this is placed. The posture of "autonomy" can never be established in the form of"anti-Sovietism." It is related to our ideological problems and to our cadre. Some Parties use anti-Sovietism "opportunistically" to establish their autonomy. The Italian CP is an example of this. This is not always helpful and in fact now it has turned into its opposite. There is an affinity between CPs and socialist states. How to handle the question of autonomy is really the question.

The core of bourgeoisie ideology is anti-Sovietism--not just anti-socialist. We have comrades who think we can use "a little anti-Sovietism."

Sometimes it is difficult to hide these ideological differences but here the blame, too, rests with the CPC who started it. We were sharp in reply on a matter which we did not start.

About developments in the Soviet Union. Here, too, there is a difference as to what the Parties say amongst themselves and what they say publicly. This was our objection to the type of debate started by the CPC. Parties do raise questions, probe and disagree privately.

Maybe we did not get all the full answers on KHRUSHCHEV's removal. We think KHRUSHCHEV's resignation should have been made public. Perhaps we do not agree with what happened at the Central Committee meeting or on KHRUSHCHEV's removal or on their concept bourgeois and socialist democracy. But maybe we are not all correct and they are not all wrong.

Some ask did they give us full explanations? Some complained they didn't give us all the reasons and facts and said we can't accept those they did give us. I think the reasons for KHRUSHCHEV's removal were partially based on the fact that they feared the popularity of KHRUSHCHEV and that possibly KHRUSHCHEV felt that such removal would not be accepted. Maybe they feared to move without mobilization. We inquired of them on the existence of the alleged 29 points and in response to our message they responded by a complete denial of the existence of such 29 points.

GEORGE MEYERS

I have talked to some leftists and pro-Chinese and they said that KHRUSHCHEV was removed because he was anti-Chinese. Some other leftist youth told me that the Cuban and Chinese revolutions show no need for the working class. All attacked the U.S. CP and claimed it was full of stool pigeons. They claimed we missed the boat in the 30's and now in the 60's and now say let the U.S. CP step aside. The Trotskyists are continuing this kind of a campaign against us.

DOROTHY HEALEY

The use of the words, "feeble," "pedanic," by BOB THOMPSON is not as bad as the use of the word "anti-Soviet" by GUS. I agree we must debate and argue but use no names. We didn't get all the information we needed. HY's article in "Political Affairs" should never have appeared (on mistakes of CPC.)

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT

We are rehashing old problems and I know that there is an element of cynicism. After STALIN's death there were innuendos and it was only later that we learned the facts. Such things can cause doubt and cynicism. However, notwithstanding the past, who says we must continue this cynicism.

Some comrades say "There is something important"--they do not even say "maybe" there is. What they want to hear is that the reason for KHRUSHCHEV's removal was undoubtedly his attitude towards China and this alone, regardless of other issues involved. This is what they want to hear. It would be a sad day if this removal was based on mistakes by an individual--obviously it is not so.

We should stick to fundamentals.

GIL GREEN

We should have waited before we held this debate. I am content today that the clash of forces that were moving towards collision has now been avoided--at least for the time being. This would have been a disaster. There will be more ideological debates of course but as BREZHNEV says, time will unite us all.

If the CPSU can't have public debate, how can it be that communism in the Soviet Union is only 17 years from its goal. What about "the state of all the people." KHRUSHCHEV led the fight against STALIN and now he is ending up with the same characteristics. STALIN's socialism was a bureaucratic deformation of socialism. At the 20th Congress of the CPSU they did not put their finger on this. There is no criticism or self-criticism in the CPSU. This is not the error of one individual. We cannot be the apologists for the Soviet Union. The Italians are not anti-Soviet--they are helping the Soviet Union.

HICKEY LIMA

There has been no progress on this matter since our last meeting. I had hoped that the center would have a good hard look but....If KHRUSHCHEV was not removed because of the CPC-CPSU relations, the other charges against him prove that there are other international problems involved. We cannot accept the reasons for KHRUSHCHEV's removal or for an international meeting, which we keep on supporting. The split between the CPC and CPSU has now become a factional fight and our leadership has become enmeshed in this factional fight. The question is now how can we resolve our factional fight.

DANNY RUBIN

Where do we go from here in the world debate? There is agreement on that. We must establish normal relations between the parties and seek an end to name calling and at the same time we must expose "splinter groups."

We favor the international conference in order to prevent a split and to seek maximum agreement. The Chinese were responsible for the collision course. In the future maybe more parties will disagree publicly. The world movement will be split apart if we do not stop this.

IRVING POTASH

HY's report was a serious effort but he did fail to place China as a real socialist state. Complete negation of KHRUSHCHEV reflects badly on the CPSU leadership, but the CPC is responsible for "the collision course."

MORRIS CHILDS

I think MICKEY should be able to take it since he irresponsibly dishes it out. We can't understand the erroneous ideas of the CPC sympathizers who slander the CPSU and first of all our Party. Who set the "collision course?"

Did we attack the CPC or they attacked us without notice or principle?

Is fighting for peaceful coexistence a Russian issue or is it one of our main principles in the fight for peace?

Is the fight for disarmament in the interests of the American people or only for the Soviet people?

Is nuclear fallout injurious only to certain peoples or to all peoples? Will the Chinese A-bomb improve the control of armaments or spread them?

We the CP, USA favor the partial test ban treaty as do most of the American people proven by the election results. What have BOB, MICKEY and GIL to say about this?

Who organized factions and replaced principles? The CPC on an international scale and is now giving support to renegades from communism in the USA. Who supports the ROSEN group? the CPC.

We are fighting for Marxism-Leninism and the interests of the American working class when we oppose the line of the CPC. Yes, we favor unity as does the CPSU but without giving up our principles of Marxism-Leninism.

Can anyone conceive where the CP, USA would be today if we said "There is no difference between a JOHNSON and a GOLDWATER"? Or that there is no threat of fascism in the USA, only the danger of imperialism?

Is is true that the USA as the CPC says is the only imperialism?

If we supported the CPC, we would have to separate ourselves from the working class of the USA, Negro and white. Who used ROBERT WILLIAMS to try to split the Negro freedom movement in favor of civil war--it was the CPC. I agree with GUS, we will fight for the unity of our Party.

HENRY WINSTON

I agree that HY's report should have been in low key. However, BOB reacted and asked for a change in the method which as GIL has said could lead to an armed clash of the two great socialist states. This is a mistaken idea with all the blame placed on the CPSU leadership and it ignores the decisions of the 20th, 21st, and 22nd Congresses and all the concepts of peaceful coexistence. This was the essence of the debate--this was the key in the debate internationally. GIL fell into the trap when he places peaceful coexistence as hindering colonial and national liberation. GIL has a paternalistic theory on China. Why fight for democracy in the USSR and not in China where none exists at all? We are not doing justice to the national liberation movement if we do not expose the racism of the CPC. The unity of the working class demands this type of struggle. Certainly, mistakes have been made, but have been made within the framework of the general policy.

I recognize there is a greater need for direction and wider democracy in the Soviet Union. But this is a continuing fight and it is gaining in the Soviet Union.

Discussion and exchanges here are being held to establish a common point of view in the Party. At this point the collective then comes to common conclusions.

ARNOLD JOHNSON

The change in the Soviet Union is an advance and shows that the collective is governing.

CARL WINTER

If KHRUSHCHEV's removal resulted because of his attitudes towards the CPC, then why don't the same few individuals ask for the removal of MAO? Why their silence? Why only discuss China? Why do they leave out such important problems as West Germany.

JACK STACHEL

We are not in a faction as MICKEY said. We participate in debate that concerns us. If we followed the CPC line, we would have to close shop in the CP, USA.

GUS HALL

Our discussions today should raise the following "how to preserve the unity of our Party." It is better to discuss it now rather than after the damage has been done. For our own good, unity of our Party is needed unless we want to allow the disunity of the world movement to affect us.

We should be aware that the changes in the CPSU have caused confusion among the world Parties, particularly on basic questions of policy on such matters as peaceful coexistence, the inevitability of war, peaceful transition to socialism, etc. This has resulted from the fact that some parties think that KHRUSHCHEV's removal was because he was wrong on these basic questions of policy. The Cuban Party is a good example of this confusion according to our latest information. The Cubans are now saying "nuclear war is not as horrible as KHRUSHCHEV said."

We will now have to fight more skillfully for these basic policies, I enumerated. I question whether some of the comrades really understand me. MICKEY earlier misinterpreted my informal talk with the San Francisco Board. On the question at the time as to whether KHRUSHCHEV's removal was because of his China policy, I had said no--it may not have been and on the question whether this was an issue among the CPSU leadership, I told him I did not know.

On the question of the "cult," KHRUSHCHEV lately did follow in STALIN's way to a point, not completely, but it is important to note that the cult was clipped by the collective before it flowered. That is important. But, is it not the truth that China in MAO has a really good example of the flourishing of the cult? Why do the people who discuss the Soviet Union keep quiet on this?

The central feature of the bourgeoisie ideology, anti-Sovietism, has a basis in the left of the U.S. today. It penetrates into our ranks through middle class people in and around the CP. The "National Guardian" uses this instrument. Petty bourgeoisie nationalism is also a very important factor.

At this moment there are sharp contradictions in Southeast Asia involving U.S. and China but still the ruling class considers the Soviet Union the main enemy.

GIL spoke on "equality and cooperation of socialist nations." GIL was wrong in the way he was quoting BREZHNEV and he could have cited KHRUSHCHEV and other Soviet leaders who had made similar statements for the last ten years.

On GIL's argument that if the conference of world CPs was held, it would mean "excommunication of China." Whoever contended that this was the aim. We never did, the CPSU never did.

We, the CP, USA, could have been more helpful if we fought harder for our principles against the Chinese.

The way we discuss things in these meetings, people would think our disagreements were with the USSR and the CPSU rather than with the Peoples Republic of China and the CPC. It appears that way for fundamental reasons. I object to using the change in the CPSU leadership in order to change the course of ideological discussion and in an effort to try to divert it. KHRUSHCHEV alone was not responsible for the basic differences which did and still do exist. The CPSU never placed it that way. If I believed that cutting out ideological discussion would bring unity to the world movement, I would keep quiet for a year.

MY LUMER

In summarizing, I will only hit on some of the main discussion. My report was not to have been a definitive or a major report. The situation with which it dealt was too fluid and I only emphasized that a possibility did exist for discussions. BOB was wrong to say that I said "no change." I repeat there is "no change" in the situation. There is no change and I repeat this, in the ideological position of both the CPSU and the CPC. As to whether KHRUSHCHEV's attitude regarding the CPC was a major issue I said no because the Soviet comrades did not say it was although we do understand that it may have been a point of discussion. Since my report was not for the public, we make no statements.

In the discussion we have had here, we were surveying the invisible parts of an iceberg. My article in the November "Political Affairs" was described as "pedanic sematics." With this observation I do not agree. A central point in my "Political Affairs" article was that the CPC was ideologically nationalistic. Whether this was a timely comment or not is another matter. I had extracted this phrase out of one of Gus' earlier articles. In connection with that article in the November "Political Affairs," perhaps in the light of the conversation at this meeting, I would not take a second look and perhaps not have used such language.

On the question of democracy in the USSR, the point I made was that they followed procedures established by their rules and constitution. This was a definite advance compared to the past (STALIN's time). On the matter of the Chinese reaction to the Soviet change of leadership. MICKEY's argument was that this is proof that there was substance to the charge. But it is significant to note that the CPC, itself, made the move to be invited to Moscow and this would show a "thaw" in China also and that they, too, have problems.

I quoted BREZHNEV for opposite reasons than GIL did. I quoted him to show this was a reaffirmation of policy and not something new.

On the question of "excommunication." It was the New Zealand Party and other Parties supporting the Chinese that stated that to really hold a conference which they did not attend is "excommunication."

On anti-Sovietism, I agree with Gus that within the left itself it does exist and that it exists in our own ranks. Some comrades give a "little" on this anti-Sovietism and others give in completely in the end.

On our resolution of the last meeting dealing with the international meeting we said "while language agreed to even if softer, a basic disagreement persists." This meeting has proved this.

The session of the meeting of the National Board held on November 21, 1964, was chaired by DOROTHY HEALEY.

The first report was that of CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT on the status of the racial struggle. In essence, LIGHTFOOT stated as follows:

The main problems confronting the Negro today in his struggle for racial equality are: first, how to expand the Negro labor alliance; and, secondly, how to place working class leaders at the helm of the Negro freedom movement.

A. PHILIP RANDOLPH is calling a conference on "State of the Race" as a result of a resolution of the Negro American Labor Council. This will be a summit meeting of Negro leaders dealing with the subject of how to move from the present level of struggle to higher forms and how to raise the issues and what methods and tactics are to be used. This meeting will include all Negro leaders, including Muslims, but not the communists. Originally, the date set for this summit meeting was October. But, in order to carry out the struggle against GOLDWATER, there was a postponement of it until sometime in January. We want our Party primed to participate in this conference at its maximum capability; Districts should begin to work on this at once.

One of the chief characteristics of the Negro freedom movement now, after the election, is that it has no dependence on LYNDON B. JOHNSON. There are no illusions, even if JOHNSON's intentions are not questioned. The January conference will be the first general pattern of things to come and the beginning of the renewal of the struggle for Negro freedom, although other Negro organizations will and are holding some meetings now. The character of the conference will help to unfold the initiative of the workers even if it is an all-class conference. This conference can place the central problem of the Negro liberation movement.

In the South there is still the de facto Jim Crowism today even though there is a civil rights law now. The economic issues still remain and the Negro there has made little progress in this regard. The class outlook will determine some of these issues.

The Negro freedom movement in the North has, in some instances, gotten embroiled in school segregation and other issues like "bussing," etc. But its general direction was not unsatisfying. On the issue of jobs and work discrimination, little has been accomplished although there are some exceptions. For example, in Chicago 200 additional jobs for Negroes have been secured at Motorola as well as jobs with the railroads. In San Francisco, there has been some similar success. In New York, there is a serious struggle now for jobs for Negroes in the breweries. Although recently 300 job complaints were placed before the President by [redacted] there has been no mass struggle on this issue. b6 b7C

The Negro summit conference will organize a real struggle for economic demands. We should not underestimate achievements in this connection even if they are not always visible. However, the job fight will not happen of itself and conferences can even result in very little or nothing if there is no organization on lower levels and in each city. The question is then how to translate conferences' decisions into reality. The NALC is not just RANDOLPH, it must include all the people. Anti-communist inclusion clauses, like those in the NALC, will mean little if there is a struggle. There must be local follow-ups to dramatize the job question. They must depend upon us not as Monday morning quarterbacks but as initiators.

Following the report by LIGHTFOOT, DANNY RUBIN delivered a report on some organizational problems of the CP, USA. In essence, this report was as follows:

This is not a full report. It is just for information. While we need to discuss our fight for legality and our mass work, we will limit discussion here to some problems and tasks.

At the present, there is a gap between possibilities and the existing situation. We have had no growth of CP members; no marked increase of the press; and no great increase in our finances. With few exceptions, we are not yet moving upward and you might say that there is even some stagnation. We have no real concentration and sometimes we drift and act only with spontaneity. All of this could indicate a lack of confidence in the working class and the Party and could be evidence of routinism. Our way out is concentration, especially among the workers, both Negro and white, and the youth. All levels of Party organization must participate in such concentration. We should concentrate in three of the large Districts like Ohio, Michigan, and Illinois, as well as in the South and in Kentucky. However, each District needs concentration among the working class, both Negro and white, and the youth. We must find a greater role for the youth. We should develop a built-in plan for control and check-up.

At the present time there is a tug and pull in the CP. Some stress mass work and others stress use of mass organizations and are influenced by the legal status of the Party. We underestimate the possibility of left forms of work in mass organizations.

The public activity of the CP is better but is still pretty spotty. In some places mass work is accepted against left forms of work. If the left is united, we can influence the masses of the people in a progressive direction. Without left forms, the CP will be isolated. The left forms of work are a necessary precondition for the breaking of isolation of the CP, USA. Some, however, fear that these left forms of work would become substitutes for the Party. This would only be so if there was no recruiting. There can be no recruiting for the CP without concentration and the building up of left forms of work. We must have planned recruiting, club by club. We need an inner-Party paper. Our cadre is a particularly critical area. We need young cadre and there are areas where we could move forward if we had but one or two leading cadre. We need a cadre training program on a crash basis.

Presently, we have plans to reorganize the education department into two parts. As to the work of the National Office, splits, deaths, etc., have created some problems. But we do have a few new faces like CARL and GIL. However, we need more people and operating commissions and we must establish new ones. We also need a clear division of labor. Oftentimes there is too much on the shoulders of one. We also have too many ad hoc committees.

The organization department is now preparing a study and this will be concretized on the basis of studies of the Districts. This should be finished by the end of November and will be a basis for a national office report.

This, the last session of the National Board meeting, was concluded with a statement by GUS HALL to the following effect:

In view of the developments on the international scene, I want to once again raise the question of Party unity. We should take care as to how we report these differences and be careful that we do not stress the differences. The enemy will try to make an effort to utilize these differences to slander the CP and its leadership. Leading comrades cannot be silent partners at gatherings where the Party is being undermined.

The new CPC editorial, that is the one which appears in this morning's "New York Times," is important as it "crows of victory" and of vindication by KHRUSHCHEV's downfall because he had opposed the Peking line. How will we present this to the Party and explain it? There are some specific things we need to do. In the editorial, the CPC talks of KHRUSHCHEV's removal as a defeat of "modern revisionism" and says that anyone who says that "peaceful transition is possible," are traitors, etc. This editorial is a mirror of the history of the international discussion. The Chinese repeat their pattern of three and four years ago. They always torpedo agreements.

What should our reaction be to this? Should we be silent? Tomorrow the leftist sects will make this an issue. If we are silent, it will add to the confusion. We cannot at this point even take it for granted that our own Party will understand. I favor the issue being met and that we answer this editorial. It affects all our work, the Party, and our country.

We will take no vote on HY's report and just consider it a continuation of the discussion and we will prepare a statement. Subcommittee is working on the statement.

SUBJECT: COMMUNISM AND THE NEGRO MOVEMENT--A CURRENT ANALYSIS

C. I. R. M.

Enclosed is a paper, captioned as above, which depicts the communist influence in the Negro movement with emphasis on Martin Luther King, Jr. This paper is an up-to-date revision of the one by the same title prepared under the date of October 16, 1963. In updating it we emphasized three main areas: (1) the continued dependence of King upon former Communist Party, USA members, current and former Party sympathizers and his continued reliance on the long-time communist [Stanley David Levison;] (2) facts relating to the moral degeneracy of King; and (3) the recent and current Party aims and activities relative to the racial movement.

RECOMMENDATION:

Upon approval, consideration will be given to appropriate dissemination.* When approved, the paper should be returned to the Domestic Intelligence Division for printing and the preparation of appropriate letters if disseminated. (U)

Introduction

~~SECRET~~ (U)

The racial unrest in the United States is currently the target for a determined concentration of communist effort. Communists are using every means possible to divert the course and force of the unrest into support of communist objectives. Long-range communist strategy looks to the establishment of a Negro-labor coalition which the communists hope to be able to manipulate as a powerful political-action weapon. Using this weapon, they aim to provoke class struggle and promote legislation which can serve as a step toward a communist system of government. (U)

At first glance, the communist goal may seem unrealistic. But it develops realistic potential when all aspects of current communist tactics being used in connection with the current racial situation are viewed in their totality. More, it constitutes a national security problem in light of the fact that the individual playing a most dominant role as a leading spokesman for the estimated 20 million Negroes in this country has knowingly, willingly, and regularly cooperated with and taken guidance from communists. This individual--Martin Luther King--has used the communists and, in turn, has been used by them in an alliance that could have serious consequences both for the Negro movement and this Nation. (U)

Hand in Hand

The composite of information available about Martin Luther King depicts an unprincipled, opportunistic individual, as well as a man considered and described within the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) as a Marxist. (S) (U)

In King's rise to national prominence since his leadership of the bus boycott by Negroes in Montgomery, Alabama, in 1956, he has been closely allied with communists. He has shown not only a willingness but even an eagerness to accept communist aid, to support communist causes, to associate and confer with prominent communist leaders, and to work closely with and rely upon the advice and guidance of dedicated communists with concealed affiliations, despite the fact that they have been identified reliably to him as such. (X) (U)

Since 1956, communists close to King have blended their actions skillfully into his organization, the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), and have done so clearly with his approval. (X) (U)

[redacted] SECRET (U)

A Dedicated Communist

SECRET (U)

One of the individuals, for example, who have greatly facilitated King's rise to prominence in recent years is Stanley David Levison. Ostensibly only a New York City attorney and successful businessman who has been helping King, he also is a shrewd, dedicated communist and is known as such by King. (X) U

Levison has dedicated a part of his life to advancing the cause of communism in this Nation. Since the late 1940's, he has led a double life for the CPUSA, necessitated by a highly clandestin role with which he was entrusted to raise and handle secret funds used by the Party to finance part of its activities. (S) (U) b6 b7C

Operating in this clandestine role for years through a maze of business enterprises as head of a group of concealed Party members--a group which included [redacted] who goes by the name of [redacted]-Stanley Levison turned over thousands of dollars to the CPUSA. Just in the two-year period covering 1956 and 1957, the group raised $66,000 for the Party. Since 1956, the group has turned over more than $100,000 to the Party. (X) (S) (U)

Alliance with King

Levison gravitated to Martin Luther King's organization in 1956 and applied equal dedication in support of King's activities. He quickly developed a close personal relationship with King. By 1958, he was referred to as King's "Assistant Chief" and was descrit as a real-estate man who spent half his time helping King. In 1961, he was Assistant Treasurer of the SCLC. (X) U

In his support of King's activities since 1956, Levison has expended prodigious efforts in King's behalf. He has actively involved himself in fund-raising drives for King, served as his legal counsel in certain matters, suggested speech material for him, discussed with King demonstrations in which King was involved, guided him in regard to acceptance or rejection of various public appearances and speaking commitments, and helped him with matters related to articles and books King has prepared. (X) U

"The Time Is Now"

Levison also played a role in the evolvement of plans that led to the March on Washington on August 28, 1963. (X) U

rbm

[redacted] SECRET (U)

Originally Negro leaders, principally A. Philip Randolph, President of the Brotherhood of Sleeping Car Porters and head of the Negro American Labor Council, had proposed a march on the Nation's Capital sometime in the Fall of 1963. Subsequently, after consulting with Levison, who agreed that "the time is now," Martin Luther King seized the initiative and secured the cooperation of the other Negro leaders in backing King's proposal for an earlier march--a move that put King squarely in the forefront of the events as they developed.

Financial Support

b7D

Part of King's great dependence on Stanley Levison is attributable to the money Levison has furnished him. [redacted] has advised that during that period Levison acted primarily as King's business manager and donated large sums of money to him when funds were low. He said Levison was very close to King, had his confidence completely, and was one of the few people who could get King alone, give him advice, and always have it accepted. (U)

King - Levison Contacts Guarded

Although King has attempted to maintain covert his association with Levison and keep to a bare minimum personal meetings between the two, such meetings have been observed. On November 20, 1963, King met personally with Levison at the International Hotel, Kennedy International Airport, New York City. The site was a room registered in the name of one of King's assistants. King and Levison again personally met in New York City on January 8 and February 7, 1964. During the period March 9-10, 1964, Levison spent considerable time in the Atlanta, Georgia, offices of the SCLC. King was occupied in these offices during the same period. The evening of March 9, 1964, witnessed Levison dining at the King residence. One of the purposes of these March, 1964, visits with King was a discussion as to whether Bayard Rustin was to be hired by the SCLC. (1)

Since April, 1964, Levison's contacts with King have been handled through [redacted] Labor Youth League, an organization which has been designated as subversive pursuant to Executive Order 10450. Levison met with [redacted] on several occasions in the Spring and Summer of 1964.

[redacted] SECRET (U)

b7C

[redacted] in discussing Levison with King, usually refers to Levison as "our friend." On September 29, 1964, [redacted] met with Levison at the latter's office. The subject was business relating to the SCLC. On October 30, 1964, plans were underway for a personal meeting of King and [redacted] with Levison which was to take place in the near future in Atlanta, Georgia. In preparation for this meeting [redacted] told King to think about what role Levison could play in the future, adding that Levison had been helpful in the past. On November 24, 1964, King contacted [redacted] and asked [redacted] and Levison, among others, submit five-minute speeches which King could use in accepting the Nobel Peace Prize. King would select the best material from these speeches. (S)(U)

Hunter Pitts O'Dell

Another important communist whose advice King has relied on is Hunter Pitts O'Dell. Long active in the communist movement, O'Dell worked for a number of years as a district organizer for the CPUSA in Louisiana. In December, 1959, at the Party's last National Convention, he was elected a member of the Party's National Committee under a pseudonym. In 1960, at which time he was working as the assistant to James Jackson, the Party's National Secretary for the South, O'Dell also began to work actively in support of Martin Luther King's movement. (S) (U)

There are two important points that should be noted in connection with O'Dell's gravitation to King's movement. Early in 1960, it was learned that efforts were being made by the Party to get O'Dell into a special type of activity. About the same time, a Party official stated that the Party was in a position to place people in Martin Luther King's organization, the SCLC. Subsequently, in 1961, O'Dell was made administrator of the SCLC's New York office. In addition, two other Party members, [redacted] and [redacted], worked there under O'Dell at one time or another. (S)(U)

Activities Blended

The operations of the SCLC's New York Office illustrate how communists blended their activities into support of King. A major function of the office is the solicitation of funds for King through letters mailed out over his signature. It appears, for example, that the mailing list for one such solicitation was that used by the publishers of the "National Guardian," a weekly publication which has been cited as "a virtual official propaganda arm of Soviet Russia." (S)(U)

Another incident shows how the communists blended King's activities into support of their own objectives. Early in May, 1962, the Party's leader, Gus Hall, directed another Party functionary to select a full-time Party member for a special assignment in the South. The member selected was Hosea Herman Hudson, of New York, and, later that month, he attended a Party meeting in Baton Rouge, Louisiana. (U)

Twofold Purpose

At the meeting, Hudson announced that he had come to organize full-time Party members to do both Party work and mass-organization work. The purpose was twofold--to develop recruits for the Party and get all eligible Negroes registered to vote. (U)

Hudson told an individual unaware of the underlying communist purpose in the voter registration drive that the money for the mass organization work would come from Martin Luther King's group. However, confidentially he told two Party members that the Party had appropriated the money for the work. How the Party intended to funnel the money through King's group was revealed when Hudson arranged for the Party's Baton Rouge area leader, Sargeant Caulfield, to meet O'Dell in Atlanta several days later, at which time O'Dell told Caulfield he would pay him $1000 a month to organize the work. Although Caulfield was unable to work full time in this capacity, O'Dell is known to have worked actively for several months in the voter registration drive for the SCLC in the South. (U)

This fitted nicely into the communists' scheme of things. Only a month before, Caulfield had instructed Party members in his area to conceal their Party affiliations and join noncommunist mass organizations interested in the integration movement. They were told to urge complete voter registration for all members of the groups and, then, to maintain close contacts with the leaders of these groups to influence them to follow the Party line.

O'Dell's Exposure

An opportunity for the communists to put O'Dell directly on the scene permanently in regard to the voter registration drive arose in June, 1962, when King mentioned to Levison that he was thinking of adding an administrative assistant to his staff. Levison recommended O'Dell, who was still serving as head of the SCLC's New York office, and King said he liked the idea. It is clear that, at the time, King was well aware of O'Dell's communist affiliations.

Subsequent to Levison's proposal, O'Dell went to Atlanta to work for the SCLC and used the name J. H. O'Dell. But in October, 1962, several newspaper articles exposed his connection with the SCLC and his communist affiliations.

King's Reaction

King reacted by trying to minimize O'Dell's role with the SCLC. He said most of O'Dell's work had been in the North and simply involved mailing procedures. He also tried to imply ignorance of any communist affiliations on the part of O'Dell and stated that O'Dell had temporarily resigned pending an SCLC inquiry into the matter. (X/U)

O'Dell's "temporary resignation" consisted of his return to New York, where he continued to operate out of the SCLC's office. He remained there until July, 1963, when King advised him his "temporary resignation" was being made permanent, not, as King put it, because the SCLC inquiry had disclosed any present connections between O'Dell and the CPUSA but because of the emotional public response. (X/U)

Reluctant Action

Yet it is known that, prior to his action in making O'Dell's resignation permanent, King not only had indicated he knew of O'Dell's communist affiliations but actually had received information on two separate occasions from unimpeachable sources that O'Dell was definitely a communist. In fact, it can be said that King took action on O'Dell reluctantly and only after being urged to do so most urgently and emphatically by high level and again, unimpeachable authority. In addition, even after O'Dell's "permanent resignation" was accepted, he is known to have transacted business for the SCLC later the same month and there is evidence that King continues to rely on O'Dell for assistance. In February, 1964, King accepted as a "wonderful suggestion" a proposal by O'Dell that O'Dell prepare a letter to be distributed over King's signature relating to King's appointment as chairman of an ad hoc committee to defend a group of integration leaders who were under indictment by the Justice Department for having perjured themselves before a Federal Grand Jury. O'Dell furnished King with a draft of the proposed letter which was then prepared in the Spring of 1964 for mass distribution on SCLC stationery and bearing the purported signature of King. (2) (X/U)

Regarded as a Marxist (S) (U)

King's reluctance to discontinue his association with O'Dell may be attributable to either of two factors or to a combination of both. The first involves King's reported dedication to Marxism-Leninism. In February, 1962, Stanley Levison passed the word to Gus Hall that "King is a wholehearted Marxist who has studied it (Marxism), believes in it and agrees with it, but because of his being a minister of religion, does not dare to espouse it publicly." Further, in March, 1962, Levison told a CPUSA functionary that King was concerned about a "communist label" being "pinned on us" but that, at the same time, he wanted to do everything possible to evidence friendship toward the Soviet Union (S)

Moreover, King has been described within the CPUSA as a true, genuine Marxist-Leninist "from the top of his head to the tips of his toes." The feeling within the CPUSA is that King is definitely following a Marxist-Leninist line (S) (U)

The Second Factor

The second factor which, alone or in combination with the first, may have had a bearing on King's reluctance to dismiss O'Dell concerned King's reliance and dependence on both O'Dell and Stanley Levison for guidance. In January, 1963, for example, when King desired to hold a meeting to make a "critical review" of "where they are," he asked specifically that Levison be present and is known to have met with Levison, O'Dell, and eight other officials of the SCLC at Savannah, Georgia, later that month. During King's entire relationship with Levison and O'Dell, he clearly became more dependent on them for advice and guidance. (X) U

Bayard Rustin

Another of King's key advisors is Bayard Rustin who at one time was Assistant Secretary of the SCLC. King said he had to let Rustin go because they started having problems arising from [redacted] It is to be noted Rustin has long been so inclined, having been arrested in New York City in 1946 for offering to commit a lewd or indecent act and again in Pasadena, California, in 1953 [redacted] he admitted and for which he was sentenced to serve 60 days. (X) U

b6

~~SECRET~~ (U)

Communist Affiliations Ignored

King seemed to be more concerned about Rustin's [redacted] than his prior communist affiliations. b6 b7C Rustin had publicly admitted affiliation with the communist movement in the late 1930s. He had also publicly supported various communist causes and was one of a select group of observers permitted to attend the CPUSA's 16th National Convention in 1957. For a number of years Rustin maintained contact with the Party's National Secretary, Benjamin J. Davis, who died on August 22, 1964. During 1963 Rustin frequently conferred with Davis and took the position that he did not care who knew it. (8/4)

Rustin's Current Role

Rustin has been extremely active on King's behalf in connection with King's receipt of the Nobel Peace Prize which is to be awarded to him on December 10, 1964, at Oslo, Norway. He is arranging a number of affairs to honor King after his receipt of the award and has recently made a trip to England for this purpose. Rustin is being assisted in this endeavor by [redacted] who was a member of the CPUSA in the early 1940's. On November 7, 1964, Rustin advised King that he is beginning the draft of a major speech that King will deliver at one of these affairs. (3) (8/4) b6 b7C

Direct CPUSA Involvement

While the communists are concentrating heavily on Martin Luther King, they are not ignoring the other Negro leaders and the organizations active in the integration movement. Through the years, such organizations have been a constant target for communist-infiltration efforts. (S/U)

In February, 1964, national Party functionary, Hyman Lumer, told a Party school that the Party's fight for equality is a fight against monopoly capital, and the fight for democratic rights for the Negro becomes a fight which is part of the whole "antimonopoly struggle" within the United States. According to Lumer, the Negro struggle and the peace struggle fall within the class struggle so, for Marxists, the class struggle remains the underlying basic question with full equality and "democracy" the goal of the struggle. As the Party's General Secretary, Gus Hall, has said "Jim Crow can be dealt with only by dealing with capitalism." The Party's National Negro Commission Chairman told the Commission in February, 1964, that the Party must wage an all-out fight for the Civil Rights Bill through pressure on the Congress and, if necessary, through direct action such as demonstrations and marches. In April, 1964, the Party's Legislative Director, Arnold Johnson, stated that it was definitely true that the Party is in the current civil rights movement, but because of the hysteria of the news media and opposition by the Government, it was not feasible to publicize the assistance the Party is giving to this movement. Currently, Party instructions are that Party members, in numbers, should attend a national conference of top Negro leaders scheduled for January, 1965. (S/U)

Violence Hinted

The frightening truth of the communist involvement is illustrated by comments made at a May, 1964, meeting of the Party's National Negro Commission by one of the Party's national functionaries who said that a total revolution is in the process of development and that no one can predict whether the reactionaries in the United States will drive this country into a bloody, sacrificial conflict in order to prolong the hour of their ultimate defeat. In this statement we see not only a hint at possible violence, but coupled with it the Party's advance charge of placing the blame elsewhere. (9)

Party Recruitment Planned

The Party's involvement in the racial situation is intended to also serve in the all-important task of recruitment. In early June, 1964, the Party's national headquarters proposed that headquarters be opened in major cities for the purpose of holding forums. The objective, as explained by a Party functionary, is to organize special study groups designed to exploit sincere civil rights workers and attempt to recruit them into the Party. (10)

Communist In Action

b7C

The following incident pointedly illustrates direct communist involvement in the racial picture. The opening of the World's Fair in New York City on April 22, 1964, witnessed efforts by racial groups to demonstrate and cause disorder through such tactics as "sit-ins" and "stall-ins." [redacted] of the Congress of Racial Equality [redacted] He was arrested for disorderly conduct as he led 100 pickets at the Fair's opening. Most significantly, just two days previously, on April 20, 1964, [redacted] who has been reliably reported as a member of the CPUSA, met in New York City with Gus Hall and another high Party functionary, Mortimer Daniel Rubin. (U) (11)

Aim to Heighten Tension

In short, the CPUSA's primary purpose has been to add fuel to the fire at the local level to keep the racial unrest at fever pitch at the national level, where the Party hopes to derive its greatest benefit through such important channels as Martin Luther King. (U)

At the intermediate level, the Party continues to utilize its other tools of propaganda and agitation to bring as much pressure as possible to bear on the over-all situation. Party newspapers and Party-sponsored publications pour out propaganda aimed at heightening the tensions. Communist front organizations originate and circulate leaflets, circulars, and petitions, and bombard Congress and the President with letters and telegrams demanding action of one sort or another. (U)

Conclusion

It is evident from the facts presented that Martin Luther King constitutes a security problem to this Nation. It is equally evident that the Negro people, some 20 million strong, are not aware either of King's security liability or of his personal debauchery. If they were aware, it is not likely that they would be giving to him the support that he now has. At this time, the overwhelming majority of the Negro people have successfully resisted communism and this is to their distinct credit. Under King's leadership, will this condition be changed? This is the serious question which must be faced realistically. The Negro people are certainly entitled to all civil rights enjoyed by white people. Can their legitimate aspirations and efforts in this direction be separated permanently from communism? It is believed this can be done if objectivity is pursued and the facts known acted upon constructively. (U)

Title: THEODORE THOMAS TAYLOR, JR.

Character: SECURITY MATTER-C

Synopsis: Subject resides 36 Chester Ave., Franklin Township, N.J. and is self-employed as a handyman from his residence. Arrested by Franklin Township Police 11/12/63 for possession of stolen property. In October, 1964, it was reported that in August, 1963, TAYLOR stated he put ad in a paper for persons to join a rifle club and was considering an ad for a worker with experience in explosives and detonators. In August, 1963, also stated that he recently had negotiated with large bakery firm in the New Brunswick-Franklin Township area, for jobs for Negroes without success; however, after company suffered damages and fire, his demands were met. No record of fire or damages in any bakeries located greater New Brunswick-Franklin Township area. General Baking Co., Edison, N.J., Continental Baking Co., Woodbridge, N.J., and Flako Products, New Brunswick, advise of dealings with TAYLOR re Negro job opportunities and state they had no problems and suffered no damage. No advertisement located at two local newspapers re rifle club or explosives and detonators.

DETAILS:

I. BACKGROUND

A. Residence and Employment

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

On November 17, 1964, through the use of a pretext, interview with the subject at 36 Chester Avenue, Franklin Township, New Jersey, was conducted. It was determined that he resides at this address and is self-employed as a handyman from his residence. It was also determined that the subject previously resided at 183 Delmonico Avenue and 99 Churchill Avenue, both in Franklin Township, New Jersey.

B. Arrest Record

On October 14, 1964, Chief RUSSELL PFIEFFER, Franklin Township, New Jersey, Police Department, advised that his department arrested the subject on November 12, 1963, in Franklin Township for possession of stolen property. PFIEFFER stated that TAYLOR was indicted on this count by the September, 1964, session of the Somerset County Grand Jury.

II. INTERVIEW WITH [redacted]

On [redacted] who resides at [redacted] was interviewed and furnished the following information:

He is employed [redacted]

b7C
b7D

[redacted] stated that [redacted] he was employed as [redacted] At this time he resided in [redacted]

[redacted] New Brunswick for the purpose of contacting one TED TAYLOR [redacted]

b7D

[redacted] stated that he recalled that TAYLOR furnished some literature [redacted] for distribution in Washington at the March on Washington.

[redacted] continued that during this conversation TAYLOR indicated that he had put an advertisement in a paper for persons to join a rifle club. He stated that the ostensible purpose of this group would be for sportsmanship.

[redacted] TAYLOR indicated at this time that the purpose of negotiation with this firm was to obtain more jobs for Negroes with the baking firm. TAYLOR indicated this had taken place some time before the conversation with [redacted] and stated that he had no success in negotiating with the company during this period. TAYLOR then indicated that the night of the same date on which he had negotiated with the firm, this baking company suffered some damage to their property and that a portion of the building in which the baking firm was housed was burned. TAYLOR indicated that when he approached the company again for a negotiation on the matter of increased number of jobs for Negroes, the firm met all his demands without difficulty. TAYLOR spoke in general terms regarding this incident and at no time did he state who had been responsible for any damage to the property of this firm.

On [redacted] identified a photograph of THEODORE THOMAS TAYLOR who resides at 99 Churchill Avenue,

Franklin Township, New Jersey, as identical with the individual with whom he visited in August, 1963. b6 b7C b7D

III. EFFORTS TO SUBSTANTIATE INFORMATION FURNISHED BY [redacted]

On October 14, 1964, [redacted] stated that the subject, a longtime resident of Franklin Township, had been one of the leaders of a local group called "People's Organization", which was set up to protest the racial imbalance in two of the Franklin Township grammar schools. He stated that the major activity on the part of this organization was the picketing of the above two schools in the fall of 1962 and winter of 1963. [redacted] stated that this organization had disbanded. b6 b7C

The September 4, 1963 issue of the "Daily Home News", a New Brunswick, New Jersey, daily newspaper, carried an article entitled "People's Organization Eyes Boycott of Some Products". This article states that this organization was considering boycotting goods and services of employees thought to be practicing racial discrimination in hiring. The article states that it had come to the attention of this group that Flako Products, a division of Quaker Oats, New Brunswick, employs no Negroes. The article pointed out that THEODORE TAYLOR was the Executive Director of the People's Organization.

On October 22, 1964, [redacted] General Baking Company, National Road, Edison, New Jersey, doing business as Bond Bread, advised that in about August, 1963, he read an article in a local newspaper which stated that THEODORE TAYLOR of Franklin Township, New Jersey, a representative of the "People's Organization" had requested local Negroes to boycott Bond Bread in Edison because they had no Negro employees in thep lant. b6 b7C

[redacted] stated that he contacted TAYLOR and arranged a meeting, pointing out to TAYLOR that he thought he had been unfair in issuing the newspaper article without first consulting with Bond Bread as they did, in fact, have two longtime Negro garage employees.

[redacted] advised that he and TAYLOR met in August, 1963, during which time TAYLOR desired to know that if he sent qualified Negroes to [redacted] would he hire them as driver-salesmen. [redacted] stated that he agreed to this and that TAYLOR returned on several occasions with several Negroes, three of which were hired by the company as salesmen.

[redacted] stated that during all of his contacts with TAYLOR he conducted himself as a gentleman and carried on his discussions in a sincere, intelligent and level-headed manner. He added that he recently donated some of his bakery products to a church group in Franklin Township following a request the part of TAYLOR.

[redacted] stated that the company's physical plant had suffered no damage or fires at any time previous or subsequent to August, 1963.

[redacted] advised that the only other large baking firm in the greater New Brunswick area was Continental Baking Company, Woodbridge, New Jersey.

On November 20, 1964, [redacted] Flako Products, a division of the Quaker Oats Company, Joyce Kilmer Avenue, New Brunswick, New Jersey, advised that in September, 1963, he was contacted by THEODORE TAYLOR, of Franklin Township, New Jersey, regarding the hiring of Negroes. [redacted] pointed out that all of his contacts with TAYLOR were carried out on a quiet, friendly, intelligent level.

[redacted] stated that his physical plant had suffered no damage of any nature previous or subsequent to his contacts with TAYLOR.

b7C

On 11/10/64, SA [redacted] and SA [redacted] interviewed [redacted] Continental Baking Co., 534 Ellison St., Paterson, N.J. [redacted] advised that he was [redacted] for the Woodbridge Agency of the Continental Baking Co., He recalls that during the later part of 1963, probably November or December, 1963, he had a discussion with THD TAYLOR and [redacted] in his, [redacted] office, at the Woodbridge Plant of the Continental Baking Co. [redacted] stated that they, the Continental Baking Co., sought out THD TAYLOR in order to obtain his assistance in getting qualified Negro help in their company in the Woodbridge area. [redacted] stated that he had recalled that TAYLOR represented the Peoples Organization, in or around New Brunswick, N.J.

[redacted] stated the reason they sought out THD TAYLOR was that he, TAYLOR, in March, 1962, had made an application for employment with the Continental Baking Co., at the Paterson, N.J., plant. At that time, TAYLOR had indicated he represented the Peoples Organization and was interested in a sales position himself. TAYLOR was not hired at that time. When the need for Negro help in the Woodbridge area became evident, however, they felt that TAYLOR might be in a position to furnish same. They, therefore, contacted him.

[redacted] stated that during the discussion with TAYLOR that TAYLOR made no threats or in any way try to intimidate him or the company in general concerning the hiring of Negro personnel.

[redacted] stated that the Continental Baking Co., never suffered any damage to their property or had any building of their's burned.

[redacted] further stated that TAYLOR did not send any Negroes to their company for hire, which necessitated them to contact the Local NAACP Chapters in the Woodbridge area for assistance in obtaining qualified Negro personnel.

On October 14, 1964, Chief PFIEFFER, Franklin Township Police Department, advised that the two most widely read local newspapers are the "Franklin News Record", a weekly printed newspaper, printed in Hillsborough, New Jersey, and the "Daily Home News", North Brunswick, New Jersey, which is the largest local newspaper.

On October 21, 1964, and November 20, 1964, [redacted] b6 b7C Classified Section, "Daily Home News", North Brunswick, New Jersey, advised that no advertisement requesting persons to join a gun club or one requesting the services of a worker who had previous experience in explosives and detonators had been placed in his newspaper during the last 3½ years. He pointed out that a physical check was made of these ads, dating back to January, 1961, and that he had no record of the subject as placing any type of an ad in this paper.

On November 3, 1964, EDWARD WASH, Owner, Nash Newspapers, Hillsborough, New Jersey, advised that he published "The Manville News" and "The Franklin News Record", both weekly publications, the latter being sold exclusively in Franklin Township, New Jersey.

He stated that he had no record of an advertisement requesting persons to join a gun club or requesting the services of a worker with previous Army experience in explosives and detonators as ever having placed in his papers. He pointed out that he does not normally retain the names of individuals placing any ad in these papers.

The following logical police departments were contacted to determine if they had had any fires in bakery firms within their territory during the past two years.

On October 14, 1964, Chief RUSSELL PFIEFFER
On October 16, 1964, Lieutenant [redacted] b6 b7C
New Brunswick, New Jersey, Police Department

On October 20, 1964 Detective [redacted]
Edison, New Jersey, Police Department

On October 22, 1964, Chief CARMEN CANASTRA
North Brunswick, New Jersey, Police Department

All of the above advised that their records and the records of their respective fire departments indicate that they have had no fires involving bakery firms.

There follows a summary of a meeting of the National Board of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA) held November 18-21, 1964, at the Martinique Hotel, Broadway and 32nd Street, New York, New York, as reported by a confidential source, who was in a position to furnish reliable information on each date.

First Day's Session
November 18, 1964

Tom Dennis of Detroit was designated Chairman of this session.

After reading of the agenda by Mortimer Daniel Rubin, Jack Stachel reported on the November, 1964 elections.

Stachel described the 1964 elections as a political crossroads noting the challenge by reactionary forces of the upsurge in democratic people's rights. He claimed that the CPUSA had distributed pamphlets which contributed to the outcome of the election campaign and asserted that the people had chosen the high road of peace and civil rights with the result that the ultra-right was smashed.

Stachel said the Johnson victory was so one-sided that perhaps the danger of the ultra-right was overestimated but, nevertheless, the danger was there, and the CPUSA recognized it.

According to Stachel, the CPUSA must not regard war as inevitable.

Stachel reviewed statistics of election returns of various contests and stated the coalition of Republicans and Dixiecrats has been broken. He claimed victory was achieved by a broad anti-Goldwater coalition, by working class people, and by the Negro liberation movement. He credited organization of Negroes and Labor with bringing about the overwhelming vote for Johnson.

Stachel said "the left" played a bigger role than at any time since the campaign for Henry Wallace in 1948. He claimed the CPUSA had a larger percentage of members active in the campaign than heretofore and the members had a better understanding of the issues.

Stachel stated that the prestige of the CPUSA among left forces has grown. He warned against an idealistic approach to the Democratic party and said the CPUSA must fight for an independent policy and must be part of a broad people's coalition.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

In future political action, Stachel urged support of movements for legislative objectives, as well as activity in other fields, struggle for representation of popular forces in all government bodies, and support of candidates in advance of primaries to make them logical candidates.

Following the luncheon recess, Arnold Johnson reported on the role of the CPUSA in the election campaign. He claimed the CPUSA reached more people with election material than at any time since 1948.

Johnson detailed the distribution of Party campaign literature claiming distribution of 850,000 to 1,000,000 pieces of literature had been achieved. He said public appearances of Gus Hall and Henry Winston during the campaign were valuable in publicizing the position of the CPUSA.

Claude Lightfoot described the Johnson victory as a break through in the fight for civil rights. He said the civil rights movement must elect more Negro candidates and he urged non-partisan unity of Negroes supporting Negro candidates.

[redacted] discussed youth and the elections, stating that youth generally were for Johnson according to reports on activity in various colleges. He said the election shows it is possible to begin a broad campaign for federal aid to education. b6 b7C

Gil Green read a rough draft resolution on the elections which Gus Hall said had been discussed by the Secretariat. Green described the election as a people's victory which smashed Goldwaterism and raised the political struggle to a new level. He said a threat to the national will of the people still exists in the ultra - right and from Big Business.

Green said that even though Big Business gave its support to President Johnson, it will seek to bend the electoral mandate to its own interests. He asserted Big Business does not see the end of colonialism, the end of the cold war, and is against publicly financing building programs. He said the labor movement and Negro alliance emerged from the elections in a stronger position and these forces must struggle to direct the Johnson Administration toward progressive policies.

Green continued that the CPUSA played a prominent role in the elections by helping to achieve a unity of the left and by recognizing the peril of the ultra-right.

According to Green, the CPUSA must seek a greater unity of the left, an end to United States involvement in Viet Nam, changes in the seniority systems in Congress, abolishment of the House Committee on Un-American Activities, protection of the rights of Negroes, recognition of red China, an end of the cold war, a nuclear ban agreement, a greater push to the poverty program, an end of all anti-labor demonstrations, and an end to Communist prosecution.

George Morris and Carl Winter commented favorably on Gil Green's resolutions, both seeing the election as a victory of Negro and trade union forces.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

Jack Kling and Mike Davidow praised the resolutions. Davidow commented that he thought the CPUSA gained in prestige and stature in the elections among the left forces generally.

Second Day's Session
November 19, 1964

[redacted] was designated Chairman for this session. b6 b7C

James Allen, who recently returned from a trip abroad, was first speaker. He described reaction to United States election results in "Cities of Socialist Countries" as "Jubilant." Allen stated Europeans felt the climate in the United States before the elections was similar to that in Germany, during the 1930s. He said the results of the election were reassuring to these people.

Allen next spoke of the domestic political situation and said "key" for the CPUSA in this problem is one of realignment. He said labor for the first time during this election began putting forth issues politically and it is through this process that the CPUSA must carry on realignment. The traditional left cannot be defined in old traditional terms because the old left was associated with the Communist line. He said emerging left must be defined in terms of emerging mass movement and a workable left has to be developed in labor movement.

Robert Thompson spoke generally of coalition of forces such as Negro and labor during recent elections as an area in which CPUSA should develop so that forces will emerge in the post-election period and be influential in coming local,

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

city, and state elections. Thompson felt that in New York City, a fusion ticket may emerge due to discontent with Mayor Wagner. He felt that this ticket would deal sharply with the Democratic machine.

Irving Potash spoke of Democratic landslide in New Jersey and said the Party's main drive was concentrated on inspiring and promoting people's coalitions. He said in many cases it was on initiative of a single militant progressive and these units worked within trade union and civil rights movements in areas where the regular Democratic apparatus was dead.

Gus Hall said overriding issue in campaign was peace issue and, in the main, the masses rejected "red baiting."

Albert "Mickie" Lima and Dorothy Healey spoke on the election situation in California. Healey felt that one of the basic weaknesses there was the inadequacy of "our people" to answer the evident influence by the ultra-right.

Tom Dennis spoke of the elections in Michigan and said one of the most important developments there was the election of a Negro to Congress; said there is a developing of a Negro Trade Unionist Movement where it will go, is not known as yet.

James Jackson, in conclusion of the discussion on election analysis, called for a report to be prepared that would be broad in scope and would be broader than Party membership; said the whole left wants to know about the outcome of the election.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

Hyman Lumer stated that since their last discussion of the international conflict, there has been a change in Soviet leadership and the explosion of the A-bomb by the Chinese; said there is a need to bring the Party up to date; said the main points of Gus Hall's report are still basically correct; said new openings have developed toward better (International) unity and the CPUSA supports all movements for unity. He said ideological differences remain, but atmosphere for discussion is being cleared. Lumer said that the reasons for Khrushchev's downfall were: 1. He acted on his own; 2. He used others as his own personal envoys; 3. He gave jobs to family and relatives.

Lumer said Khrushchev is still a member of the Presidium despite what newspapers say; feels the CPUSA should not question the change in Soviet leadership, especially in the light of what was done and the reasons for it. He said there are still some questions regarding the change in Soviet leadership, but "we" must accept the explanation as essentially correct; said it would also be a serious mistake to make Khrushchev solely responsible for the break with China; feels the blame should be placed on the Chinese CP. Lumer said the CPUSA still supports the idea for a World Conference as proposed by the Soviets; said "we" are still awaiting news of the outcome of the Soviet-Chinese Moscow discussions.

Arnold Johnson gave a report on Viet Nam. He said there are many organizations and groupings which are bringing pressure on the United States Government to end the war in Viet Nam; all these should be utilized; and as a major proposal "we" should aim for a conference at Washington on this question that would represent the totality of American opinion. The aim would be to bring about a change in United States policy regarding Viet Nam. Next, "we" should get out a piece of literature that does a definitive job on Viet Nam. Such a document could be available by the end of the month. Issue 50,000 copies and make it a mass piece of literature.

Third Day's Session
November 20, 1964

George Meyers of Baltimore was designated Chairman.

Irving Potash proposed statement be drawn by CPUSA regarding closing of Naval shipyards and other military facilities.

Gil Green suggested this statement include recommendations concerning use of facilities to make commercial ships for trade with underdeveloped countries and also that consideration be given to use of facilities for making of prefabricated houses for housing developments.

Tom Dennis suggested possibility of use of these facilities as training and recreational centers for youth.

Carl Winter felt further examination of question should be made and CPUSA should not join in chorus of negative reaction now taking place. Winter suggested statement say something concerning cutback in military production and establishment of program to ease economic situation.

Gus Hall said most of civilian workers affected are in the New York area, and, therefore, New York should work out a program for use of Governor's Island as a big housing project.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

Jack Stachel said he would take the matter up with "The Worker" staff. He proposed Carl Winter and Robert Thompson as a subcommittee to work out the statement.

Gil Green said statement should be expedited to reach the people while this issue is still fresh.

At this point, Hy Lumer arrived at meeting and Robert Thompson was first to discuss Lumer's report given on preceding day on the International situation.

Thompson characterized Lumer's report as "feeble". He said an historic event is about to take place with the scheduled meeting of Russian and Chinese leaders and this event will affect millions of people and bear on eventual war or peace. He remarked, "And yet we barge into it as a pedantic child." Thompson stated that the possibilities evolving from this meeting of Russia and China are not appreciated by Lumer's report or his article in "Political Affairs." According to Thompson, fundamental policies of peace and peaceful co-existence will not change as they are the framework of change from capitalism to socialism. What will change, he said, will be that what was formerly a collision course between China and Russia will now be a course of increasing action and policy for fighting imperialism. In pointing out examples of relaxed tensions on the part of the Chinese, Thompson cited the visit of Chou En-lai to Moscow, the easing of the polemics, and the fact that the Chinese are trying to find points of policy for collaboration.

Gus Hall said he realized there is a world debate which has not yet been resolved but nevertheless he felt Thompson's criticism was unwarranted, particularly in characterizing the approach of Lumer's report as "that of a pedantic child."

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

Hall said the image of the CPUSA will never be improved by anti-Sovietism and the CPUSA must look for any policy which will help create unity. He said there must be more we can do in this unfortunate situation where we have an ideological rift in the socialist world. There is a difference in what parties say among themselves and what they say publicly. There are conflicting opinions in CPUSA as well as other Communist Parties as to what amount of differences should be aired publicly or merely discussed privately. There are differences between us as to whether Khrushchev's speech and the notes of the meeting of the Central Committee of the Soviet Union should have been made public. The Russians have different views of interpreting democracy and their views sometimes differ from ours. Hall added, "I am a great admirer of Lenin, but not everything he said was correct."

Hall said he believed one reason for the Soviet Union not making public proceedings concerning Khrushchev's ouster was apparently the possibility that lack of unanimous agreement in the Central Committee might be interpreted by the capitalist world as evidence of a split within the ruling group in the Soviet Union.

Hall noted the CPUSA and the Communist Party, Soviet Union (CPSU) are products of different societies and, therefore, CPUSA should not make hasty statements on matters affecting world Communism as the statements may not always be correct.

Dorothy Healey said she did not like to see people tagged as anti-Soviet merely because they disagree with some actions of the Soviet Union. She claimed this now appeared to be a trend in the CPUSA and it should be stopped as its continuation will stifle debate. She was asked, "What about revisionists in our Party?" And she replied that these were

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

people who were in fact anti-Soviet and not merely critical of certain Soviet actions. Healey said people cannot have knowledge without debate and when there is criticism of the Soviet Union there should be debate to determine whether the criticism is warranted.

Claude Lightfoot said the CPUSA was caught unprepared by what happened to Khrushchev and should be cautious in statements concerning this matter. He asked rhetorically, "How do we take a public position today and not get caught tomorrow?"

Joe North discussed the Sino-Russian rift and expressed optimism on recent developments which he feels show an easing of tensions between the two countries. With respect to the removal of Khrushchev, North said he did not believe the Soviet Union owes an explanation to the CPUSA, but that he does feel it owes a sincere explanation to the Soviet people. North noted that economic and political matters are kept from the Soviet people. He stated he is opposed to the idea of all errors being blamed on one individual. He added that the CPUSA should not be put in the position of being an apologist for the Soviet Union.

North expressed approval of the action of the Italian Communist Party on the ground that they were in the midst of an election campaign and had to keep the people informed.

Mickey Lima said it should not be forgotten that China is surrounded by foreign agents supplied by the United States. He said this type of problem has led them to course of action they are pursuing and this must be taken into consideration in evaluation of their position and in statements by the CPUSA.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

Danny Rubin said task of CPUSA is to narrow differences between the Chinese, Soviets and other countries. He said complete ideological agreement between countries is not necessary and name calling must be stopped. Rubin predicted a more public call for healing of the Sino-Soviet split.

Irving Potash described Lumer's report as a very serious effort but a report in which not everything is acceptable. Potash claimed report fails to place Chinese in proper perspective to show they are fighting imperialism and building socialism. Potash said he is not "a holier than thou one" who bows to the Soviet Union in all cases. He said that it is a mistake to take the path of least resistance and automatically bow to the Soviet Union. He said that discussion creates a better atmosphere.

In conclusion, Potash said that he felt the position of the CPSU is in accordance with that of the CPUSA.

Tom Dennis said Khrushchev's removal forced the Chinese to move in direction of re-establishing relations with the Soviet Union. He said it gave them a face saving opportunity.

Morris Childs disagreed with the Chinese position on a number of matters and pointed out that the CPUSA should not become cynical concerning the CPSU but it should be borne in mind that both the CPUSA and CPSU are trying to save the world through peaceful coexistence.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

Henry Winston noted that all Communists are concerned with unity of the World Communist Movement. He described Lumer's report as good when considered in the light of the fact that it was not written as an ideological or theoretical presentation but rather as a basis for discussion.

Winston said no matter what may be said about Khrushchev, he is regarded as a man of peace throughout the world and much has to be learned by the CPSU as to public relations.

Arnold Johnson said that he thought the greater collective leadership now in the Soviet Union will bring about greater change toward peaceful coexistence.

Carl Winter said it is responsibility of CPUSA leaders to correlate all local matters into something which will benefit the whole Communist movement. He pointed out that there are different levels of development throughout the world and the CPUSA should not attempt to impose its criteria on Communists in other parts of the world who are living in areas far less developed than the United States.

James Jackson said serious consideration must be given to the problems created by the Chinese departure from the line of Marxism-Leninism, but this must be done while, at the same time, maintaining respect for the World Communist Movement on a world scale.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

Jack Stachel expressed surprise that Lumer's report had evoked so much discussion. He said it had been carefully gone over in committee and he thought most of the questions being raised had been resolved. According to Stachel, the principal point to be covered was that peaceful coexistence would continue as a policy of the Soviet Union in spite of Khrushchev's removal.

Stachel said the CPUSA should be the last Party in the world to be neutral in this situation and an analysis of the problem should not be regarded as factionalism. He commented that criticism of the Soviet Union must be cautious and correct so as not to give aid to the enemy.

Gus Hall called for unity within the CPUSA, noting that it would be unfortunate if the CPUSA should offer a presentation on world Communist unity and have disunity in its own ranks. He said there is a need for a greater understanding of the principles of peaceful coexistence.

Hy Lumer stated his report was not intended to be a major report but was to bring the CPUSA up to date. He said the report is not for the public but "for our own information", and there is no need for a public statement at this time.

Gus Hall said that since this was just a continuing discussion to bring CP leaders up to date, there was no need to take a vote on Lumer's report.

Internal Security - C

Fourth Day's Session
November 21, 1964

Upon opening of session at 9:45 a.m., Dorothy Healey was designated Chairman. Claude Lightfoot then gave informational report. With reference to "State of the Race" Conference called by A. Philip Randolph to enable Negro leaders to discuss strategy and tactics of Negro freedom movement. All shades of opinion are to be represented, including Muslims, but not Communists. This conference is now set for Mid-January, 1965. Lightfoot said Communist Party should be present and participate, and Communist Party Negro Commission has met to accomplish this, and purpose of his speaking is to get cooperation of Communist Party districts. He asserted Negro movement does not tend to sit back and wait on President Johnson, but to go on to new levels, although there is no hostility to him. January conference will be first centralizing action of freedom movement since election.

Lightfoot urged maximum mobilization for memorial activities for late Benjamin J. Davis, and said there will be total mobilization for this in New York District. Negro History Week in February, 1965, is to be used to bring the Party before the Negro community.

Danny Rubin gave what he called preliminary report on organizational matters and called for ideas. He thought there should be major changes because of, 1. failure of Communist Party to grow among Negroes and youth, 2. failure of "The Worker" and the "Peoples World" to achieve better circulation, and 3. failure to improve financial resources.

The "Peoples World" is a West Coast Communist newspaper.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

Rubin perceived lack of confidence in the Communist Party and indecisive class approach. He urged one policy on all levels of organization and concentration in the larger districts, particularly Ohio, Michigan and Illinois, and among the smaller districts in Western Pennsylvania and the South. He called for concentration on youth, both Negro and white, and for crash cadre program. Dominant problem in districts is to understand left forms, and Communist Party must be strengthened before developing left forms. Such forms are necessary for conscious left and for a Communist Party. However, fear exists that left forms may be used in place of Communist Party. As to building Party, Rubin asked concentration on its press, and also noted fear for security of members. On internal life of Party, he saw too little vitality, and said constant discussion, new methods and advance planning of meetings are needed. Former publication "Party Affairs" should be revived as isolation within Communist Party is problem. New cadre is needed by way of crash program. Rubin said little leadership has come from the National Office and Hy Lumer has been too busy to participate. New initiative from the districts is needed. He recalled that Henry Winston had suggested cadre pool.

Rubin said work of National Center needs improvement, and factionalsim has been problem. However, on positive side Carl Winter and Gil Green are now part of center. He called for more people to participate in working commissions, periodic review of work of such commissions, and clear division of work of national center, greater aid to districts with personnel and by planning of trips by leadership, more realism in discussion of projects inasmuch as no one wants to take responsibility for what can be accomplished.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

Next item was discussion of draft of Communist Party statement on election results by Gil Green. Mickie Lima said Democratic centralism must be kept in mind, and draft must not be handled in ordinary way, but disseminated to outside groups, such as left organizations, Democratic Party and discussion groups for their ideas.

George Meyers urged promotion of fight against anti-labor legislation more than is set out in draft. He specified Taft-Hartley Act, particularly right to work section.

Henry Winston said issue of Negro-white solidarity should be raised, otherwise South will not be organized.

Meeting voted to issue draft together with letter of explanation.

Gus Hall noted that with reference to dispute between CPSU and Communist Party of China, CPUSA, must stress Party unity as there are new efforts by "The enemy" to undermine that unity. Leading comrades cannot be silent. Latest statement by Communist Party of China presents new faction for discussion, and he wants all Communist Party leaders to ponder proper reaction. He stated "new leadership of Russia is in a hell of a position. We face the same problem."

Hall said Communist Party cannot be silent, and there must be discussion on November 23 or 24, 1964, as all efforts for unity must continue.

James Jackson, Hy Lumer and Gil Green were constituted subcommittee to draw up editorial, but publication not identified.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

On November 23 and 24, 1964, a second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that selected members of the National Board of the CPUSA held additional sessions on these dates at CPUSA Headquarters, New York City. The source furnished the following summary of proceedings:

November 23, 1964

This session was concerned with the preparation of a statement and an editorial for "The Worker" on the recent meeting of the Soviets and Chinese in Moscow, as well as to comment on an editorial which recently appeared in "Red Flag", the journal of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China.

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

Following some preliminary discussion, James Jackson indicated that the statement and editorial were being prepared by a committee. He made the following comments regarding them:

Jackson said "we" had felt that the changes recommended by the meeting in Moscow between the representatives of China and Russia were indeed a first step toward the creation of a cordial atmosphere for the civil discussion of differences that could result in overcoming the partial antagonisms in relations between the two parties, as well as between the Communist Party of China and most of the Marxist-Leninist parties of the world.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

Jackson commented that it was against this background of universally acknowledged hope for real progress towards unity that "we" look with grave concern upon the editorial in the current issue of "Red Flag" the journal of the Central Committee of the Communist Party of China. This editorial contends that the displacement of Khrushchev from leadership in the Soviet Union, must be seen as the repudiation of the social structure policies which has as their foundation the peaceful coexistence of the two systems.

Continuing, Jackson commented that so far as the CPUSA is concerned, it will never slacken in its struggle for our country to develop consistent policies in its relations with all other countries based upon the principal of equal coexistence and equal respect for each country's national problems. The struggle to eliminate war from the world stirs the interest of all people in terms of broad social progress in democracy and socialism at home.

It is our fond wish that the "Red Flag" editorial is merely a throw back to a regrettable practice of the recent past.

November 24, 1964

James Jackson gave a report on "The Worker". He described its news function as to be a crusading paper on such matters as the fight for peace, the struggle for Negro freedom, the economic wellbeing of the working class, and the social security welfare of the American people.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

Jackson declared "The Worker" has a special ideological function and that is to project the Communist viewpoints on the substantive questions of the day. He said it conducts education for socialism and Communism by publishing events which happen in other Socialist countries and these are things which give the paper its distinctive character. He noted that the paper also reflects the struggle of the trade unionists and the Negro liberation movement. He explained that the purpose is to keep the comrades as fully informed as possible.

Jackson said "The Worker" has very serious production problems and financial problems continue as circulation has not developed as well as hoped.

Jack Stachel said the circulation of "The Worker" is going down in New York. He noted that it is less than 1,000 for the Mid-week edition and 1,200 for "The Worker."

George Meyers said he regarded the handling of the trade union question by "The Worker" as very weak.

Gus Hall stated big improvements are needed as there is tremendous criticism of "The Worker" in the Party and it must be accepted within the bounds that there are certain limitations from the angle of the staff, size and finances.

Various suggestions were offered by those present for the purpose of improvement of the news content of "The Worker." These included shorter news articles, greater attention to the civil rights field, improvement of the front page to make it "more sparkling," and greater coverage of trade union matters.

Re: Communist Party,
United States of America -
Organization
Internal Security - C

Robert Thompson said he thought "The Worker" should be given a more independent role, rather than just be regarded as the organ of the Communist Party.

It was agreed that further discussion and planning was needed to assist the Editor on a long term basis but the day to day responsibilities are to remain his.

III - COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL AND OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

No information developed.

APPENDIX

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC.

"The Southern Patriot", a monthly publication, shows that it is published by the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF).

"The Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ" of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW) by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, on the SCHW, June 12, 1947.

The SCHW was cited as a communist front by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 16, 1947.

An amendment to the charter of the SCHW changed the name of that organization to the SCEF, and listed its purpose as being to improve the educational and cultural standards of the Southern people in accordance with the highest American democratic institutions, traditions, and ideals. The amendment was dated April 26, 1946.

A source, who is familiar with some phases of Communist Party (CP) activity in the New Orleans area, advised on May 25, 1962, that during the time the SCHW was in existence, CP members were members of and worked actively in the SCHW. However, since the formation of the SCEF, rank and file CP members have not been encouraged to work in the SCEF. The source stated that the SCEF is a progressive, liberal organization, which he considers a CP front organization because it has gone along with the Communist Party on certain issues, particularly on the racial question, and through the years, certain CP members in the New Orleans area have been assigned to work in the organization to further CP principles.

On May 25, 1962, the source advised that in the past he has considered JAMES DOMBROWSKI, the Executive Director of the SCEF, to be a communist, if not an actual Communist Party member, because he followed communist principles.

The source also advised on May 25, 1962, that many people who are officials and members of the SCEF, while liberal in their views, are by no means communists.

Another source advised on March 2, 1961, that CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, a Communist Party functionary, stated at a meeting of the Communist Party in Baltimore, Maryland, on February 25, 1961, that the Communist Party is not connected with any progressive movement but indirectly they do have some influence in the SCEF.

PERSONAL ATTENTION

ReBulet 12/1/64 to your personal attention which sets forth some suggested procedures for the handling of the voluminous information being developed in connection with CIRM and related matters. One of the items discussed pertained to the fact that the Bureau's sensitive sources frequently furnish information on a variety of subject matters and that in order to prompt more efficient handling at the Bureau, it was desired that separate subject matters be reportediin separate letterhead memoranda.

Examples were given of information being currently received concerning plans of Martin Luther King, Jr., and his party in connection with King's receipt of the Nobel Peace Prize and reactions and strategy of King and his advisors concerning a recent statement by me concerning him.

Reairtel 12/4/64 concerning CIRM and King which forwarded an 8 page letterhead memorandum (LHM). The first two paragraphs of page one has pertinent information concerning a rally for King when he returns to the United States from abroad and efforts on the part of some of King's advisors in connection with a speech to be delivered by King (probably pertaining to the Nobel Peace Prize or closely related thereto). The information in these two paragraphs is to be disseminated by the Bureau. The remainder of the LHM, however, contains pertinent information concerning my recent talk with King but is of such a nature that it is not likely to be disseminated and, if disseminated, it will be done through other channels than those contemplated for the information on page one referred to above.

Re: Gary Freedom Movement Council
Gary, Indiana

The Gary Post Tribune, a daily newspaper published Gary, Indiana, in its issue dated November 25, 1964, contains an article reflecting the formation of a new Gary Freedom Movement Council which includes many of the leaders working in the field of Civil Rights in the City of Gary. Reverend Julius James, pastor of St. John the Baptist Church, has been selected as the chairman of the Gary Freedom Movement Council.

Reverend James took issue with an editorial which appeared in the Gary Post Tribune asking that civil rights activities in Gary be given an opportunity to succeed in a climate of calm and reason. Reverend James stated that the Gary Post Tribune editorial "made good reading, but it is just a little late."

The Gary Freedom Movement Council calls for public demonstration seeking enactment of a Fair Housing Ordinance by the Gary City Council.

The article reflects that the following persons are leaders of the Gary Freedom Movement Council:

Mrs. David Chube
Dr. B. F. Grant
Reverend Julius James, chairman
Attorney Hilbert Bradley
Dr. A. T. Cardwell
Reverend Floyd Dumas
Roosevelt Haywood
Steve Morris

Re: Gary Freedom Movement Council

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, described [redacted] as a member of the Communist Party in September, 1958. b6 b7C

The Gary Post Tribune in its issue dated November 25, 1964, reflects that Mayor A. Martin Katz of the City of Gary attended the mass meeting where the Gary Freedom Movement Council was founded. Katz addressed the mass meeting stating that the conduct of the Negro community in Gary, in the past, has not been just good. It has been magnificent. Courage, reason and non-violence have been the standards of that conduct. The mayor stated he was confident that whatever course of action the people would choose now would be guided by the same standards and will be appropriate to the circumstances.

Mayor Katz said "I know and you know that the struggle for freedom will cease only when freedom has been achieved. And by that I mean, freedom for you, freedom for me, and freedom for all our fellow men. I am happy to say that this is not a struggle of one race against another. There are many fine people in this community of Gary, of both races, who recognize what is just and what is right."

Katz continued, "We had wonderful community-wide support for the Omnibus Civil Rights Ordinance. There are many who backed this ordinance because they understood the principles of justice that were involved, and, there were others who backed the ordinance because they understood that the inevitable outcome would be the triumph of freedom and equality. In striving toward freedom and equality, tensions will develop as they always have and as they always will. It was to help us deal with these tensions in a constructive way and I had hoped to create a Gary Human Relations Commission. My experience shows that we are much more likely to deal with these problems in a constructive and promising way, if we, first of all, recognize that there are problems and secondly, if we are able to sit down and talk about how these problems can be met and the interests of the community safeguarded."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ (U)

A second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 27, 1964, that the following individuals were observed at the mass meeting held at Baber Community Center in Gary, Indiana, the night of November 24, 1964 where the Gary Freedom Movement Council was founded:

Frequent correspondence from receiving offices in matters pertaining to CIRM, Martin Luther King, Jr., and similar related matters contain references to the relationship between King and Harry Wachtel of New York City. The characterization of Wachtel, as originated by the New York Office, usually opens with a statement to the effect that he is the Executive Vice President for the Gandhi Society for Human Rights. It is believed that in order to show a firmer association between Wachtel and King, it would be well to also include in the opening portion of the characterization on Wachtel that the Gandhi Society for Human Rights is a fund-raising adjunct of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference which Conference is headed by King.

Receiving offices should include the suggested revision in characterizations of Wachtel in the future.

over what he should say, and asked WACHTEL to consider ideas along that line.

Continuing, WACHTEL said he had "covered the money business" (alluding to money for use of those accompanying KING to Europe) with [redacted] b6 b7C
WACHTEL said he spoke to [redacted] "tonight" (12/2) and that he is coming to NY (~~Monday~~ Tues., 12/3) and will be at the Sheraton-Atlantic Hotel.

Referring to the HUMPHREY announcement (to attend the KING affair) WACHTEL remarked that he interpreted the announcement as "a follow-through on the HOOVER thing". BAYARD replied, "Obviously." WACHTEL said the air was cleared, and "I think there should be some publicity about it: CLEVE (CLEVELAND ROBINSON) is going to put it on the posters." RUSTIN said CLEVE was operating in a very devious way, and "I'm terrified." In reply to a question of WACHTEL as to what this meant, RUSTIN said he (CLEVE) had refused to hire any people, and was trying to do it all by himself with people from Local 65, some of whom are not too efficient. RUSTIN said he would talk to KING tomorrow (12/3) and get him to apply some pressure to CLEVE. HARRY WACHTEL said he was to invite CLEVE To the press conference, prompting RUSTIN to remark that CLEVE was very arrogant, that "you have to bludgeon him." WACHTEL asked RUSTIN to cut him in about CLEVE. RUSTIN replied,"We've got to tell CLEVE that we are frightened about this and we want him to hire some people. WACHTEL asked, "Do we have anyone to hire," prompting this [redacted] from RUSTIN, "I have two or three people and I sent them to him, and he says that there is no [redacted] and he doesn't want to be caught with a pig in a [redacted]." That's not the way to put on a meeting." WACHTEL said, "Not one that is sort of mushrooming up in big wheels and so forth. I'll add my licks and as far as the press conference, I just think that MARTIN has to not spell out too much of this HOOVER business. That's my main feeling."

In attempting to elaborate on the above, NY airtel and letter of 11/10/64, reported that RUSTIN contacted ROBINSON on 11/7/64, and discussed an affair to be held when KING returns from Europe. RUSTIN said WACHTEL had gotten [redacted] to help out with affair. ROBINSON said he did not remember [redacted] except from the "Old Progressive days." RUSTIN said [redacted] could do some big work but "they" do not want him out in front.

In continuing their conference, RUSTIN told WACHTEL that "we" had a fantastic meeting at Randolph's (A. PHILIP RANDOLPH, Pres. of the NALC) yesterday (12/2) of the big leaders or their representatives. RUSTIN said "ROY, (WILKINS, NAACP) who had gotten his story three days ago, went to the White House and to the FBI in the name of the leadership conference which includes all the Negroes and all the whites and made it quite clear that whether or not they had anything, he didn't give a damn what if they used it (alluding to KING's immoral relations)". WACHTEL answered, "This was an attack on the movement." RUSTIN said, "Not only that, but that the movement would have to begin to fight the JOHNSON administration because it was JOHNSON's responsibility." WACHTEL asked if he (WILKINS) went right to the top. RUSTIN replied, "Yes sir." Prompting WACHTEL to ask if that was before MARTIN's visit (with the Director). RUSTIN said that ROY (WILKINS) found out three day ago about "The supposed effort" causing WACHTEL to say "And he didn't just do what FARMER (JAMES FARMER, CORE) did, just pass it along, but did something." RUSTIN said, "he (WILKINS) went himself. I have great respect for ROY as a result of that." WACHTEL replied, "In other words, while we were talking, he was acting." RUSTIN said he was already acting. WACHTEL replied, "And therefore, this call of MARTIN's was like wrapping the ribbon." RUSTIN said yes, adding, "And furthermore if anything happens (obviously referring to a leak about KING's illicit affair) we have got a line from here to California that will fall on them (THE FBI) like a satallite." (obviously referring to a letter writing campaign to the President urging the Director's dismissal.) WACHTEL replied, "That's terrific--now what about that gal on Long ISland."

CONFIDENTIAL (U)

RUSTIN said she was contained. WACHTEL said, "Well, I think that probably J. EDGAR (HOOVER) will pull back his horns. My respect for ROY has gone up immeasurably." RUSTIN said his (WILKINS) point was that when a society has produced a MARTIN LUTHER KING, to permit anything to malign him, is to undermine morality in this nation. WACHTEL answered that it was a great statement and "I only wish that there was nothing there that did undermine the morality."

SA Howard Kinnally of the New York Office called at 2:15 a.m. 12-3-64 and advised Night Supervisor B. C. Rachner of the following pertinent portions of a conversation at 11:57 p.m., 12-2-64 between Bayard Rustin and Harry Wachtel as reported by NY 4212-S*. Rustin is the former Young Communist League member and Wachtel the Executive Vice President of the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, an adjunct of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference. Both are close advisors to Martin Luther King. (U)

Wachtel: "Humphreys is coming. I take the announcement about Humphrey as what I call a follow through on this Hoover thing. The air was cleared and I think there should be some publicity about it. Cleve (Cleveland Robinson) is going to put it on posters." (New York Office observes above probably refers to Vice President elect Hubert Humphrey and speculates that possibly Humphrey will accompany King to Oslo, or be in New York to welcome him back from Oslo.) (U)

In commenting on a press conference planned by King, Rustin said he, Rustin, "has got to figure out something for the press conference for King." Wachtel replied, "I think Martin has to not spell out too much of this Hoover business."

Rustin went on to praise Wilkins for having gone to the top about this "supposed effort" when he learned of it 3 days ago rather than having just passed it along as James Farmer had done when Farmer learned of it. In reply to Wachtel's question whether Wilkins had acted before Martin's visit with the Director, Rustin answered "yes." ~~C~~ U (U)

Wachtel then observed, "In other words, while we were talking he (Wilkins) was already acting and therefore this call of Martin's (visit with Director) was like 'rapping ribbon'." Rustin answered, "Right, and futhermore, if anything happens we have got a line from here to California that will fall on them like a satellite." ~~C~~ (U)

Wachtel and Rustin went on to agree that what Roy Wilkins had done was a "terrific thing" and that "J. Edgar Hoover will now pull back his horns." Rustin added that Wilkins had made a 3rd point, namely that "when a society has produced a Martin Luther King, to permit anything to malign him is to undermine the morality in this nation." Wachtel said this was a great statement and wished "there was nothing there that did undermine the morality." ~~C~~ (U)

Rustin also commented that the "gal on Long Island had been contained" and that he had had lunch with [redacted] He concluded by stating, "We've got to help people be careful man."

[redacted] in commenting on a statement that King was to make when he arrived in London, told Rustin to ask King to include in his statement words to the effect that he was "linking the peace issue and the race issue with our South African work and his American work." Rustin said in reply, that he was putting in his statement the three great problems: "the struggle for peace, the struggle for human dignity for the Negro, and the war on poverty." Rustin said King would link "our Southbs and your South Africa" at that point of his statement. S U

In concluding their contact, Rustin told [redacted] that 41 people would accompany King on his trip. S U

Security Matter - C

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly." &u

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19,20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak. FBI

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA.

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

ReBureau letter to New York, 11/20/64.

A review of the file on HARRY HERZHAFT WACHTEL revealed that according to records of the Veterans Administration, he was inducted into the United States Army on 10/13/42, and served on active duty from 7/27/43 to 11/9/45. He was honorably discharged at Fort Dix, New Jersey, as a Master Sergeant. WACHTEL served in the Army Signal Corps and reportedly had Army Serial Number 12152996.

WACHTEL was born on 3/26/17, in Brooklyn, New York, to MINNIE and SAM WACHTEL. He was married to [redacted] on [redacted] in Brooklyn, New York. [redacted]

It is to be noted that on [redacted] furnished information which revealed that the name HARRY WACHTEL was on a list of names, significance unknown, which was maintained at the Headquarters of the Kings County CP at 26 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York. The same source furnished information [redacted] which revealed that the name and address of [redacted] were on a list of names of [redacted] the [redacted] of the Kings County CP.

It is also to be noted that when HARRY WACHTEL's name was found at the Kings County CP Headquarters, he was reportedly on active duty with the United States Army. The possibility exists that WACHTEL was a member of the CP prior to his entry into the United States Army or that his name was merely on a mailing list of persons to whom CP propaganda could be mailed since [redacted]

Reurlet 11/2/64 which advised that a report in captioned matter due at the Bureau 11/ 1/64 would be submitted by 12/10/64, USCB. The Bureau permitted your Office the additional time because, as you indicated, numerous "specials" were being handled by your Office.

Reuairtel 12/9/64 which noted the extensive file reviews necessary in preparing the necessary report. It was stated that because of the volume of material to be handled in this matter, the report cannot be completed earlier than 1/10/65 "after which date this report will be submitted to the Bureau."

The Bureau recognizes the extensive work required in preparing the report in question. It will be necessary, however, that the report be submitted to reach the Bureau no later than 1/10/65. As you are aware another quarterly report in this matter will be due at the Bureau 2/1/65. It is therefore suggested that you may desire to include in the initial report, now due 1/10/65, information presently available and that you use the next quarterly report, due 2/1/65, for reporting the additional information developed.

Cincinnati, Ohio
December 3, 1964

On December 2, 1964, Lieutenant Colonel [redacted], Cincinnati Police Department, Cincinnati, Ohio, advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that a two-man plainclothes detail from the Cincinnati Police Department met Martin Luther King, Jr. at the Greater Cincinnati Airport on November 29, 1964, at approximately 7:00 A.M. He further advised that these two officers escorted Reverend King until his departure for Dayton, Ohio, by automobile, at 7:55 P.M. on November 29, 1964. b6 b7C

[redacted] Detective, Cincinnati Police Department, advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that he was assigned to a two-man detail on Sunday, November 29, 1964. This detail was responsible for escorting Martin Luther King during his stay in Cincinnati. b6 b7C

[redacted] advised that he met King at the Greater Cincinnati Airport and escorted him to the Netherland Plaza Hotel on Fifth Street in Cincinnati, and later to the Zion Baptist Church, 630 Glenwood Street, Cincinnati, Ohio. King preached at two church services, the 10:00 and 11:00 services and after the services, was escorted back to the Netherland Hotel. b6 b7C

King had advised [redacted] that he was purposely avoiding any press conferences because reporters would ask him embarrassing questions regarding his controversy with FBI Director John Edgar Hoover. King also stated that he has no controversy with the Director and does not want to become involved in any way. King further stated that anyone b6 b7C would be a fool to become involved in any type of controversy with Director Hoover.

[redacted] advised that King left the hotel at approximately 7:00 P.M. and the two-man detail escorted him to the Cincinnati Corporation Limit and discontinued their services at approximately 7:55 P.M. b6 b7C

The automobile in which King was traveling was driven by a minister [redacted] Reverend King was accompanied in the automobile by [redacted]

[redacted] stated that King did not leave Cincinnati until approximately 8:00 and was due for a speech in Dayton at 8:00 the same date.

The first confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Doctor Martin Luther King and [redacted], registered for two rooms in the Netherland Plaza Hotel on November 29, 1964. The registration card shows that these two men are representing the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC).

Source advised that the reservation was made at 8:14 A.M. and the room was cleared at 7:00 P.M., November 29, 1964. The registration card shows that the charge for the room was paid by the Zion Baptist Church, 630 Glenwood Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

A second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 1, 1964, that on November 29, 1964, eleven members of the National States Rights Party (NSRP), Dayton, Ohio, picketed in front of the University of Dayton Field House, where Martin Luther King spoke. There were no law enforcement officers at the Field House and the picketing took place from 7:00 P.M. to 8:00 P.M.

The characterization of the National States Rights Party (NSRP) appears in attached appendix.

The NSRP members carried signs protesting civil rights and integration. Some signs alleged that Martin Luther King belongs to sixty communist organizations and attended schools for communists.

According to the source, the picketing was peaceful and no incident was reported.

Source utilized in attached appendix has furnished reliable information in the past.

NATIONAL STATES RIGHTS PARTY (NSRP)

On November 26, 1957, a source advised that the United White Party (UWP) was organized at a convention held in Knoxville, Tennessee, on November 10, 1957. An article in the November 26, 1957, issue of the "Greenville Piedmont," a newspaper of Greenville, South Carolina, reported "the recent formation of a new political party, to be known as the United White Party." According to the article, the party was formed at a recently held meeting in Knoxville, Tennessee, at which many Klansmen were represented. The UWP was reported as being opposed to all "race mixing organizations and individuals."

The July, 1958, issue of "The Thunderbolt," self-described as the "official Racial Nationalist Organ of the National States Rights Party" (NSRP), reported that rank and file "States Righters" had merged with the UWP under "the banner of the National States Rights Party," with national offices at Post Office Box 261, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

In November, 1958, a source advised that the NSRP is composed of past members of klan-type organizations and notorious anti-Semites.

Issue Number 19, dated June, 1960, "The Thunderbolt," announced the address of the headquarters of the NSRP had been changed from Jeffersonville, Indiana, to Post Office Box 783, Birmingham, Alabama.

Issue Number 60, dated July-August, 1964, reflects the mailing address of the NSRP is still Post Office Box 783, Birmingham, Alabama.

On September 21, 1964, a source advised that EDWARD R. FIELDS, the Information Director of the NSRP and Editor of "The Thunderbolt", is the individual who "runs the NSRP."

"The Thunderbolt" continues to publish articles attacking Negroes and persons of the Jewish faith.

ReOClet 12/4/64, copies to recipients of instant letter.

Enclosed with relet was a letterhead memorandum (LHM) of same date which contained information furnished your Office [redacted] b3

The LHM set out an apparent verbatim statement prepared by Keeler which was captioned "Foreign Meddling in US Indian Status/Soviet Offers to 'Free' US Indians/Suspected Intrigue with US Do-Gooders/Similarity of Swedish Journalist and Soviet Views." As indicated by the quoted title the statement contained information concerning a number of different matters although it was principally centered around an allegation that some subversive elements might be attempting to inject themselves in matters pertaining to the North American Indian.

Bufiles contain the following information. William Wayne Keeler, [redacted] was the subject of an Atomic Energy Act - Applicant investigation in 1952, your file 116-13234. There is no information in Bufiles concerning Keeler which would preclude an interview with him by Bureau Agents. Bureau indices are negative concerning the Erik Dreyen mentioned in paragraph eight, page three of referenced LHM. The actor, Marlon Brando, mentioned in referenced LHM has in the past had some association with procommunist causes.

Mention is made in paragraph five, page two of referenced LHM to a possible demonstration of "US and Canadian Indians" at Olympic, Washington, 3/3/64. Bufiles contain no information concerning any such demonstration although it is noted that in May, 1964, Seattle conducted some inquiry concerning a possible communist involvement in an Indian matter. Seattle referred to its airtels 5/21 and 27/64; Portland airtel, copy to Seattle, 5/19/64; and

Letter to Oklahoma City
RE: CIRM
100-442529

Bulet to Seattle 5/27/64 and Buairtel to Portland, copy to Seattle, 5/15/64.

Seattle is instructed to immediately review its files in light of referenced LHM and furnish to Oklahoma City all available information which would assist in an interview of Keeler.

Paragraph ten on pages three and four of referenced LHM refers to a Chicago, Illinois, anthropologist, Saul Tax (or Tax). Although no definite information is given as to this individual's involvement, he appears to be identical to one Sol Tax, a resident of Chicago and concerning whom references are contained in Chicago file 100-11872 "Comintern Apparatus, IS - R." Chicago should review its files concerning Tax and furnish available information to Oklahoma City so that such information might be used in an interview with Keeler.

After receiving results of the indicated file reviews from Seattle and Chicago, Oklahoma City should have Keeler thoroughly interviewed unless some reason for not doing so is evident, in which event full justification for not interviewing him should be submitted to the Bureau. Keeler should be fully apprised of the Bureau's jurisdiction and responsibilities in the internal security field and requests should be made of him that in the event he is ever again contacted by Soviets or he obtains information he believes to be of value to the Bureau, he should contact a Bureau representative. Keeler should be thoroughly interviewed concerning the information contained in referenced LHM and insofar as is possible additional specifics obtained. The results of the interview with him should be incorporated in a LHM suitable for dissemination. Referenced LHM is not being disseminated by the Bureau. In preparing the LHM which will report the interview with Keeler, insure that only information pertaining to captioned matter is included. If he furnishes information relating to other matters, such information should be submitted by separate appropriately captioned communications.

Leads for Seattle and Chicago should be given prompt attention so that the interview of Keeler may be handled by the Oklahoma City Office without delay.

Letter to SAC, Oklahoma City
RE: CIRM
100-442529

NOTE:

Referenced Oklahoma City letter noted that the [redacted] information to our b3
Oklahoma City Office advised that Keeler had no objection to his identity being disclosed. The information from Keeler, who is an oil executive and Principal Chief in the Cherokee Indian Tribe, is that he has suspicions that communists, both domestically and in Russia, may have as a target for exploitation the North American Indian. He based some of his suspicions on contacts he had had with Soviets in connection with an Exchange Program; he met these Soviets both in the USSR and the US. It is believed that a thorough interview by Bureau Agents will serve to (1) elicit directly from him the information he has and will likely be more specific [redacted] and (2) will alert him to the Bureau's jurisdiction so that in the future he might deal directly with the Bureau [redacted] in a matter which is of Bureau prime interest.

Confidential Informant OC T-1, another Government Agency that conducts intelligence or personnel investigations, on October 26, 1964, furnished the following information obtained from William W. Keeler, President of the Executive Committee, Phillips Petroleum Company, Bartlesville, Oklahoma, and Principal Chief of the Cherokee Indian Tribe.

["Foreign Meddling in US Indian Status/Soviet Offers to 'Free' US Indians/Suspected Intrigue with US Do-Gooders/Similarity of Swedish Journalist and Soviet Views"]

W. W. Keeler

"1. "When I was in the USSR in August 1960 with the US Petroleum Exchange group, I was told in confidence by one of the Soviet hosts that the USSR wanted to help the US Indians break their chains and obtain their freedom. I assumed he was a well meaning victim of the Soviet propaganda fiction, therefore I urged him not to worry about the US Indians. They had no shackles.

"2. "Later another Soviet official made something of the same pitch to me. This time I began to realize there was more to this help-the-Indian line than I had first suspected, and I acted less standoffish. I half expected further suggestions, but none came.

"3. "When the Soviet oil delegation visited the US I escorted them around a US oil company's facilities in the Southwestern US and had moments when I was alone with one or another of the group. This time no one mentioned freeing the Indians.

"4. "In 1963 I boarded a Paris bound plane on which Marlon Brando the US motion picture actor was also traveling. This man is vocal in various causes for minority groups, including causes of the North American Indians. The actor was talking eagerly with a couple whom I did not recognize. However I thought I heard them say they were traveling on to Moscow, but I could have been mistaken. I could not get their names.

"5. "The Actor and I got off in Paris. In the meantime he had seen me in the plane and had engaged me in a discussion about his and others' plans to arouse indian representatives of some 40 or 50 US and Canadian Indians to demonstrate on 3 Mar 64 in Olympia, Washington, to arouse publicity and obtain rights for the Yakima and other tribes for fishing in the Columbia River. He mentioned how successful such actions had been in Negro demonstrations, and he gleefully prophesied that all, including him, would probably land in jail. The Indians and non-Indians he mentioned who were in this agitation with him were for the most part known to me to be trouble makers or misguided do-gooders.

"6. "We soon parted company in Paris, but later I talked with John Hicks of the London Moral Rearmament organization, 45 Berkeley Square. He asked me what I knew about the actor then told me that the actor had appeared at a London meeting which he addressed and was enthusiastically cheered by the communists in attendance. Hicks told me that in his opinion the actor was a misguided young man who was going to cause trouble. Subsequently the actor communicated with me in the US to help him arrange funds to finance the travel of the various Indians, do-gooders, and radicals to the Olympia, Washington, demonstration. I refused the requests.

"7. "In early May 1964 I sat by chance in a bar in New York City near a man who told me he represented a syndicate of Swedish newspapers. He said he had only recently returned from Dallas, where he had covered the Jack Ruby trial, and was anxious, it seemed, to explain to me how weak he considered the system of justice in the US.

"8. "He explained that he was staying in New York, but because of his accent I was not able to understand his name nor the name of the hotel, so he wrote it out on a note and gave it to me. The name appeared to be Erik Dreyen, Alaconquin Hotel. The conversation after that made it quite obvious to me that if he is not a communist he leans very much in that direction. I let him do practically all of the talking until he started telling me how the US Indians were so abused that they should rise up against the country. I told him the only other place I had ever heard people say that the US Indians were in chains was in the USSR, and I was curious to know if he had heard that from the Soviets. I asked several questions trying to find out where he had been to school, but then he wanted the note back that he had given me and also wanted to know if I was with the FBI. Eventually I left without further information.

"9. "I have given much thought to this matter of the interest of the Soviets, foreign left wing groups, and US left wing groups and individuals in 'freeing' the US Indians from their bonds. I appears to me that some foreign inspired agitation is clearly forthcoming in this direction to try to create a division in the US. I believe that the Soviets will try to rally all the innocent do-good elements to the cause by playing on their sentiments. I think however that the Soviets and other international communists will organize also some of what appear to be communist sympathizers or communists to enter the agitation in the guise of do-gooders.

"10. "For instance an anthropologist from Chicago, Saul Tax (or Tax), has been agitating already with certain Indian tribes for some time to stir these Indians up to more radical actions. This anthropologist travels from time to time to the USSR. Because he shows such an interest in Indians I feel certain that the Soviets have not overlooked an opportunity, as in my case, to tell him that they want to help 'free' the US Indians. However it appears from his agitation with the Indians that he may have been taken in by the Soviet line. I think also that the motion picture actor has been taken in by communists pushing this line.

"11. "In any event even if these men are unwitting dupes there are too many indications of communist interest in meddling in US Indian affairs to ignore the danger that they may be able to create for the US.

On December 14, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the First Annual State-Wide Conference of the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs of America (DCA) was held in New York, New York, over the week end of December 12-13, 1964.

A characterization of the DCA is attached hereto as an appendix. All sources utilized in this characterization have furnished reliable information in the past.

The first day's session on December 12, 1964, was held in the Hotel Woodstock, 127 West 43rd Street, New York, New York, and was attended by approximately 100 youth. The session was convened shortly after 11:00 a.m., by [redacted] who gave the welcoming speech. This was followed by [redacted] who read the report on the State-Wide Conference. After some discussion of this report, the conference broke for lunch at 1:45 p.m. Several leaders of

On January 14, 1963, a fourth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that [redacted] stated on January 13, 1963, that he was at one time a member of the Young Socialist Alliance in New York, New York, [redacted]

A characterization of the Young Socialist Alliance is set forth in the Appendix Section attached hereto. All sources utilized in this characterization have furnished reliable information in the past.

Following the work shop meetings, [redacted] of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, talked to the conference about his recent two months tour of Africa. Next, the conference was addressed by an unknown male who spoke about the campaign of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party to prevent the seating of United States Congressmen from Mississippi. After a talk given by an unknown girl from San Francisco about various DCA Clubs in this country, the meeting was adjourned at 5:30 p.m.

The second day's session on December 13, 1964, was held at 106 East 14th Street, New York, New York, and was attended by approximately 60 youth. The session commenced at 11:15 with a talk by Reverend William Howard Mellish on the life of W.E.B. Du Bois. [redacted] followed with a report on proposed educational projects. After this report, the three work shops that had met on Saturday met together again. The reports of the work shops disclosed that the DCA in New York in the future were going to stress the following:

1. U.S. withdrawal from Viet Nam

2. More jobs for youth

3. Academic freedom in schools, colleges and universities

Sunday's session was adjourned at 3:15 p.m. The source added that no officers or officials were elected at this conference.

Reverend William Howard Mellish

On November 16, 1964, a fifth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Mellish was Chairman of the Annual Rally For Peace and Friendship sponsored by the National Council of American Soviet Friendship (NCASF) held Carnegie Hall, New York, New York, on November 12, 1964.

The NCASF has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

W.E.B. Du Bois

Dr. W.E.B. Du Bois died in Chana, Africa, at the age of 96. He joined the Communist Party at the age of 93. His letter of application to the Communist Party, USA, and his acceptance were printed in "The Worker" an east Coast Communist newspaper, issue of November 26, 1961.

On December 22, 1963, a sixth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that [redacted] attended one or more sessions of an enlarged meeting of the National Executive Committee and invited guests of the Communist Party, USA, held in New York, New York, December 19 to 22, 1963.

1. APPENDIX

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates to this meeting were cautioned against the germ of anti-Soviet and anti-CP ideologies. These delegates were also told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialists attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second conference of over 20 persons met in Chicago on December 28-29, 1963, for the purpose of initiating a "call" to the new youth organization and planning for a founding convention to be held in June, 1964.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are: "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people. As young people in the forces struggling for democracy, we shall actively strive to defeat these reactionary and neo-fascist elements and to achieve complete freedom and democracy for all Americans, thus enabling each individual to freely choose and build the society he would wish to live in. Through these struggles we feel the American people will realize the viability of the socialist alternatives."

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA

The constitution further states that this new organization shall be a membership organization open to individuals, or if five or more people so desire a chapter can be formed which shall in turn be guided by the policies and principles of the parent organization.

The second source has also advised that at the founding convention it was voted that the organization should be temporarily headquartered in San Francisco, California, although no specific physical location was decided upon. This same source advised on June 29, 1964, that the temporary headquarters of this organization is 1007 McAllister Street, San Francisco, which is the headquarters of the W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco.

Both sources have advised that at the founding convention two officers were elected:

PHILIP CHAPIN DAVIS - President
CARL ELLENGER BLOICE - Publications Chairman

b6
b7C

A third source has advised that on [redacted] attended a CP recruiting class held at 1579 Scenic Avenue, Berkeley, California.

A fourth source has advised that CARL BLOICE, reporter for the "People's World" newspaper, was, on April 3, 1964, elected to the newly organized San Francisco County Committee of the CP.

The "People's World" is a west coast communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco, California.

1. APPENDIX

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 6, 1964, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 6, 1964, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC) and through an official SWP representative at all YSA NEC meetings. The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the YSA are located in Room 631, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

New York airtel 11/10/64, copies to Atlanta, forwarded a letterhead memorandum which reported on arrangements being made to honor Martin Luther King, Jr., upon his return to New York City after receiving the Nobel Peace Prize. An advisor to King, Harry Wachtel, told another advisor, Bayard Rustin, that he, Wachtel, had arranged with the approval of King for the man who ran the event for Eleanor Roosevelt to run an event for King. Wachtel also mentioned that King was quite pleased in getting Nisselson (phonetic) to handle the matter. Wachtel also said that Nisselson will be in charge but will be assisted by Saul Mills. Wachtel commented that it will be worthwhile to have a professional in charge.

As you are aware, Mills is a former member of the Communist Party, USA.

By letter 11/16/64 the Bureau instructed your office to review its files and contact established sources in an attempt to identify the Nisselson (phonetic) mentioned in the letterhead memorandum.

By letter 12/4/64, your office advised that Michael Monroe Nisselson, a Security Index subject of your office, is self-employed as a fund raiser with offices at 501 Madison Avenue, New York City, and residence at 110 Elk Avenue, New Rochelle, New York. According to NY 694-S*, Nisselson was a public relations man for a Democratic Party fund raising dinner held in New York City 12/7/59. The dinner was in honor of Mrs. Roosevelt. Nisselson has in the past been reported by NY 694-S* as having been a large contributor to the Communist Party, USA, and has acted in the role of advisor to the Party.

Your letter 12/4/64 closed with a statement to the effect that there is no information in your files indicating that Nisselson is known to King but that your office would remain alert to information indicating that Nisselson is in contact with King.

Letter to New York
100-442529

It appears that from the information originally obtained, as reported in referenced letterhead memorandum, and the known information about Michael Nisselson, that he is the individual who was to be involved in the arrangements for a welcoming of King. The fact that an individual with such a subversive background as Michael Nisselson may now be doing a service on behalf of King is most significant. You are, therefore, instructed to conduct a searching, but discreet, investigation which will definitely establish Nisselson's services on behalf of King, if he does actually perform such services. Note particularly that there is a strong likelihood that Nisselson will not be in direct contact with King and is most likely to deal through King's advisors such as Wachtel, Rustin, [redacted] and others. b6 b7C

This matter should be given prompt and decisive investigative attention and the Bureau kept promptly advised of all pertinent developments. Positive results should be submitted in a form suitable for dissemination.

NOTE:

This information is desired not only for its value from an investigative standpoint but also for its potential value for use in a counterintelligence operation through which we hope to disclose the communist influence on King and thereby to discredit King.

Re Bulet dated 11/16/64, and NY Airtel and LHM dated 11/10/64. Bulet instructed NYO review its files and established sources and attempt to identify NESSELSON (PH), who was mentioned in NY LHM.

A review of NYO files reflect that one MICHAEL MONROE NISSELSON is the subject of a Security Matter-C investigation, Bufile 100-403737; NY file 100-82890. NISSELSON is listed in the Security Index of the NYO; is a self-employed fund raiser at 501 Madison Ave, NYC, and is a resident of 110 Elk Avenue, New Rochelle, NY.

The files reflect that NISSELSON, according to information from NY 694-S on 12/9/59, was Public relations man for the Democratic Fund Raising Dinner held at the Hotel Pierre in NYC, on 12/7/59. The dinner was given in honor of Mrs ROOSEVELT.

In summary report of SA [redacted] at NY, 8/10/53, NY 694-S* reported that MICHAEL NISSELSON was a Professional fund raiser and a Communist, who in the past had been in contact with top level Communist Party members.

In report of SA [redacted] at NY, 6/25/56, NY 694-S* was reported as having said that NISSELSON contributed hundreds of dollars to the CP every month, as well as acted in the role of advisor to the CP.

There does not appear in the NYO files, any information indicating that MICHAEL MONROE NISSELSON is known to MARTIN LUTHER KING. The NYO will remain alert to information indicating that MICHAEL MONROE NISSELSON is in contact with KING.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information on November 21, 1964, disclosing that Stanley Levison and [redacted] were in contact on that date. Levison took the opportunity to state that he had received a letter from A. J. Muste (a Socialist Pacifist) on the stationery of the Fellowship of Reconciliation, in which he extolled the many contributions of Bayard Rustin to the civil rights movement and his commitment to non-violence. Muste, according to Levison, then solicited money on behalf of Rustin, to be used to pay his expenses so that he can accompany Martin Luther King (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference) (SCLC), to Oslo, Norway, in December, 1964, to receive the Nobel Peace Prize. b6 b7C

Levison raised the question as to why King had not agreed to pay Rustin's expenses, since he asked him to accompany him on the trip. He said Muste had attempted to cover such a question by stating that King had decided to contribute all the award money to the SCLC, therefore, no travel expenses will be paid out of the award except King's and his wife.

In continuing his questions about the letter, Levison asked [redacted] why King had not written the letter rather than Muste. According to the source, [redacted] offered no comment.

Levison said he had two thoughts in regard to the letter: "First, it is a terrible thing to be doing and secondly, he wondered if Martin (King) knows about this."

According to the source, Levison remarked that he could tell from the phraseology and the way the whole thing (the letter) was presented it was all Rustin's design, and said he thought it would be good for [redacted] to advise King about the letter. [redacted] said "they" should then write comments on the letter and send them down to King. Levison stated that on the other hand, he felt that he should send a modest check, because he thought that in the future "this will loom large on the question of who befriended him (Rustin) and who is trying to cut him down."

Levison said he felt that if Rustin had asked a few people to give him the money, he could have made a case. But to infer that King needed Rustin to accompany him to handle arrangements, but could not afford to pay his way, was ridiculous, Levison remarked. He said if King desired to raise the money, he could easily do it by sending out ten letters asking for $100 each. It is wrong, Levison said, for Muste to send out an appeal in Rustin's behalf, adding that he was of the impression that Rustin had been told by King that he could handle his own arrangements, therefore, he (Rustin) would have to raise his own money if he wanted to go.

According to the source, among other things discussed by Levison and [redacted] was what Levison described as the "off the record remarks that Hoover (J. Edgar Hoover, Federal Bureau of Investigation Director) made in 'The New York Times' of November 19, 1964". [redacted] said he felt that Hoover's response was "not merely confined to that narrow issue involved" and that the newspaper report confirmed it. Levison said that was just what he had thought.

In concluding their contact, [redacted] agreed to meet with Levison at Levison's house on Monday (November 23, 1964), at 8:30 PM. According to the source, they said they could discuss many things on their minds.

On Monday, November 23, 1964, at 8:36 PM, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed [redacted] enter the apartment house of 585 West End Avenue, New York, New York. This is the house in which Stanley Levison resides.

With regard to the article in "The New York Times" of November 19, 1964, it reported that FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover held a three hour news conference on 11/18/64, during which time he considered many topics.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), in July, 1963. In late 1963, and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party (CP) for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. Levison was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. (S) (U)

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly."

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA. N.Y.

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

On November 16, 1964, the source advised that Rustin and [redacted] were in conference on that date. Their contact, the source said, was to permit Rustin to relate to King through [redacted] the results of his trip to London, England, on November 12, 1964, to make preparations for King's visit in December, 1964. Rustin said Prime Minister Wilson will be in New York City on the same day that King will be in New York (on December 3, 1964, permitting a meeting between them). Rustin said he (the Prime Minister) had desired that King go to London earlier but knew that he could not make it in view of his (King's) earlier commitments.

Rustin, in enumerating the commitments of King in London, listed the following:

On Sunday, December 6, 1964, will preach in St. Paul's Cathedral; on Monday, December 7, will attend a mass meeting in one of the large halls in London to raise money to be divided between King's work in the South and the work being done in South Africa; will also meet with the Archbishop of Canterbury on Monday, December 7, and with the Chief Rabbi of Great Britain, and at 4:30 p.m., on the same date, he will meet with Cabinet members and with members of the House of Lords.

Rustin told [redacted] he thought there would be tremendous enthusiasm about King's visit, and said preparations over there were in very capable hands. He said he had completed a first draft on things he thought King should include (in his remarks) therefore, wanted to send it to King right away. [redacted] told him he could send it (the draft) by air - mail, Special Delivery, to [redacted] Miami, who in turn, could deliver it to King.

According to the source, [redacted] said he had talked with Harry (Wachtel) on Saturday, November 14, 1964, and they had considered the possibility of getting the President (President Johnson) to commit himself so that "we" can have the reception in honor of King. Rustin said he would try to contact Wachtel regarding the matter.

Rustin said with regard to the banquet in King's honor to be given on December 4, 1964, by United Nations Secretary U. Thant, that it would be restricted to 18 people.

The source advised on November 16, 1964, that Rustin and Harry Wachtel were in touch on that date, during which time Rustin furnished a tentative schedule of King's trip to London, England. According to the source, the schedule was the same as furnished by Rustin to [redacted] except for an additional commitment, namely, a reception at the United States Mission to the United Nations, December 4, 1964, given by Ambassador Adlai Stevenson.

On November 16, 1964, according to the same source, Rustin, Martin Luther King and [redacted] were in contact. Rustin took the opportunity to inform them that United Nations Ambassador Stevenson desired to give a reception for King on the night of December 4, 1964. He said the tentative time for the affair is between the hours of 6:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. King said this would be suitable to him.

King said that after having learned of his schedule of events in London, that he preferred to curtail some of his activities so that he will not be worn out when he arrives in Oslo, Norway. Rustin advised him to adhere to his commitment with the Archbishop of Canterbury since he met with the Pope a short time ago.

RE: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

On December 9, 1964, sources one and two, both of whom are well conversant with racial activities in the mid-South area and with the various leading organizations in this country connected with the racial desegregation movement and who have furnished reliable information in the past, advised a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation as follows:

A vocal, highly organized minority group within the national organization of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) is attempting to wrest control of the national organization from its current conservative leadership being given by its Executive Secretary Roy Wilkins and the majority of its National Board of Directors. The Sources pointed out that a dissident group throughout the country representing a vocal NAACP majority, primarily made up of young people, feel that this organization is not sufficiently militant and aggressive in attempting to obtain complete desegregation in all walks of life and that this group, referred to by the conservatives as the "Young Turks," will try to gain control of the Board of Directors at the next annual election of officers. Aaron Henry, Clarksdale, Mississippi, Negro druggist, who holds the dual title of Mississippi State NAACP President, as well as an Executive Board position in Martin Luther King, Jr.'s SCLC, has apparently aligned himself with this "Young Turks" group.

Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., of Atlanta, Georgia, President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), has the reputation among many of this country's Negro leaders of being a heavy consumer of alcoholic beverages and further is known to certain Negro leaders to be extremely loose in his sexual morals. These sources elaborated that several years ago, exact date not recalled, King was in Memphis, Tennessee, to attend some sort of Negro Baptist Convention which lasted for several days. Some of the visiting Baptist ministers with King's knowledge contacted one or more unidentified tenants of the Foote Homes Apartment Project, operated by the Memphis Housing Authority as public housing for low-income Negro families, and arranged to have one or more of these families leave their respective apartments and rent same to the Negro Ministers for $25.00 a day. The ministers allegedly told the tenants that they desired to use the apartments for "meditation."

Re: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Sources one and two have heard from sources believed by them to be wholly reliable that during this particular period of time King during one of the evenings became so drunk that he forgot the apartment number where he was to go to engage in one of these sex and drinking parties. He thereupon in a loud and boisterous manner began indiscriminately knocking on the doors of various apartments in Foote Homes inquiring of the occupants if they knew where the "party" was being held. Some of his unknown associates had to physically restrain King fearing that some citizen might recognize him and that publicity concerning his un-Christianlike acts could seriously jeopardize the image of the Negro Baptist ministers, as well as that of the desegregation movement.

Sources one and two added that several years ago it was a fairly well-known fact in the national Negro leadership community that [redacted]

In this connection, it is noted that the September 28, 1961, issue of the "Daily Defender," a Chicago, Illinois, Negro newspaper, edited by JOHN H. Sengstacke, page five, column four, carried a news story relative to the annual convention of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference scheduled to momentarily open in Nashville, Tennessee, with a scintillating benefit concert billed as "Tribute to the Freedom Riders," starring Harry Belafonte and the Belafonte Folk Singers, said show to be augmented by performers Miriam Makeba and the Chad Mitchell Trio. The story continued that awards would be given to Freedom Riders who decided to continue freedom rides after their bus was stopped by a mob at Anniston, Alabama, and that Reverend Martin Luther King, Jr., and Harry Belafonte were scheduled to make the awards.

ReBuairtel 9/11/64 which referred to information reported by WFOtel 9/4/64 to the effect that [redacted] (phonetic) is alleged to have done a good job of organizing in connection with the riots which occurred in the New York City area this past summer. It was stated that the importance of developing all available information relative to possible subversive influence in the New York City riots could not be overemphasized and that it was imperative that every possible effort be made to identify the [redacted] in question. You were instructed to give this matter close investigative attention and that if possible identifications were developed, they were to be immediately run out including the obtaining of photographs for display to the informant who furnished the original information.

Subsequent investigation by your office and WFO developed that one [redacted] might be the individual in question. Your airtel 10/20/64 closed with a statement that efforts were continuing to locate [redacted] and to determine the extent of his activities relative to the New York City riots. It was stated that all further communications concerning [redacted] would be handled under his individual caption.

Bulet 10/23/64 made reference to the closing statements in your airtel 10/20/64 and stated "it is imperative that all facts developed pertaining to the alleged involvement of [redacted] in the New York City riots be reported to the Bureau under the 'CIRM' caption. Insure that this is done."

Bulet (0-1) 11/16/64 requested advice as to status of investigation regarding [redacted] and when a letter would be submitted. Your reply was to the effect that it would be submitted by 12/4/64.

All referenced correspondence mentioned above was in the CIRM caption.

The Bureau is now in receipt of your letter 12/3/64 captioned, [redacted] which, for the most part, reviewed the results of prior investigation as well as a review of [redacted] A lead was set out for the Boston Office to contact [redacted] in an attempt to determine that subject's present residence and employment. A lead was also set out for your office to forward Boston photographs taken 9/3/64 at Washington, D.C., which photographs were apparently forwarded your office by WFOairtel 9/18/64.

The Bureau has closely reviewed the correspondence relating to the matter of [redacted] alleged involvement and it appears that this matter is not being given the prompt and penetrative investigative attention it merits and as directed in the original instructions from the Bureau in its airtel of 9/11/64. For example, it appears that the photographs which your office is to send to Boston for exhibition to a named source should have previously been submitted. Also, it appears that the investigation to date by your office has not been of sufficient intensity as evident by the fact that your office was aware in early September of the possibility of the subject [redacted] being the individual in question and to date there is no indication to the Bureau that such a logical source as a military record has been checked concerning that individual although there is an indication that he probably [redacted]

The foregoing is being brought to your attention in order to further emphasize the Bureau's desire to have resolved the alleged involvement of [redacted] in the New York City riots. This matter must be given prompt attention.

The following observations are being made for the future guidance of your office relative to the administrative handling of correspondence relating to captioned matter. There is quoted above a pertinent portion of the Bureau's instructions of 10/23/64 to the effect that information developed pertaining to the alleged involvement of [redacted] should be reported to the Bureau in the CIRM caption. The Bureau recognizes that your letter of 12/3/64 in [redacted] caption designated a copy [redacted] The Bureau, however, does not consider this compliance in the meaning indicated in the Bureau instructions of 10/23/64. It is imperative that communications directed to the Bureau concerning this matter contain "CIRM" in the caption. There is no objection to having a dual caption; however, in such instance one of the captions must be pertaining to CIRM. This prompts efficient paper management at the Seat of Government. Personnel handling this matter should be guided by these observations.

THEODORE THOMAS TAYLOR

Reference is made to memorandum dated October 13, 1964, captioned as above.

On October 14, 1964, [redacted] stated that subject, a longtime resident of Franklin Township, had been one of the leaders of a local group called "People's Organization", which was set up to protest the racial imbalance in two of the Franklin Township grammar schools. He stated that the major activity on the part of this organization was the picketing of the above two schools in the fall of 1962 and winter of 1963. [redacted] stated that this organization had disbanded.

b7D

The September 4, 1963, issue of the "Daily Home News", a New Brunswick, New Jersey, daily newspaper, carried an article entitled "People's Organization Eyes Boycott of Some Products". This article states that this organization was considering boycotting goods and services of employees thought to be practicing racial discrimination in hiring. The article states that it had come to the attention of this group that Flako Products, a division of Quaker Oats, New Brunswick, employs no Negroes. The article pointed out that Theodore Taylor was the Executive Director of the People's Organization.

On October 22, 1964, [redacted] General Baking Company, National Road, Edison, New Jersey, doing business as Bond Bread, advised that in about August, 1963, he read an article in a local newspaper which stated that Theodore Taylor of Franklin Township, New Jersey, a representative of the "People's Organization" had requested local Negroes to boycott Bond Bread in Edison because they had no Negro employees in the plant.

ENCLOSURE

[redacted] stated that he contacted Taylor and arranged a meeting, pointing out to Taylor that he thought he had been unfair in issuing the newspaper article without first consulting with Bond Bread as they did, in fact, have two longtime Negro garage employees.

[redacted] advised that he and Taylor met in August, 1963, during which time Taylor desired to know that if he sent qualified Negroes to [redacted] would he hire them as driver-salesmen. [redacted] stated that he agreed to this and that Taylor returned on several occasions with several Negroes, three of which were hired by the company as salesmen.

[redacted] stated that during all of his contacts with Taylor he conducted himself as a gentleman and carried on his discussions in a sincere, intelligent and level-headed manner. He added that he recently donated some of his bakery products to a church group in Franklin Township following a request on the part of Taylor.

[redacted] stated that the company's physical plant had suffered no damage or fires at any time previous or subsequent to August, 1963.

[redacted] advised that the only other large baking firm in the greater New Brunswick area was Continental Baking Company, Woodbridge, New Jersey.

On November 20, 1964 [redacted], Flako Products, a division of the Quaker Oats Company, Joyce Kilmer Avenue, New Brunswick, New Jersey, advised that in September, 1963, he was contacted by Theodore Taylor, of Franklin Township, New Jersey, regarding the hiring of Negroes. [redacted] pointed out that all of his contacts with Taylor were carried out on a quiet, friendly, intelligent level.

[redacted] stated that his physical plant had suffered no damage of any nature previous or subsequent to his contacts with Taylor.

b7C

On November 10, 1964, Special Agent [redacted] and Special Agent [redacted] interviewed [redacted] Continental Baking Company, 534 Ellison Street, Paterson, New Jersey, [redacted] advised that he was [redacted] for the Woodbridge Agency of the Continental Baking Company. He recalls that during the later part of 1963, probably November or December, 1963, he had a discussion with Ted Taylor and [redacted] at the Woodbridge Plant of the Continental Baking Company. [redacted] stated that they, the Continental Baking Company, sought out Ted Taylor in order to obtain his assistance in getting qualified Negro help in their company in the Woodbridge area. [redacted] stated that he had recalled that Taylor represented the Peoples Organization, in or around New Brunswick, New Jersey.

[redacted] stated the reason they sought out Ted Taylor was that he, Taylor, in March, 1962, had made an application for employment with the Continental Baking Company, at the Paterson, New Jersey, plant. At that time, Taylor had indicated he represented the Peoples Organization and was interested in a sales position himself. Taylor was not hired at that time. When the need for Negro help in the Woodbridge area became evident, however, they felt that Taylor might be in a position to furnish same. They, therefore, contacted him.

[redacted] stated that during the discussion with Taylor that Taylor made no threats or in any way try to intimidate him or the company in general concerning the hiring of Negro personnel.

[redacted] stated that the Continental Baking Company, never suffered any damage to their property or had any building of their's burned.

[redacted] further stated that Taylor did not send any Negroes to their company for hire, which necessitated them to contact the Local National Association For the Advancement of Colored People Chapters in the Woodbridge area for assistance in obtaining qualified Negro personnel.

On October 14, 1964, Chief Pfieffer, Franklin Township Police Department, advised that the two most widely read local newspapers are the "Franklin News Record", a weekly printed newspaper, printed in Hillsborough, New Jersey, and the "Daily Home News", North Brunswick, New Jersey, which is the largest local newspaper.

On October 21, 1964, and November 20, 1964, [redacted] Classified Section, "Daily Home News", North Brunswick, New Jersey, advised that no advertisement requesting persons to join a gun club or one requesting the services of a worker who had previous experience in explosives and detonators had been placed in his newspaper during the last 3½ years. He pointed out that a physical check was made of these ads, dating back to January, 1961, and that he had no record of the subject as placing any type of an ad in this paper.

On November 3, 1964, Edward Wash, Owner, Nash Newspapers, Hillsborough, New Jersey, advised that he published "The Manville News" and "The Franklin News Record", both weekly publications, the latter being sold exclusively in Franklin Township, New Jersey.

He stated that he had no record of an advertisement requesting persons to join a gun club or requesting the services of a worker with previous Army experience in explosives and detonators as ever having placed in his papers. He pointed out that he does not normally retain the names of individuals placing any ad in these papers.

The following logical police departments were contacted to determine if they had had any fires in bakery firms within their territory during the past two years:

On October 14, 1964, Chief Russell Pfieffer
On October 16, 1964, Lieutenant [redacted]
New Brunswick, New Jersey, Police Department

On October 20, 1964, Detective [redacted]
Edison, New Jersey, Police Department

On October 22, 1964, Chief Carmen Canastra
North Brunswick, New Jersey, Police Department

All of the above advised that their records and the records of their respective fire departments indicate that they have had no fires involving bakery firms.

A source, who is in a position to furnish reliable information, has advised that he considers the subject to be a prime dealer in narcotics in Franklin Township and that subject was known to have a "sizeable amount of heroin" in his possession.

Dear [redacted]

I thought the President would be interested in the following information concerning the personal conduct of Martin Luther King, Jr., which has been furnished by confidential sources of this Bureau who have supplied reliable information in the past.

According to information received December 9, 1964, Martin Luther King, Jr., has the reputation among many of the country's Negro leaders of being a heavy consumer of alcoholic beverages and is known to certain Negro leaders to be extremely loose in his moral behavior. As an example, these sources cited an incident which occurred several years ago in Memphis, Tennessee, when King attended a Negro Baptist Convention. With King's knowledge, some of the ministers arranged to rent, from some families, apartments at a housing project. The permanent tenants were told that the apartments were needed for "meditation." On December 3, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Bayard Rustin (Organizer of the March on Washington) was in contact with [redacted] on that date [redacted] apprised Rustin of changes in the Mississippi branch of the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). He said there was a new leadership composed of three: Stokeley (Carmichael), [redacted] (Last Name Unknown) and [redacted] (Last Name Unknown). Furthermore, [redacted] will be [redacted] according to [redacted]

[redacted] said that he had been talking to colleges (apparently recruiting for the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO) and was at Harvard on December 2, 1964, and was to speak at Yale [redacted] Rustin said he had recently talked with [redacted] of SNCC) at which time he received a hint of impending changes, but had had no knowledge that they were already effective.

Orenstein remarked that he heard [redacted] speak at [redacted] on the night of December 3, 1964, and he drew the conclusion [redacted] was certain of inevitable defeat.

With regard to his appearances at various college [redacted] said he had seven more to visit, and asked Rustin what line he should take. He said at one time it was hard to get "kids" to go to Mississippi and, when "we" did get them, "we sent them with proper education - now everyone wants to go to Mississippi and if they go without the proper education, they will only be helping the [redacted] crowd."

Rustin agreed with [redacted] commenting that he was in a very difficult position and suggested that he just go along doing the best he could until January, 1964, at which time a "few of us" can get together and decide something.

Rustin said the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) Board, would discuss the Mississippi situation on January 4, 1965. He said the official position "higher up" in the NAACP was to pull out (out of COFO) but, that [redacted] would fight it.

According to Rustin, on the last two days of January, 1965, all of the responsible Negro leadership will be called together by A. Philip Randolph (President of the Negro American Labor Council, NALC). When the agenda for this meeting was being prepared, the NAACP wanted to list on the agenda a full discussion of COFO.

Rustin said with regard to the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), Martin Luther King has been persuaded by him (Rustin) to remain in COFO. Furthermore, King had agreed to place more responsible people and money into COFO.

[redacted] In concluding their contact, Rustin advised to try and "muddle" through the situation for now, and educate where he could, but cautioned him not to reveal the entire set up just now. b6 b7C

Re: Mississippi Summer Project
Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states.

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly."

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak.

Re: Mississippi Summer Project

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA.

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964.

The source said the gathering in Washington, D.C., took place in a union hall near the Art Theatre, and across from a library. The source, to the best of his memory, thought the union hall was in the vicinity of Ninth Street and Mount Vernon Avenue, near the end of, or just off, New York Avenue.

The source estimated that about seventy-five people were present, and they were endeavoring to help the MFDP get all United States Congressmen to stand up and challenge the Mississippi delegates to Congress.

On Better Organization and Promotion of Marxist and Communist Books and Pamphlets

TO ALL DISTRICTS

December 2, 1964

Dear Comrades:

During the summer a Literature Conference was held in which representatives of almost all Districts participated. We wish to give the main aspects and conclusions of the conference.

New Stage in the Sale of Marxist Works

First of all it was noted that Marxist works are selling on a scale never known before in our country. International Publishers, the foremost publisher of Marxist-Leninist books, is selling annually the largest number of its volumes in its 40-year history, not only through progressive bookshops, but also in general commercial stores and in shops on college campuses.

In addition, works by Marx, Engels and Lenin are put out by many bourgeois publishers in many titles and in relatively large quantities. In most cases the latter editions are issued with introductions by professional anti-communists or in forms that distort, revise or reject outright the teachings of the classical writers as inapplicable to modern times.

The big upturn in the sale of Marxist literature is an expression of the declining influence of bourgeois ideology on a world scale and the rising prestige of the revolutionary world outlook of Marxism-Leninism. It is also due to the production of attractive low-priced paper-back editions and to new and effective methods of reaching wider audiences.

However, it was pointed out that while the market for Marxist literature has expanded, the sales through progressive channels, while increasing, lags far behind the general market.

In the production and sale of general Communist literature -- pamphlets, leaflets and magazines, there has also been an improvement recently, especially during the election campaign when about 700,000 pamphlets and leaflets were issued. But this is only the barest beginnings of improvement.

The fact is that we are still on an extremely low level both with regard to the sale of Marxist classical literature and particularly with the sale and distribution of pamphlets, leaflets and magazines. This is the case, notwithstanding the new opportunities which have opened up to reach wider masses, as indicated by the appearance of Communist speakers at colleges, on radio and television and at forums and meetings. But as was pointed out the sale of literature at colleges, forums, meetings and demonstrations, during canvassing with The Worker hardly takes place with some notable exceptions. There is a burning need of many new movements for books and pamphlets particularly on the history and struggles of the Negro people of which our movement has produced the best works but little effort is made in Districts and localities to sell of distribute, to mail or personally reach the active people in these organizations with literature.

Moreover about 50 percent of the clubs do not have literature at their meetings, or get them haphazardly and irregularly and there is little concern for the knowledge and thinking of the individual members on the issues of the day. Many have gotten rid of their libraries in the time of McCarthyism and have not rebuilt them -- despite the fact that events call for an ever deeper knowledge of Marxism.

Progressive Bookshops

Ways and means of improving the sale and distribution of literature were reported on and suggested. These included, first of all on the role of progressive bookshops:

It was pointed out that the progressive bookshops have a key role in the promotion of basic Marxist and Left literature. The number of such shops have increased. Some have strengthened themselves through the formation of Bookshop Committees and by reducing overhead through the help of volunteers and in other ways.

Several of them, it was reported, have on a number of occasions gone out to colleges and sold a substantial amount of literature. Some have introduced discussion evenings and forums on books and poetry, thereby widening the circle of readers and contacts especially among youth.

Others have organized book fairs at homes and have developed a systematic mail order business. One bookshop, during Negro History Week reached Negro churches with literature. Another established contacts with Catholic groups with appropriate pamphlets. Also a bookstall was placed in a union headquarters and a book table with Negro literature at a Negro leadership council. Suggestions included the need for better contacts with the folk music field, with going out to small towns with books, etc.

In general it was stressed that aid must be given to strengthen the Progressive bookshops and to help with volunteers so that they become outgoing shops reaching people's centers, Negro, peace, labor, youth, churches, as well as colleges, forums, mass meetings, demonstrations. They should also better popularize the shops by letters, circulars and in other ways, particularly among youth and workers.

Strengthen Party Literature Work: Secondly it was pointed out that key to the improvement of literature is to struggle within the Party to raise the consciousness of the importance of spreading literature as a major means of strengthening the Party and to helping the growth and understanding of the mass movements. It is essential to combat the hangovers of McCarthyism in the minds of members and especially to build up an apparatus on all levels and especially in the clubs.

Extremely important is the building up of a literature fund in districts, counties, areas and clubs, in order to be able to buy literature quickly and to pay for it. Toward this end the following proposals were made:

1. That all levels of leadership discuss literature work, take stock of what has been done, including possible new experiences in election campaign - in getting literature to clubs, distributing it, etc. Also to take measures to improve the type of literature. Make it more exciting and to work out means for greatly increasing the sale of all types of literature and magazines by aiding the bookshops and through the club itself.

2. That all Districts have a Literature Director and possibly a Literature Committee, closely linked with the Org-Ed Committees.

3. That all clubs have literature agents whose task is to get literature-pamphlets, books, magazines- to the club and involve the club in literature sales to members, friends and to forums, meetings, demonstrations, through canvassing with The Worker, etc.

4. To raise a fund in the club for literature through discounts, raffles and by special evenings in behalf of the fund.

5. To encourage members and friends to rebuild individual Marxist libraries.

TO ALL DISTRICTS

Dear Comrades:

While the proposals of General Maxwell Taylor to extend the war into North Vietnam at the reckless risk of a world nuclear war did not get open Administration support or repudiation, he was returned to his post. Taylor and his immediate supporters should have been removed in accord with the demand made by Senator Wayne Morse. The danger of all-out war continues and must be defeated.

The popular movement to end the war in South Vietnam was intensified during the past two weeks and got some results. The mass actions in Washington, D.C., New York and other areas, and the many declarations and statements to the President are now being followed up by more actions in the cities and on the campus. These are becoming so effective that the HUAC and the ultra-Right sections of the press are trying to smear and suppress the peace demands of the people.

This means that much more attention must be given to sustained and growing activity.

We urge special attention immediately to the full use of the "Peace on Earth" expression of the people during this month. Undoubtedly, the various peace organizations will be calling on the religious leaders to devote one Sunday this month to a sermon on ending the war in South Vietnam and to halting the military intervention of the Congo as a practical application of the universal peace theme. The action of Rev. Martin Luther King and others in presenting the peace demand to the President and the speeches of Pope Paul with the emphasis on peace are important declarations which represent the desires of millions of Americans. Such declarations are a challenge to labor and other sections of the population to speak out for peace.

It is reported that trade unions in other parts of the world are dedicating the weekend of December 20 to the slogan of "End the War in South Vietnam." It is also reported that many church and religious organizations are using this same weekend for this peace theme. We want to know what is being planned, as well as what has been done, by labor, youth, and women as well as church and professional peace organizations in your area to make the greatest use of these days when the world is calling for "Peace on Earth."

During these days when Congressmen and Senators are at home - what delegations are visiting them with peace petitions and resolutions?

And during these days, when the youth are still on the campus, what plans are being made to send delegations to Washington for peace activity during the Christmas holidays? During recent years, the student peace organizations have utilized those days for such a purpose.

This deserves immediate attention. Every phase of this campaign must be followed up.

Fraternally yours,

National Organization Dept.

November 30, 1964

Dear Comrades:

The December 6th issue of THE WORKER and the December issue of POLITICAL AFFAIRS will both carry the recently adopted Resolution by the Party on the Lessons of the 1964 Elections. It is a comprehensive document, not only drawing the lessons of the historic 1964 elections, but giving the perspectives ahead and the immediate tasks in carrying forward the struggle to realize the election mandate.

We are presenting this major document as a draft in the sense that we wish to get the thinking of all our Party membership, learn the thinking of the workers in the shops, the active forces in the Negro people's movement, in the trade unions, in the youth movement, of the active in the peace organizations, etc.

We propose first that the Resolution be discussed in all clubs as well as leading bodies. That the clubs have as many discussions as necessary to do two things: Establish full clarity on the document and, secondly, the working out of a program of work for the club to implement the tasks that flow from it.

We propose that similar discussions be organized with our comrades active in each of the major fields of work--trade unions, civil rights, peace, youth, etc., with similar aims in mind establish clarity and plans for implementing the tasks in those specific fields.

We suggest further that through THE WORKER, POLITICAL AFFAIRS, or the reprinting of the Resolution which PA will make available that you reach as many active non-party forces as you can through personal contacts, mailings, etc. and solicit their thinking and suggestions. We would urge where possible that the Resolution be discussed at Forums, Symposiums where others of the Left and those active in the various movements take part jointly with us.

Both THE WORKER and POLITICAL AFFAIRS, we are informed, will welcome articles, letters or other forms of participation by their readers in discussing the Resolution. We urge that by your own participation and by organizing such participation by others, both Party and non-Party, you help make this a fruitful discussion that will result in greater clarity in our own ranks and in the Left as a whole.

We would suggest even before we begin the next campaign in press building that this discussion also make possible the extension of the readers of THE WORKER and POLITICAL AFFAIRS to new people.

Fraternally yours,

National Organization Department

On Sat., Nov. 28, more than 500 people picketted the White House to "End the War in South Vietnam," "to Negotiate," for "Rice not Bombs." This was sponsored by national organizations: ADA, SANE, W.S.P. and W.I.P.F., and the Washington Peace Center and others.

The DuBois clubs and other youth organizations brought 100 people to Washington and joined in the demonstration.

The Press was silent. But the need for action to end this dirty war and to stop any expansion into a nuclear war is urgent. Keep us informed on all developments in your area.

The constitution further states that this new organization shall be a membership organization open to individuals or if five or more people so desire a chapter can be formed which shall in turn be guided by the policies and principles of the parent organization.

The second source has also advised that at the founding convention it was voted that the organization should be temporarily headquartered in San Francisco, California, although no specific physical location was decided upon. This same source advised on June 29, 1964, that the temporary headquarters of this organization is 1007 McAllister Street, San Francisco, which is the headquarters of the W. E. B. Du Bois Club of San Francisco.

Both sources have advised that at the founding convention two officers were elected:

PHILIP CHAPIN DAVIS, President, and
CARL ELLENGER BLOICE, Publications Chairman.

A third source has advised that on [redacted] b6 b7C attended a CP recruiting class held at 1579 Scenic Avenue, Berkeley, California.

A fourth source has advised that CARL BLOICE, reporter for the "People's World" newspaper, was, on April 3, 1964, elected to the newly organized San Francisco County Committee of the CP.

The "People's World" is a West Coast communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco, California.

"The Worker" is an east coast communist newspaper.

"Political Affairs" is self-described as a theoretical organ of the CP, USA.

RE: [redacted]

On November 2, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that a brief announcement had appeared in a newsletter published by the Columbus Civil Rights Council, Columbus, Ohio, stating that Mrs. Anne Braden would appear at the Wesley Foundation, 118 16th Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, on November 11, 1964, sponsored by the Students for Liberal Action (SLA). No time was noted in the announcement.

The confidential source advised [redacted] that telephone numbers [redacted] could be contacted for information regarding [redacted]

The July 7, 1960, edition of "The Ohio State Lantern," a student newspaper of Ohio State University (OSU), had an article captioned, "SLA Program Awaits Action of Trustees on Housing Issue," which mentioned that SLA planned to continue efforts to end campus discrimination. The article said that, "In the area of international affairs, SLA advocates unilateral support of disarmament and discontinuation of nuclear testing, UN survey of world overpopulation problems, and the elimination of U.S. occupation in pertinent areas." It continued by saying that, "Nationally, the organization proposes further protection of civil rights, including a Federal anti-lynch bill, provisions for investigation of anti-boycott laws, immediate enforcement of school desegregation, enforced protection of Federal voting rights, Federal investigation of anti-minority organizations and the abolition of capital punishment." Also, the "SLA supports student educational and cultural exchange programs, and calls for their expansion." It also announced its support of Federal aid to education, and opposes a disclaimer affidavit as a condition of Federal assistance. The organization opposes Federal aid to segregated schools.

On November 23, 1964, a second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that the subscriber to telephone number [redacted] was [redacted] and the subscriber to telephone number [redacted] was [redacted]

A letter signed by Ann Mayer, President of SLA, appearing on page four of "The Ohio State Lantern," dated November 4, 1964, indicates earlier in the month SLA invited Edwin Shaw, the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) vice-presidential candidate, to speak on the OSU campus. The article shows that because of a 1960 Board of Trustees rule, Shaw was not allowed to speak.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On November 2, 1964, a third confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that on October 28, 1964, the SLA, OSU, Columbus, Ohio, a recognized campus organization, submitted a petition for authorization for [redacted] to speak [redacted] OSU, [redacted] under the auspices of SLA. The source said the petition was submitted by [redacted] carried the approval of [redacted]

The third confidential source said authorization for the appearance of [redacted] on the OSU campus had not been extended as yet, and the OSU administrative officials were reluctant to authorize [redacted] appearance.

An article appeared on page one of "The Ohio State Lantern," on October 28, 1964, indicating that, "Dr. David G. McConnell, absentee adviser to the SLA, will not resign his position." The article identified McConnell as a visiting professor at the University of Wisconsin who had written a letter to the OSU President requesting permission for Edward Shaw, SWP vice-presidential candidate, to speak on campus.

On November 6, 1964, the third confidential source advised that as a result of a consultation with OSU administrative officials, SLA had agreed to withdraw its request for authorization for [redacted] to speak on the campus of OSU on [redacted]

"The Columbus Sunday Dispatch", a newspaper in general circulation in the Columbus, Ohio, area, on November 8, 1964, carried an article on page 19A entitled, "Communist-Tagged Speaker Slated to Speak in OSU Area Wednesday."

That article, at the outset, stated, "Anne Braden, accused in the U. S. Congress of being a Communist, will speak in the Ohio State University area Wednesday, a local civil rights group reported." The article then stated a notice of the speech was carried in the October 26, 1964, "Freedom Torch", identified as the publication of the Columbus Civil Rights Council, 355 East Long Street, Columbus, Ohio.

The article declared, "Mrs. Braden and her husband, Carl, were described as Communists in a Senate speech by U. S. Senator Strom Thurmond, R-S.C." The article then noted the OSU area speech apparently would be to criticize the United States House Un-American Activities Committee.

The article quoted the "Freedom Torch" notice as stating, "Keep your eyes open for talk by Ann Braden, dedicated worker for human rights and author of 'HUAC, Bulwark of Segregation', near OSU campus on Nov. 11. Sponsored by SLA in Wesley Foundation on E. 16th."

On November 10, 1964, the "Columbus Evening Dispatch", a newspaper in general circulation in the Columbus, Ohio, area, carried an article on page 1B entitled, "HUAC Critic To Speak Here."

That short article stated that, "Ann Braden, critic of the U. S. House Un-American Activities Committee, and author of 'HUAC, Bulwark of Segregation', will speak Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Unitarian Universalist Church, 121 16th Avenue, under sponsorship of SLA".

On November 10, 1964, the third confidential source advised that a hand printed placard had been placed on the door of Pomerene Hall Refectory, on the campus of OSU, on the morning of that date, announcing that Anne Braden would speak on "HUAC: Bulwark of Segregation", on Wednesday, November 11, 1964, at 8:00 p.m., at the Universalist Church, 121 16th Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, sponsored by SLA. The source did not know the identity of the person or persons who had prepared the placard or placed it on the door of Pomerene Hall. The source said the placard was removed promptly by a member of the OSU staff.

On November 11, 1964, a fourth confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that Anne Braden spoke from 8:20 p.m., to 10:10 p.m., on November 11, 1964, at the Unitarian Universalist Church, 121 16th Avenue, Columbus, Ohio. Her topic was "HUAC: Bulwark of Segregation". Approximately 125 persons attended the speech, many of whom appeared to be students.

The source said Anne Braden was introduced by Anne Mayer, who signified she was President of the SLA, and who indicated that campus organization was sponsoring the appearance of Mrs. Braden. Anne Mayer also introduced Toby Emmer as the Secretary of SLA, and stated that anyone present who was interested in joining SLA should see Toby Emmer following the speech by Mrs. Braden.

The source said Mrs. Braden commented on the progress of the civil rights movement in the South, and she felt that part of the struggle in the South relating to integration has been won. Mrs. Braden indicated a milestone in the integration movement had been the integration of public accomodations, but conditions really have not changed with respect to job and housing discrimination. Mrs. Braden suggested that the whites and Negroes must unite their efforts to correct social evils now existing.

The source said Mrs. Braden commented that the label of "communist" has been applied by segregationists to anyone joining the civil rights movement, and this has immobilized people and slowed the movement itself. She contended the label of "communist" immediately is applied to anyone who tries to join the civil rights movement, and the movement has been labeled as a "communist plot".

According to the source, Mrs. Braden indicated the feeling exists in this country that Communists are not human beings.

The source continued by stating Mrs. Braden signified that "McCarthyism" debilitated democracy, and people were afraid to attend any meeting of any type because their attendance or what they said might be used against them. According to Mrs. Braden, in 1954 the whole country was demoralized by Senator McCarthy, so much so that decent people did not organize.

The source said Mrs. Braden then attacked the House Un-American Activities Committee (HUAC) and the Senate Internal Security Sub-Committee because she contended they label persons and groups as Communists unjustly. Mrs. Braden, according to the source, contended that the various investigating committees "scratch each others backs" in quoting each other as the basis for citing individuals and organizations as subversive. She contended that "one man", Senator James Eastland, can cause citations of persons and organizations by virtue of his position as Chairman of the Senate Internal Security Sub-Committee.

The source went on to say that Mrs. Braden said her organization, the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF), is under investigation by the Louisiana Un-American Activities Committee, established as a result of a Louisiana anti-subversive law.

A characterization of SCEF is contained in the attached appendix.

According to the source, Mrs. Braden contended the outlawing of the Communist Party endangered the suppressing of all ideas, and she stated that in the United States Communists are depicted as "witches" and Communism is a "scare word". Mrs. Braden said such a label was bad because people identify whatever they dislike with Communism.

Mrs. Braden, according to the source, signified she believed the Communist Party should not be outlawed in the United States because the ideas of the Communist Party were not illegal.

Mrs. Braden, during the speech, contended that the HUAC restricted ideas and was a step toward tyranny by governmental control over thoughts. She stated the files of the HUAC were repleat with citations of persons which were untrue, and, therefore, the HUAC must be discredited. She then contended that the existence of the HUAC was unconstitutional.

The source said Mrs. Braden stated the Bill of Rights in the United States must be re-established.

According to the source, a question and answer period followed the speech by Mrs. Braden, and Professor David Kettler, of the Political Science Department, OSU, acted as the moderator.

During that period, Mrs. Braden was asked by an unidentified member of the audience whether or not she was a member of the Communist Party; she refused to answer that question and stated she would not answer it as long as committees such as HUAC were in existence. However, the source said Mrs. Braden did not fix any conditions under which she would answer such a question.

The source said the following literature was readily available to all persons in attendance at the meeting:

(1) Pamphlet entitled, "The Albany Case", published by the National Committee for the Albany Defendants, Albany, Georgia;

(2) Leaflet entitled, "What Can I Do Now to Break Through the Color Wall?", issued by the SCEF;

(3) Envelope for contribution to SCEF;

(4) Leaflet entitled, "The Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc., Its Planned Activities and Financial Requirements, 1964";

(5) Reprint of an article from "The Southern Patriot", published by SCEF, dated June, 1964, entitled, "An Upsurge in Carolina";

(6) Pamphlet entitled, "HUAC: Bulwark of Segregation", by Anne Braden.

The October 9, 1964, edition of "The Ohio State Lantern", on page one, carried an article entitled, "Socialist Literature Sold by Group on OSU Campus". That article stated that, "Two avowed believers of Marxist philosophy and a member of the U. S. Socialist Party were on the Ohio State campus yesterday, selling Socialist literature and attending student meetings". The article identified one of the three as Mike Houser, "an Arts College student". The article stated the three claimed they were at the university "to gather support for the U. S. Socialist presidential campaign, spread the ideas of socialism and publicize a Socialist conference to be held in Detroit, Michigan, later this month".

The article stated they sat in on activities of the Soap Box Forum on the OSU campus and the meeting of SLA.

The article also stated that at the SLA meeting they continued to sell their literature and spoke briefly. After the meeting, Houser told the "Lantern" he had been a member of SLA, but had resigned voluntarily the previous night because SLA had dropped plans to sponsor an off-campus meeting featuring Edward Shaw, vice-presidential candidate of the SWP, and he said the meeting was cancelled on "extremely short notice".

The article also stated Houser resided at 308 West Eighth Avenue, Columbus, Ohio, and Houser said the group spoke at SLA to get support for the Midwest Student Conference on Independent Political Action to be held at Wayne State University October 24 and 25, 1964. The article then added that among the speakers at the latter meeting "will be Mr. Shaw, Clifton De Berry, SWP candidate, and James Shabazz, a member of the Black Muslims".

APPENDIX

SOUTHERN CONFERENCE EDUCATIONAL FUND, INC.

"The Southern Patriot", a monthly publication, shows that it is published by the Southern Conference Educational Fund, Inc. (SCEF)

"The Southern Patriot" was cited as an "organ" of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare (SCHW) by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, on the SCHW, June 12, 1947.

The SCHW was cited as a Communist front by the Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 592, June 16, 1947.

An amendment to the charter of the SCHW changed the name of that organization to the SCEF, and listed its purpose as being to improve the educational and cultural standards of the Southern people in accordance with the highest American democratic institutions, traditions, and ideals. The amendment was dated April 26, 1946.

A source advised on March 2, 1961, that Claude Lightfoot, a Communist Party functionary, stated at a meeting of the Communist Party in Baltimore, Maryland, on February 25, 1961, that the Communist Party is not connected with any progressive movement, but indirectly they do have some influence in the SCEF.

A second source, who is familiar with some phases of Communist Party activity in the New Orleans area, advised on May 27, 1963, that during the time the SCHW was in existence, Communist Party members were members of and worked actively in the SCHW. However, since the formation of the SCEF, rank and file Communist Party members have not been encouraged to work in the SCEF. The source stated that the SCEF is a progressive, liberal organization, which he considers a Communist Party front organization because it has gone along with the Communist Party on certain issues, particularly on the racial question.

(U) CONFIDENTIAL

On May 27, 1963, the second source advised that in the past he has considered [redacted] of the SCEF, to be a Communist, if not an actual Communist Party member, because he followed Communist principles. b6 b7C

The second source also advised on May 27, 1963, that many people who are officials and members of the SCEF, while liberal in their views, are by no means Communists.

AMERICAN INSTITUTE FOR MARXIST STUDIES

A source advised on April 9, 1963, that on April 7, 1963, at a meeting of the District Committee of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA) of New England, held in Boston, Massachusetts, HERBERT APTHEKER stated he was developing an organization called American Institute For Marxist Studies (AIMS), which would eventually legalize the CP. He stated AIMS would publish literature on History, Science, Physics, Archeology and other subjectswhich would be put out quarterly with various supplements.

A second source advised in December, 1959, that HERBERT APTHEKER was elected to the National Committee, CP, USA, at the 17th National Convention of the CP, USA, held in December, 1959.

A third source advised on June 7, 1963, that on June 3, 1963, HERBERT APTHEKER spoke at the CP, USA, New York District Board meeting concerning AIMS. APTHEKER stated that AIMS would unite and strengthen the CP although the CP would not be connected with it. He stated AIMS was being formed to operate within the scope of the MC CARRAN and SMITH Acts and would legally bring Marxist material and opinions to the attention of American scholars and the general public.

A fourth source advised on May 15, 1964, that, as of that date, AIMS was located on the fifth floor west at 20 East 30th Street, New York City, New York.

FREEDOMWAYS ASSOCIATES, INCORPORATED

The records of the New York Secretary of State, Albany, New York, show that the certificate of incorporation of Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, was filed on March 2, 1961.

The Spring, 1964, issue of "Freedomways" is self-described as "A Quarterly Review of the Negro Freedom Movement" published by Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, 799 Broadway, New York City.

On May 24, 1961, a source advised that a report was given on "Freedomways" at a meeting of the National Board, Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), held on May 24, 1961. It was stated that the original plan called for the publication to be openly Marxist, but that it was later decided it would not be avowedly a Marxist publication. Editorials are in the hands of a mixed group of Marxists and non-Marxists. It was stated that the central purpose of "Freedomways" is to develop a theory and positive criticism of currents in the Negro movement, as well as to raise the level of understanding and discussion taking place in Negro life today and to project a socialist and pro-Soviet orientation.

On May 25, 1961, another source advised that "Freedomways" was set up for the CPUSA by JAMES JACKSON, a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA.

COMMUNIST PARTY, USA
YOUTH MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

A source advised on December 21, 1964, that a meeting organized by the National Youth Commission of the Communist Party (CP), USA, was held on December 19 and 20, 1964, at Chicago, Illinois. Present were approximately 25 delegates from New York, California, Michigan, Wisconsin, Oregon, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Washington, Missouri, Ohio and Illinois. Among the individuals present representing the adult CP were the following:

Gil Green from the National CP leadership;
Dorothy Healey from Southern California;
Lou Diskin from Chicago.

The first session on December 19, 1964, was opened with a report by [redacted] who spoke about the recent presidential elections and mentioned that Goldwater was defeated by broad coalition of labor, Negro and youth. He stated there were tremendous united front committees developed on every major campus in the country. [redacted] continued these united fronts represent a potential for continuous activity among the students. He stated that certain new ideas should be debated in the CP ranks because these ideas represent certain areas of thinking among CP members. He continued that all agreed that the level of Negro-white unity must be raised higher. He stated the CP rejected all theories that led to violence, but the CP is for the unity of Negro and white based on concrete struggles for equality of the Negro people. [redacted] stated that there has developed certain ideological problems in their ranks which he would characterize as follows:

1. The "one big action theory"
2. The "one big organization theory."

[redacted] stated some felt that the struggle for the economic needs of the Negro people was the only path to mobilizing and radicalizing the Negro masses. He stated the CP does not accept this theory but feels that there must also be struggles around other aspects of Jim Crow oppression. [redacted] stated the one organization theory seems to think that if the CP can come up with one big organization, they will be able to mobilize all of the youth into one center and from there win the struggle. The one big action theory says that if they can come up with one big action, this will mobilize all the youth. He cited as an example the old time socialist proposal when they came up with the idea of a general strike. He continued that the CP's approach must be one of a united front around the issues facing the masses and developing struggles on all levels. He continued they must also have the approach of building and extending the base of the left.

[redacted] stated the only concrete proposal was that they establish a campaign for recruiting into the CP large numbers of young people in the near future.

The second report as given by [redacted] from [redacted] stated the civil rights movement was still the dominant one in the United States today. She also called for Negro-white unity and stated the CP had made contributions in this struggle. She stated the CP warned of the danger of the ultra-right and emphasized the struggle for the alliance of the Negro people with labor and although other sections of the American left were split on how to approach the elections, the CP had a consistent position. [redacted] stated that the CP Youth Commission had proposed the following program in the struggle to end discrimination in America:

1. On campuses to end all forms of discrimination in housing, fraternities, hiring policies, text books, etc.

2. Among the working class youth, there must be a struggle for jobs and an end to job discrimination.

3. In the South, there must be a struggle for federal intervention to guarantee the rights of the Negro people and also to support the right to vote movement.

[redacted] stated that the CP does have certain weaknesses and must answer the question as to why they have not won large numbers of Negro youth into the CP. She stated they must build Negro-white unity into the CP so as to set an example for the rest of the civil rights movement. level

Various individuals then discussed the reports and gave reports concerning activities in their respective areas.

Gil Green, the national CP leader, criticized the discussion as being extremely poor and stated he felt the entire meeting had sufferred from a lack of concreteness and a lack of concentrated approaches to the various problems facing the youth.

Re: COMMUNIST PARTY, USA
YOUTH MATTERS

The session on December 20, 1964, was opened with a report by Carl Bloice from the west coast who spoke about the W.E.B. Du Bois Clubs (DCA) and the CP's responsibilities and relationship to that organization. Bloice stated there had been phenomenal growth in the DCA in all areas where there has been a concentrated approach. He stated the DCA currently has about 600 members with 30 clubs nationally. He stated the DCA with its short history has made contributions to various struggles of the young people. Bloice stated statistics would show that there are many areas that have shown a positive direction.

Various individuals gave reports about the DCA in their areas and spoke of activities that had taken place in these areas.

At the end of the conference, Gil Green spoke a few words of encouragement and emphasized the importance of building the youth movement. He emphasized the responsibility of the CP to make assessments and the need to develop programs and policies.

There is attached hereto a characterization of the DCA.

The constitution further states that this new organization shall be a membership organization open to individuals, or if five or more people so desire, a chapter can be formed which shall in turn be guided by the policies and principles of the parent organization.

The second source has also advised that at the founding convention it was voted that the organization should be temporarily headquartered in San Francisco, California, although no specific physical location was decided upon. This same source advised on June 29, 1964, that the temporary headquarters of this organization is 1007 McAllister Street, San Francisco, which is the headquarters of the W.E.B. Du Bois Club of San Francisco.

Both sources have advised that at the founding convention two officers were elected:

PHILIP CHAPIN DAVIS, President, and
CARL ELLENGER BLOICE, Publications Chairman.

A third source has advised that on [redacted] b6 b7C attended a CP recruiting class held at 1579 Scenic Avenue, Berkeley, California.

A fourth source has advised that CARL BLOICE, reporter for the "People's World" newspaper, was, on April 3, 1964, elected to the newly organized San Francisco County Committee of the CP.

The "People's World" is a West Coast communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco, California.

Rallies in Support of the Misssissippi Freedom Democratic Party Challenge, New York Area, December 20,21, 1964 Racial Matters

Confidential Source Number 1, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information on December 18, 1964 to the effect that a meeting was held on December 8, 1964 at the offices of Harlem Parents Committee, 514 West 126th Street, New York City for the formation of the Ad Hoc Committee for the Support of the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party (MFDP); also that a rally of the Ad Hoc Committee was scheduled to be held on December 20, 1964 in Harlem, New York City. This was to be a "kick-off rally" and blacks as well as whites were welcome. Speakers would include Malcolm X and Jesse Gray.

Characterizations of Malcolm X and Jesse Gray are set forth at the end of this communication.

The above source advised on December 21, 1964 that the above rally of the Ad Hoc Committee for the Support of the MFDP was held on December 20, 1964 commencing at 3:50 p.m. at Williams Institutional AME Church, 2225 7th Avenue, New York City.

The first speaker at the rally was Mrs. Fannie Lou Hamer of the MFDP. Mrs. Hamer stated that the "Challenge" would begin on January 4, 1965 at Washington, D.C., with some sort of demonstration, possibly a march. The "Challenge" will continue until July 4, 1965.

The next speaker, Malcolm X, spoke on the Congo and the Kenya rebellion in Africa and pointed out that the African freedom fighters, better known as the Mau Mau, were needed to straighten things out in Mississippi and Harlem. Malcolm X acknowledged that freedom is won by ballots and votes, but stated that freedom fighters were needed where justice did not prevail.

The next speaker, Jesse Gray, Harlem Rent-Strike Organizer, said that the MFDP needs an appeal to the masses; more black people should join in MFDP.

Isaiah Robinson, Chairman of the Harlem Parents Committee, urged support of the MFDP, but suggested that the real fight is to go out and meet with Congressmen and get them to support this "Challenge".

Confidential Source Number 2, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 20, 1964, that between 400 and 500 people attended the above rally at the Williams Institutional AME Church; that the rally was sponsored by the New York Committee for the Support of the MFDP Challenge.

The first speaker, Mrs. Hamer of the MFDP related her experiences in Mississippi and stated that she was physically beaten in 1962 sometime after she registered to vote.

Malcolm X spoke for about 15 minutes and stated that freedom for the Negro people cannot be won through policy of non-violence; that there are only two ways to win freedom for the Negro; namely, by ballots or by bullets. He stated that the language understood in Mississippi is the language of violence.

The "New York Times", December 21, 1964, page 18, in an article entitled "Malcolm Favors a Mau Mau in U.S.", narrated that Malcolm X, "the black nationalist leader", declared at a rally on December 20, 1964, that "we need a Mau Mau" to win freedom and equality for the Negroes in the United States.

A mimeographed hand-out circulated at Brooklyn College, Brooklyn, New York on December 21, 1964, announced that a "rally for justice in Mississippi", would be held on Dec. 21, 1964, at noon at Brooklyn College, Brooklyn, New York. The circular stated that speakers from Student Non-Violent Co-ordinating Committee (SNCC) would speak at the rally. The rally was sponsored by the Brooklyn College Chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP).

Detective [redacted] Bureau of Special Services, New York City Police Department, advised on December 21, 1964, that the above rally, sponsored by the Brooklyn Chapter NAACP, was held on December 21, 1964 from noon until 1:15 p.m. About 100 students were present and Marion Barry, Secretary, SNCC, made the statement, according to Detective [redacted] that three women, representing the MFDP on January 4, 1965 at Washington, D.C., are going to stand up when Congress reconvenes and ask to be seated. Barry further allegedly stated that United States Congressman William Fitts Ryan, Democrat, New York City, is going to attempt to get a roll call as to whether they should be seated.

Confidential Source Number 3, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on August 6, 1964, that Malcolm X is Founder and President of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated. The Muslim Mosque, Incorporated is characterized in the Appendix.

Confidential Source Number 4, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on November 20, 1958, that Jesse Gray had been the organizer for the Harlem Region of the Communist Party (CP), but this position terminated during November, 1958.

Confidential Source Number 5, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 24, 1964, that according to William Patterson, Chairman of the New York District CP, Jesse Gray is no longer a CP member, but is friendly to the CP.

Confidential sources utilized in the Appendix have furnished reliable information in the past.

1. APPENDIX

MUSLIM MOSQUE, INCORPORATED (MMI)

The March 13, 1964, edition of "The New York Times," a daily newspaper published in New York, New York, contained an article on page 20 which indicated that MALCOLM X (LITTLE), former national official of the Nation of Islam (NOI) who broke with the NOI on March 8, 1964, publicly announced in New York City on March 12, 1964, that he had formed the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated (MMI). The MMI, according to the article would be a broadly based politically oriented black nationalist movement for Negroes only, financed by voluntary contributions. In this public statement MALCOLM X urged Negroes to abandon the doctrine of non-violence when it is necessary to defend themselves in the civil rights struggle, and he also suggested that Negroes form rifle clubs to protect their lives and property in time of emergencies in areas where the government is unable or unwilling to protect them.

Incorporation papers of the MMI filed on March 16, 1964, with the Business Section, Clerk of Courts, New York County, New York, New York, reflect that the MMI was incorporated under the Religious Corporation Law of the State of New York to work for the imparting of the Islamic Faith and Islamic Religion in accordance with "accepted Islamic principals." The principal place of worship to be located in the Borough of Manhattan, New York, New York.

The May 23, 1964, edition of the "New York Amsterdam News," a weekly Negro newspaper published in New York City, contained an article by columnist JAMES BOOKER in which he indicated that he had heard that the visit by MALCOLM X with Muslim leaders during his African tour has changed him to become soft in his anti-white feelings and to become more religious.

On October 6, 1964, a confidential source advised that the MMI is apparently affiliated with the true orthodox Islamic Religion through its affiliation with the Islamic Foundation (of New York), 1 Riverside Drive, New York City. The only teachings of the MMI are on the Islamic Religion.

A second confidential source advised on October 20, 1964, that the headquarters of the MMI are located in Suite 128, Hotel Theresa, 2090 Seventh Avenue, New York, New York, where they were established on March 16, 1964. These headquarters are shared with the Organization of Afro-American Unity (OAAU) which is also headed by MALCOLM X.

Because of [redacted] of the Agent to whom this matter was assigned, your Office was permitted a delay in the submission of the report. Bureau 0-1 Form, 12/3/64, requested advice as to when the report would be submitted and your reply was that it would be submitted by 12/17/64. You subsequently advised by FD-205, dated 12/16/64, that the report would reach the Bureau by 12/24/64. Reason for delay was indicated as "volume of Racial Matters work." Your FD-205, dated 12/24/64, advised of another delay for the same reason and gave the date of submission of the report as 1/10/65.

Although the Bureau is accepting the additional delay in this instance, this is to advise that it is absolutely imperative that the report be submitted to reach the Bureau by 1/10/65. Any failure to meet this deadline will necessitate the submission of individual explanations from personnel responsible along with your recommendations relative to administrative action.

Challenge Trip

1353 U Street N.W.
Washington, D.C.

Dear Friend:

1,000 Negroes from Mississippi want to march on Washington, D.C. for the opening day of Congress, January 4, 1965. They want to speak for freedom with their bodies. Their spokesmen in the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party (MFDP), along with many Northern allies, will say to the House of Representatives on the opening day of Congress that the "regular" Mississippi Congressmen should not be seated. The first step in this challenge was taken on December 4. The "regulars" were served notice that their seats in the House would be contested. Such a challenge is provided for in Title 2, Sections 201-26 of the U.S.Code. This legal challenge must be supported by the voices of the many Negro citizens of Mississippi who want to go to Washington.

In dozens of counties and hundreds of communities, on farms and in cities, Negro citizens of Mississippi are talking about going to Washington. They are prevented by a Mississippi State injunction from raising the money for their trip. $50,000 is needed by January 1 to pay the costs. Only your help can make the trip possible.

Make this march on Washington a success. Congressmen from across the country must know that Negro citizens from Mississippi are now demanding what is justly theirs--a voice in American political life. Negroes in the State have been denied the right to this voice by the ballot box. Now they are prepared to be heard by voting with their feet--in Washington. They seek to exercise their Constitutional right of peaceable assembly. They need your help now. Send your contribution so that it will arrive in Washington before January 1. Make checks payable to "MFDP--Challenge Trip"; 1353 U Street N.W., Washington, D.C.

Security Matter - C

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on December 21, 1964, that Martin Luther King, Jr. (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference, SCLC), was in contact with [redacted] told King that he had a recent discussion with [redacted], regarding King's getting involved with the "challenge of the Mississippi Democratic Freedom Movement". [redacted] said he had studied it and thought it was a good legal and creative position.

With regard to the Mississippi Democratic Freedom Movement, "The New York Times", December 21, 1964, described the movement as a challenge to the seating of Mississippi's all white representatives in Congress.

The source, in continuing, said, [redacted] and King discussed a way for King and the SCLC to become involved, prompting [redacted] to remark [redacted] and King should give thought to getting together, perhaps in Washington, D.C., before January 4, 1965, to discuss the matter. King acknowledged his interest in becoming involved, adding, however, that he had had problems with the Student Nonviolent Coordinating Committee, (SNCC) and the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO), in the past. [redacted] said they should see if King could get involved, but not through them (SNCC and COFO). He suggested his (King's) involvement on an independent basis, prompting King to reply that they should think it through and find out the best thing to do.

[redacted] and King discussed whether they (SCLC) should have their own program in Mississippi. King remarked that they have good grass roots there. King asked of [redacted] what [redacted] wanted him to do, causing [redacted] to answer "they want you to get involved, but it is feared that you will steal the show." [redacted] said he would determine what King could do of value.

With regard to a possible meeting before the 4th of January, 1965, King said he would inquire of [redacted] as to whether it was feasible. He said he would be in Atlanta most of the time during Christmas. [redacted] said in view of that, "they" could go to Atlanta. According to the source, King was agreeable.

During their contact, King and [redacted] also considered questions pertaining to the tax laws applicable to his award for receiving the Nobel Peace Prize. In that regard, King said he was of the impression that he could give $6,000 to the SCLC tax free, but did not know about the $17,000 for the Unity Council (United Council of Harlem Organizations). [redacted] said in that regard, that he had a long discussion with "our friend" after "your" (King's) father saw him in New York, and [redacted] discussed it with him. [redacted] said he would check with his tax authority and let King know the answer.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 26, 1957, that he identified a photograph of [redacted] as a person whom he knew during [redacted] to be a member of [redacted] the Labor Youth League. b6 b7C

The Labor Youth League has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

It is noted that in the past, it has been determined that when King and [redacted] refer to "our friend" and "our man," they are referring to Stanley Levison.

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised in April, 1964, that Stanley Levison was a secret member of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), in July, 1963. In late 1963 and early 1964, he criticized the Communist Party for not being sufficiently militant in the civil rights struggle. He was described by certain CP leaders as being to the "left" of the CP in his position on civil rights. His differences with the CP, however, are merely tactical and he continues his ideological adherence to Communism. 7(D) (U)

Confidential sources who have furnished reliable information in the past have advised that Martin Luther King, Jr., has the reputation among many of the country's Negro leaders of being a heavy consumer of alcoholic beverages and is known to certain Negro leaders to be extremely loose in his moral behavior. As an example, these sources cited an incident which occurred several years ago in Memphis, Tennessee, when King attended a Negro Baptist Convention. With King's knowledge, some of the ministers arranged to rent, from some families, apartments at a housing project. The permanent tenants were advised that the apartments were needed for "meditation."

Memorandum

TO : DIRECTOR, FBI (100-442529)

DATE: 12/29/64

FROM : SAC, CHICAGO (100-41324)

ReBulet to Oklahoma City 12/15/64.

Page two of reBulet refers to paragraph ten, pages three and four of OC letter to Bureau dated 12/4/64 and mentions the name of one SAUL TEX (or TAX). ReBulet to OC requested the Chicago Division to review its files concerning SOL TAX and to furnish any information concerning him to the Oklahoma City Office so that whatever information was available could be utilized by that office in the proposed interview of WILLIAM W. KEELER, President of the Executive Committee, Phillips Petroleum Company, Bartlesville, Oklahoma, and principal chief of the Cherokee indian tribe.

In connection with this request, it is to be noted that the files of the Chicago Division were reviewed concerning SOL TAX, and these files contain no identifiable subversive derogatory information concerning this individual with the possible exceptions which will be set out hereinafter.

As Bulet indicates, it is apparent that the individual referred to is in fact SOL TAX who is an Associate Professor, Division of Social Science, University of Chicago, and a Professor of Anthropology at this University.

SOL TAX' connection with the allegations of WILLIAM W. KEELER obviously are connected with TAX' interests in Indian affairs which are rather extensive according to the information available to this office in its files and in this connection the Bureau and Oklahoma City's attention is directed to their files on the matter of "COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE NATIONAL CONGRESS OF AMERICAN INDIANS (NCAI), IS-C" (Bureau 100-38898, OC 100-6010).

Oklahoma City's attention is further directed to its letter to the Director dated 3/3/61 entitled "COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE NCAI; IS-C" wherein extensive information is set forth based upon an interview conducted of one EARL BOYD PIERCE, an attorney, 314 Metropolitan Building, Muskogee, Oklahoma, which was conducted on February 21, 1961, by the Oklahoma City Office, which contains information concerning the NCAI, WILLIAM KEELER and among others Dr. SOL TAX who is identified by Mr. PIERCE as a Professor of Anthropology, University of Chicago, and who also served as the coordinator and observer at a steering committee of the American Indian Charter Convention which was held in Chicago, Illinois, in February, 1961.

The Bureau and Oklahoma City's attention is also directed to Chicago letter dated 4/26/61 entitled "COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE NCAI; IS-C" wherein it is noted that SOL TAX, Professor of Anthropology, University of Chicago, according to an article that appeared in the University of Chicago student newspaper, was to be a University of Chicago representative to the American Indian Chicago Conference reporting on American Indian tribes which was to be held at the University of Chicago June 13 through 20, 1961.

The Chicago indices also reflected a WFO letter to Director dated 11/6/59 entitled "DR. MILAN HORVATH; IS-CZ" (Bureau [redacted] wherein it was indicated that HORVATH, a neurophysiologist from the Psychiatric Clinic, Charles University, Prague, Czechoslovakia, was in the U.S. from Czechoslovakia and was scheduled to travel throughout the U.S. to contact various educational and medical institutions. An itinerary furnished by way of this letter to the Chicago Office indicated that one of Dr. HORVATH's stops in Chicago on November 24-28, 1959, was the University of Chicago where he would be in care of Professor SOL TAXE. It is to be noted that a subsequent communication in this matter indicated that Dr. HORVATH had changed his itinerary and did not visit Chicago as previously indicated. There is no further indication in the files of Chicago as to the significance of this visit by HORVATH with Dr. TAXE.

Additionally, the files of the Chicago Office reflected a letter to the Director from WFO dated 7/17/61 entitled "VISIT OF SOVIET STUDENTS TO NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY, 1961-1962, IS-R." This letter reflected that two Soviet students who had been accepted under the East-West Exchange Agreement for study during the 1961-62 academic year at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois, would be coming to Chicago, Illinois, for this purpose. These students were identified as VALENTIN ANDREEVICH NAZAREVSKI and VASILI VASIEVIECH YEGOROV. The letter further indicated that YEGOROV among other professors would probably consult Professor SOL TAX of the University of Chicago. A subsequent communication in this matter indicated that the two Soviet students had cancelled their plans to attend Northwestern University. Consequently, no contact with TAX apparently occurred.

In addition, the Chicago files reflect the results of an interview of MARIAN E. GRIDLEY by SA [redacted] of the Chicago Division on July 6, 1964. The full context of all Miss GRIDLEY's statements were set forth in Chicago letter to Director dated 7/14/64 entitled "MARIAN E. GRIDLEY, INFORMATION CONCERNING" (No Bureau file). This letter identifies Miss GRIDLEY as editor and publisher of Amerindian, American Indian Review. During this interview Miss GRIDLEY made certain allegations concerning possible communist affiliations of individuals active in Indian affairs. During the course of her interview, she mentioned individuals by name whom she believed to have influence in Indian affairs and who were considered by her to have left or communist leanings. Among the individuals she identified in this regard was Dr. SOL TAX, a Professor of Anthropology at the University of Chicago. She said that Dr. TAX has a reputation of being "far left" and even "pro-Red." Miss GRIDLEY also stated that recently Dr. TAX had run a conference on Indian problems at the University of Chicago. She alleged that because of Dr. TAX' reputation, many persons in the field did not attend.

The above represents generally the specific subversive derogatory information contained in Chicago files concerning Dr. SOL TAX and his connection with Indian affairs.

It is believed that the above, along with the material set forth in OC letter dated 3/3/61 to Director will be of material assistance in the proposed interview of Chief KEELER by the Oklahoma City Division.

For the further information of Oklahoma City, it should be noted that there is no present information available from confidential informants of the Chicago Division which indicates that the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois has any interest in the NCAI or in any other organization which is active in agitating among the American Indians on a racial basis.

It may be of interest, however, to the Bureau and Oklahoma City that MARIAN GRIDLEY in her interview in July, 1964, with SA [redacted] not only referred to Dr. SOL TAX as one who was possibly "pro-Red" and "far left" but Miss GRIDLEY also referred to an organization which she identified as the American Indian Youth Council, aka. National Indian Youth Council, in this context. Miss GRIDLEY stated that the American Indian Youth Council was a controversial group recently formed and financed by MARLON BRANDO and the heiress DORIS DUKE. She stated that the American Indian Youth Council had recently demonstrated in Washington against the government's treatment of Indians and was the group which she had referred to in a previous letter of hers as being more militant than the NAACP. This is mentioned for the attention of the Bureau and Oklahoma City inasmuch as reBulet referred to the fact that OC letter of 12/4/64 mentioned MARLON BRANDO's agitation activities in Indian affairs.

ReNYtel to Bureau and Albany, 12/30/64, "Federation for Independant Political Action, RM."

Retel reported on a conference of the Federation for Independant Political Action (FIPA) held 12/19/64. It is noted that one of the conference organizers was Jesse Gray whose subversive background is well known to the New York Office.

In addition, to the investigation of the FIPA as a Racial Matter, investigation should be conducted to identify the individuals prominent in the FIPA and check them out for possible subversive background. Investigation should include a determination as to what, if any, communist influence there is in the FIPA. Results of all investigations relating to subversive connections should be reported under the CIRM caption.

Proposed Boycott of New York City Schools by City-Wide Committee for Integrated Schools, February, 1965
Racial Matters

All confidential sources utilized in this communication and in the Appendix have furnished reliable information in the past, unless otherwise indicated.

In reference to the above scheduled Boycott, a confidential source furnished the following additional information on December 15, 1964:

On Thursday, December 10, 1964, about 125 people gathered at the Siloam Presbyterian Church, Brooklyn, New York, for a meeting called by Reverend Milton Galamison representing the City-Wide Committee for Integrated Schools in order to make plans for the shut-down of Schools scheduled for February 3, 1965. Members of the Brooklyn and New York Chapters of The Congress of Racial Equality (CORE) were present as well as various members of the DuBois Clubs.

The W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America is characterized in the Appendix.

ENCLOSURE

Brooklyn CORE stated that they had five schools which they were ready to shut-down at a moment's notice. It was also stated that all of the special "600" schools (described as schools for disturbed youngsters) were ready to shut-down on short notice. A representative of Brooklyn CORE presented Reverend Galamison a check for $100.00 from Brooklyn CORE. Galamison stated that each organization committed to this project was expected to contribute a like amount and another $100.00 in January, 1965.

Isaiah Robinson of Harlem Parents Committee, stated that plans were going forward to send some of the children absenting themselves from school, into various department stores. Galamison stated that the overflow of children not going into stores or to the United Nations or Museums or on other planned missions must have a place to go.

Milton Galamison mentioned "Intervention Day" sponsored by EQUAL, (a civil rights organization), slated for January 15, 1965, wherein 50 prominent people including perhaps Roy Wilkins would stand at a given site in Harlem near 125th Street and request Mayor Wagner to address them there and try to find a solution for heading off the shut-down of the schools. If no solution was found, the shut-down would proceed and Galamison said that immediately and gradually schools would be shut-down at planned sites in the City until by February 3rd all the schools now segregated or known as "600" schools would be closed and not opened until specific demands for an integration timetable and other specifications were met.

Milton Galamison further states that the DuBois Clubs were going to raise funds for "Operation Shut-Down" It was also mentioned that Jerry Covici was in charge of Public School 57, Brooklyn, New York, as coordinator and picket captain. Galamison stated no schools would be shut-down until after "Intervention Day" on January 15, 1965.

Confidential Source Number 2 advised on November 16, 1961, that Jerry Covici was in attendance at a meeting of the Flatbush Club, Communist Party (CP), Brooklyn, New York, held on November 13, 1961, at Covici's residence, 1072 East 10th Street, Brooklyn, New York.

An article in the "New York Times", December 30, 1964, entitled, "Rights Groups Hit At School Plan", quoted Galamison as stating that the City-Wide Committee for Integrated Schools, which he heads, is planning to close down one school on January 19 and a second on January 22 as a prelude to the beginning of mass shutdowns on February 3, the anniversary of the organization's first city-wide school boycott.

Letterhead memorandum (LHM) enclosed with referenced airtel fails to conform to Bureau instructions pertaining to the preparation of correspondence to be disseminated outside of the Bureau. The following items are being brought to your attention for future guidance and to alert supervisory personel to the need for close review of this type of material prior to submission to the Bureau.

LHM must be a complete document and no reference should be necessary to previous memorandum submitted.

Organizations mentioned such as the National States Rights Party must be characterized even though previously characterized in prior memorandum.

Reference should not be made to office indices as a source of data included in the LHM. Information included should be properly documented as to source and should be pertinent.

It is not felt that activity in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People is, in itself, significant.

Since this LHM is intended to show the subversive activities of George W. Lucas, his prior arrests for various motor vehicle violations and his credit record are extraneous and should not be included.

Cincinnati should promptly resubmit a revised LHM which is suitable for dissemination.

RE: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN

RACIAL MATTERS

Reference is made to Cincinnati letter dated December 3, 1964.

On November 20, 1964, first confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised Reverend George W. Lucas is affiliated with the Bethel Baptist Church, Dayton, Ohio, and is also affiliated with the Dayton, Ohio, Urban League. Source stated that Martin Luther King was scheduled to speak on November 22, 1964 at the University of Dayton Field House, Dayton, Ohio, for a fund-raising rally. Source stated that King's appearance on November 22, 1964, was cancelled, but was re-scheduled for November 29, 1964.

Source advised that the Dayton Chapter of the National States Rights Party (NSRP), had planned to picket King's appearance on November 22, 1964. However, November 29, 1964, is one of the dates for the NSRP Convention in Mobile, Alabama, and Dayton NSRP members plan to go to Alabama for the convention. Source did not know whether there will be any NSRP members left in Dayton, Ohio, to picket King's appearance on November 29, 1964.

Records of the Credit Bureau of Dayton, Incorporated, Dayton, Ohio, show George W. Lucas as a Negro, male, born April 1, 1910, and residing 2255 Soldiers Home and West Carrollton Roads, Dayton, Ohio. Records of this agency show he has been Pastor of the Bethel Baptist Church, Dayton, Ohio, since 1945. His wife, Erma Lucas, born April 10, 1915, has been employed by the Dayton, Ohio, Board of Education, since 1959. The records show Lucas was elected President of the Dayton, Ohio, Urban League in May, 1958. He has a satisfactory credit record.

Records of the Dayton, Ohio, Police Department, show one George W. Lucas, Negro, male, age 52 in July, 1962, who resided at 2255 West Carrollton Road, Dayton, Ohio, had been arrested nine times between the dates August 3, 1949 and July 3, 1962. Eight of the charges deal with moving traffic violations. Arrest on August 3, 1949 shows charge Driving While Intoxicated; disposition withdrawn.

Records of Montgomery County Sheriff's Office, Dayton, Ohio, contain no record identifiable with Reverend George W. Lucas.

Indices of the Cincinnati Office show a number of references indicating Reverend George W. Lucas has been active in the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) and other racial matters.

On June 21, 1950, second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information to the Chicago Office, furnished an incomplete list of delegates to the Mid-Century Conference for Peace at Chicago, Illinois, on May 29 - 30, 1950, which was reportedly sponsored by the Committee for Peaceful Alternatives. The list contains the name of one George W. Lucas as a delegate from the State of Ohio.

A characterization of the Mid-Century Conference for Peace is contained in the attached appendix.

On December 4, 1964, the Journal Herald, a newspaper of general circulation in the Dayton, Ohio, area, carried the following news item, "Freedom Forum Raises $7000. Nearly $7000. was raised for the Southern Christian Conference at the Freedom Forum, featuring Martin Luther King, according to Reverend George R. Lucas, coordinator of the program".

Bulet 12/7/64 called to your attention a number of errors in the Savannah report of SA William P. Friday dated 10/30/64 and also furnished information for the constructive guidance of appropriate personnel. Your Office was instructed to have the report revised and resubmitted.

The resubmitted report, that of SA Friday, dated 12/23/64, reveals a number of additional matters needing clarification before dissemination is made.

Paragraphs four and five of page B make reference to information on pages 16 and 15, respectively. It appears that the references to these two page numbers are errors and that the page numbers were merely repeated from the original report. Check this matter and advise of corrections to be made.

Last paragraph of page two contains characterizing information concerning Stanley Levison. The paragraph should have been indented as required. Do so in the future.

Indented paragraph, page 11, penultimate line, "in" should read "is." Correct your copies.

Two sentences in the Synopsis are not factually reported in the Details. The sentence which commences "Frank W. Spencer, listed as member ..." makes reference to a letter written by Spencer to Carl Braden. Such letter is not reported in the Details although it is noted that it had been reported in the original report. The last sentence of the Synopsis states that during a convention Braden contacted the offices of Spencer and the Chatham County Crusade for Voters. On page 11 of the Details, it is reported that [redacted] a Maurice McCrackin and that

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS
INTERNAL SECURITY - C

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on December 15, 1964, made available the following letter received from New York, New York:

"December 10, 1964

"Memorandum

"From: National Negro Commission and Org. Dept.

"To: All Districts and comrades responsible for Negro work.

"Re: Negro History Week Activity for February, 1965.

"The recent meeting of the National Negro Commission held in New York City had a three-point agenda:

"1. An analysis of the elections in the Negro community.

"2. We took note of the preparations for a summit meeting called by the Negro American Labor Council some time in January in Washington, D. C.

"3. Negro History Week Activity.

CONFIDENTIAL

Group 1
Excluded from automatic downgrading and declassification

100-442529-575

"In this memo, we shall forego a discussion on the first two points. We believe that the election results are now common knowledge and when the reports as well as the Draft Resolution on the election results is available, this will more than suffice to show the role of the Negro vote and the problems thereof.

"In regard to the second point, this matter has been discussed with all districts.

"We shall therefore discuss Negro History Week 1965.

"Our approach to organizing activity around this issue must be of a twofold character. On the one hand, we must assist all broad forces interested in Negro History Week activity to make 1965 a turning point in the character of the observation of Negro History Week. Heretofore, the observation has taken the form mainly of highlighting Negro achievements in various fields of endeavor. Naturally, individual Negro achievements, past and present, are important. But we are of the opinion that the struggle must now be mounted on a higher level. In line with the new developments within the country in which all segments of the American people have come closer to a realization of the importance of the Negro question, it is now possible to broaden the scope of Negro History Week, making it a focal point for the struggle to include the true role of the Negro people and the Negro question, past and present, in the curricula of all schools throughout the nation. This involves pressure on school boards and other governmental levels. Appropriate speakers in schools during and after this period is also a valuable form. We should also assist other forces to prevent Negro History Week from being only an observance of brotherhood. We should encourage trade unions to undertake appropriate programs.

"The other aspect of this year's observance must take the form of highlighting the contributions of the American Communist Party to the struggles of the Negro people, past and present. There is a great urgency for us to raise our Party's participation in this regard to a higher level than ever before in our history. The chief endeavor of the bourgeoisie in these cold war years in the Negro field has been to bury the contributions the CP has made. Tons of literature have been poured out in which either the role of the Party was deleted or grossly distorted. A whole new generation of freedom fighters has risen up without any knowledge of our contribution. Many of these young fighters are searching for answers that the present leadership of the Negro liberation movement does not fully provide. It is therefore imperative that our contributions reach these youth.

"Hence, in the framework of modesty, we must prepare meetings and materials which will serve this purpose. We propose that the central figure highlighting the contributions of American Communists should be around the person of Comrade Ben Davis.

"We, therefore, propose the Memorial meetings commemorating his memory and highlighting Communist contributions be organized.

"In New York the plan is to organize in Harlem one of the largest rallies in the last ten years and preparations are under way to achieve this objective. In all the Districts on the Eastern seabord, such as Connecticut, New Jersey, Philadelphia, Massachusetts - where Ben went to school -, Maryland - where he first worked, etc., we urge full participation in supporting the meeting being organized in Harlem. It is likewise proposed that all other Districts organize Ben Davis Memorials, no matter how small or large, although the emphasis must be to give such meetings attention such as we have not done in recent years. The National Office will make speakers available. Comrades Winston, Jackson, Patterson, Lightfoot, Hall and others will be available for such gatherings.

"All such memorials should be of a united front character, as broad as possible given the local situation. But in all instances the breadth of such gatherings must not negate the ability to bring forward in the clearest manner the role of Ben Davis, the Communist.

"A pamphlet highlighting the life's work of Ben Davis is in preparation. We urge the widest distribution of this pamphlet and especially must we guarantee that the young cadre within the various civil rights organizations get a copy of this pamphlet.

"In addition to this, we are proposing that a special supplement be prepared for The Worker which will highlight all the various achievements of the CP throughout the years. We urge preparations for maximum circulation.

"Thirdly, it would be very good if progressive book stores were encouraged to make available package sales of various literature that Communists and other progressives have written on the Negro question.

"Lastly, the Org-Ed Commission is working on an outline for theoretical discussion on the Negro question in all levels of Party organization, to be ready for Negro History Week.".

NY 694-S* advised in early 1964 that JAMES FOREMAN, Head of SNCC, told GEORGE MEYERS, a Baltimore Communist Party functionary, that the policy of SNCC is to permit Communists to join this organization, but not to allow any "Communist big shots" to come into the organization and control it. As far as the SNCC is concerned, the "lesser Communists" may come into the organization and work their way into responsible positions if they so wish.

Title: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - C

Synopsis: Since late 1962, Communist Party officials have offered encouragement for Communists to go South to aid youth groups in civil rights, particularly the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), Atlanta, Ga. Two CP officials known to be in contact with SNCC Headquarters. One attempted, reportedly unsuccessfully, to recruit SNCC personnel to attend a "youth conference" in the North in 1964. Several CP and former CP members participated in racial demonstrations in Atlanta 1963-64. One of these individuals claimed she was under CP direction in her activities with SNCC. No information available that others operating per CP instructions. CP members and former members reportedly working with SNCC. SNCC working with Southern Conference Educational Fund (SCEF) and National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC). SNCC and officers of SNCC on the mailing lists of Communist publications. Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), Atlanta, Ga., has employed a CP National Committee member, HUNTER PITTS O'DELL, as late as summer of 1963 and has used O'DELL's services as late as 2/64. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., President of SCLC, described by one confidential source in 1962 as being a confirmed Marxist. Sources advise that STANLEY LEVISON

Where characterizations are available of individuals mentioned hereinafter they are set out in alphabetical order in Section IV of this report.

I. COMMUNIST STRATEGY

A. Communist Party, USA

In November, 1962, DAN RUBIN, Communist Party Youth Leader in New York, stated that the Communist Party would attempt to establish groups of young people in the North who would help to give aid to the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), with headquarters at 8½ Raymond Street, N.W., Atlanta, Georgia.

(AT T-1, 12/4/62)

On May 25, 1963, a meeting of the District Board of the Communist Party of Southern California was held at the residence of Communist Party District Chairman DOROTHY HEALEY, Los Angeles, California. HEALEY chaired the meeting and made the main report, which was a report on the report given by BEN DAVIS, at that time National Secretary to the Communist Party, USA, who is now deceased. The DAVIS report was given at the National Committee meeting of the Communist Party, USA held just prior to HEALEY's return from New York. HEALEY indicated that about 70 percent of the meeting was taken up with a discussion of developments in the South. According to HEALEY, DAVIS turned his attention to the role of the Communist Party, pointing out the tremendous work that had been done by the "Student Non-Violent League" and indicated they should understand the importance of getting Communist Party people into work of this kind in the South. HEALEY said she felt that some of the young people in the Communist Party in the Los Angeles area must go South during the Summer of 1963 and work with the "Student Non-Violent League", which is often called "SNICK".

(AT T-2, 5/29/63)

On June 20, 1963, a meeting of the District Board of the Communist Party of Southern California was held at the home of WILLIAM TAYLOR, [redacted] b6 b7C in Los Angeles. DOROTHY HEALEY, District Chairman of the Communist Party, chaired the meeting. CARL BLOICE of the Youth Commission of the Northern California District of the Communist Party, who had been writing for the "People's World" and just returned to California from a trip in the South, was present and made the main report, which dealt with a political estimate of the developments in the South. BLOICE stated he visited Atlanta, Georgia, and spent a great deal of time with Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC). BLOICE displayed a map he obtained at the SNCC Headquarters in Atlanta which shows the counties with a heavy concentration of Negroes. BLOICE stated that the SNCC ideology came to its leadership largely through the works of CARL BRADEN. BLOICE indicated that among SNCC's leadership most of the Marxist classics are very familiar and their leadership is concerned deeply with the need for solving all of the economic, as well as political, problems of the South.

(AT T-2, 6/21/63)

The "People's World" is a West Coast Communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco, California.

On September 26, 1963, a meeting of the District Board of the Communist Party of Southern California was held at the home of CHARLENE MITCHELL ALEXANDER, [redacted] Los Angeles, California. DOROTHY HEALEY acted as chairman of the meeting. During a discussion at this meeting it became apparent the Youth Committee was considering encouraging certain individuals to go south to work for SNCC. The attitude of the Communist Party officially with regard to the question was that while it was not encouraging such migration, expecially on the part of white youth who could do very little, it was also not opposed to the migration, particularly from individuals who could help SNCC in public relations work where they felt a need for assistance. DOROTHY HEALEY noted that SNCC had called for such help, but that it should not be given in the spirit of adventurism but in terms of individuals who wanted to take specific assignments.

(AT T-2, 9/30/63)

JARVIS TYNER, a young Negro Communist Party member from Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, believed to be operating under the direction of MORTIMER DANIEL RUBEN, Communist Party USA Organizer, was visiting the Eastern Seaboard of the United States in an effort to organize youth groups. It was reported that TYNER contemplated a visit to Atlanta, Georgia, prior to his return to New York City on or about February 22, 1964.

(AT T-3, 2/10/64)

JARVIS TYNER of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, visited in Atlanta, Georgia, for approximately two or three days six weeks ago. TYNER was traveling from Philadelphia down the East Coast recruiting for a "youth conference" which TYNER explained was to be held in the spring or summer of 1964 in either Chicago, Illinois, or Detroit, Michigan. TYNER attempted to recruit JULIAN BOND and others at the SNCC Headquarters Office to attend this "youth conference". TYNER was unsuccessful in his attempts to interest these individuals in attending this conference. The impression was gained that the conference related to civil rights and peace issues. TYNER was suspected of being a Communist Party representative acting in some organizing capacity. SNCC was unaware of any success that TYNER may have had in the Atlanta area in his effort to interest youth or students in this "youth conference".

(Mr. JULIAN BOND, Communications Director of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, 8½ Raymond St., Atlanta, Ga., 4/23/64)

B. Other Communist Groups

No information has been developed to indicate any recent strategy by Communist groups other than the Communist Party to influence racial matters in the Atlanta Division.

II. COMMUNIST TACTICS

Sit-In Demonstrations and Picketing
Atlanta, Georgia, 1963 to 1964.

1. DEBBIE HELEN AMIS

On June 17, 1963, a group of young Negro and white youths attempted to enter and conduct a sit-in demonstration at Leb's Restaurant, 66 Luckie Street, N.W., Atlanta, Georgia. The group struggled with restaurant employees and nearby spectators. Thirteen demonstrators were arrested and charged with disorderly conduct. The arrested individuals refused to cooperate with police officials and had to be carried bodily throughout the arrest and booking procedures. One of the persons in this group was identified as DEBBIE AMIS, Negro female, age [redacted]

On July 19, 1963, DEBBIE H. AMIS and eleven other individuals were arrested by the Atlanta Police Department for obstructing the entranceway of Leb's Restaurant, at Forsyth and Luckie Streets, N.W., and were charged with the Georgia Trespass Law. It was necessary to carry the arrested persons to the police wagon, out of the police wagon and into the jail. AMIS was described as Negro, female, age [redacted]

DEBBIE HELEN AMIS was arrested on September 6, 1963, by the Atlanta Police Department, along with approximately seventeen other individuals in connection with trespass charges during sit-in demonstrations at Leb's Restaurant in Atlanta, Georgia, at the corner of Forsyth and Luckie Streets. Cases on AMIS and the other individuals were still pending and many of these persons represented the SNCC.

(Captain R. E. LITTLE,
9/6/63)

AMIS' arrest records at the Atlanta Police Department as of April, 1964, reflect she was arrested June 17, 1963, for disorderly conduct - disturbance (refusing to leave the premises). She was arrested again on July 19, 1963, on the same charge. There has been no disposition made of these cases and it is to be noted that the Federal District Court for the Northern District of Georgia has taken her case, along with numerous others, under consideration as to whether Fulton County Superior Court, Atlanta, Georgia, was denying them their Constitutional rights. AMIS is currently out under federal bond.

(Captain R. E. LITTLE,
4/2/64)

DEBBIE AMIS of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and JOHN LEWIS, Chairman of the SNCC, were closely associated in recent civil rights activities in Atlanta, Georgia. These activities generally have consisted of organizing demonstrations for sit-ins at restaurants as well as street marches to City Hall and the Atlanta Board of Education. AMIS and LEWIS have been observed frequently conferring during the conduct of these demonstrations and are considered to be the main leaders of SNCC in Atlanta, Georgia, as of January, 1964.

(Captain R. E. LITTLE,
Atlanta Police Department,
1/23/64)

During news coverage for the Associated Press on demonstration activities and picketing demonstrations in Atlanta, Georgia, sponsored by SNCC, it has been observed that DEBBIE AMIS was an active participant in these demonstrations. From observations it was found that AMIS was generally the motivating force and leader of these activities. Whenever AMIS was in the midst of these activities she was constantly giving directions and guidance to the persons participating in the picket lines. It was found that by contacting AMIS the future plans and actions of the group could be ascertained, whereas other picket participants could furnish no information along these lines. Although no official title or position of AMIS is known, it is believed from observations that she was the leader of the demonstrations on the scene of the activity.

2. ISOBEL CERNEY

ISOBEL CERNEY was arrested by the Atlanta Police Department on January 27, 1964, at which time she was charged with disorderly conduct - disturbance. Subject posted a $33 bond and was released. This arrest occurred during racial demonstrations and sit-in attempts taking place in the downtown Atlanta area in the vicinity of Leb's Restaurant.

(Captain R. E. LITTLE,
1/28/64)

Following these racial incidents and arrests, an article appeared in the February 2, 1964, issue of The Atlanta Journal and Constitution newspaper written by BILL SHIPP. In this article SHIPP quoted from House Committee on Un-American Activities records wherein Mrs. ANITA BELL SCHNEIDER had testified before House Committee on Un-American Activities in June, 1955, to the effect that CERNEY was at that time a member of the Communist Party. The article also indicated when subject was questioned as to whether she was a Communist by the press, she replied "I believe sincerely in freedom of conscience."

3. HARRY CHARLES STEINMETZ

At approximately 10:45 a.m. on October 27, 1963, between 20 and 25 pickets were observed at the First Baptist Church, Atlanta, Georgia. They picketed from 10:45 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. Two of the pickets were identified as ISOBEL CERNEY and HARRY STEINMETZ, white professors at Negro colleges in Atlanta.

(Lt. M. G. REDDING,
Atlanta Police Department,
10/29/63)

HARRY C. STEINMETZ on October 27, 1963, was observed picketing the First Baptist Church, Atlanta, Georgia, in efforts to integrate that church. The picketing had been taking place almost every Sunday morning during morning services because of the church policy of segregation and as a result of the church refusing admittance of persons causing the disturbance. These pickets were protesting the jailing of Reverend ASHTON B. JONES, a white minister, whose arrest grew out of these demonstrations. The normal number in this picket line was approximately 15 to 20 people.

(Captain R. E. LITTLE
Atlanta Police Department,
12/12/63)

An article appeared in the January 23, 1964, issue of The Atlanta Constitution, a daily Atlanta newspaper, which was written by BILL SHIPP, reported that a Soviet peace delegation had arrived in New York City for a two week speaking tour of eight American cities including Atlanta, Georgia, at the invitation of the Committee for Non-Violent Action.

Another article appearing in the February 2, 1964, issue of The Atlanta Constitution written by BILL SHIPP, reported that a Soviet peace committee had recently visited in Atlanta, Georgia, and their host while in Atlanta was Dr. HARRY C. STEINMETZ, Professor of Psychology at Morehouse College, Atlanta, Georgia. The article reported that during their visit to the Atlanta area, the group was taken by various scenes where recent racial demonstrations had occurred in the hopes the Soviet group might witness another racial demonstration.

On January 25, 1964, a visiting group of Soviet peace delegates arrived in Atlanta, Georgia, and stayed until January 29, 1964. During a meeting of these delegates with members of the Atlanta business community and press, Dr. HARRY STEINMETZ, who accompanied the Soviet group, did not provide the Soviet group an opportunity to speak their propaganda on peace but rather monopolized the conversation himself by speaking on Atlanta, Georgia's problems, mainly racial matters and how they were to be solved.

STEINMETZ was not arrested for his activites on the picket lines.

4. DOROTHY MILLER ZELLNER, Also known as
Mrs. John Robert Zellner

A news item in The Atlanta Journal and Constitution newspaper dated June 24, 1963, titled "Danville Police Enter Church, Arrest Three Integration Chiefs" set forth that police forced their way into the office of a Negro church and arrested three integration leaders accused of inciting racial riots. One of the three men who was being held under $5,000 bond was JOHN ROBERT ZELLNER of Atlanta, Georgia. This news item also set out that several others had been indicted by the Grand Jury in Danville. One of these was described as a white person, DOROTHY MILLER of Atlanta, who was an executive of SNCC.

III. COMMUNIST PENETRATION AND INFLUENCE IN RACIAL ORGANIZATIONS

A. STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE (SNCC)

1. Character, Background and Officers of Organization

As of March 17, 1964, the SNCC Headquarters Office is located at 8½ Raymond Street, N.W., Atlanta 14, Georgia, having been at that address since late Summer of 1963. Their office was located at 6 Raymond Street, N.W., from the Fall of 1962 until the late Summer of 1963.

(AT T-6, 3/17/64)

The October 6, 1960, issue of The Atlanta Constitution newspaper carried an article captioned "Negro Parley in Atlanta May Chart New Protests". The article states that a meeting sponsored by SNCC would be held in Atlanta, Georgia, on October 14 - 16, 1960, and formal activities of the session would center around the topic "non-violence and the achievement of desegregation". The article further reported that SNCC was formed in Raleigh, North Carolina, in April, 1960, by college students who had been participating in various sit-down demonstrations.

The SNCC conference held in Atlanta October 14 - 16, 1960, was chaired by MARION S. BARRY of Nashville, Tennessee, who was Chairman of SNCC. This conference adopted the establishment of a permanent SNCC to derive its authority and direction from the general conference and would be therefore controlled by the conference. The committee was to consist of one delegate from each of 17 Southeastern states and have six delegates at large elected by the conference.

According to the constitution of SNCC as revised in April, 1962, any Southern protest group having at least ten members may affiliate with SNCC with approval of the Executive Committee. The Coordinating Committee consists of one representative elected by each local group and shall meet three times a year. The Executive Committee consists of eight students elected by the Coordinating Committee from among this number; two adults; the chairman and the executive secretary elected by the Coordinating Committee; and three members at large elected by the Spring conference.

(AT T-6, 1/7/63)

On December 4, 1963, a pamphlet was made available regarding SNCC which described it as not being a membership organization but rather an agency attempting to stimulate and foster the growth of local protest movements.

The following persons were members of the Executive Committee of SNCC in July, 1963:

JOHN LEWIS, Chairman

COURTLAND COX, Howard University, Washington, D.C.

MARION BARRY, University of Tennessee

LONNIE MALONE, High School Student, Rome, Georgia

AVON ROLLINS, staff member of SNCC, Atlanta, Georgia

Executive Secretary, JAMES FORMAN

Staff Coordinator, WORTH LONG

Communications Director, JULIAN BOND

Project Directors, ROBERT MOSES - Mississippi
CHARLES SHERROD - Southwest Georgia
BERNARD LAFAYETTE -Central Alabama
WILLIAM HANSEN - Arkansas
REGINALD ROBINSON, Eastern Shore

(AT T-8, 12/13/63)

The June 1, 1963, issue of the Atlanta Inquirer, a weekly Negro Atlanta newspaper, carried an article titled "Spelman Professor Dismissed." The article reported that the President of Spelman College, Atlanta, Georgia, had arbitrarily relieved Dr. HOWARD ZINN, Professor of History, of all duties effective June 30, 1963. The article described ZINN as a recently elected member of the Executive Board of SNCC, which organization had protested ZINN's dismissal.

HOWARD ZINN wrote a report on the Albany, Georgia, racial situation in 1962 for the Southern Regional Council, Inc., Atlanta, Georgia. This report was titled "Albany, a Study in National Responsibility". It was released by Southern Regional Council in November, 1962, and indicates that ZINN was present during the Albany racial demonstrations in a reporter capacity.

(AT T-6, 12/4/62)

Southern Regional Council is characterized in the Appendix of this report.

A news article in The Atlanta Journal and Constitution newspaper dated April 14, 1965, titled "Civil Rights use Study Strategy Here" by FRED POWLEDGE, related some of the events taking place at the annual conference of SNCC which was held in Atlanta from April 12 to 14, 1963. The article stated that about 300 young people attended the three day conference. The article described the highlights of the April 13th session as a speech given by HOWARD ZINN. According to the article, ZINN told the group that the answer to problems of discrimination and conservatism and politics cannot be directly solved through the ballot. ZINN claimed the answer was to create centers of power outside the formal structure of government and to use these centers of power to exert pressure on the government. ZINN described SNCC as this kind of center of power. He criticized President KENNEDY's stand on civil rights saying KENNEDY had done just enough to keep his image from collapsing in the eyes of twenty million Negroes.

The Winter, 1964, issue of Freedomways magazine, page 143, reflects an article written by HOWARD ZINN titled "The Limits of Non-Violence".

A Characterization of Freedomways is included in the Appendix of this report.

3. Various Influences on SNCC

FRANK WILKINSON, Leader for the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC) attended the June 29, 1963, session of the Civil Liberties Conference held at the Interdenominational Theological Center, Atlanta, Georgia, from June 28 to 30, 1963. This conference was organized by the Southern Conference Educational Fund (SCEF) and was attended by members of SCEF and SNCC, most of whom were students of college age. WILKINSON spoke on civil rights in general and the subject of abolishment of House Committee on Un-American Activities. Some of the individuals present at the June 29, 1963, session were JAMES FORMAN, Executive Secretary of SNCC; JULIAN BOND, Administrative Assistant of SNCC; ELLA BAKER of SNCC and the YWCA, Atlanta, and DOROTHY MILLER, who is with SNCC and SCEF.

(MARGARET LONG, Research Writer for the Southern Regional Council, Inc., 5 Forsyth St., Atlanta, Ga. 7/2/63)

A Characterization of SCEF and NCAHUAC is included in the Appendix of this report.

DOROTHY R. MILLER as of September, 1962, had been recently discharged from her position with the Southern Regional Council due to a reduction in force. She took a position on the staff of SNCC in Atlanta, Georgia.

(AT T-6, 9/24/62)

On October 15, 1962, an Agent of the FBI observed DOROTHY MILLER working in the Headquarters Office of SNCC, at that time located at #6 Raymond Street, N.W., Atlanta.

She was observed to be acting in the place of Executive Secretary JAMES FORMAN in his absence from the city.

The Atlanta Constitution newspaper dated October 26, 1962, carried an article titled "Picket Admits Ties to BRADEN". This article reflected that DOROTHY MILLER told newsmen that she was being paid $75 a week by the SCEF to handle "staff work" for a proposed Civil Liberties Conference expected to be held in Atlanta in the Spring of 1963. The article indicated that MILLER at that time had an office with SNCC and worked on civil rights drives with them. She told newsmen she had traveled to Albany, Georgia, during recent racial demonstrations. As of April 17, 1963, DOROTHY MILLER has not been on the SCEF payroll since the proposed Civil Liberties Conference did not go through. She continues to have an office at the headquarters of SNCC in Atlanta and is believed to be on their payroll.

(AT T-13, 4/17/63)

On May 20, 1963, a Special Agent of the FBI observed MILLER doing some typing in the office of JULIAN BOND, Administrative Assistant to the Executive Secretary of SNCC.

DOROTHY MILLER in July, 1963, was serving as a Field Secretary for SNCC at Cambridge, Maryland, and was working out of the office of the Cambridge Non-Violent Action Committee at 308 Muir Street, Cambridge.

(JULIAN BOND, Administrative Assistant, SNCC, 7/17/63)

NCAHUAC issued a press release dated April 30, 1963, which concerned the annual meeting of that organization held April 27 to 28, 1963, in Chicago, Illinois.

AT 100-6670

This press release set out that the two day conference heard reports from a number of organizational leaders. Of those listed Miss DOROTHY MILLER of SNCC, Atlanta, Georgia, was included.

DOROTHY MILLER was present at the April 28, 1963, session of the annual meeting of the NCAHUAC and was the Chairman for the day's session. Most of the morning session involved a discussion regarding the policy and tactics to be used as to whether they should support the idea of having HUAC transferred to the House Judiciary Committee or whether they should demand complete abolition of the committee.

(AT T-14, 5/7/63)

DOROTHY MILLER gave a speech at the annual conference of NCAHUAC held in Chicago April 27 - 28, 1963. She stated that the damage done to the civil rights movement by HUAC is exemplified in the work of the little un-American committes in Alabama and Florida. She stated it was difficult for people in the South to work against HUAC because of their preoccupation with civil rights and their lack of insight into the true relationship that civil rights have to civil liberties. MILLER also stated there was a serious problem of "redbaiting". MILLER said it would be helpful if leaflets were prepared by NCAHUAC which could be used by the civil rights movement, particularly the SNCC people in the South. She further urged the speakers for abolition of HUAC be sent to the South and that every effort be made in the North to support the SNCC voter registration drive. MILLER further advised in her talk that SCEF was holding an informal workshop in Greenwood, Mississippi, on the subject "What Does it Mean When we call you a Communist?" The purpose of the workshop in Greenwood, according to MILLER, was to explore ways to counter red-baiting tactics.

An article which appeared in The Harvard Crimson, a Harvard University student newspaper dated May 22, 1964, contained an article entitled "COFO, Miss. Draw Battle Lines". According to the article the Congress of Federated Organizations (COFO) in the State of Mississippi had began to formulate their final plans concerning this year's Mississippi Summer Project. According to the article the deadline for applying for the COFO project was May 15, 1964, but Mrs. DOROTHY ZELLNER (nee MILLER, also known as DOROTHY MILLER ZELLNER, DOROTHY ROCHELLE MILLER and Mrs. JOHN ROBERT ZELLNER), New England representative of SNCC, pointed out that all applications had not been processed. The article indicated that 70 New England area volunteers were accepted and Mrs. ZELLNER said she expected New England, New York and California to provide the bulk of the volunteers.

A copy of the minutes of the Board of Directors meeting of the SCEF held at St. Paul's Methodist Church in Birmingham, Alabama, on April 13, 1962, contained a report by JAMES A. DOMBROWSKI which stated in part that the final installment had been paid on the $5,000 grant to SNCC for the employment of a field worker to work among white southern students. DOMBROWSKI's report stated that SNCC had employed BOB ZELLNER and the $5,000 was for the purpose of covering ZELLNER's salary and expenses, with the actual division of funds between salary and expenses being left up to SNCC.

During a hearing conducted at the Subversive Activities Control Board during December, 1963, New York City, concerning the Advance Youth Organization, the counsel for the defendant produced JAMES MONSONIS as a witness.

MONSONIS testified that he was at that time on the staff of SNCC in New York City and had previously been employed by SNCC in Atlanta, Georgia. On cross examination, MONSONIS stated that officials of SNCC were aware of the fact that he was testifying in behalf of Advance Youth Organization.

The above hearing was being conducted on the basis of a petition filed by the U. S. Attorney General with the Subversive Activities Control Board for an order requiring the Advance Youth Organization to register as required by the Subversive Activities Control Act of 1950 in that the organization was a CP front.

"Albany Justice Assailed

"At Hapeville, Georgia, 'Upsidedown justice' in Albany, Georgia, was assailed by the board of the Southern Conference Educational Fund at its semi-annual conference in Hapeville, Georgia, over the weekend.

During this meeting SCEF renewed for the fourth year a grant for SNCC to finance work on white college campuses in the South. The May 21, 1964, issue of The Atlanta Constitution newspaper contained the following article in part. The article was titled "New Yorker with Red Ties Publishing Paper in Atlanta." The article reported that a 25 year old New York man who once dipped the U. S. flag in tribute to Communist officials in a Moscow parade, had moved into an Atlanta Negro neighborhood and was putting out a newspaper which advocates the overthrow of capitalism and suggests Negroes take up firearms against white people. This individual was identified in the article as JACOB ROSEN whose Atlanta address is [redacted] Georgia. It stated he established a newspaper, Freedom, at that address during April. The article related ROSEN has been associated with leaders of SNCC in Atlanta. This article also stated ROSEN had moved the paper to Atlanta from Monroe, North Carolina, where he led racial demonstrations and organized a successful school boycott, according to Monroe Police.

The article also reported ROSEN has traveled extensively in Russia, China and Cuba. Using the name JOHN HARNETT, he was a reporter for The Augusta Chronicle in Augusta, Georgia, in 1963 during racial turmoil there. The article also stated that on February 3, 1960, ALBERT GAILLARD, a former member of the Communist Party, identified ROSEN as a Communist Party member during a hearing of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. b6 b7C

The article stated that in the issue of Freedom dated April 18, 1964, it carried, among other bylines, JOHN LEWIS, Chairman of SNCC and STAUGHTON LYND of Spelman College Department of History.

A news item in the Pittsburgh Courier newspaper dated August 17, 1957, page two, titled "New Rights Group Launches in Dixie" reported that SCLC was officially launched at Montgomery, Alabama, at a mass meeting attended by over 2,000 persons. The article stated that Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., was named as President. It was reported that registration lists compiled at this meeting showed persons from twelve states and the District of Columbia came in answer to the call of SCLC which had actually been formed the year before in New Orleans, Louisiana.

Purpose of the conference, according to this news item, was to organize a south-wide voter registration campaign among Negroes. A national office was to be set up in Atlanta, Georgia, to coordinate the programs of the conference. The article stated that funds for the new organization would come from church contributions, trade unions and foundations.

An undated folder captioned "This is SCLC" published by SCLC obtained on July 20, 1962, set forth that SCLC is not a "membership organization per se". It reported that affiliate groups and organizations constitute the actual membership. Individuals belong to the affiliates which can be groups such as churches, civic organizations and fraternal groups. The minimum affiliate fee is $25 per year which entitles the group to one voting delegate in all meetings.

On June 14, 1962, records of the Secretary of State, State Capitol Building, Atlanta, Georgia, were reviewed and disclosed the following:

SCLC was incorporated on June 5, 1958, by order of Judge LUTHER ALVERSON, Superior Court, Atlanta Judicial District. It was indicated that the organization was incorporated as non-profit. These records showed a certified statement for annual registration dated August 31, 1961. This statement described the nature of SCLC business as civic, religious, economic and cultural.

The 1964 Yearbook mentioned above on pages 12 to 14, set forth the history of SCLC by L. D. REDDICK. This history included the following information in part:

> "The initial meeting of what later came to be known as SCLC took place in Atlanta, January 10-11, 1957. The call for the conference had been jointly issued by Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., of Montgomery, the Rev. Fred L. Shuttlesworth of Birmingham, the Rev. C. K. Steele of Tallahassee, and the Rev. T. J. Jemison of Baton Rouge, La. Some 60 persons from 29 communities in 10 different states responded. Bus desegregation was the paramount issue and straightaway the get-together named itself the Southern Leadership Conference on Transportation and Nonviolent Integration. Bayard Rustin, who all along was most sensitive to the situation, prepared 'working papers' for the group, spelling out themes on a broad front. He, like others, realized that bus jim crow in time would fade and there were other and deeper needs for collective thinking and action....."

The Headquarters Office of SCLC in November, 1964, continues to be located at 334 Auburn Avenue, N.E., Atlanta, Georgia, and MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., continues as President of the organization.

KING has proposed, according to rumors from staff members, that SCLC go national in scope and open branch offices all over the United States.

2. Influence of Hunter Pitts O'Dell

An undated folder titled "Crusade for the Ballot" published by SCLC, which was made available to the public in July, 1962, sets forth a list of officers. J. H. O'DELL (also known as HUNTER PITTS O'DELL and JACK O'DELL) is listed as a Consultant on the Voter Registration Field Staff.

An SCLC Newsletter dated February, 1962, has an article on page three captioned "Citizenship Training at Dorchester, Georgia". This article describes JACK O'DELL as a Voter Registration expert of the SCLC New York Office. This article further indicates that JACK O'DELL had worked at the Dorchester Community Center, McIntosh County, Georgia, from January 15-20, 1962, structuring a plan for Albany. This article stated O'DELL spoke at this training session which was attended by 35 persons from four states. He spoke on the importance of organization for voter registration, emphasizing that enthusiasm was not enough to get the job done and that plans down to the last detail must be well thought out and carefully executed. The article described O'DELL's work as a most useful contribution, both in his speech and in his informal discussions with individual participants.

The Long Island Star Journal newspaper carried an article in the November 2, 1962, edition captioned "Communist Resigns from Reverend KING's Group". This article was datelined Washington, D. C., and stated that Reverend MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., said that JACK H. O'DELL, who was identified as a Communist in a story in the Star Journal on October 26, 1962, had resigned as an official of SCLC. KING denied knowledge of any previous Communist activities of O'DELL and said that O'DELL rejected the implication of the charges made against him but in order to avoid embarrassment to SCLC he tendered his resignation. KING also stated that "we have accepted it pending further inquiry and qualification." KING said that SCLC has a policy that no person of Communist affiliation can serve on the staff, executive board or its membership at large.

A news item in The Atlanta Journal dated July 26, 1963, captioned "KING SAYS O'DELL LEFT SCLC JUNE 26" sets out the following information in part:

> "Integration leader Martin Luther King said Thursday that Jack H. O'Dell, who was linked by congressional committees to a Communist party organization, worked twice for his Southern Christian Leadership Conference.
> "But King said O'Dell, a 39-year-old Negro, of New York, had left the SCLC for the second time on June 26 and is no longer associated with the movement.
> "King called a news conference to deny a report in The Atlanta Constitution that O'Dell was currently employed by the SCLC in any capacity.

"King acknowledged that O'Dell 'may have had some connections in the past' with communism but 'we were convinced that he had renounced them and had become committed to the Christian philosophy of non-violence in dealing with America's social injustices.'

"King said O'Dell left the SCLC on June 26 by 'mutual agreement' because of concern that his affiliation with the integration movement would be used against it by 'segregationists and race baiters.'

"The Constitution described O'Dell as director of the SCLC New York Office. A staff employee who answered the telephone Thursday in New York told United Press International O'Dell was still with the office as 'administrator' of the New York operation.

"However, later in the day the same office said he was not connected with the agency and it had no knowledge of his whereabouts."....

The Atlanta Constitution newspaper in its July 26, 1963, edition carried an article captioned "REV. KING DENIES O'DELL LINK BUT HIS OFFICE IN N.Y. DIFFERS" which sets out the following information in part:

"Dr. Martin Luther King denied Thursday that a man previously identified as a Communist Party organizer is presently employed by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

"But the Negro leader said, in answer to a question by United Press International's Al Kuettner, that he could not explain why a UPI investigation Thursday morning found that the man, Jack H. O'Dell, was identified by SCLC's New York Office as an 'administrator' with the organization.

"UPI said a staff employee who answered the telephone at the SCLC New York Office Thursday morning said O'Dell was still with the office as 'administrator' of the New York operation. Later in the day the same office told the UPI he was not connected with the agency and had no knowledge of his whereabouts."

"The delegation said that King and the SCLC agreed to remove O'Dell from the SCLC staff on June 26, but indicated that it may have been that O'Dell had responded that it would take until around July 15 for him to clear his effects from the office."....

EDWINA SMITH (Secretary to the Program Director of SCLC) told O'DELL in December, 1963, that the situation in SCLC Headquarters office was "pitiful" and had become worse. She did not explain her reasons for this statement; however, she stated that KING had told her that SCLC had not been able to find anyone to take O'DELL's place. KING stated the people who bothered him when O'DELL was on the staff still bother him when things go bad. EDWINA told O'DELL that KING stated he might as well still have O'DELL on the staff.

On February 3, 1963, O'DELL was contacted by SLATER KING (Leader of the Albany, Georgia, Civil Rights Movement) who told O'DELL that he had talked with MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. who agreed to get "their letter" off. SLATER asked O'DELL to draft something "for us" and to call it down to Albany. SLATER KING indicated that KING was leaving Atlanta on February 5, 1964, and that he, SLATER KING, would like to get the letter to him by February 4, 1964. SLATER KING told O'DELL that he had said to KING that O'DELL had given a wonderful suggestion and KING had agreed.

Later on February 3, 1964, O'DELL dictated a letter to an unknown individual who is connected with the Albany, Georgia, Movement. This was a circular-type letter addressed "Dear Friend" and dealt with the problem of certain individuals connected with the Albany Movement who were facing long prison terms and who were at that time being prosecuted for having participated in some civil rights demonstrations. These demonstrations led to some of the leaders of the Albany Movement being charged in Federal Court with Obstruction of Justice. This letter urged the recipients to send communications to the United States Attorney General asking that the indictments be dropped. The letter was then submitted to go out over the signature of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., and on the letterhead stationery of Southern Christian Leadership Conference.

On February 7, 1964, SLATER KING was in contact with O'DELL and told him that KING had read the letter and approved it generally. He wanted, however, to make some additions feeling there should be more information concerning the Federal indictments. SLATER said that KING may allow the letter to go out on "their mailing list" (not further identified). O'DELL commented that the letter from KING would really get some action and that "their mailing list" includes 10,000 names.

(AT T-26, 2/64)

A copy of a letter on the letterhead stationery of Southern Christian Leadership Conference which bears the purported signature of MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., shows that except for minor changes it is identical to the above mentioned letter which was dictated by O'DELL.

3. Other Communist Influences

A copy of the program of the Seventh Annual Convention of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference held in Richmond Virginia, September 24 - 27, 1963, was made available by Major FRANK S. DULING of the Richmond Police Department. This program lists the officers and staff of Southern Christian Leadership Conference. Two of the officers listed in this program are Dr. L. D. REDDICK, Baltimore, Maryland, listed as Historian and C. T. VIVIAN, listed as Director of Affiliates.

The afternoon session was to be devoted to panel discussion and work shops on the topic of "Power of Non-Violence". JAMES M. LAWSON, Special Projects Director of Southern Christian Leadership Conference, was to be the Moderator and the leaders were to be C. T. VIVIAN, Director of Affiliates, and JAMES BEVEL, Field Secretary, both of Atlanta, Georgia, and BAYARD RUSTIN, Deputy Director of the March on Washington from New York City.

The Atlanta Inquirer newspaper dated September 19, 1964, carried an article captioned "SCLC Convention In Savannah to Air Destiny of Movement". This article stated in part that one of the most significant panel-workshops would take place in the early afternoon of September 30, 1964, when some of the most noted leaders and brilliant minds behind the civil rights movement come together as a group to refine the program of the convention's theme. The article stated among participants would be SCLC's Special Project Coordinator JAMES LAWSON of Memphis, Tennessee; Field Secretary at Large JAMES BEVEL of Atlanta; BAYARD RUSTIN, who directed the historic March on Washington; and RALPH HELSTEIN noted labor leader.

The article further reported that the convention would deal with "New Directions in Non-Violence" as related to

(1) Poverty and unemployment
(2) Direct action
(3) Use of basic non-violence precepts
(4) Building alliances.

JAMES R. WOOD, Radio Announcer, Editorialist, WAOK, Edgewood Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia, stated as follows on May 10, 1963:

He organized the Petersburg Improvement Association, Petersburg, Virginia, in the 1950s. This association was successful in obtaining more rights for Negroes and it was accomplished without violence or turmoil. During this period, WOOD realized he needed a spiritual leader to help the movement. For this position he selected WYATT T. WALKER, a minister in Petersburg who was active in civil rights matters but with no organization.

In 1960 when the association had accomplished many of its purposes and was functioning smoothly, WOOD and WALKER were asked by Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR., to come to Atlanta, Georgia, to set up his Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC) movement. KING was in the process of moving the headquarters to Atlanta from Montgomery, Alabama.

WOOD was made the Public Relations Director and WALKER was made Executive Director of SCLC. KING is President and WALKER is still in his position, but WOOD resigned about a year ago to take his position with WAOK.

WOOD believes SCLC to lack organization and business finesse. He attributes this partly to a lack of policy and partly to the fact that all the officers are preachers who are not skilled in certain areas.

WOOD never feared Communist infiltration of the organization at a working level because of the lack of a chain of command. Approval of all activities had to be cleared with KING. If he approved an idea, it was adopted, otherwise no action would be taken on it.

The thing that concerned WOOD was the possibility of a person with the wrong background or ulterior motives gaining the confidence of KING, whom WOOD believes to be extremely naive in certain areas. One such example of concern of WOOD was an individual in New York City by the name of STANLEY LEVISON. LEVISON was very close to KING and had KING's confidence. He was able to get KING alone and give advice to KING. This advice was readily accepted.

WOOD's concern about LEVISON stemmed from his closeness to KING plus LEVISON's close association with HUNTER PITTS O'DELL, publicly known to be a member of the Communist Party. LEVISON and O'DELL were also both closely associated with a third party who was a well known Communist in New York City but WOOD could not recall the name of this third party. He believes this individual has gone to England.

He was on the committee to raise funds for SCLC in New York City, which at the time was also known as the New York Friends of SCLC. It is now an integral part of SCLC but its activites are still confined mostly to the raising of funds. O'DELL was on this committee as well as the unknown third party mentioned above. O'DELL also was and still is head of the New York Office of SCLC. LEVISON has been acting mostly as a business manager. He also has donated large amounts of money to KING at times when KING's finances happened to be very low.

WOOD became so concerned about LEVISON at one time that he proposed to KING and the Board of Directors of SCLC that LEVISON's background be checked, possibly by hiring Burns Detective Agency. WOOD received what he described as "a typical preacher reaction" from this proposal. They were all horrified at the proposal and would not consider it. KING was against this and against the screening of anyone helping his organization. KING reasoned that if screening became a policy, they would be more open to criticism if an unsavory background was found out to be in SCLC in spite of screening.

WOOD attributed the continued presence of O'DELL in KING's organization after the public disclosure of O'DELL's Communist background and connection with SCLC, to be the result of lack of policy and organization. This resulted in the lack of follow through to get rid of O'DELL after KING publicly announced he was accepting O'DELL's resignation.

Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation on March 9, 1964, observed STANLEY LEVISON take a taxi cab from Terminal Station in Atlanta, Georgia, to the Headquarters Office of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference located at 334 Auburn Avenue, N.E.

RANDOLPH T. BLACKWELL, who until recently was employed by the Voter Education Project of the Southern Regional Council, Atlanta, Georgia, took a position with SCLC. BLACKWELL is described as a male Negro, born in Greensboro, North Carolina, married to ELIZABETH KAY KNOX. He received a law degree from Howard University, Washington, D. C. He was formerly employed as an Associate Professor of government and economics at Winston Salem Teachers College, North Carolina, and the Alabama A and M College, Normal, Alabama. He was formerly Field Director for the Voter Education Project before going with SCLC.

CARL BRADEN had a room reserved for him at the Manger Hotel, Savannah, Georgia, from September 29 to October 2, 1964. It was indicated that BRADEN planned to attend the SCLC convention.

On October 1 and 2, 1964, Agents of the FBI observed CARL BRADEN at the Manger Hotel which was being used as headquarters for the Eighth Annual Convention of SCLC.

SCLC leadership, including MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. and WYATT TEE WALKER, are very favorable toward Southern Conference Education Fund and CARL BRADEN. The Southern Regional Council (SRC) does not want to work with SCEF and does not want to even be in attendance at civil rights conferences with them. There was a general feeling among many civil rights organizations regarding the possibility of Communist infiltration in the leadership of SCEF. Another reason for the reluctance to work with SCEF was that BRADEN's methods of operation in the civil rights field does their cause more harm than good. When any mention is made to SCLC leadership by SRC regarding their feelings in this matter, KING will not listen or change his mind about working with SCEF. WALKER reportedly becomes abusive in his criticism of SRC for this attitude.

KING has recently given talks in New York City at meetings sponsored by SCEF, and because of his presence, caused a great deal of money to be donated to that organization. KING was a hero in the North and because of this is a most potent force in the civil rights field. However, KING is not so highly regarded by even some of his own people in the South and some Negro leaders in the civil rights field despise KING.

Other civil rights organizations are quite concerned about SCLC, not only because of their apparent closeness to SCEF, but also because they continue to keep HUNTER PITTS O'DELL as their fund raiser in New York City, especially after the recent publicity regarding O'DELL's Communist affiliations.

Mr. William J. Shaw, Owner and Manager of the Odd Fellows Building, 250 Auburn Avenue, N. E., Atlanta, Georgia, advised on February 3, 1956, that James A. X. Shabazz, 547 Wabash Avenue, N. E., Atlanta, had signed a one year lease, commencing January 1, 1956, for a hall on the sixth floor of the Odd Fellows Building. Shaw said Shabazz represented the "Temple of Islam" and that an advance rental payment was accompanied by a letter from Muhammad who called his religion "Islam" and stated his Temple Number Two was located at 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois.

A second source advised during January, 1961, that Muhammad's Temple of Islam Number 15 had changed its name to Muhammad's Mosque Number 15.

On August 21, 1964, this source advised Muhammad's Mosque Number 15 is currently active and holds meetings at 361 Edgewood Avenue, S. E., Atlanta, Georgia. Muhammad's Mosque Number 15 is an affiliate of the Nation of Islam and its teachings are based upon the principles expounded by Elijah Muhammad, the national leader of the Nation of Islam.

NEW YORK LOCAL, NEWS AND LETTERS COMMITTEE

A confidential source advised on May 25, 1961, that the Popest Faction of the Johnson Forest Group (JFG) is publicly known as the News and Letters Committee.

This confidential source advised on March 28, 1962, that the New York Local of the News and Letters Committee was organized during the Fall of 1961, and was affiliated with the News and Letters Committee, whose national headquarters is located at 8751 Grand River, Detroit, Michigan. The New York Local carries out instructions and policies issued by the national headquarters of the News and Letters Committee.

The confidential source advised on May 1, 1962, that during April, 1962, the New York Local of the News and Letters Committee was redesignated an organizing committee because of lack of membership.

The JFG has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

SOUTHERN REGIONAL COUNCIL, INC.

M. A. WRIGHT, President, Southern Regional Council, Atlanta, Georgia, forwarded to the Atlanta Office of the FBI by letter dated October 28, 1955, a mimeographed copy of a speech made by EUGENE COOK, Attorney General of Georgia, before the Peace Officers Association of Georgia, in Atlanta, Georgia, on October 19, 1955, referring to the Southern Regional Council, and its affiliate, the Georgia Committee on Interracial Cooperation, among other organizations, as having "long records of affinity for and participation in Communist, Communist-front, fellow-traveling, left-wing, and subversive organizations and activities." Enclosed with the letter from M. A. WRIGHT dated October 28, 1955, were thirteen pages of mimeographed material identified on the first page as follows:

"THE ATTACK ON THE SOUTHERN REGIONAL COUNCIL and THE GEORGIA COMMITTEE ON INTERRACIAL COOPERATION A Brief Statement on the History and Aims of The Southern Regional Council October, 1955"

The above statement reflects that the Southern Regional Council and its predecessor, the Commission on Interracial Cooperation, have a history of thirty-five years activity in interracial relations. It also states that the Commission on Interracial Cooperation, in 1944, merged with the newly formed Southern Regional Council, and was chartered in the State of Georgia on January 5, 1944, having as its purpose to represent the forward looking conscience and efforts of liberal Southerners to give democracy a chance in the South. The statement also reflects that although the organization is biracial in membership and staff, it is not exclusively a racial relations organization, and it believes in the improvement of economic and civic, political and educational conditions for the good of all the people.

On March 12, 1956, Dr. GEORGE S. MITCHELL, Executive Director of the Southern Regional Council, advised that after having read an article in "The New York Times," which stated in effect that the Communist Party of the United States was interested in identifying itself with the Civil Rights issue as it pertained to the South; that he had called all Regional Directors' attention to this fact, and had alerted them to the possibility that persons with Communist Party affiliations may be attempting to influence their groups. Dr. MITCHELL stated that in the past the Southern Regional Council has had members on its Executive Board who have been connected with subversive front groups, but, to his knowledge, none of the Executive Board members are actively connected at this time (March 12, 1956) with any cited organizations.

Dr. LESLIE DUNBAR, the new Executive Director of the Southern Regional Council, in a news article appearing in "The Atlanta Journal" issue of April 12, 1961, identified the objectives of the Council upon his assuming his current position as the same as those objectives set forth in 1944 when the group was formed, namely: "To obtain through research and action programs the ideals and practices of equal opportunity for all peoples in the region."

Since the early 1950's the Council has narrowed its aim to deal primarily with the segregation-integration matter. The Southern Regional Council operates throughout the South with similar state and local organizations receiving its guidance. It has no membership as such, but some 80 persons, educators, businessmen, and clergymen are on its Board of Directors. A large part of the Council's work consists of gathering information and publishing reports on what it finds. Because of its biracial nature, the Council has come in for its share of criticism. Among its critics through the years have been the American Legion, which implied it was a Red front, and Senator HERMAN TALMADGE, who called it an organization "dedicated to racial agitation."

Dr. DUNBAR in assuming position as Executive Director stated, "We and the state councils have provided, and will continue to provide, a rallying point for the Southerners who are what I would describe as realistics--who are realistic about the social, economic, and political demands of our times and who are also realists in that they regard themselves as neither superior nor inferior to any other people."

SOCIALIST YOUTH UNION OF PHILADELPHIA (SYU), aka Youth for Equality and Peace (YEP),
Sunday Study Group, Winter Discussion Series
1957-58

A source on October 4, 1957, advised that MORTIMER DANIEL RUBIN, a Communist Party member and Communist Party youth leader, on October 3, 1957, stated there is a Youth Club in Philadelphia composed of children of progressive parents, which has no real organization, but meets as a study group. On October 30, 1957, this source furnished a mimeographed outline of scheduled meetings of this group received from DANIEL RUBIN, which bore title, "Winter Discussion Series 1957-58." This source on January 7, 1958, and February 3, 1958, advised that the Youth Club, Communist Party of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), assumed responsibility and formed a committee consisting of the Youth Club's Executive Committee, plus club member AARON LIBSON to prepare proposals for the formalization of the above group, then referred to as the "Sunday Study Group." This source on March 7, 1958, advised that on February 14, 1958, the educational director of the Youth Club stated the Youth Club's proposals to the Sunday Study Group had been presented to that group by AARON LIBSON and generally accepted.

Another source on March 19, 1958, advised the above group at their March 2, 1958, meeting, adopted a constitution. At their March 16, 1958, meeting, the group elected officers, including AARON LIBSON as President and adopted the name Socialist Youth Union of Philadelphia (SYU), which was proposed by DANIEL RUBIN. This source on May 28, 1958, furnished a copy of the SYU constitution which stated the SYU was an independent and unaffiliated socialist educational organization. This constitution also stated, "While we welcome the fact that at least 950,000,000 people are building socialism or have already established it in the U.S.S.R., People's China, etc., we do not feel compelled to endorse or criticize every action these nations have taken or are taking... The avoidance of a hydrogen holocaust between the capitalist and socialist world is also of crucial importance to us."

A third source on April 25, 1958, advised that DOROTHY RUBIN, wife of DANIEL RUBIN and a member of the Fourth Congressional District Section Committee, CPEPD, representing the Youth Club, reported to a meeting of this Section Committee on April 23, 1958, and gave a report on CP youth which included a report on the SYU. She stated the purpose of SYU was to train young selected progressives for ultimate development into good Marxist-thinking CP members who will be capable of assuming leadership in the CP.

On December 5, 1960, a fourth source advised that the SYU had recently changed its name to Youth for Equality and Peace (YEP).

On January 6, 1961, the fourth source advised that the SYU had changed its name to YEP, then decided against YEP and reverted to SYU pending a new name. On May 11, 1961, this source stated the SYU continues to function in Philadelphia and has a choral group called the Young Peoples Folk Chorus of Philadelphia, which is composed of SYU members and is led by SYLVIA WEINBERG, an SYU member. This group uses the name Young Peoples Folk Chorus of Philadelphia in order to appear before other than left-wing organizations.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE, aka
Young Socialist Forum

A confidential source advised on April 8, 1959, that the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) was formed at a meeting held October 1, 1957, at New York City by individuals who were members of the elements formerly comprising the Young Socialist Forum in New York City. The Young Socialist Forum consisted of youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP).

The Statement of Principle, set forth in the YSA Constitution, stated that the YSA: 1. Favored the abolition of our present capitalistic system; 2. Advocated the replacement of this system by a socialist system; 3. Firmly resolved to direct its activities toward bringing about this transition.

The stated purpose of the YSA, as set forth in the Constitution, was to bring together all the young socialists in a broad, militant, independent, democratic organization.

Source advised that the membership of the YSA, after a series of minority resignations during 1958, became comprised almost exclusively of SWP members who followed the SWP line in YSA policies.

Source advised that although publicly declared as an independent socialist youth organization, the YSA in reality is theyouth arm of the New York Local, SWP.

Source advised that the YSA holds meetings at the residences of individual members and maintains the mailing address of P. O. Box 471, Cooper Station, New York, New York.

The Socialist Workers Party (SWP) has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUNG SOCIALIST

The "Young Socialist" (YS) is a monthly publication which maintains the mailing address of P. O. Box 471, Cooper Station, New York, New York. The initial issue of this publication dated October, 1947, appeared on September 15, 1957.

The initial issue contained an announcement stating that the YS is "written by and for young socialists..." and that the YS would provide a sounding board for radical youth of different tendencies, who would profit by the free exchange of ideas.

A confidential source advised on May 5, 1958, that the YS was the brainchild of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP); however, inasmuch as the YS purports to be representative of the independent, broad and militant policy utilized by the SWP to reach radical youth, the SWP would quickly disclaim its conception of the YS.

The January, 1959, issue of the YS disclosed that during December 27-28, 1958, a National Conference of Young Socialist Supporters was held at Detroit, Michigan. The article disclosed that the conference, called by YS Editorial Board, consisted of YS supporters from all parts of the United States and resulted in the formation of a National Committee of Young Socialist Supporters. The article further stated that a basis was laid for a "nation-wide revolutionary socialist youth movement" which would be independent, broad and militant.

According to the above article, the YS, published in New York City, is now under the control of the organization effected at the above conference.

A confidential source advised on December 30, 1958, that although the above conference supporters publicly claimed independence, the conference was controlled and dominated by members of the SWP.

Re: Federation for Independent Political Action
Racial Matters

All confidential sources utilized in this communication and in the Appendix attached have furnished reliable information in the past unless otherwise indicated.

The "National Guardian", a weekly publication, New York City, dated December 26, 1964, page four, in an article, entitled, "Political Action Federation Outlines Steps At Conference", announced that preliminary steps were taken December 19 to establish a Negro power bloc in New York at the Federation for Independent Political Action's first conference on "The Black Revolution - A Struggle for Political Power."

The following is quoted from the "National Guardian" article:

CONFIDENTIAL

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

ENCLOSURE

"In a day-long discussion, leaders of New York's community-based Negro organizations approved a series of immediate moves to alleviate conditions in the ghettos and named an interim committee to formulate long-range goals and plans. The call to the conference stated its aim thus:

" 'Black independent political action means active organized involvement of the man-in-the-street, the victims of ruthless slumlords, the unemployed and youth to change rotten conditions in the ghetto. Through struggle, political power can be built by the people for liberation from white-dominated political control and economic exploitation. With independent political power, the black revolution can boldly move forward in advancing the interests of the masses.' "

The conference was described as "all-black" even the press was asked to send Negro reporters and television crews, but none came, according to the article.

The article related that interim committee members named were: Isaiah Robinson, chairman of the Harlem Parents Committee and vice chairman of the Ad Hoc Committee to Support the Mississippi Freedom Democratic Party Challenge; Jesse Gray; Reverend Milton Galamison, school boycott leader and chairman of the Brooklyn Parents Workshop for Equality; Jim Haughton, director of the Harlem Unemployment Center; William Strickland, Northern Student Movement; Clarence Jones, attorney; John Henrik Clarke, an editor of "Freedomways, and Malcom X.

Among specific actions supported is the scheduled February 3 shut-down of 31 junior high schools and 15 of the so-called "600" schools (for difficult pupils). The aims of the shut-down are (1) upgrading of 200 Negro and Puerto Rican teachers to supervisory and administrative positions; (2) establishment of a curriculum and screening of evaluation process for "600" schools; (3) the hiring of Negro custodians; (4) halting of school construction on present sites.

The federation also decided to support the drive for passage by the State Legislature of the "emergency repair bill" empowering the city to collect rents and make building repairs five days after a complaint is filed. A delegation to Albany at the opening of the Legislature January 4 will demand passage of the bill.

Two themes were stressed by the speakers (1) Unity among all grassroots groups to form a political action movement; (2) house-by-house organization to fight for the needs and desires of the people.

In his keynote address, Jesse Gray stated that "a revolutionary movement is in the making." He said: "The lack of unified, organized black political power is one reason we are not yet a revolutionary movement. Another is that we require revolutionaries. Real revolutionaries are out in the streets organizing people around their day-to-day problems."

The article further related that Victoria Gray, one of the three Freedom Democratic Party congresswomen from Mississippi, related the history of the attempt by the Mississippi Negroes to gain a voice in politics first through the regular Democratic Party - which almost totally bars Negro participation - and then through the formation of the FDP. Mrs. Gray asked conference delegates to support the party's challenge to the seating of the five "regular" Mississippi representatives in Congress next session.

The article noted that identification with Modern Africa and the American Negro's Cultural Heritage in Africa was apparent in the emblem of the Federation for Political Action (FIPA) - a stylized African lion.

The "National Guardian" is characterized in the Appendix.

A confidential source advised on November 20, 1958, that Jesse Gray had been organizer for the Harlem Region of the Communist Party (CP) but that position was terminated during November, 1958.

The second source advised on January 24, 1964, that according to William Patterson, Chairman of the New York District Communist Party (CP), Jesse Gray is no longer a CP member but is friendly to the CP.

The third confidential source, who was in a position to furnish reliable information, [redacted] on February 26, 1957, identified the photograph of Clarence Jones as the person whom he knew during late 1953 or early 1954 to be a member and in a position of leadership in the Labor Youth League, (LYL).

The LYL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The fourth confidential source, on August 14, 1964, made available information reflecting that John Henrik Clarke of "Freedomways" is an associate of the American Institute for Marxist Studies (AIMS).

Characterizations of "Freedomways" and of "Aims" are set forth in the Appendix.

The fifth confidential source advised on August 16, 1964, that Malcolm X. is founder and President of the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated.

The Muslim Mosque, Incorporated, is characterized in the Appendix.

Leads were set out for recipient offices to attempt to identify Al and it was instructed, in addition, that efforts be made to determine further specifics concerning any article Al had written for King.

New York airtel, copies to Atlanta and New Haven, 12/11/64 noted that it had no additional information concerning Al. It noted, however, the possibility of Al being identical with one Al Orenstein (phonetic) of Connecticut and suggested New Haven check that matter out.

Bureau 0-1 Form 12/30/64 requested advice as to status of investigation, making reference to reBulet 12/8/64. New York airtel 1/6/65, copies to Atlanta and New Haven, referenced New York airtel of 12/11/64 and the Bureau 0-1 Form and stated that New York has no additional pertinent information.

New York is now instructed to specifically advise of what efforts it has made, and the results thereof, in checking out the allegation that Al (LNU) had written an article for King which had received widespread circulation. New York should continue to pursue this matter through logical investigative channels.

On December 31, 1964, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information that Michael M. Nisselson is a professional fund raiser with an office at 16 East 41st Street, New York City, and is also associated with the Eleanor Roosevelt Memorial Foundation, 350 Fifth Avenue, New York City, N.Y. According to the source, Michael Nisselson participated in fund raising activities in connection with the receptions in New York City, on December 17, 1964, for Martin Luther King, Jr., (President of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference) (SCLC) on the occasion of King's return from Oslo, Norway, where he was the recipient of the Nobel Peace Prize. Nisselson also participated in making arrangements for the "Community Salute" to Martin Luther King, Jr., which took place on December 17, 1964, at the 369th Regiment Armory, 142nd Street and Fifth Avenue, New York City. (U)

With respect to the foregoing information, it is to be noted that on November 7, 1964, a second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information that Harry Wachtel contacted Bayard Rustin on that date. Wachtel mentioned that he arranged with (U)

On May 28, 1956, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that she knew Saul Mills as a member of the CP all through the period 1938-1947. The source stated that Mills had been one of the most important persons in the CP and could be considered on the level with William Z. Foster (who was Chairman of the CPUSA during this period). The source further advised that she attended literally hundreds of meetings of the CP, at which Saul Mills was present, as well as hundreds of Trade Union meetings run by the CP. In respect to Saul Mills' knowledge of the CP nature of these meetings, the source stated that there is no question but that Mills was cognizant at the time they were official meetings of the CP. The source stated that she observed Saul Mills in 1944, at a meeting called by the National Committee of the CP, and observed him at a meeting of top functionaries of the CP, held following the 1944 convention, at which time Mills delivered a speech. (U)

On May 25, 1956, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that in the late 1930's and early 1940's, Saul Mills was looked upon as being a highly trustworthy person and one whose word could be accepted and acted upon with respect to action the CP might take in regard to discipline cases involving individuals known to Mills. Communist Influence In Racial Matters

In "The Saturday Evening Post", issue of July 11-18, 1964, page 76, Bayard Rustin is the subject of a feature article captioned: "The Lone Wolf of Civil Rights". In it, Rustin is said to have come to New York in 1938, as an organizer for the Young Communist League (YCL), and as such, he had the job of recruiting students for the "Party". Furthermore, the article reports that during his first years in New York, Rustin gave most of his earnings to the "Party". He reportedly left the "Party" in 1941, the article states. (U)

The YCL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450. (U)

The "Daily Worker", February 11, 1957, page 1 column 2, reported that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was an observer at the 16th National Convention of the Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held in New York City, on February 9-12, 1957. (U)

The "Daily Worker" was an East Coast Communist publication until it ceased publication on January 13, 1958. (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on September 25, 1963, that during a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, on that date, Benjamin J. Davis remarked that, "Rustin calls me constantly--openly." (U)

Another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 19, 20, 1964, that Bayard Rustin contacted Benjamin J. Davis on those dates (U)

and sought his advice as to how he could escape from a speaking engagement to which he was committed. On the latter contact, Davis told Rustin that he was working on his request and had contacted friends who had contacts with the group to which Rustin was to speak. (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 21, 1964, that as of that date, Benjamin J. Davis was National Secretary of the CP, USA. (U)

"The New York Times", August 24, 1964, page 27, column 4, reports that Benjamin J. Davis, National Secretary, CP, USA, died in New York City on the night of August 22, 1964. (U)

Re: Communist Influence In Racial Matters CONFIDENTIAL

Harry Wachtel is the Executive Vice President of the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, 15 East 40th Street, New York, New York. He resides at 29 Split Rock Drive, Kings Point, Long Island, New York. (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information in December, 1949, that Harry H. Wachtel, 41 Broad Street, New York, New York, was on a list of individuals carried as active members of the National Lawyers Guild. (U)

A characterization of the National Lawyers Guild is attached hereto. (U)

On March 5, 1944, another confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, furnished information which revealed that the name Harry Wachtel was on a list of names, significance not known, which was maintained at the Headquarters of the Kings County Communist Party (CP) at 26 Court Street, Brooklyn, New York. (U)

Regarding Harry Wachtel's wife, Leonora, it is noted that the same confidential source furnished information on March 5, 1944, which revealed that her name and address were on a list of names of newly elected officers of the Bath Beach Club of the Kings County CP. (U)

With respect to the Gandhi Society for Human Rights, it is to be noted that this organization is an adjunct of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), of which Martin Luther King, Jr., is the president, and serves to raise funds for the SCLC. (U)

the approval of Martin Luther King, Jr., for the man who ran the affair for Eleanor Roosevelt to run this affair (the affair at which Martin Luther King, Jr., was to be honored upon his return from receiving the Nobel Peace Prize). Reurairtel 1/4/65, copies to Atlanta, which enclosed a letterhead memorandum (LHM) that reported Michael Nisselson as having had a part in the arrangements for festivities in New York City honoring Martin Luther King, Jr. Nisselson is a professional fund raiser.

The characterization of Nisselson appearing in the first complete paragraph, page two of the LHM states that on 5/22/56, a confidential source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Michael Nisselson was an advisor to the Communist Party and, in addition to this role, contributed hundreds of dollars a month to the Party. The source for this information was NY 694-S*.

Your letter, 12/4/64, reported information obtained from a review of your file concerning Nisselson (100-82890) and contains generally the same information from NY 694-S*. It also contained information from the same informant to the effect that Nisselson was a professional fund raiser and a communist who, in the past, had been in contact with top level Party members.

In respect to the 5/22/56 information, your attention is directed to the New York report of SA Thomas J. Croke, Jr., 6/26/56, concerning Nisselson which reveals that the information referred to above, as contained on page two of the LHM, is information which informant had obtained from another individual.

FROM : SAC, NEW YORK (100-153735)

ReBulet to New York, 11/18/64; O-1 Form, 12/31/64.

[redacted] who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised SA JOHN F. LANGTRY on 1/5/65, that no new date has been set, at this time, for the State of the Race Conference which had previously been scheduled for January, 1965, in Washington, D.C. The informant stated that A. PHILIP RANDOLPH, President of the NALC, is scheduled to call a National Board meeting of the NALC in the near future to discuss and possibly set a date for this conference.

CIRM

Previous communications submitted by your Office under the caption "Picketing of Second District, Chicago Police Department, by SNCC, Chicago, Illinois, January 6, 1965; Racial Matters," indicate that this situation may continue to be a source of racial agitation. It is imperative that your Office alert informants and sources who are in a position to furnish information concerning possible efforts of the Communist Party or other subversive organizations to influence or control the racial groups involved. In addition, you should attempt to identify all individuals in a leadership capacity or in a position of influence in order that you may determine whether these individuals have any subversive affiliations.

All positive information developed through your investigation should be included in the next CIRM report submitted by your Office. Any significant developments pertaining to subversive influence should be submitted promptly under the CIRM caption.

For information of Atlanta, the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee Freedom Center, Chicago, Illinois, sponsored a rally held on 1/7/65 to protest the fatal shooting of Richard Gardner, a Negro youth, by a Chicago police officer on 1/4/65. Approximately 125 individuals attended the rally which was described as being antipolice in nature. An inquest into this matter has been scheduled for 1/23/65. Atlanta should be alert for any information regarding this matter developed through informants and sources connected with Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee. Furnish any information pertaining to subversive influence or control of this situation to the Bureau and Chicago under the CIRM caption.

SARGEANT CAULFIELD, because they cannot hear from him. BURNHAM inquired as to whether CAULFIELD had a car and inquired into the possibility of obtaining the assistance of a CP member in getting a car for CAULFIELD to use.

MARGERT BURNHAM said that HOSEA HUDSON wanted the CP group in Louisiana not to feel neglected. BURNHAM requested the CP members in Louisiana to contact CAULFIELD and to advise HOSEA HUDSON by mail, the results of this contact.

MARGERT BURNHAM claimed that she was the daughter of LEO (probably LOUIS) BURNHAM and DOROTHY BURNHAM. She claimed to be engaged in voter registration work with the individual called LEE, near Natchez, Mississippi.

BURNHAM said she was supposed to contact CAULFIELD at Baton Rouge, La., but did not have time to make this contact. BURNHAM did not furnish any information as to what the CP sent CAULFIELD or any plans that were made by "JIM."

The informant advised that MARGERT BURNHAM is [redacted] b6 b7C. The informant stated that the individual called LEE is about [redacted], who claimed he lives in Mississippi, [redacted]

The Jackson Division is requested to check the indices of that office to determine whether MARGERT or MARGARET BURNHAM is engaged in any voter registration activities in the vicinity of Natchez, Miss.

In the event the files do not contain any information, will through established sources, endeavor to determine whether any individual by that name is engaged in voter registration activities in the vicinity of Natchez, Mississippi.

The New York Division is requested to furnish Jackson and New Orleans with any information contained in the files of that office concerning MARGERT or MARGARET BURNHAM.

SUBJECT: CIRM

Rebulet 11/18/64.

All logical sources of the Boston Office have been contacted in an effort to identify the Party members from the Boston area who might attend the proposed national conference of top Negro leaders scheduled to be held in January, 1965 at Washington, D. C. To date, however, none of these sources have been able to supply any pertinent data including [redacted] b7D [redacted] in the CPUSA, [redacted] District.

[redacted] is [redacted] EDWARD TEIXEIRA of Boston who is considered to be a member of the CP National Negro Commission. As recently as 1/3/65, however, TEIXEIRA has not indicated he is going to the conference or made any mention of it. It should be noted that TEIXEIRA during Dec., 1964 was one of four CP members brought before the SACB at Boston and he recently lost his job.

[redacted] who has some contact with Mrs. VERNICE GABRIEL, a Negro CP member from Boston, has been unable to obtain information showing that she might be planning to go to Washington, D. C.

Efforts are continuing to obtain further particulars concerning this matter and upon receipt of any pertinent developments the Bureau will be notified forthwith.

The New York Office is listed as office of origin as that office is office of origin in the case Communist Party, USA.

The Bureau was advised that the delay in submission of this report resulted from the large volume of material forwarded to the Jackson Office by other divisions which required extensive review and correlation.

Information regarding certain individuals is not included in this report as complete data, suitable for inclusion in this report, has not yet been received from other offices. This data will be set forth in subsequent reports.

The pretext used to contact the secretary of FRANK A. ANGLIN, JR., Chicago, Illinois, was conducted by SA JAMES A. MAY, utilizing a telephone pretext of being a reporter for a local newspaper.

The suitable pretext referred to in connection with the Mississippi Summer Project participation of one EUGENE CRANE, attorney, with offices at 7 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, and residence at 1208 Mulford, Evanston, Illinois, was conducted by SA AUGUST J. BAUMGARDNER on 9-29-64, who represented himself as a reporter for a local newspaper at Chicago, Illinois.

The pretext used regarding DAVID M. NOVICK in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin, was a representation by SA GEORGE V. HUEBSCH of a fictitious person named "JACK STARR" of Elmira, New York, who spent part of the 1964 summer in Greenville with DAVID.

Title: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

APPROPRIATE AGENCIES AND FIELD OFFICES ADVISED BY ROUTING SLIP(S) OF plan DATE 5-19-82 mrb

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNIST

Synopsis: No information has developed of Communist strategy and tactics regarding Mississippi Summer Project (MSP), a program produced by the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO) during the Summer, 1964, to urge Negro voter registration in Mississippi. COFO emerged as a state- wide organization during the Fall, 1963, from numerous disparate racial-type groups, including the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), and the NAACP. COFO encouraged and sponsored massive volunteer participation within Mississippi of persons, approximately 700, "dedicated to the elimination of racial oppression," including group participation of such organizations as the Lawyers Constitutional Defense Committee (LCDC) and the Medical Committee for Human Rights (MCHR). Communist participation in MSP is revealed through identification of individuals known to have past or present subversive affiliations. Identities of some of these participants in MSP including descriptive summaries are set forth herein. U

   Mississippi Summer Project - 1964

[JN T-1] made available on June 4, 1964, a copy of a typewritten communication captioned "Prospectus for the Mississippi Freedom Summer," a part of which is quoted as follows:

> "A program is planned for this summer which will involve the massive participation of Americans dedicated to the elimination of racial oppression. Scores of college students, law students, medical students, teachers, professors, ministers, technicians, folk artists and lawyers from all over the country have already volunteered to work in Mississippi this summer -- and hundreds of others are being recruited.
> "This summer's work in Mississippi is sponsored by COFO, the Council of Federated Organizations, which includes the Student Non-violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), and the NAACP, as well as Mississippi community groups. Within the state COFO has made extensive preparations since mid-January to develop structured programs which will put to creative use the talents and energies of the hundreds of expected summer volunteers."

The "New Orleans States Item," a daily newspaper of general circulation published at New Orleans, Louisiana, in the edition of June 19, 1964, carried an article captioned "First Student Rights Due in Mississippi" which revealed that the first group of approximately 700 volunteers was scheduled to arrive in Mississippi from a special training session held at Western College for Women, Oxford, Ohio. According to this article the purpose of the project was to assist Negroes in voter registration as well as self-help endeavors.

JN T-2 advised on December 7, 1964, that the Mississippi Summer Project had its inception as a production of COFO, after the formation of that organization from numerous disparate racial-type groups which had operated in Mississippi before the Fall of 1963. He also stated that WILEY BRANTON, organizer, Southern Regional Council, Atlanta, Georgia, traveled to Mississippi during this period to facilitate liaison among racial groups and explained, BRANTON was chiefly responsible for the eventual formation of COFO. According to this source, during 1963, the NAACP in Mississippi offered "token support" to COFO regarding voter registration matters, since apparently both organizations were devoted to the same ends.

A. COUNCIL OF FEDERATED ORGANIZATIONS (COFO)

[redacted] Jackson, Mississippi, furnished on March 26, 1964, a pamphlet entitled "Mississippi Summer Project" which set forth the following information descriptive of the inception of COFO:

> "In August, 1961, SNCC went into Mississippi under the leadership of Project Director ROBERT MOSES. Overcoming violence and hardship, SNCC workers have been able to expand their activity into all five of Mississippi's congressional districts. By Fall, 1963, SNCC had joined with CORE, SCLC, the NAACP and many voting and civic groups in forming a statewide organization, the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO), and through COFO conducted a Freedom Vote campaign in which 80,000 disenfranchised Negroes cast ballots for AARON HENRY for Governor."

MM 55

Under a title heading "Research Project" this pamphlet outlined one of the goals of this organization as follows:

> "The program of voter registration and political organization will attempt to change the fundamental structure of political and economic activity in Mississippi."

There are enumerated below identities of individuals who are or were associated with the Mississippi Summer Project under the sponsorship of COFO, including descriptive summaries concerning each.

JOEL BERNARD

An article appearing in the Wisconsin State Journal," a daily newspaper at Madison, Wisconsion, dated July 11, 1964, reflected that JOEL BERNARD, who had been in the State of Mississippi since June 21, 1964, had been arrested along with two other persons at Columbus, Mississippi, on a charge of Trespassing and Public Profanity. An article appearing in the July 7, 1964, edition of "The Kingston Daily Freeman," a Kingston, New York, newspaper, described BERNARD as a history major at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York.

JN T-3 advised on May 17, 1964, that JOEL CHARLES BERNARD, a white male, was born on [redacted] at New York, New York, to ALLEN and JACQUELINE BERNARD, residing [redacted]. Informant also advised that ALLEN BERNARD was married on August 31, 1943, to JACQUELINE DE STEYIS and on April 8, 1957, was divorced from her.

JN T-4 advised on May 20, 1957, that membership of JACQUELINE BERNARD in the Communist Party, USA, was then in the process of being transferred from the Chelsea Section of theCommunist Party to the Village Section of the Party in New York City as of May 5, 1957.

JN T-5 advised on February 25, 1952, that during December, 1949, ALLEN BERNARD, [redacted] New York, renewed his subscription to "The Worker" for one year. (U)

"The Worker" is an east coast communist newspaper.

The Communist Party, USA, has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

LAURA JOAN BOWMAN

Information received from the Oxford, Mississippi, Police Department that BOWMAN was stopped by this Police Department and she admitted being a voter registration worker.

JN T-6, another Governmental Agency, furnished a petition sent to the White House which was received on July 12, 1962. The petition was circulated by the Committee for Constitutional Liberties (CCL), Room 401, 942 Market Street, San Francisco, California, and read as follows:

> "We, the undersigned, believing that enforcement of the Internal Security Act of 1950 (McCarran Act) will endanger American democracy, urge that the power of your office be used to insure its non-enforcement and repeal."

A LAURA JEAN BOWMAN, [redacted] was one of the signers of the above petition.

A characterization of the CCL is contained in the appendix.

JOHN QUINN ~~BRISBEN~~

BRISBEN was arrested by officers of the Mississippi Highway Safety Patrol on September 1, 1964, and charged with having improper driver's license, no inspection sticker, and for improper license on his vehicle. BRISBEN was released on bond on September 2, 1964.

JN T-7 advised in May, 1961, that the name J. QUINN BRISBEN, [redacted] was included among names and addresses then maintained at the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) office, Room 329, 799 Broadway, New York, New York. In September, 1961, this informant also advised that the above name was also maintained in records of the FPCC at the above address as of that time. MEMBER

JN T-8 advised on September 7, 1961, that the name J. QUINN BRISBEN, [redacted] was included in a list of "members or subscribers" in the Chicago area which was furnished August 28, 1961, to the Chicago Chapter of the FPCC by the Acting Executive Secretary, FPCC, 799 Broadway, New York, New York. (U)

A characterization of the FPCC is contained in the appendix.

JACQUES MICHAEL ~~CALMA~~, aka Jacque ~~Calma~~ CALIF. MISS

On October 30, 1964, EMANUEL J. BRISKER of St. Louis advised the St. Louis Office of the FBI that he, CALMA, and two other individuals were en route to Canton, Mississippi.

The records of the Credit Bureau of Palo Alto, California, as of September 1, 1964, reflect that CALMA was a student at the California Institute of Technology, Pasadena, in 1960 and that his father, MR. & MRS. FRANK CALMA was an Economic Analyst for American Bituminals and Asphalt Company, San Francisco, California. His mother, PHOEBE CALMA, at one time was a teacher in the San Jose, California, school district.

JN 100-57

JN T-9 advised in July, 1956, that one FRANK CALMA, [redacted] apparently was on the mailing list of the Pittsburg Division of the Committee to End Sedition Laws, an organization established by a Communist Party member in 1954 to abolish all state sedition laws. (U)

RUSSELL COOK, Canton, Mississippi, Police Department advised that CALMA had registered with the Canton Police Department on June 29, 1964, as a student and research assistant working as a Federal Projects Informant. He gave COOK the names of FRANK and PHOEBE CALMA 3715 Lindere Drive, as persons to contact in an emergency.

STOKELY CARMICHAEL

(U) JN T-10 advised on June 15, 1964, that among individuals who had filed applications for attendance at the orientation conference then taking place at Western College for Women, Oxford, Ohio, and had been accepted was one STOKELY CARMICHAEL, residing 1810 Amethyst Street, Bronx, New York.

(U) JN T-11 advised on September 24, 1963, that among those individuals at this high school who in his opinion had been "devoted to left wing activities" was one STOKELY CARMICHAEL, 1810 Amethyst Street, Bronx, New York, a graduate of the class of 1960. According to this source CARMICHAEL, a Negro, was a close friend to EUGENE DENNIS, JR., son of the former General Secretary of the Communist Party, USA, EUGENE DENNIS, now deceased.

U.S.A.

(U) JN T-12 advised on September 24, 1963, that he was aware one STOKELY CARMICHAEL, a graduate of the class of 1960, and participant in freedom rides and other progressive movements by CARMICHAEL's own admission, was a close friend to the son of now deceased but former General

Secretary of the Communist Party, USA, EUGENE DENNIS, namely, EUGENE DENNIS, JR. According to this source, CARMICHAEL, a Negro, resided while in New York at 1810 Amethyst Street, Bronx, New York.

JOHN CARDNER CAUGHLAN, aka John Couglan

JOHN L. HAMILTON, [redacted], [redacted] advised in a letter to the FBI dated July 14, 1964, that he had noted in a local paper in Washington that one JOHN COUGLAN, a lawyer, who he claimed was an old resident of Bellevue noted for his leftist views, was going to Mississippi to "lend a hand to the Adjitators."

JN T-13 advised on July 2, 1964, that JOHN CAUGHLAN, a Seattle attorney prominently associated with communist causes, had gone to Mississippi.

CHARLES CLARK HARPER, a member of the Communist Party at Seattle, Washington, from 1943 until he appeared as a Government witness in the Smith Act trial at Seattle in 1953, has advised that on March 19, 1949, a meeting of the 12th District Communist Party was held in Seattle. Discussed at the meeting were difficulties with the "legal Staff" in the nature of "factionalism." HENRY P. HUFF, District Chairman of the Communist Party, advised at meeting that he had had a long meeting with CAUGHLAN who "admitted his anti-Party activity and said that he had permitted himself to get completely off the track."

In a second meeting of the County Board, CAUGHLAN had a complete change of heart and said that he had not realized that his activities could get him expelled from the Party, since the Communist Party was his whole life, according to HARPER.

In 1948, the following people testified that they knew CAUGHLAN to be a member of the Communist Party from 1937 to 1940 before a hearing conducted by the Washington State Un-American Activities Committee.

MRS. ISABELLE HARRIS COSTIGAN, Tranquility, California, former admitted member of the Communist Party.

MRS. KATHRYN FOGG, Seattle, Washington, admitted former member of the Communist Party.

WARD F. WARREN, Seattle, Washington, former member of the Communist Party.

SARAH MARY ELDRIDGE, Seattle, Washington, former admitted member of the Communist Party.

CALIF

The October 29, 1964, issue of the "San Francisco Examiner," a San Francisco daily newspaper, page two, in an article entitled "S.F. Pacifist Arrested in Dixie" revealed that NORMAN CHASTAIN, pacifist and civil rights worker in San Francisco, was arrested at Columbus, Mississippi, October 28, 1964, on traffic charges. According to the article, a spokesman of the Freedom Democratic Party said that CHASTAIN was being harassed because of his "get out-the-vote activities" among Negroes. The article revealed that CHASTAIN was released on $32 bond after being booked for driving a car with improper license plates and without a Mississippi license.

JN T-14 advised during the period from June 14, 1963, to March 23, 1964, CHASTAIN, then a guest speaker at a meeting of the W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco, attended two other meetings of this club, as well as a west coast conference sponsored by the Bay area W.E.B. DuBois Clubs. (U)

Characterizations of the W.E.B. DuBois Club of San Francisco and the Bay area W.E.B. DuBois Clubs are contained in the appendix.

U
[JN T-15, another Federal Agency which conducts applicant and personnel-type investigations,] set forth information that on March 27, 1957, CHASTAIN stated he had been reading communist and socialist literature extensively since he was 15 years of age. CHASTAIN also stated that he firmly believes socialism is the best form of Government although "he concurred with communist line that force should be used if other approaches are unsuccessful."

FRANK THOMAS ~~CIECIORKA~~, JR. CALIF

Sheriff ALBERT BLAIR, Tate County Sheriff's Office, Senatobia, Mississippi, advised on October 27, 1964, that he had two COFO workers by the names of FRANK CIECIORKA and ~~BARBARA~~ BLOOMFIELD in his office the previous week. BLAIR stated that these two individuals told him that they were intending to set up a Freedom School in Tate County, Mississippi, and that both of them currently reside at COFO Headquarters, Rust Avenue, Holly Springs, Mississippi.

U
[JN T-16, another Government agency which conducts personnel investigations, made available on January 6, 1963,] results of an interview with a former schoolmate of CIECIORKA's at San Jose State College, San Jose, California. CIECIORKA informed this schoolmate that although there was no branch of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) in San Jose, he became a member of the committee by sending membership dues to the committee in San Francisco. The schoolmate went on to say that sometime during April, 1961, CIECIORKA indicated to him a willingness to go to Cuba to fight for FIDEL CASTRO and his cause as well as a willingness to support such uprisings by armed efforts in South America.

A characterization of the FPCC, Bay Area Chapter, is contained in the appendix.

JN T-17 reported on February 1, 1962, that CIECIORKA had a yearly, weekend subscription to the "People's World" which would expire on November 25, 1962.

The "People's World" is a west coast communist newspaper published in San Francisco.

JN T-18 reported on April 25, 1963, that on April 21, 1963, CIECIORKA attended a fund-raising benefit for the "People's World" at 460 East Washington Street, San Jose, California. (U)

Informant reported on January 22, 1964, that during January, 1964, CIECIORKA was contacted by two members of the Santa Clara County Communist Party for the purpose of determining whether he should join the Communist Party. Decision was made that CIECIORKA would be more useful to the communist cause if he did not join the Communist Party. (U)

JN T-19 reported on April 17, 1964, that CIECIORKA had mailed letters of invitation to individuals in the San Jose area to attend the first meeting of the W.E.B. DuBois Club to be held in San Jose, California, April 20, 1964. (U)

MICHAEL CLURMAN

MICHAEL S. CLURMAN
MIKE CLURMAN

The name of MICHAEL CLURMAN, [redacted], appears on a COFO list dated July 3, 1964.

During February, 1962, LORA DECKER, Registrar's Office, University of Wisconsin (UW), Madison, Wisconsin, advised that her files showed that one MICHAEL SAMUEL CLURMAN, listing his permanent residence as [redacted], entered the UW as a student in September, 1961. She said CLURMAN claimed he was born [redacted]

BROOKLYN, N.Y.

[redacted] at Brooklyn, New York, the son of MR & MRS. MORTON PAUL CLURMAN, a management consultant, and FRANCES CLURMAN, a laboratory technician. CLURMAN graduated from the Croton-Harmon High School in June, 1961.

The 1961-62 UW student directory listed one MICHAEL S. CLURMAN, a first year Bachelor of Arts student, living in Adams Hall, a university dormitory, and gave CLURMAN's home address as [redacted].

During the period October, 1961, through February, 1962, JN T-20 advised that MIKE CLURMAN a UW student living at Adams Hall, attended five meetings of the Wisconsin Socialist Club (WSC), Madison, and was on the mailing list of that organization in October, 1961, and January, 1962.

A characterization of the WSC appears in the appendix of this report.

During February, 1954, MORTON CLURMAN advised FBI Agents in New York City that he belonged to the Young Communist League (YCL) for 8 months while he attended the City College of New York in 1937. He said he joined the YCL for ideological reasons but left it when he realized that each action taken was dictated not by the will of individual members but by the Communist Party which itself received orders from the Communist Party in Russia. MORTON CLURMAN added that when he left the YCL he prepared a leaflet denouncing that group and the Communist Party and distributed about 3,000 copies of it.

The YCL has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On March 15, 1962, JN T-20 advised that although MIKE CLURMAN continued to be active in WSC meetings, he also gave every evidence of being a "social democrat" i.e., a socialist who believed in democracy and the American system of lawful change when it is desired by the majority.

THERESA X DEL POZZO WISC N.Y.

THERESA E. DEL POZZO MISS

ALICIA KAPLOW, Chairman of SNCC at the University of Wisconsin, advised on November 18, 1964, that DEL POZZO, after speaking at a meeting sponsored by the student equality fellowship at the University of Wisconsin on November 12, 1964, returned to Jackson, Mississippi, where she intends to remain for at least a year. Her mailing address is [redacted] 1017 Lynch Street is the address of COFO at Jackson, Mississippi.

[JN T-21 stated on June 20, 1960,] that on June 11, 1960, DEL POZZO attended a party sponsored by Advance, held in New York City, on June 17, 1960, a Peace Symposium sponsored by Advance, and on June 18, 1960, a dance in New York City sponsored by Advance.

A characterization of Advance is contained in the appendix.

[JN T-20 reported] that an organizational meeting of the Wisconsin Socialist Club held on the night of September 17, 1961, was attended by DEL POZZO. The same informant advised that she attended meetings of the Club throughout the remaining months of 1961 and the beginning of 1962 and the informant advised that she appeared to be a member.

The National Convention of the National Student Association was held on the campus of the University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin, from August 20-30, 1961. It was observed that there were several tables containing literature from various groups some of which literature was block stamped on the back "This material was not prepared by the U.S. National Student Association; nor do the views presented necessarily represent the views of the National Student Congress."

Included in this group was a mimeographed letter on the stationery of the Midwest Student Civil Liberties Co-Ordinating Committee, 1212 East 59th Street, Chicago, Illinois, containing a message addressed to "Dear Friend" calling attention to the fact that FRANK WILKINSON and CARL BRADEN were presently in jail for refusing to answer the questions of the House Un-American Activities Committee. The letter pointed out that the two refused to answer questions regarding their political beliefs and associations on the grounds that the questions violated the First Amendment. In closing, a petition urging clemency for them was referred to, which was on the same desk. THERESA DEL POZZO was one of the signers of the petition.

A characterization of the Midwest Student Civil Liberties Co-Ordinating Committee appears in the appendix.

(C)(U) [JN T-22 advised on May 8, 1961, that] a meeting of the Midwest Student Civil Liberties Conference was held on the campus of the University of Chicago on May 5-6, 1961. In attendance was a white female, first name THERESA, who is a student at UW and whose home in New York City.

According to JN T-8 on December 4, 1961, a meeting of the Midwest Region Conference of the U.S. Festival Committee was held on December 2, 1964, at which time it was announced that the University of Wisconsin had established a temporary Festival Committee, and was in the process of being offically registered. DEL POZZO was in attendance at that meeting. ~~(C)~~ (U)

A characterization of the U.S. Festival Committee appears in the appendix.

Concerning CARL BRADEN, MRS. ALBERTA AHEARN, [redacted], a self-admitted former member of the Communist Party, Louisville, Kentucky, in testifying on December 11 and 13, 1964, in Jefferson County, Kentucky Criminal Court in a state sedition prosecution against CARL JAMES BRADEN, identified BRADEN and his wife, ANNE BRADEN, as having been known to her as members of the Communist Party in Louisville, Kentucky, from January, 1951, until shortly before the time of her testimony.

Concerning FRANK WILKINSON, JN T-23 advised on September 17, 1952, that FRANK WILKINSON was a Communist Party member as of September, 1952.

STANLEY FAULKNER

JN T-24 advised on July 22, 1964, that on July 21, 1964, at a meeting of the Executive Board of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAHUAC) held in New York City, STANLEY FAULKNER commented that he was going to Jackson, Mississippi, to offer his services to the civil rights workers there. He stated that he would leave New York City on July 25, 1964, for Mexico, where he will stay for four days, following which he would travel to Jackson, Mississippi. (U)

Informant stated that FAULKNER, who is a lawyer, did not reveal his destination in Mexico nor his mode of travel. Informant further stated that FAULKNER's comments were "off the cuff" comments, and there was nothing to indicate from FAULKNER nor any of the others in attendance at this meeting that FAULKNER would, in any way, be a representative or officially connected with the NYCAHUAC in this venture. (U)

A characterization of the NYCAHUAC is contained in the appendix of this report.

The "New York Guild Lawyer," official publication of the New York City Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild (NLG) issue of December, 1958, page 11, sets forth the officers and National Executive Board of the NLG. STANLEY FAULKNER is listed as a member of the Executive Board from New York.

A characterization of the National Lawyers Guild appears in the appendix of this report.

ELMER FRANCIS GALT

JN T-25 advised on October 8, 1964, that ELMER FRANCIS GALT, who had been around Minneapolis a couple of weeks ago, has gone to Meridian, Mississippi, to work on the Mississippi Summer Project. (U)

Informant on January 30, 1964, advised that at a Youth for Progressive Action (YPA) meeting on January 29, 1964, GALT was elected treasurer of that organization. On June 26, 1964, informant advised that GALT has been an active member of the YPA. On May 1, 1964, informant advised that on April 30, 1964, FRANCIS GALT had stated he was from Estherville, Iowa; that he had three brothers; and that he and his brothers had spent time in a Federal prison for failure to register for Selective Service. (U)

A characterization of the YPA is contained in the appendix of this report.

On June 29, 1964, MR. EUGENE BRUGH, Indian Police Office, Mandaree, North Dakota, advised that FRANCIS and LESTER GALT, brothers, are the sons of a minister at Mandaree, North Dakota.

LESTER PAUL GALT

On August 1, 1964, SHERWIN KAPLAN, COFO representative, telephonically contacted the Jackson Office to advise that a group of COFO summer volunteers were going to visit various Mississippi cities to present a performance of "In White America." LESTER GALT, care of Reverend GALT, Exire, Iowa, was among those named as participating in this performance.

JN T-25 on March 18, 1964, advised that as of February 20, 1964, LESTER GALT was considered by him a member of the Youth for Progressive Action (YPA) in Minneapolis, Minnesota. LESTER GALT, according to informant, is believed to be the brother of one FRANCIS GALT.

JAMES PAUL GARRETT

MISS

At a public meeting of Discussion Unlimited, Incorporated, held in the school auditorium of the Fairfax High School, 7850 Melrose Avenue, Los Angeles, California, on October 16, 1964, subject said that for the most part he worked on "Freedom Registrations," but "We also established voters and political educational classes." "Our project started up with five workers, and ended up with only four, because our project director was put in jail. I ended up as Director of voters' registrations, but that was no problem, because I only had myself to direct. The other workers were busy teaching 'Freedom Schools'." He concluded his talk by stating, "The best thing for me to do is go back to Mississippi, so I am!"

A characterization of Discussion Unlimited, Incorporated, appears in the appendix of this report.

JN T-26 on June 18, 1964, advised that subject attended a fund-raising affair given by the West Adams Communist Party Club, at 3048 South Victoria Avenue, Los Angeles, on May 30, 1964. During this affair, DOROTHY HEALEY, Chairman, Southern California District Communist Party, was collecting funds to help defray the expenses of a trip to Mississippi for GARRETT. (U) u/c [JN T-27 on August 5, 1964, furnished information indicating] that EUGENE GOGAL was one of a number of individuals from the Los Angeles, California, area who was then participating in the Mississippi Summer Project in the State of Mississippi.

u/c [JN T-28 and JN T-29 on October 2, 1964, advised] that EUGENE GOGOL was then a member of the Los Angeles Local-News and Letters Committees, an alternate member of the News and Letters Committees (NLC) National Editorial Board and NLC National Youth Chairman.

A characterization of the Los Angeles Local-News and Letters Committees appears in the appendix of this report.

BARRY ANDREW ~~GOLDSTEIN~~ [redacted] N.Y.

BARRY A. GOLDSTEIN

On July 20, 1964, Detective PAUL HALE, Gulfport Police Department, Gulfport, Mississippi, advised that subject was one of three individuals arrested by Sheriff EDWARD MC DONNELL, Harrison County Sheriff's Office, after they refused to stop their demonstration in front of the driveway to the office of the Chancery Clerk, Harrison County Courthouse. These individuals were a portion of a group of COFO workers who were demonstrating and only three individuals were arrested.

u/c [JN T-30, another Government agency which maintains personnel records, in September, 1952, advised that] ISADORE GOLDSTEIN, who was born September 18, 1907, at New York, New York, and in 1942 resided at 10 Monroe Street, is married to RUBY GOLDSTEIN, nee RISTRACK, and has a son, BARRY A. GOLDSTEIN, who was born [redacted]

N.Y.

In a Statement of Personal History, DD Form 398, executed by ISADORE GOLDSTEIN on May 23, 1951, he indicated he then resided at 16 Monroe Street and had been at that address since October, 1941. He also listed previous residences as 172 East 7th Street, New York City, from September, 1937, to October, 1941; 102 East 4th Street, New York City, from March, 1937, to September, 1937; East 7th Street, New York City, from October, 1936, to March, 1937; and 40 Monroe Street, New York City, from February, 1936, to October, 1941.

On February 17, 1951, ISADORE GOLDSTEIN, when interviewed by a Special Agent of the FBI, advised that he became acquainted with JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG in approximately 1946, while residing at Knickerbocker Village, New York City. He stated that he had discussed with MR. ROSENBERG the possibility of becoming a partner in the G and R Engineering Company, which company was to begin operations when MR. ROSENBERG's brother-in-law, DAVID G. GREENGLASS returned to New York, New York, following his discharge from the U.S. Army. MR. GOLDSTEIN related that he was eventually taken into this company as a partner in September, 1946, and as such maintained the records of the company.

MR. GOLDSTEIN stated that he continued as a business partner of JULIUS ROSENBERG, DAVID and BERNARD GREENBLASS until the latter partof 1947, when he was notified via mail that the other partners had agreed to pay his share in the company and that his services were terminated. He added that his services were required until such time as the other partners were able to employ a full time accountant.

JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG were convicted in the U.S. District Court, Southern District of New York, on March 29, 1951, of conspiracy to commit espionage on behalf of the Soviet Union. The Rosenbergs were sentenced to death April 5, 1951.

JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG were legally executed at Sing Sing Prison, Ossining, New York, on June 19, 1953.

The records of the Board of Elections, Manhattan, New York, reviewed in Spetember, 1952, reflected that ISADORE GOLDSTEIN, 172 East 7th Street, New York, New York, registered with the American Labor Party (ALP) in 1938 and 1939; that ISADORE GOLDSTEIN, 10 Monroe Street, registered with the ALP in 1943, and that ISADORE GOLDSTEIN, 16 Monroe Street, registered with the ALP from 1946 to 1950.

A characterization of the ALP appears in the appendix of this report.

In 1952 JN T-15, another Government Agency which conducts personnel type investigations, made available information that ISADORE GOLDSTEIN, 172 East 7th Street, New York, New York, signed Communist Party Nominating Petitions (CPNP) on August 8, 1939 and January 15, 1940.

On October 31, 1952, DAVID GREENGLASS, brother-in-law of JULIUS ROSENBERG, mentioned above, and a self-confessed Russian espionage agent, who received a sentence of 15 years for conspiracy to commit espionage, furnished the following signed statement to SA W. JAMES WOOD concerning ISADORE GOLDSTEIN.

"Lewisburg, Penna.
October 31, 1952

"I, DAVID GREENGLASS, made the following statement to W.JAMES WOOD, whom I know to be a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. I have no objection to the use of this statement before a Loyalty Hearing Board and have no objection to the disclosure of my identity.

"I first became acquainted with ISADORE GOLDSTEIN, who was then living in the Knickerbocker Apartments in New York City, in April, 1946, shortley after my discharge from the U.S. Army. I was introduced to him by my brother-in-law, JULIUS ROSENBERG. In that same month JULIUS ROSENBERG, my brother BERNARD GREENGLASS, GOLDSTEIN, and I formed a partnership known as the G & R Engineering Company, a machine shop. He originally contributed $1,000 to the partnership and eventually his, GOLDSTEIN's, contribution to the partnership was approximately $2,000.

"GOLDSTEIN only worked at the company on week-ends and on occasional nights. I visited him in his home on two or three occasions, but our relationship was mostly business. GOLDSTEIN lived in an apartment building in Knickerbocker Village located diagonally across from the one in which JULIUS ROSENBERG lived, and some distance away. At the same time he was in partnership in the G & R Engineering Company he was employed by the Army as an auditor.

"I do not know whether GOLDSTEIN was a member of the Communist Party. I did hear him make statements which I thought indicated that he was in sympathy with Russia and communism. I cannot recall any specific statements made by him in this regard, but do recall that he stated he believed in socialism, that he believed Russia to be a socialist country and that it was a good country. I remember asking him on one occasion why he worked for the government and he said that he believed that working for the government was a socialist type of existence.

"In the early part of 1946, GOLDSTEIN recruited me and my brother BERNARD GREENGLASS into joining the International Workers Order. Our reason for joining this organization was to take advantage of the low-cost insurance with the IWO offered.

"I do not know whether GOLDSTEIN was engaged with JULIUS ROSENBERG in espionage I do not know how long ROSENBERG had known GOLDSTEIN, but do know that my sister ETHEL ROSENBERG, and her husband, JULIUS ROSENBERG, lived with some relative of GOLDSTEIN's during the early part of their marriage

"In the summer of 1947 we decided to form the Pitt Machine Products Company and wanted to take in aother partner. Accordingly, we bought out GOLDSTEIN's interest and I did not see him after that.

"I have read this statement and is true to the best of my present recollection.

/S/ DAVID GREENGLASS

Witnessed: W. JAMES WOOD, Special Agent, FBI, Lewisburg, Pa."

EARL HARRISON GOULD

EARL H GOULD

In an article appearing in the June 26, 1964, issue of the "Chicago Tribune," a Chicago daily newspaper, it was reported that EARL HARRISON GOULD, [redacted], had been accepted as a participant in the Mississippi Summer Project.

JN T-8 advised February 5, 1962, that one EARL GOULD attended on February 2, 1962, a meeting of the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights. (U)

A characterization of the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights appears in the appendix.

Sergeant MC GRATH, Chicago Police Department, Chicago, Illinois, on May 4, 1964, advised that one EARL GOULD had participated in a demonstration sponsored by the Industrial Workers of the World, on May 1, 1964, at 23 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Illinois.

The Industrial Workers of the World has been designated by the Attorney General pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

JOANNE GRANT

b6

[redacted], who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that on August 8, 1964, he placed a telephone call to the COFO at Meridian, Mississippi, asking for JOANNE GRANT, newspaper writer. According to [redacted] he was told that at that time she was visiting a church in Meridian, Mississippi, watching a play entitled "White America." He was told that she could be reached at this church located at 610 38th Avenue in Meridian, telephone 482-2986.

On the following day, [redacted] called the Jackson, Mississippi, office of COFO and again asked for JOANNE GRANT. On that occasion he was told that she was visiting Tougaloo College in Tougaloo, Mississippi

JN T-31 advised on April 10, 1964, that during a meeting of the Youth Action Union (YAU) held on March 7, 1964, at the Elysian Park Lodge, Elysian Park, Los Angeles, California, MR. FRANK WILKINSON of the Citizens Committee to Preserve American Freedoms (CCPAF) addressed the meeting stating that he was happy to report he had talked with JOANNE GRANT in New York where she was employed by the National Guardian as a writer on civil rights matters. According to WILKINSON, GRANT indicated to him that she would be in Los Angeles for a week during the first week in May, 1964, and that she was eager to speak before student bodies on college campuses in the Southern California area.

C.P. MEMBER

WILKINSON indicated he considered GRANT to be one of the key leaders in the civil rights movement in New York, adding that she had been jailed in Alabama, Mississippi and Georgia. He considers her to be the most effective speaker they could get to come to the Los Angeles community concerning the civil rights issues. He stated that she was a young attractive person who really knows what she is talking about and was the type of person "we" have long wanted to obtain to speak on college campuses

The YAU and the CCPAF are characterized in the appendix of this report.

The May 7, 1964, edition of the "Valley Times," a daily newspaper published in North Hollywood, California, and circulated in the San Fernando Valley areas, contained an article by staff writer PHIL JORDAN captioned "Woman Tells Plans for Rights in Dixie." According to this article, JOANNE GRANT outlined plans for summer civil rights activities in the South before a group of more than 100 individuals attending a meeting of the Valley Chapter, Women for Legislative Action (WLA). According to the article, GRANT said that "more than 1,000 students are preparing to go to Mississippi this summer to help in the registration of Negro voters and to act as remedial teachers. Mississippi police will be ready. They're even getting tanks." Despite this, she added, students would take only nonviolent action, although she admitted she feared there would be bloodshed.

After her talk, MISS GRANT answered questions submitted in writing, but either wasn't given or declined to answer one asking if she were the "JOANNE GRANT" who in 1960 did "not care" to deny to the House Committee on Un-American Activities that she was a member of the Communist Party.

A characterization of the Women for Legislative Action and the National Guardian appears in the appendix of this report.

JN T-32 advised on May 11, 1964, that an open meeting was held in Room 3517 of the Student Union Building on the campus of the University of California at Los Angeles on Friday, May 8, 1964, which was attended by approximately 30 persons. This meeting was addressed by WILLIAM C. TAYLOR, who identified himself as a Communist candidate for election to the position of Los Angeles County Supervisor.

During this meeting it was announced that on the following Sunday, May 10, 1964, a meeting would be held at the home of FRANK WILKINSON, 1075 South Redondo, Los Angeles California, at 3 p.m. which would feature a talk on civil rights by JOANNE GRANT of the National Guardian. This same informant advised that on May 10, 1964, a note was hanging from the door at the home of FRANK WILKINSON which indicated that the Youth Action meeting scheduled for that date had been cancelled.

JN T-33 on December 17, 1958, advised that JOANNE GRANT was identified on December 10, 1958, as a member in good standing of the Communist Party.

JN T-34 on March 30, 1959, advised that a meeting sponsored by the New York State Communist Party for Communist Party youth members and non-Communist Party progressive youth was held on March 28, 1959, and that JOANNE GRANT was among those present. (U)

On October 28, 1959, HERBERT ROMERSTEIN, [redacted] a self-admitted former Communist Party member from February, 1947, to May, 1959, advised that JOANNE GRANT was Executive Secretary of the United States Festival Committee, sponsors of the Seventh World Youth Festival, as of June 13, 1959.

A characterization of the Seventh World Youth Festival is contained in the appendix of this report.

Under the caption of World Youth Festivals (1949 and 1959) JOANNE GRANT appeared before the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) in Washington, D.C., on February 5, 1960, and refused to answer questions concerning the United States Festival Committee or whether she was a Communist Party member, pleading protection under the Fifth Amendment of the U.S. Constitution.

JN T-35 advised on March 30, 1960 that JOANNE GRANT was in Cuba for the purpose of attending a conference or convention of a Cuban youth movement which was then being held in that country. (U)

The "New York Times," a New York City daily newspaper issue of July 22, 1960, noted that JOANNE GRANT was elected Secretary of the New York chapter of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC).

JN T-36 on January 29, 1961, made available information reflecting that JOANNE GRANT was a charter member of Advance (U)

JN T-37 advised that GRANT attended numerous meetings of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee during 1961, 1962 and 1963, in New York, New York.

JN T-24 on February 27, 1964, advised that GRANT is a member of the Executive Board, NYCAHUAC, 150 West 34th Street, New York, New York, and is Chairman of the Regional Affairs Committee.

IRIS GREENBERG

WILLIAM HANSEN, Field Representative, SNCC, 714 North Cedar, Pine Bluff, Arkansas, advised on October 16, 1964, IRIS GREENBERG was still working in Mississippi in connection with her volunteer association during the Summer of 1964 with the COFO.

JN T-38 advised late in 1958 that IRIS GREENBERG attended four classes in the development of Marxist philosophy during October and November, 1958. This informant stated on April 9, 1959, that IRIS GREENBERG attended a conference to found a Marxist-Leninist youth organization in New York City. Informant also stated one of the sponsors of this conference was HERBERT APTHEKER, who reportedly attended the conference at the request of the Communist Party.

AUSTRIA

HERBERT APTHEKER testified on July 14, 1954, in U.S. District Court, Eastern District of Pennsylvania, that he held membership in the Communist Party during the period 1939 to 1954.

LAURA DECKER, Registrar's Office, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin, advised on March 12, 1959 that IRIS GREENBERG, a student at this University at that time, had been employed for two years at Camp Kinderland, New York.

Pages two and ten of "The Committee on Un-American Activities, Annual Report for 1955," House Report Number 1648, dated January 17, 1956, originally released January 11, 1956, reflected as follows: "The Communist Management of six camps in New York State was exposed by committee investigations and hearings." Listed among these was Camp Kinderland, a children's camp owned and operated since 1951 by Camp Lakeland, Incorporated, DAVID GREEN and SOL VAIL, Manager and President, respectively of Camp Lakeland, Incorporated, according to this report, "have been active members of the Communist Party."

On October 1, 1959, "The Daily Cardinal," a University of Wisconsin student newspaper, carried an article in which IRIS GREENBERG identified herself as: "a U.S. delegate at the Vienna Youth Festival," a festival held in Austria during the summer of 1959.

"The Milwaukee Journal," in the edition dated August 5, 1959, carried an article datelined Vienna, Austria, which characterized the recently concluded international youth festival held in Austria during the Summer of 1959 as being communist sponsored. b6 b7C

JN T-39 advised on January 13, 1960, that IRIS GREENBERG was recorded as a member of the Wisconsin Socialist Club (WSC) as of September, 1959. (C) U

DAVID GRIFFITHS

An article appearing in the July 1, 1964, issue of the Post Intelligencer, a Seattle, Washington, daily newspaper, indicates that DAVID GRIFFITHS, [redacted] was in Mississippi in connection with the Mississippi Summer Project.

Records of the University of Washington, Seattle, Washington, show GORDON GRIFFITH to be the Acting Executive History Department, and that he has a son, DAVID.

GORDON GRIFFITH

JN T-40 advised on October 27, 1963, that GORDON GRIFFITHS, Professor of History of the University of Washington, was one of the sponsors of the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee.

The name GORDON GRIFFITH, History Department, University of Washington, Seattle, Washington, was among those appearing in the April 16, 1964, issue of the Seattle Times, a daily newspaper, as being against the McCarran Act.

A characterization of the National Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee appears in the appendix of this report.

DAVID CLIFFORD HALL

HUGH POLLARD, desk sergeant, Greenwood Police Department, Greenwood, Mississippi, advised that subject was among the demonstrators arrested by the Greenwood Police Department on July 16, 1964.

The November 22, 1960, edition of the "New Haven Register," a New Haven, Connecticut, daily newspaper, on page 12, contains an article captioned "Clergymen in Area Join In Seeking Sobell Freedom." This article revealed that 17 clergymen from the New Haven, Connecticut, area were among 1,200 ministers and rabbis whose names were listed on a petition presented to President DWIGHT D. EISENHOWER, seeking a new trial or clemency for MORTON SOBELL, then serving a 30-year sentence for conspiracy to commit wartime sabotage. The name of Reverned DAVID C. HALL, of Oxford, Connecticut, was among those listed as a signer to the petition.

MORTON SOBELL was convicted with JULIUS and ETHEL ROSENBERG on March 29, 1951, in the Southern District of New York for conspiracy to commit espionage for the Soviets. On April 5, 1951, MORTON SOBELL was sentenced to a term of 30 years. All his appeals for reversal and new trials in the Court of Appeals, Second Circuit and applications to the Supreme Court for Writs of Certiorari have been denied. SOBELL is currently incarcerated in a U.S. Federal Penitentiary.

SANDRA NANCY HARD

JN T-41 advised on July 27, 1964, that SANDRA HARD had completed her training at the Western College for Women, Oxford, Ohio, as a "Civil Rights worker" and had arrived in Mississippi on June 28, 1964. As of June 30, 1964, HARD s address was in care of LARRY RUBINS, Rust College, Holly Springs, Mississippi.

JN T-42 reported in 1958 that HARD's mother and former stepfather, MARTHA HARD and DONALD WHEELDIN, were members of the Communist Party as late as 1958, at which time they resigned from the Communist Party. Informant commented that DONALD WHEELDIN was formerly a member of the National Committee of the Communist Party.

Another informant, JN T-43 reported in 1963 that SANDRA HARD attended parties to raise funds for the People's World," in January and February, 1959, and January, 1962. (U)

MRS. GLADYS HERSCHEL

The September 9, 1964, edition of the "Chicago Defender," a Chicago, Illinois, area Negro newspaper, reported that MRS. GLADYS HERSCHEL, a white housewife, had recently returned from Mississippi. MRS. HERSCHELL was identified as a former resident of [redacted] who presently resides in [redacted] She reportedly went to Mississippi to assist in civil rights activities at the request of MRS. CLAIR COLINS HARVEY, wife of the Dean of Southern University, who is an acquaintance.

On October 14, 1964, JUNE ROUSE, Garden State Credit Bureau, advised that her records show that ANDREW and GLADYS HERSCHEL reside at [redacted]

JN T-44 reported on January 8, 1959, that in a conversation with MR. HERSCHEL he had made statements, in substance, that there is nothing wrong with the leaders or the people of the Soviet Union.

On November 15, 1962, MRS. BUCKLEY A. MAYNARD, [redacted] advised that as of that date MR. HERSCHEL was unemployed. She further stated that she first met MRS. HERSCHEL three years previously when the latter was engaged in a protest march in front of the Ridgewood Library, which had on display a model of a submarine. MRS. MAYNARD also reported that MRS. HERSCHEL told her that she would like to see about ten million Russian troops land on our shores as this is our only salvation. She also allegedly stated that she hated our democratic form of government and that she does not believe in taxes nor the material things of this world. On another contact with MRS. HERSCHEL, she attempted to engage MRS. MAYNARD's help for the purpose of selling a book in the neighborhood of Glen Rock, New Jersey. A percentage of the royalties obtained from this book were to be used to exonerate ALGER HISS, a convicted perjurer.

MRS. MAYNARD added that in December, 1962, she met MRS. HERSCHEL in a supermarket at which time MRS. HERSCHEL stated that she was flying to Europe in January, 1963, on a Mission for the Women's Strike for Peace (WSP), of which she is an active member. At this time, the subject of Cuba came up and MRS. HERSCHEL stated that the Cubans hate the American people because they were enslaved under BATISTA and now they were free under CASTRO. A near riot in the supermarket was barely averted.

RICHARD HOFFMAN

On July 3, 1964, one RICHARD HOFFMAN, [redacted], who stated he was born on [redacted], and who identified himself as a school teacher at [redacted] telephonically contacted the New York Office of the FBI and stated he expected to go to Mississippi as part of a group of folk singers. He furnished no additional information.

JN T-45 on June 9, 1964, advised that BAYARD RUSTIN had conversed with RICHARD HOFFMAN on that date. HOFFMAN stated he was part of the COFO which was going to Mississippi in July, 1964, and desired to meet with RUSTIN on June 12, 1964.

On June 12, 1964, Special Agents of the FBI observed an unknown male enter 340 West 28th Street, New York City, where HOFFMAN had made arrangements to meet RUSTIN. This unknown individual was observed operating a 1952 Plymouth with a 1964 New York License 7C 3415.

Records of the Bureau of Motor Vehicle, New York City, reflect that New York license 7C 3415 is listed to RICHARD HOFFMAN, born [redacted] who is employed at [redacted].

A review of the 1964 Cross Reference Telephone Directory for the Borough of the Bronx, New York, indicates [redacted] is located at [redacted]

The "New York Herald Tribune" issue of August 14, 1963, page 7, column one, contains an article captioned "Thurmond Assails A Leader of March." The article stated that, in answer to charges by Senator Strom Thurmond, Bayard Rustin admitted joining the Young Communist League (YCL) in 1936. Rustin also reportedly stated that he broke completely with the YCL in June, 1941.

The "Daily Worker" issue of February 25, 1957, page 1, column 1, contained an article which stated that Bayard Rustin, Executive Secretary, War Resisters League, was one of 8 non-Communist observers at the Communist Party National Convention in 1957.

The "Daily Worker" was an east coast communist newspaper which suspended publication on January 13, 1958.

DELL STEPHEN HOLBROOK, aka Steven Holbrook

The "Desert News and Telegram," a daily newspaper in Salt Lake City, Utah, in its issue of July 29, 1964, included an article regarding HOLBROOK who was headquartered in Jackson, Mississippi, with COFO and who participated in freedom schools.

JN T-46 and JN T-47 on October 21, 1963, and October 30, 1963, respectively, furnished the following information: (C) U

STEPHEN HOLBROOK on October 15, 1963, appeared as a speaker, representing the Salt Lake City NAACP, before the Public Affairs Forum of Utah County (PAFUC) along with another representative from that organization. HOLBROOK and the other speaker talked about their experiences in connection with the March on Washington, D.C., August, 1963, and the implications of this demonstration (U) (U)

A characterization of the PAFUC is contained in the appendix of this report.

JN T-48 advised in May, 1964, that at that time D. STEPHEN HOLBROOK, [redacted] was on the mailing list of the Utah Council for Constitutional Liberties (UCCL), Salt Lake City. (C) U (C) (U)

A characterization of the UCCL appears in the appendix of this report. LEWIS HYDE

WALTER LEWIS HYDE, JR. LEW HYDE MISS

The "Minnesota Daily," a University of Minnesota student publication, Minneapolis, Minnesota, dated October 2, 1964, announced that at a meeting of the Students for Integration (SFI) the night before, there had been a discussion of the "Laurel Project," which was described as a plan to include the raising of money for a freedom school. The article stated that LEW HYDE, also known as WALTER LEWIS HYDE, a sophomore, and BETSY O'CONNOR, also known as SHEILA ELIZABETH O'CONNOR, worked in Laurel, Mississippi, last summer. The article quoted HYDE as stating "Federal intervention in Mississippi last summer was hardly adequate and is even worse today. People were literally dragged off the steps of the Federal buildings and beaten while the FBI took notes." SHEILA H O'CONNOR

JN T-25 advised on September 22, 1964, that BETSY O'CONNOR and LEW HYDE had returned to Minnesota.

The "Minnesota Daily" dated October 9, 1964 quoted LEWIS HYDE as saying that tolerating actual violence may not be too bad, but working under constant threat of violence is something entirely different. The article stated that LEWIS HYDE and CLAIRE O'CONNOR, a graduate student in nursing at the University of Minnesota, spoke at an SFI meeting on October 8, 1964, about their experiences during the Mississippi Summer Project.

HYDE was reported as stating that his project was known as the "Laurel Project" and mainly concerned itself with the Freedom School.

Informant on May 1, 1964, said LEW HYDE on April 30, 1964, attended a meeting of the Youth for Progressive Action (YPA). The first order of business was a discussion of how to raise $500 for BETSY O'CONNOR who was going to Mississippi during the summer to help the integration movement. (U)

Informant on February 20, 1964, described LEW HYDE as a member of the YPA. He is the "boy friend" of BETSY O'CONNOR.

Information concerning BETSY and CLAIRE O'CONNOR is set forth subsequently in this report.

PETER KAISER

An article appearing in the morning edition of the "Salt Lake Tribune," Salt Lake City, Utah, September 20, 1964, indicates that KAISER worked with COFO in Greenwood, Mississippi, during the Summer of 1964.

MR. ALBERT B. FRITZ, [redacted] who is the President of the Salt Lake City Branch of the NAACP, on June 30, 1964, advised that DR. IRWIN H. KAISER, [redacted] is PETER KAISER's father. UTAH

DR. IRWIN H. KAISER, [redacted] on April 30, 1957, voluntarily appeared at the St. Paul Office of the FBI and furnished information pertaining to his and his wife's activities, which included the following: C.P. MEMBER 1939

KAISER, at the time, was Associate Professor of Obstetrics, University Hospital, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minnesota. He joined the YCL in New York City in 1935 and dropped out in 1937. He believes he rejoined the YCL in April, 1938. In the Fall of 1938 he applied for membership in the Communist Party at CP headquarters, Baltimore, Maryland, and was accepted for membership although some restrictions were placed on this membership. The restrictions were removed in 1939.

MRS IRWIN H. KAISER married BARBARA J. LIEBERMAN in 1941 and she joined the CP. He has had no contacts with the CP since July, 1943. He has come to realize the fallacies of communism. UTAH

RONALD KAUFMAN

The October 23, 1964 edition of "The Stanford Daily," a student newspaper published at Palo Alto, California, reported that RONALD KAUFMAN currently at Columbus, Mississippi, was connected with the Mississippi Summer Project. According to a current copy of a yearbook for Stanford University, KAUFMAN formerly resided at [redacted]

Information made available by the Milwaukee Police Department on August 11, 1942, reflected that GEORGE KAUFMAN, residing [redacted] and his wife, SONIA, were considered to be "alleged communists." Information was furnished identifying GEORGE KAUFMAN as the father of two children, MONA and RONALD KAUFMAN. RONALD was born on [redacted] The GEORGE KAUFMANS presently reside at [redacted] according to the 1963 Milwaukee City Directory.

On June 20, 1945, JN T-49 advised that GEORGE KAUFMAN, a businessman in the junk industry, was registered on January 15, 1945, as a member of the South Side Club of the Communist Political Association (CPA).

The CPA has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

During November, 1946, JN T-50 advised that the name of one GEORGE KAUFMAN, [redacted], appeared on a list of names headed "7th Ward Worker Readers," a list maintained by the CP of Wisconsin. (U)

During April, 1948, JN T-51 reported that he had known GEORGE and SONIA KAUFMAN for more than 10 years. Informant stated that GEORGE KAUFMAN constantly spoke of how much better conditions were in Russia than in the United States and of the better Russian schools and housing. Informant further advised that KAUFMAN praised EARL BROWDER, lauded both HITLER and STALIN while the Hitler - Stalin pact was in effect, then subsequently spoke highly only of STALIN when the pact was broken. On another occasion KAUFMAN told informant that while he was not a CP member, he sympathized with the communists.

LISA KEAHEY, aka MRS. EVERETT L. WATKINS, LISA OLETA WATKINS, MONNIE OLETA WATKINS

The Post-Intelligencer, a Seattle, Washington, daily newspaper, contained an article on July 1, 1964, indicating that a number of individuals were participating in educational activities and voters registration work in the Mississippi Summer Project. LISA KEAHEY, Shelton, Washington, was among those listed in this article.

JN T-52 has advised on numerous occasions since September 22, 1963, that LISA KEAHEY has attended numerous functions of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) during 1963 and 1964 in Seattle, Washington, and that she lives with TOM and LESLIE WARNER, Seattle, Washington; TOM WARNER being known to this informant as a member of the Workers World Party. (C) U

A characterization of the Workers World Party is contained in the appendix of this report.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

MIRIAM KERSTER

During the summer of 1964, MIRIAM KERSTER, a Canadian citizen, advised that she was on the regular staff of COFO, assigned to Meridian, Mississippi. She described herself as a [redacted] white female. She said that she was to return to her home at [redacted] on October 12, 1964.

JOHN DONOVAN, [redacted] apartment building located [redacted] advised that HAROLD L. and MIRIAM KERSTER reside in [redacted] They formerly resided at [redacted]

JN T-53 advised on July 8, 1960, that DAVID WENDELL MILLER contemplated having dinner with HAROLD and MIRIAM KERSTER, [redacted]. During an interview with MILLER, he stated that he belonged to a CP group at Michigan State University in 1947 and 1948.

HAROLD KERSTER was interviewed on January 29, 1954, at Winslow, Washington, D.C., aboard the SS Trans-Atlantic, on which ship he was [redacted]. He claimed he had never been a member of the CP, but between mid-1946 and mid-1948, he was associated with several organizations that were labeled "fronts" or "Communist dominated." Because of certain positions these organizations took, KERSTER became convinced that they were aligned with Soviet and Communist Policy and he, therefore, terminated all his connections with them.

PHILLIP SANDERS LAPSANSKY and MARILYN GAIL KASHIWAGI

JN T-54 advised during October, 1964, that PHIL SANDERS LAPSANSKY and MARILYN KASHIWAGI, former students of the University of Washington reportedly departed some days ago en route to Mississippi to work in connection with civil rights matters.

JN T-55 advised during approximately October, 1964, that LAPSANSKY and MISS KASHIWAGI, possibly including two other individuals, would travel to Mississippi within a short time.

JN T-56 advised on May 18, 1961, PHILLIP LAPSANSKY had previously attended a meeting of the SWP at Seattle, Washington, on May 16, 1961. This informant also advised on October 18, 1961, that LAPSANSKY was a member of the Young Socialist Alliance as of October 6, 1961.

JN T-57 furnished information on December 13, 1961, reflecting that an application had been submitted by the Student Council of FPCC to the University of Washington dated May 19, 1961, requesting campus recognition of this council as an official student organization at this university. According to this informant, the name of PHIL LAPSANSKY was included among 14 others on this application.

JN T-52 advised on September 22, 1961, that PHILLIP LAPSANSKY had been nominated as one of four individuals to hold the position of Members-at-Large of the Executive Committee, Student Council, FPCC.

JN T-58 advised on May 9, 1963, that an application from PHILLIP LAPSANSKY for membership in the SWP, New York Local, had been accepted during Arpil, 1963, at which time LAPSANSKY was residing at New York, New York.

JN T-52 advised on July 9, 1964, that PHILLIP LAPSANSKY was the Chairman of the SWP weekly branch meeting at Seattle, Washington, on July 7, 1964, and that LAPSANSKY previously has attended numerous SWP meetings.

JN T-59 furnished information on September 30, 1963, reflecting LAPSANSKY had been trained as an agitator and organizer by the SWP and would soon be assigned to the Berkeley, California, area for agitation and organizational purposes on the campus of the University of California, Berkeley, California. According to this informant, LAPSANSKY has referred to himself as a "Marxist-Leninist-Bolshevik-Trotskyite-Socialist-Proletarian-Revolutionary" and other similar terms. (C) 4

b6

DOROTHY PURCEL, Secretary to the Dean of Students, University of Washington, Seattle, Washington, advised on October 5, 1964, that MARILYN KASHIWAGI, [redacted] resided at [redacted] and enrolled in the University of Washington during the Fall term, 1964, but withdrew from this University on September 18, 1964.

A characterization of the Young Socialist Alliance has been included in the appendix.

STEVEN I. LEVINE
MADELINE G. LEVINE, nee Geltman, aka Mrs. Steven I. Levine

JN T-10 on June 24, 1964, furnished a list of names of people who were scheduled to attend the second orientation session at the Western College for Women, Oxford, Ohio, which commenced June 21, 1964. Included thereon were STEVEN I. LEVINE and MRS. MADELINE G. LEVINE, both of [redacted]

MISS NATALIE HERMAN, Registrar's Office, Harvard Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, Cambridge, Massachusetts, furnished the following information concerning MADELINE G. LEVINE and STEVEN I. LEVINE.

MADELINE LEVINE was [redacted]. She has been in attendance at the Harvard Graduate School during the academic years 1962-1963 and 1963-1964. Her field of concentration is Regional Studies - Soviet Union, and she received an A.M. degree in June, 1964. She also listed her names as being MRS. STEVEN I. LEVINE and her maiden name as GELTMAN.

STEVEN LEVINE was [redacted] in New York, New York, and is a Ph.D. candidate in Government and Political Science, and has been at the Harvard Graduate School for the past two academic years. He received an A.B. degree from Brandeis University, Waltham, Massachusetts, in 1962. OHIO

JN T-60 advised on October 10, 1960, that STEVEN I. LEVINE, then a student at Brandeis University, was an active member at that time of the YSA of Boston. (C)U

JN T-61 advised on December 6, 1961, that as of December 5, 1961, STEVEN I. LEVINE was a member of the YSA of Boston.

Informant advised on November 23, 1962, that STEVEN I. LEVINE had not been in contact with the YSA of Boston for approximately one year. (C)U

A characterization of the YSA of Boston is contained in the appendix.

"The Justice," a weekly newspaper published by the Brandeis University students, in its issue of May 9, 1961, carried an article entitled, "Non-Intervention - Cuba Negotiable" by MADELINE GELTMAN.

The above article, in part, read as follows:

"Fidel Castro has the support of an armed Cuban people in a revolutionary situation which has overturned the old political order and the old economic order as well. Any attempts at intervention in Cuba by the United States Government must be taken as what they are - necessarily anti-revolutionary attempts at restoration which can only result in a bloody destruction of the revolution and a decimation of the Cuban population.....

"The pious declarations of our government can easily be shown up as the hypocritical pieties that they are. (Here I would like to point out that there are people who include Cuba in a list of countries they would intervene in for the sake of democracy. Though I disagree with them about the impossibility of democracy in Castro's Cuba, I do respect their sincerity.).....

"What policies can we offer as an alternative to this government decision? The United States must negotiate. It must recognize that while Castro is certainly not entirely blameless in the differences which have arisen between us, neither is he the only side to blame. The United States must get to know the new Cuba, by allowing American contacts, via tourists, with that nation....." b6 b7C

JOHN FRANCIS MC AULIFF

The Sheriff's Office, Bolivan County, Cleveland, Mississippi, during August, 1964, furnished information that one JOHN MC AULIFF, white male, [redacted] of Indianapolis, Indiana, is associated with the Mississippi Summer Project in the COFO office at Shaw, Mississippi.

The "Minneapolis Sunday Tribune" in its issue of June 14, 1964, named JOHN FRANCIS MC AULIFF, Noblesville, Indiana, as a member of the Minnesota delegation participating in the Mississippi Summer Project.

JN T-8 on September 25, 1962, advised that JOHN MC AULIFF, Carleton College, Northfield, Minnesota, was one of the students in the Midwest area who in August, 1962, was considered to be sympathetic to the Midwest Student Civil Liberties Co-Ordinating Committee.

JN T-62 on December 28, 1962, advised that JOHN MC AULIFF, JR., had been in contact with the Communist Party, USA, at New York City, and had requested that a complimentary subscription to the "Communist Viewpoint" be sent to the "Challenge," Carleton College, Northfield, Minnesota. (U)

A characterization of the "Communist Viewpoint" appears in the appendix.

The February 20, 1963, issue of "The Carletonian," a student publication at Carleton College, Northfield, Minnesota, published an open letter from JOHN MC AULIFF to J. EDGAR HOOVER stating that he, MC AULIFF, had learned from a close friend, a MORNAL PAUL HARMON, Indianapolis, Indiana, that the FBI had made inquiries concerning him. In this letter MC AULIFF pointed out that the only contact he had had with the CP in New York was to send a check to DANNY RUBIN for his appearance on the "Challenge" program, an organization of the Carleton student government, for bringing speakers on the campus to talk on controversial subjects.

MC AULIFF went on to point out that he felt that an individual's political belief was not the concern of the government and that he felt that it was his duty as a citizen of a free country not to take anything for granted but to arrive at an opinion through independent investigation.

MC AULIFF pointed out that the FBI has a very grave responsibility of keeping track of potentially treasonous persons without serving as a brake on free and fearless expression of all ideas and that based on his experience, the FBI was seriously failing that responsibility.

In this letter MC AULIFF also pointed out that he had been in contact with the Embassy of the USSR to get a speaker for the "Challenge" and that the appearance of a representative of the USSR Embassy on the "Challenge" would bear close scrutiny by the FBI since he had it on reliable authority that the USSR and its representative are agents of a foreign power. b6 b7C

JN T-63 advised in March, 1960, that DANNY RUBIN was then functioning as the full time Youth Organizer, Communist Party, USA.

NORMAN PAUL HARMON, [redacted] on February 14, 1963, advised that JOHN MC AULIFF and himself during the Christmas vacation of 1962 had made a trip to Jackson, Mississippi, and Atlanta, Georgia for the purpose of talking to several leaders of integration in these two cities.

The January 23, 1963, issue of "The Carletonian" carried an article by JOHN MC AULIFF entitled "Don't Depend on Labels." In this article, JOHN MC AULIFF discussed the question of civil liberties in relation to the National Defense Educational Act and pointed out that although it would be customary for the self-righteous civil libertarian (like himself) to affirm piously at this point that "I am not a communist and in fact am heartily opposed to all such tyrannical systems," that he was not going to say that he was not a communist.

MC AULIFF stated that he was concerned with the treatment of the American communist today. He pointed out that by labeling an idea as communistic greatly simplified its defeat because of the general FBI-Hollywood induced picture of a communist as a person engaged in a conspiracy to overthrow the government.

MC AULIFF pointed out that the government has had great difficulty in demonstrating that communists are people who are guilty of either trying to overthrow or making specific plans to overthrow the government of the United States and that if no one can prove that a CP member is guilty of any crime, why should he be punished by being discriminated against in his application for a National Defense Educational Act loan. MC AULIFF in this conclusion pointed out that if he is a student in need of a loan he should be treated as a student in need of a loan and not as a communist student in need of a loan.

The January 30, 1963, issue of "The Carletonian" reported that JOHN MC AULIFF was elected to the Student Senate Body of Carleton College.

The February 27, 1963, issue of "The Carletonian" reported that JOHN MC AULIFF was the new editor of "About." When interviewed in this connection, MC AULIFF stated that under his editorship the big difference in the campus publication would be articles by the faculty concerning among other things the nature of liberal education. MC AULIFF stated that the publication "About" 'traditionally represents the most dissident voices in the student body, a tradition he would not change. He would expand it though to include dissident voices of the faculty.'

WILLIAM M. MC CORD

The "Stanford Summer Weekly," published at Stanford University on June 22, 1964, reported that subject, Associate Professor of Sociology at Stanford, was one of the individuals going to Mississippi to participate in the civil rights activities in that state.

CALIF

JN T-64 advised on March 10, 1961, that a flyer reflected MC CORD was Chairman of a FPCC sponsored lecture to be held in the Berkeley, California, Little Theater on March 10, 1961. Informant advised subsequently that MC CORD actually did not act as chairman of this affair because he stated he would be traveling in Europe at that particular time with his family.

REVEREND WARREN HENRY MC KENNA

By means of a no name pretext to MRS. ELIZABETH BANKS MC KENNA, [redacted] on December 1, 1964, it was established that her husband, Reverend WARREN HENRY MC KENNA, is permanently in Mississippi and affiliated with the National Council of Churches. His office is in Greenville, Mississippi, telephone number 355-1213 and his secretary is MISS BAMES. She said her husband will be home over the Christmas holiday.

On September 9, 1960, a brief, Amici Curiae, was filed with the U.S. Supreme Court in the case, Communist Party, USA, Petitioner, versus Subversive Activities Control Board, Respondent. Under Appendix A is set out the names and addresses by city and state of these Amici Curiae. Reverend WARREN HENRY MC KENNA's name appears on this list.

The "Brockton Daily Enterprise," a Brockton, Massachusetts, daily newspaper, on January 10, 1961, carried an article captioned "Communism is Discussed at Holbrook." This article stated the Reverend MC KENNA attended the Sixth World Youth Festival in Moscow in 1957 and on January 10, 1961, admitted this to the newspapers.

According to the article, the meeting or discussion sponsored by the WILLIAM B. DALTON Post No. 137 American Legion, heard MC KENNA, charged, as set forth in "The Firing Line," a publication of the American Legion's national Americanism Committee, as being an affiliate of the following:

Boston Samuel Adams School (BSAS)

Committee of One Thousand (COT)

American Continental Congress for World Peace (ACCWP)

Second World Peace Congress (SWPC)

Civil Rights Congress (CRC)

Massachusetts Minute Women for Peace (MMWP)

International Workers Order (IWO)

American Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (ACPFB)

Jefferson School of Social Sciences (JSSS)

The above article stated MC KENNA freely admitted to the newspaper his affiliation with most of the organizations named above with two exceptions. He denied being a member of the Massachusetts Minute Women for Peace and denied having any membership in many of the groups, stating that he "may have supported them directly or indirectly or their ideals." He denied being a communist and stressed the difference between communism and dissent. He said, "I am not a communist but it doesn't mean I can't join or support someone or something that is trying to make this a better country."

The BSAS, SWPC, CRC, MMWP, IWO, ACPFB and the JSSS have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The New York "Herald Tribune" on August 18, 1957, carried an article captioned "Defiant U.S. Youths Go to Red China." This article reflected that the Reverend MC KENNA was one of forty-one young Americans who went to China despite warnings from Washington, D.C., and in contravention of his passport. MC KENNA was in Moscow at the time attending the Sixth World Festival. The article stated that MC KENNA was a leader in organizing the trip to China.

MRS. P.W. MOORE, JR., aka Mrs. Phillip W. Moore, Jr. b6 b7C

During August, 1964, the U.S. Department of Justice, advised that MRS. P.W. MOORE, JR., was proceeding to Jackson, Mississippi, to participate in the Mississippi Summer Project and would be in the Jackson area during the period August 11-13, 1964.

JN T-65 advised on April 19, 1961, that DANIEL QUEEN was scheduled to speak at the residence of MRS. PHILLIP MOORE, JR., [redacted], on April 21, 1961. (U)

JN T-35 advised on September 5, 1962, that DANIEL QUEEN is in charge of the Communist Party youth work in Illinois and was elected a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA at its 17th National Convention in 1959.

MORRISON, THURMAN ALDRICH III, aka Truman Morrison, Tim Morrison [redacted] MISS

CLAUDE LAMAR WEAVER II, Project Director for SNCC, Batesville, Mississippi, advised during July, 1964, that MORRISON was a COFO summer volunteer at Batesville, Mississippi, during July, 1964.

Detective HAROLD BURLEY, Michigan State Police Post, Redford, Michigan, on June 22, 1964, advised that TIM MORRISON, [redacted] a student at the Beloit College, Beloit, Wisconsin, will travel to Mississippi to engage in civil rights activities there. According to Burley, MORRISON is described as a white male, [redacted] and is the son of Reverend TRUMAN A. MORRISON of East Lansing, Michigan.

JN T-66 on May 4, 1961, made available a copy of the "Edgewood News," a newsletter published by the Edgewood Peoples Church, East Lansing.

Contained in the above newsletter was an article written by Reverend TRUMAN MORRISON, Pastor of Edgewood Peoples Church, regarding the film, "Operation Abolition," and the HCUA. The above article in part is Reverend MORRISON's comments on the movie called "Operation Abolition," which film portrays the riot activities of students in San Francisco, California, during May, 1961, at hearings of the HCUA. The article, written in part by MORRISON, is very critical of this film as well as the activities of the HCUA hearings conducted throughout the country.

Detective Lieutenant STEVE NAERT, East Lansing Police Department, advised on May 23, 1962, that on this date PETER A. WERBE, [redacted] a student at Michigan State University (MSU), East Lansing, made arrangements for ROBERT GEORGE THOMPSON to speak in East Lansing. According to NAERT, THOMPSON is scheduled to meet WERBE at the office of Reverend TRUMAN A. MORRISON, Pastor of the Edgewood Peoples Church, East Lansing, on June 23, 1962, for dinner and to make arrangements for THOMPSON's speech.

JN T-67 advised on April 5, 1964, that ROBERT THOMPSON, as of this date, was New York District CP Organizer, CPUSA, and a member of the CP Secretariat.

KATHERINE NEWMAN

JN T-27 on August 5, 1964, furnished a list of students in the Los Angeles area who were participating in the Mississippi Summer Project in the State of Mississippi. This list contained the names of the parents of the above individuals. The name, KATHERINE NEWMAN, parents, JULIA NEWMAN, [redacted] appeared on this list.

(U) JN T-68 advised that sometime prior to November, 1949, JULIA NEWMAN applied for re-admission to the CP in Los Angeles County, California, and on seeking this re-admission, stated she had been a member of the CP for 12 years while residing in New York. At the time JULIA NEWMAN applied for admission to the Los Angeles County CP, her husband, LEONARD NEWMAN, was chairman of a CP group in the Los Angeles County CP. In August, 1953, NEWMAN was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI, at which time she advised she was not then a CP member and had no information of value for the FBI. She stated she entered Metropolitan State Hospital, Norwalk, California, September, 1954, and had, in the past, attempted suicide and has had "psychotic depressions."

DAVID MICHAEL NOVICK DAVID NOVICK DAVE NOVICK

In an article published by the "Milwaukee Journal," Milwaukee, Wisconsin, one BRUCE AMUNDSON of Milwaukee, a civil rights worker, was reported as naming other Milwaukee area students who were accepted for training and who would go to Mississippi on the Mississippi Summer Project. One of the students named was DAVID M. NOVICK.

JN T-69 advised on January 11, 1963, that NOVICK participated in the picketing of the Milwaukee Federal Building on December 4, 1962, in a demonstration organized by the Citizens for Peace and Disarmanent (CPD).

A characterization of the CPD appears in the appendix of this report.

DAVID NOVICK was interviewed by FBI Agents in Milwaukee on February 7, 1964. He spoke of himself as a 1963 member of the CPD, adding that three other members of that group whom he classified as communists, were his good friends.

JN T-70 advised on February 24, 1964, and March 9, 1964, that DAVE NOVICK, [redacted] was currently a subscriber to "The Worker." (U)

On October 29, 1964, a woman at the residence of BERNARD R. NOVICK, [redacted] advised that her residence was that of DAVID NOVICK. She added, however, that DAVID was at present in Greenville, Mississippi, and she explained that DAVID, after spending much of the summer at Greenville, had come home to Wisconsin only briefly and then had gone back to Mississippi. She also said that she did not know how long he planned to stay in Mississippi; he was vague about his intentions.

CLAIRE ELLEN O'CONNOR C. P. MEMBER 1958

On July 7, 1964, JN T-71 advised that O'CONNOR had gone to Mississippi to participate in the Mississippi Summer Project. [redacted]

JN T-72 advised in 1958 that O'CONNOR was admitted into the Minnesota Dakotas District of the CP in February, 1957, and was a CP member in 1958. (U)

The "St. Paul Pioneer Press," a St. Paul, Minnesota, daily newspaper, dated June 13, 1961, related that CLAIRE O'CONNOR, [redacted] a freshman at the University of Minnesota, had been convicted on June 12, 1961, on a charge of breach of the peace in Jackson, Mississippi.

SHELIA ELIZABETH O'CONNOR, aka Sheilagh O'Connor, Betsy O'Connor

The "Minnesota Daily," a University of Minnesota student publication, Minneapolis, Minnesota, dated October 2, 1964, announced that at a meeting of the Students for Integration (SFI) the night before, there had been a discussion of the "Laurel Project," which was described as a plan to include the raising of money for a freedom school. The article stated that LEW HYDE, also known as Walter Lewis Hyde, a sophomore, and Betsy O'Connor, also known as Sheila Elizabeth O'Connor, worked in Laurel, Mississippi, last summer. b6 b7C

JN T-25 on September 22, 1964, advised that BETSY O'CONNOR and LEW HYDE had returned to Minnesota.

On July 11, 1960, MRS. RUTH HOLLAND, Director, School of Practical Nursing, Bethesda Hospital, St. Paul, Minnesota, stated their records concerning ELLEN CLAIRE O'CONNOR listed SHEILA O'CONNOR, [redacted] as her sister, and her mother as JUSTINE O'CONNOR, of the same address.

JN T-72 advised in 1958 that CLAIRE O'CONNOR was then currently a member of the St. Paul section of the CP; that JUSTINE O'CONNOR had been a CP member as of July, 1955; and that in September, 1955, the CP had dropped JUSTINE O'CONNOR from the CP because she had not taken the necessary responsibility. (U)

JN T-25 advised on April 16, 1964, that BETSY O'CONNOR had said on April 10, 1964, that during the 1930's her parents had been members of the CP. (U)

Informant on May 1, 1964, said LEW HYDE, on April 30, 1964, attended a meeting of the Youth for Progressive Action (YPA). The first order of business was (U)

a discussion of how to raise $500 for BETSY O'CONNOR, who was going to Mississippi during the summer to help the integration movement. (U)

Informant on February 20, 1964, described LEW HYDE as a member of the Youth for Progressive Action. He is the "boy friend" of BETSY O'CONNOR.

IRENE PAULL CALIF b6 b7C

JN T-73 on July 15, 1964, advised that PAULL had gone to Mississippi from her home in San Francisco in the first part of July to assist in the civil rights movement. She is presently residing at [redacted]. She has rented her home at [redacted] and informant did not know how long she intended to stay in Mississippi. (U)

JN T-74 advised on June 7, 1955, that PAULL had submitted a verification questionnaire to the CP State Security Review Commission in which she stated that she joined the CP in Minnesota about 1935 and continued her membership when she moved to San Francisco in 1954. (U)

JN T-75 advised during September, 1957, that PAULL was a member of the Richmond - Sunset Section of the San Francisco County CP from 1954 to 1957. Informant advised that sometime in the Fall of 1956 she quarreled with CP leaders at a section meeting which was held in her home and early in 1957 she took a leave of absence from the Party. (U)

JN T-67 on April 30, 1961, advised that PAULL was recently recruited back into the CP by ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN, Chairman, CPUSA, and MICKEY LIMA, a member of the CP National Committee. (U)

JN T-75 on April 5, 1962, advised that PAULL was introduced as a new member of the Sunset Club, San Francisco County CP at a meeting the club held on March 21, 1962 at San Francisco, California. (U)

Informant advised on February 3, 1964, that the Chairman of the San Francisco County CP remarked at a meeting of CP members in January, 1964, that he believes PAULL is out of the CP and is involved with some left-wing former members of the Party. (U)

PAULL appeared before the HCUA at Los Angeles on July 2, 1963, and invoked the Fifth Amendment and refused to affirm or deny membership in theCP or travel to Cuba in 1960 or 1961.

PETER JACOB RABINOWITZ

The "Chicago Maroon," a student newspaper publication at the University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois, carried an article in the October 2, 1964, edition to the effect that PETER RABINOWITZ, a fourth-year student at this university, had "spent the summer in Mississippi working for the COFO's Mississippi Summer Project."

b7C

JN T-10 on June 29, 1964, furnished a list of names of persons scheduled to attend the Second Orientation Session at Western College for Women, Oxford, Ohio, which commenced June 21, 1964. According to this informant the name PETER RABINOWITZ with address, [redacted] was included in this listing. This informant advised RABINOWITZ was the son of VICTOR and MARCIA RABINOWITZ, [redacted]

JN T-8 advised during July, 1961, that PETER RABINOWITZ, residing [redacted] attended the First Annual Conference of the FPCC held at New York, New York, July 1,2, 1961. (U)

TN T-63 advised on July 17, 1963, GUS HALL, General Secretary, CPUSA, stated that VICTOR RABINOWITZ, an attorney, was handling the estate of TANYA TENIN of Frenchtown, (U)

New Jersey, an old CP member, whose estate would go to the CP. According to this informant, HALL was severely critical of RABINOWITZ, who reportedly tries to stay in the good graces of the CP while at the same time being active with "the Trotskyites" and the FPCC. (U)

"The New York Times," a New York City daily newspaper, in the April 13, 1964, edition carried an advertisement of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) in which the name of "VICTOR RABINOWITZ" was listed as a member of the Executive Committee of the National Council of ECLC.

JN T-76 furnished information on May 10, 1963, that VICTOR RABINOWITZ, an attorney, was at that time representing the FPCC at New York, New York.

The May, 1963, issue of the "New York Guild Lawyer," a monthly publication of the National Lawyers Guild (NLG) reflected that at the NLG chapter meeting held on May 1, 1963, at New York City, VICTOR RABINOWITZ was elected as one of the Vice Presidents of this New York City chapter of the NLG.

The Martindale-Hubbell Lawyers Directory reflected that VICTOR RABINOWITZ was a member of the law firm of Rabinowitz and Boudin located at 30 East 42nd Street, New York City. This same directory reflected that BOUDIN was LEONARD BOUDIN.

MAURICE MALKIN, an admitted former member of the CP, advised on May 21, 1953, that LEONARD BOUDIN was a member of the CP and also a member of the NLG.

JN T-77 advised on December 18, 1944, that MARCIA RABINOWTIZ was then a member of the CP, Coney Island Club.

JN T-78 advised on October 16, 1957, that MARCIA RABINOWITZ had contributed $25 to the American Committee for the Protection of Foreign Born (ACPFB).

A characterization of the ECLC appears in the appendix of this report.

DEBORAH RAND

On August 28, 1964, MARY ANN MC KAY, COFO, Moss Point, Mississippi, advised SA JAMES J. FILES that "Debbie" RAND had returned to her home at [redacted]

JN T-3 advised on April 16, 1964, that DEBORAH RAND, who was born on [redacted] is the daughter of Doctor ANNA TULMAN RAND and HARRY ISRAEL RAND, ATTORNEY both of whom reside at [redacted]

JN T-79 on May 23, 1962, advised that Doctor ANNA RAND was Chairman of the Radiation Committee of the Physicians Forum, Incorporated, in May, 1962.

A characterization of the Physicians Forum appears in the appendix of this report.

JN T-80 on March 12, 1964, advised that HARRY ISRAEL RAND was then employed as an attorney at 1501 Broadway, New York, New York.

JN T-3 on April 16, 1964, advised that HARRY ISRAEL RAND is an attorney with Weisman, Celler, Allan, Spetti, and Shenberg at [redacted] and had previously resided in Washington, D.C.

The records of the Bureau of Special Services, New York City Police Department, in 1963, reflected that HARRY I. RAND, an attorney employed by the U.S. Department of Interior, was accused before the Dies Committee of having literature of the American Peace Mobilization (APM) on his desk in the Department of Interior, Washington, D.C., during 1941. These records further indicated that HARRY ISRAEL RAND of New York contributed $100 to the ECLC in 1962 and was then listed as a member of the ECLC Executive Committee.

The APM has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Page 4, Column 5, of the "Daily Worker," dated October 11, 1955, contains an article relating that "Harry Israel Rand, Immigration Lawyer," would speak before a National Conference sponsored by the NLG on October 15, 1955, in New York, New York.

The "New York Times" of April 13, 1964, page 23, contains a seven column advertisement on the ECLC regarding a meeting to be held that evening in New York, New York. HARRY ISRAEL RAND of New York was listed as a member of the Executive Committee of the ECLC.

ALEXIS LOUISE RAY b6 b7C

The "Chicago Tribune," a daily newspaper published at Chicago, Illinois, carried in its edition of June 26, 1964, an article enumerating the identities of residents of Illinois who were to be participants in the Mississippi Summer Project under the sponsorship of COFO. Among other names listed was the name "ALEXIS RAY" and the address [redacted]

MRS. DARLENE WHITE, Clerk, Office of Admissions and Records, University of Illinois, Urbana, Illinois, advised on June 24, 1964, that ALEXIS LOUISE RAY was [redacted], and that her mother was ROBERTA J. RAY, [redacted]

JN T-81 advised on October 25, 1960, that the name ALEXIS RAY, [redacted] was included on a list maintained by DANNY QUEEN, Chairman, Youth Commission, CP of Illinois as one to be invited to a function sponsored by "New Horizons" and scheduled to be held at Chicago, Illinois, on November 5, 1960. (U)

A characterization of "New Horizons" has been included in the appendix.

LARRY WOLF RUBIN b6 b7C

ELDRIDGE DA LEE, Investigator, Police Department, Tupelo, Mississippi, furnished to the FBI, Tupelo, Mississippi, names of individuals together with a description of the car these individuals are operating and stated he believes these individuals to be COFO workers working out of Holly Springs, Mississippi. One of the individuals listed was LARRY RUBIN, white male, [redacted], driving a 1960 Studebaker, Mississippi license [redacted] and a 1957 Chevrolet, Mississippi license [redacted]

CUBA

On July 30, 1964, Miss MIRIAM DICKINSON, Registrar, Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, advised college records disclosed that LARRY WOLF RUBIN, [redacted], residence address [redacted] has been enrolled at the college since September 26, 1960, and was presently pursuing courses as a Social Science Major. His parents were listed as AARON RUBIN and LEONA FRIEDE RUBIN, [redacted] He graduated in June, 1960, from [redacted].

The following on-campus organizations were listed by RUBIN:

NAACP

Socialist Discussion Club (interested, not a member)

Yellow Springs Youth Club

Attended meetings of FPCC

A characterization of the Socialist Discussion Club appears in the appendix section of this report.

JN T-82 advised on December 19, 1960, that he had learned approximately 325 people would go to Cuba from the United States under FPCC auspices. A group from Antioch College would be going and that group would be included in the 325 figure. Informant stated that there would be a Christmas banquet and a New Year's banquet in Cuba. FIDEL CASTRO or some other high official was expected to address the banquet on New Year's Eve. About half of the time the tour would be spent in Havana, and the remainder of the tour would be spent touring the provinces. (C) ~~(C)~~ (U)

"The Record," the official student newspaper of Antioch College, contained a letter to the editor under the name of MICHAEL LEVANDOWSKY, Antioch College, in the January 20, 1961, issue. The article spoke in disfavor of the CASTRO Government and pointed out that there is no freedom in Cuba, China, and Russia, and that it is standard policy for communism to utilize the bourgeois liberties to destroy them.

The January 27, 1961, issue of "The Record" contained letters to the editor from Antioch students who had gone to Cuba on the recent tour and were in answer to MICHAEL LEVANDOWSKY's views. The letters indicated that LEVANDOWSKY did not know what he was talking about as he did not go to Cuba. One of these letters was signed by LARRY RUBIN, who indicated he was one of the individuals who had made a personal visit to Cuba on the recent tour there by Antioch students.

(C) JN T-7 on May 21 and 22, 1961, advised that the name LARRY RUBIN, Antioch Union, Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, was observed at FPCC Headquarters, New York City.

The October 13, 1961, edition of "The Record" contained an article which stated that the Antioch College FPCC had elected LARRY RUBIN (second year) as co-chairman of that group.

JN T-83 advised on April 12, 1962, that ANTHONY KRCHMAREK was in contact with an unknown individual who advised that GUS HALL, General Secretary, CPUSA, would be unable to make the planned speech at Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, where HALL was to debate with someone from the John Birch Society. KRCHMAREK was instructed to contact MR. RUBIN at Yellow Springs, Ohio, and advise him that HALL would be unable to be in Yellow Springs for the debate. Informant further advised that KRCHMAREK contacted MR. RUBIN at Yellow Springs, Ohio, on April 2, 1962, and advised RUBIN of the inability of GUS HALL to keep this speaking engagement at the college. KRCHMARET advised he would contact RUBIN in the future as to when HALL would be available for a speaking engagement. ~~(C)~~ (U)

JN T-84 advised on January 10, 1962, that ANTHONY KRCHMAREK was known as the Chairman of the Ohio Communist Party District residing in Cleveland, Ohio, who has not mentioned his position with the CP since the June, 1961, decision of the U.S. Supreme Court ordering the CP to register. ~~(C)~~ (U)

JN T-85 advised on May 13, 1962, that on that date ARNOLD JOHNSON, a CP functionary, attempted to contact LARRY RUBIN at Antioch College; however, RUBIN was not available at his dormitory and JOHNSON indicated he would contact him later. ~~(C)~~ (U)

[JN T-86 on December 13, 1959, advised that] ~~(C)~~ U ARNOLD JOHNSON was elected to the National Committee of the CPUSA at its 17th national convention on December 10-13, 1959.

~~(C)~~ [JN T-87 on May 20, 1962 advised] LARRY RUBIN, Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, was currently a subscriber to the publication, "New Horizons for Youth." ~~(C)~~ (U)

A characterization of the above organization appears in the appendix.

JN T-86, a self-admitted former member of the CP of Eastern Pennsylvania and Delaware (CPEPD), advised on March 27, 1951, he first met AARON RUBIN as a member of the Communist Political Association (CPA) in 1944. Later, RUBIN became Educational Director of the Parkside Club, CPEPD, in the latter part of 1945. RUBIN's wife, LEONA, was membership director of the Unity Club, CPA, EPD, in 1944 and held that position until about December, 1945, at which time she was assigned to the Parkside Club, CPEPD. During the Summer of 1946, AARON and LEONA RUBIN were expelled from the CP for allowing a person to use their phone to place bets. According to informant, the leaders of the CP were afraid that the police might raid the RUBIN residence because of the gambling activity and that, thereafter, the party might become involved. (U)

MR. & MRS MORTON SCHIFF

Records of Sperry Gyroscope Company, Great Neck, Long Island, New York, as provided by EUGENE F. KELLY, Security Section, Sperry Gyroscope, reflect that SCHIFF voluntarily resigned from his position as Engineer with Sperry on Setpember 11, 1964. The reason SCHIFF gave for resigning was that "I will teach physics at a Negro college in Jackson, Mississippi, as I have a strong desire to participate more fully in the civil rights movement."

MR. GEORGE SMITH, [redacted] advised SA EDWARD J. MULHOLLAND on October 28, 1964, that SCHIFF and his wife, MARILYN, reside in [redacted] same address, but that he has not seen MORTON SCHIFF since approximately mid-September. SMITH further advised that SCHIFF had been in Mississippi as a radio specialist in July, 1964, returning about August 1, 1964; that SCHIFF liked the work there and wanted to return, and that SCHIFF's wife is currently active with one of the major political parties in New York.

~~SECRET~~

JN T-88 advised that approximately six months prior to that date, he was informed that MORTON SCHIFF was a communist. Informant was unable to further qualify this information. (C) ~~(C)~~ (U)

HOWARD LOEB ~~SCHULMAN~~ HOWARD SCHULMAN

On October 27, 1964, MR. WILLIAM ~~SCHULMAN~~, N.Y. Manhattan Shade and Glass Company, 1297 Third Avenue, New York City, who is the father of HOWARD LOEB SCHULMAN, advised that his son, HOWARD, some time after October 16, 1964, had departed New York City, for Mississippi, where it was his intention to take part in the voter registration campaign of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee. MR. SCHULMAN could offer no more specific information concerning the whereabouts of his son, HOWARD.

On November 4, 1964, MR. SCHULMAN, advised that N.Y. his other son, STEVEN ~~SCHULAMN~~, had received information some time over the weekend of October 31 and November 1, 1964, that HOWARD SCHULMAN had been arrested in Columbus, Mississippi, for distributing literature and using abusive language against a local law enforcement official. HOWARD was then in jail in Columbus, Mississippi, and bail of $400 was needed to release him.

(C) JN T-7 on May 21, 1961, advised that the name HOWARD SCHULMAN was maintained on a mailing list at the FPCC headquarters, 799 Broadway, New York City.

JN T-89 advised on August 8, 1961, that HOWARD SCHULMAN, U.S. Passport [redacted] departed Mexico for Havana, Cuba, on July 25, 1961. ~~(C)~~ (U)

On September 22, 1961, WILLIAM SCHULMAN, father of HOWARD, advised his son was then in Cuba and suffering from a mental disorder.

JN T-90 on December 11, 1961, advised that HOWARD SCHULMAN was a speaker at a forum sponsored by the FPCC which was held on December 4, 1961. (C) (U)

JN T-91 on February 9, 1962, advised that HOWARD SCHULMAN, as Secretary of League of Militant Poets, sent a telegram to the U.S. Secretary of State, DEAN RUSK, who was attending a Foreign Minister's Conference of the Organization of American States. This telegram read: "American artist, writers protest your attempt to outlaw Cuba. Each country has an inalienable right to choose his own way of life. Speak peace instead of aggression."

JN T-92 advised that HOWARD SCHULMAN attended meetings of the Student Council of New York School for Marxist Studies on 8 occasions between January 27, 1962, and April 28, 1962. (C) (U)

HOWARD SCHULMAN was arrested on December 6, 1963, at Tangiers, Morocco, after claiming involvement in the Lee Harvey Oswald assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. The Moroccan Surete and the United States Department of State discounted such involvement and SCHULMAN was deported to the United States, arriving in New York City on December 30, 1963.

On January 6, 1964, HOWARD SCHULMAN suffered a complete breakdown and was committed to St. Luke's Hospital Psychiatric Ward, New York City, being characterized by his father as deranged, incoherent and dangerous. His psychiatrist diagnosed HOWARD SCHULMAN as schizophrenic with paranoid symptoms; both the doctor and SCHULMAN's father consider him capable of any criminal act.

A characterization of the New York School for Marxist Studies is attached to this report.

SANFORD SIEGEL

[JN T-10 on June 23, 1964,] made available a partial list of persons in attendance at the Second Session of the COFO orientation conference held at Western College for Women, Oxford, Ohio, beginning June 22, 1964. Included among these names was the listing "SANDY SIEGEL."

Informant advised that STEINBERG did not reveal what his activities would be at Clarksdale or Atlantic City, nor did he reveal whether he would be affiliated with any particular organization.

FINLAND POLAND GERMANY RUSSIA

Informant stated that STEINBERG, sometime after the convention, plans to return to the University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin, to take some oral examinations in connection with the earning of his M.A. degree. He then will enroll in the Graduate School of New York University, New York City, to work toward his Ph.D. in the field of "Italian - Marxism."

~~SECRET~~

JN T-99 advised in May, 1963, that a functionary of the CPUSA had recommended BRIAN STEINBERG as one of a group of fine youths, who lean toward a left, progressive or socialist outlook. Informant added that STEINBERG was going to attend the Eighth World Youth Festival to be held at Helsinki, Finland, beginning July 28, 1962. (U)

JN T-100 advised on November 16, 1962, and March 7, 1963, that BRIAN STEINBERG attended the Eighth World Youth Fesitval during July and August, 1962. He also was among a select group who traveled behind the Iron Curtain to visit Poland, East Germany, and Russia. This informant advised that STEINBERG was a member of a group of American delegates who daily received orders secretly on the trip from one AL SIMON, a photographer from New York City, who, like STEINBERG, appeared to have a strong Marxist background.

JN T-101 advised on a continuing basis during 1962 that AL SIMON was employed at the CPUSA headquarters, 26 West 23rd Street, New York City, in a general clerical capacity.

MR. JOHN OSGOOD, a classmate of STEINBERG at the University of Connecticut, Storrs, Connecticut, advised on September 11, 1963, that the latter was engaged to HARRIET JACKSON, the daughter of JAMES JACKSON. STEINBERG had informed OSGOOD that JACKSON was the editor of "The Worker." OSGOOD stated that HARRIET JACKSON, a negress, had met STEINBERG during the Eighth World Youth Festival.

In 1947, U.S. Senators IRVING M. IVES and ROBERT F. WAGNER, from the State of New York, furnished a petition received by them from the Vanguard Youth Club, CP, 1 East 167th Street, Bronx, New York. The petition reads as follows:

"Senator IRVING M. IVES
ROBERT F. WAGNER
Washington, D.C.

"President TRUMAN's statement calling for millions of American Dollars to arm the Fascist, Greek and Turkish Governments shocked the American people. ROOSEVELT's plan for peace is being wrecked! We protest the increasingly aggressive policy that is being followed by our Government. We urge that all international disturbances be acted upon by the United Nations." b6 b7C

Appearing as signers to the above petition were R. STOLZBERG and I. STOLZBERG, [redacted]

MARY FRANCES WALTER

JN T-105 advised on August 20, 1964, that WALTER will be departing Denver, Colorado, on or about August 23, 1964, for a month's vacation. Informant advised that the first three weeks of this vacation will be spent by WALTER as the unpaid secretary for COFO in Jackson, Mississippi, which organization is reportedly coordinating civil rights in Mississippi. (U)

Informant from October 16, 1962, through July 1, 1963, advised that WALTER has been the secretary of the Denver Chapter, FPCC and in 1963, participated in picket lines regarding civil rights matters. During 1962 and 1963, WALTER attended a number of meetings sponsored by the militant forum. WALTER in the past has contributed to the national office of the FPCC and in March, 1963, participated in picketing former Major General EDWIN A. WALKER when he appeared in Denver. (U)

A characterization of the FPCC, Denver Chapter, appears in the appendix of this report.

DR. PETER WEISS

In the "Milwaukee Journal," a Milwaukee, Wisconsin, daily paper, of June 25, 1964, BRUCE AMUNDSON, a civil rights worker, was reported as listing Wisconsin volunteers for the Mississippi Project. One of those named was DR. PETER WEISS. b6 b7C [JN T-106 advised on May 7, 1962,] that a car with a California license assigned to PETER WEISS, [redacted] accompanied another car in Madison, Wisconsin which bore GUS HALL. According to the informant, HALL had just addressed a meeting of the Wisconsin Socialist Club in Madison and he was then taken to the private residence by the club members. The informant said the WEISS car was parked outside that residence for the full period of time the meeting was held at the private home.

JN T-67 reported during June, 1963, that GUS HALL was then General Secretary of the CPUSA.

CHRISTOPHER WILSON, aka Chris Wilson

In a letter dated June 29, 1964, MISS TERRIA SHAW, COFO, Hattiesburg, Mississippi furnished the names of individuals who were to be working for COFO in Hattiesburg, Mississippi, during the summer of 1964. Included on the list is the name of CHRIS WILSON. This letter is on the letterhead of SNCC.

ELIZABETH WILSON, aka BETTY ANDERSON, MRS. RICHARD WILSON, mother of CHRISTOPHER, is a former self-admitted member of the YCL and the Los Angeles County CP. MRS. WILSON appeared before the HCUA on September 21, 1951, as a friendly witness wherein she admitted CP membership during the period 1938-1947.

B. STUDENT NON-VIOLENT COORDINATING COMMITTEE (SNCC)

JN T-10 on June 22, 1964, furnished a pamphlet entitled, "Mississippi: Handbook for Political Programs" bearing the sub-caption: "COFO, 1017 Lynch Street, Jackson, Mississippi." After an introduction in this pamphlet and following a historical background, the heading "SNCC Enters State" appeared with the following partially quoted passage: "It was clear that the Freedom Movement would make no positive headway in Mississippi until the racial composition of the electorate was radically changed. Voter registration, therefore, was chosen as the prime focus of movement activities in the State."

There are set forth below names of persons who are/or were connected with Mississippi Summer Project under the sponsorship of SNCC, including a brief resume relating to each.

On November 18, 1964, Miss ELAINE SINGER, Volunteer Worker, COFO, Vicksburg, Mississippi, advised that occasionally it was difficult to distinguish a worker of COFO from one of SNCC. She stated that no distinction was actually necessary between these groups, as several racial groups contributed to the formation of COFO, although some workers continued to identify themselves with the older organization, SNCC.

MICHAEL T. AIKEN AIKEN, MIKE [redacted] b6 b7C

JN T-10 in June, 1964, furnished a list of individuals who were identified as persons who made application for and were accepted for attending the Orientation Conference held at the Western College for Women, Oxford, Ohio. The list included the name of MICHAEL AIKEN, of Madison, Wisconsin.

JN T-110 on March 4, 1964, advised that MICHAEL AIKEN made a contribution at Madison, Wisconsin, to the National Committee to Aid the Bloomington Students.

HORACE JULIAN BOND

HORACE JULIAN BOND stated on May 26, 1964, he is employed as Communications Director at the headquarters of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, 8½ Raymond Street, Atlanta, Georgia. He also stated that his father, Dr. HORACE MANN BOND, is employed as Dean at the Atlanta University, Atlanta, Georgia. HORACE JULIAN BOND also stated on May 26, 1964, he expected to be working on the Mississippi Summer Project in Greenwood, Mississippi, from about the middle of June, 1964, until about September 1, 1964, and expected to spend time in Mississippi as well as Atlanta during that period.

The Spring, 1963, issue of the magazine "Freedomways," contained an article entitled "Nonviolence: An Interpretation," by HORACE JULIAN BOND.

A characterization of Freedomways is contained in the appendix of this report.

IVANHOE GAYLORD DONALDSON

[JN T-112 advised on June 30, 1964, that] IVANHOE DONALDSON, a Negro, [redacted] and formerly student, Michigan State University, East Lansing, Michigan, was at that time located in the State of Mississippi engaged in Civil Rights activities. According to this informant DONALDSON had been arrested during January, 1963, at Clarksdale, Mississippi, for Unlawful Possession of Drugs.

[JN T-113 advised on July 2, 1964,] that some time prior to January, 1962, DONALDSON had been referred to the Mental Hygiene Clinic at the University and was denied further readmittance to the University until this Clinic authorized his readmittance. This informant stated the University administration had experienced difficulty with DONALDSON in the past because of worthless checks passed by this student, and grades were held up for this student until restitution could be made for checks cashed.

JN T-114 advised on January 12, 1964, that earlier on December 30, 1963, JOHN HENRIK CLARKE, Associate Editor, "Freedomways," 799 Broadway, New York City, New York, was in contact with IVANHOE DONALDSON, named in charge of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, 6 Raymond Street, Northwest, Atlanta, Georgia, at which time CLARKE thanked DONALDSON for calling CLARKE's home to inquire about the type of material needed for the next issue of "Freedomways" which would be devoted to the Southern Freedom Movement. According to this informant, CLARKE also informed DONALDSON that an article written by DONALDSON had been received which would be passed on to other members of the magazine staff. (U)

LARRY LOCKSHIN

In the July 10, 1964, issue of the "Golden Gater," a San Francisco State College campus newspaper, there appeared an article captioned, "SF friends of SNCC say 'all in our hands.'" In reporting on the activities of the San Francisco State Friends of Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee, the article said that the Friends were more active, and identified LARRY LOCKSHIN as a student at San Francisco State College who was working in the Greenville, Mississippi, voter-registration drive. CALIF

According to the records at San Francisco State College which were reviewed on July 15, 1964, LARRY LOCKSHIN is the son of LEO ARNOVICH LOCKSHIN and MARY LOCKSHIN. MR + MRS

JN T-115 advised on November 15, 1946, that in 1944, LEO LOCKSHIN donated five hundred dollars ($500.00) to the Communist Party, and in 1945, donated two hundred and fifty ($250.00) to the Communist Party. (U) CALIF

JN T-116 has reported that Mr. and Mrs. LEO LOCKSHIN were members of the American Russian Institute of San Francisco as of January, 1947. According to informant, Mr. and Mrs. LEO LOCKSHIN contributed twenty dollars ($20.00) to the institute in May, 1946, and fifteen ($15.00) to the institute in August, 1946. (U)

JN T-117 reported on May 13, 1947, that as of May, 1947, LEO LOCKSHIN had a subscription to the "Daily People's World."

> The "Daily People's World," now known as the "People's World," is a west coast communist newspaper published in San Francisco, California.

JN T-118, in February, 1952, identified LEO LOCKSHIN as an individual who talked a great deal, and tried to impress others with his importance. Informant related that at times, LEO claimed to have been a member of the Communist Party, and on one occasion was soliciting for the "Daily People's World."

LEO LOCKSHIN was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI, San Francisco, on June 27, 1952. LEO denied ever having been a member of the Communist Party or having attended any Communist Party meetings. He commented that if he contributed to the Communist Party he did so indirectly and unwittingly. LEO further commented that he had contributed to the American Russian Institute of San Francisco, but claimed he could not recall whether he ever attained membership status in the institute. LEO went on to say that his association with the institute was very limited and this association had taken place at the close of World War II when Russia was a popular ally of the United States.

Continuing, LEO considered himself to be a thoroughly loyal American who would lay down his life for the United States in the event of open warfare with Russia.

N.Y. OHIO ORE

JN T-119 advised on September 28, 1964, that both ROBERT and LISA MANDEL departed Clarksdale, Mississippi, during the last week of August, 1964, en route to their residence in California, after having worked in connection with the Mississippi Summer Project.

MR & MRS WILLIAM MARK ~~MANDEL~~

On June 3, 1964, Mrs. WILLIAM ~~MANDEL~~, [redacted] identified herself as the mother of ROBERT MANDEL, formerly a student at Reed College, Portland, Oregon, and presently married to one LESLIE GRUBER, previously residing at [redacted] Mrs. MANDEL stated that following her son's marriage to Miss GRUBER on June 6, 1964, both of these persons would attend a training school at Western College for Women at Oxford, Ohio.

79. ~~SECRET~~

JN T-120 advised on June 4, 1964, that while MANDEL was never known to have been recruited into the Communist Party in Oregon, he was nevertheless closely associated with a number of individuals known by this informant to be youth members of the Communist Party at Portland, Oregon. According to this informant, during January, 1963, MANDEL was a roommate of JOE WEISMAN and during early March, 1964, MANDEL was also a roommate of ALLEN SILVERSTONE This informant stated that as of January, 1963, WEISMAN engaged in Communist Party activity at Reed College and this was also true of SILVERSTONE effective March, 1964.

CHARLES E. TRIMBLE, Intelligence Officer, Portland Police Bureau, Portland, Oregon, advised on April 7, 1964, that ROBERT MANDEL led a picketing demonstration at the United States Court House, Portland, Oregon, on April 7, 1964, at which time the Subversive Activities Control Board convened at that Court House to hear testimony bearing upon whether or not BENJAMIN GERALD JACOBSON and NORMAN HAALAND should be ordered to register as members of the Communist Party under provisions of the Internal Security Act of 1950.

JN T-121 advised approximately April, 1964, that BENJAMIN GERALD JACOBSON and NORMAN HAALAND were known to be long time members of the Communist Party and have taken a prominent place in Communist Party leadership.

JN T-122 advised during April, 1964, that JACOBSON and NORMAN were known to be prominent leaders in the Communist Party and were recognized as long-time members of the Communist Party.

JN T-120 advised on June 4, 1964, that ROBERT MANDEL had been a participant in a student peace vigil held on October 26, 1962, at the Portland Pioneer Post Office Building, Portland, Oregon, under the sponsorship of the Portland Students for Peace (PSP). According to this informant, this vigil was in protest of the blockade of Cuba imposed at that time by President KENNEDY. This informant stated the participants in this vigil carried placards carrying such slogans as: "Peace, not Annihilation, and "No War Over Cuba."

A characterization of the Portland Students for Peace (PSP) has been included in the appendix.

JN T-123 advised on July 19, 1963, that MANDEL, among others present, suggested at a meeting of the W.E.B. Du Bois Club held on July 14, 1963, at Berkeley, California, that the Du Bois Club gather support from the "liberal" and "radical" groups on campus to stage a rally in support of President KENNEDY's position interpreted by those present as "toward peaceful negotiations with the Soviet Union." According to this informant, another member of this club pointed out on this occasion that the Du Bois Club should never rally in support of President KENNEDY, lest it should be interpreted that this club was in support of his other programs. (U)

JN T-120 advised on April 18, 1963, that a meeting was held of the Political Affairs Club (PAC) at Portland, Oregon, on April 14, 1963, and ROBERT MANDEL, among others, heard HYMAN LUMER speak. According to this informant, LUMER spoke on this occasion upon a number of topics including his recent imprisonment under a provision of the Taft-Hartley Law barring communists from holding executive positions in trade unions. According to this informant, LUMER charged on this occasion that "a stool pigeon" had put him in prison and while this was unjust, such could be expected in this country.

JN T-67 advised on March 7, 1963, that HYMAN LUMER had resumed his former position as national education director for the Communist Party, United States of America. (U)

A characterization of the Political Affairs Club (PAC) has been included in the appendix.

THOMAS WILSON RAMSAY TOM RAMSAY

THOMAS WILSON RAMSAY advised on November 21, 1964, that he is Director of Federal Programs, Madison County, Mississippi, a project of COFO, and also a paid representative of CORE. He stated that he was directing Madison County efforts to elect Negroes to the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation County Committee.

RAMSAY advised on the same date that he had participated in demonstrations in San Francisco against the House Committee on Un-American Activities and that he had engaged in Fair Play for Cuba Committee activities.

JN T-135 advised on October 10, 1963, that at a meeting of the San Francisco Branch of the Socialist Workers Party, held on October 9, 1963, a member of the San Francisco Branch of the Socialist Workers Party, who was also a member of the Bay Area Young Socialist Alliance (BAYSA), stated that TOM RAMSAY, San Francisco State College Student Body President, was a member of the BAYSA.

A characterization of the BAYSA is set forth in the appendix.

The April 29, 1963, issue of the "Golden Gater," a publication of the Associated Students of San Francisco State College, stated that TOM RAMSAY was recently elected President of San Francisco State College.

JN T-136 advised on November 4, 1963, that TOM RAMSAY, San Francisco State College Student Body President, attended a meeting of the San Francisco Branch of the W.E.B. Du Bois Club which was held at 1007 McAllister Street, San Francisco, on November 3, 1963. RAMSAY attended this meeting in an attempt to establish communications between the San Francisco Branch of the W.E.B. Du Bois Club and the BAYSA, and to coordinate picketing activities. (U)

C JN T-137 made available on May 12, 1964, a copy of a letter under letterhead of the National Lawyer's Guild dated April 15, 1964, from [redacted] of the National Lawyer's Guild (NLG) addressed to all members of the Guild and captioned:

"Mississippi and the Guild's Committee for Legal Assistance in the South.

There follows a description of the Mississippi Summer Project and a characterization of COFO, after which appears the following, set forth in part herein:

"The Problem of Lawyers

"A problem of major concern to the delegates at the COFO meeting was how to assure maximum legal protection and assistance for the workers in such a campaign in a state that has only three (3) attorneys (all Negroes) who will accept the defense of civil rights cases, and where court-assigned attorneys refuse to raise constitutional issues.

"The Guild's Concern as a Bar Association

"The Guild is not a civil rights organization. It is a national bar association of attorneys, professionally and personally committed for the past twenty-seven years to the defense of the civil rights and liberties for all people.

"The distinction is important because it explains why the Guild itself cannot become an integral part of a lay defense organization or association of such organizations. Our concern in the Mississippi Project is to attempt to redress the lack of available lawyers in Mississippi ready, willing, and able to handle civil rights cases.

"And we would hope that our example might bring an increasing awareness of their professional obligation to members of the Mississippi Bar which would permit us to reduce and eventually withdraw our commitment. Unfortunately, no indication of such a development has yet taken place.

"The Guild's Program for Mississippi

"The Proposal: It is proposed that the Guild and its members make available the maximum legal assistance possible to those participating in the Mississippi Project."

The "Mississippi Free Press," a weekly newspaper published at Jackson, Mississippi, in the May 30, 1964, issue reported under the caption "Volunteer Lawyers Corps" information reflecting that more than sixty attorneys had agreed to spend two weeks or more in Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Louisiana, and Florida, in an effort to protect the legal rights of anti-segregation demonstrators and Negroes seeking the right to vote. According to this article, an organization to be known under the name "Lawyers Constitutional Defense Committee" was formed at New York City on May 20, 1964, in order to carry out the above stated purposes, with JACK GREENBERG acting as Director - Counsel.

Listed below are the names of professional individuals who were associated with Mississippi Summer Project for a brief interval. Descriptive summaries concerning each one set forth.

The "Kalamazoo Gazette," a daily newspaper of general circulation, Kalamazoo, Michigan, issue of July 6, 1964, on Page 1, carried an article "Attorneys report For Work In Jackson, Miss."

This article is by JACK HAWTHORNE, who is listed as Gazette Staff Writer. Article in part states that after a restless night in a strange city, five Kalamazoo attorneys; namely, WILLIAM CULVER, THOMAS CAREY, E. GEORGE PERDIX, RICHARD ENSLEN, and JUSTIN BROCATO, reported to work in a small office deep in the Negro section of Jackson, Mississippi.

The "Kalamazoo Gazette" dated June 3, 1964, Home Edition, Page 21, carried an article, "Four Local Attorneys to Assist in Mississippi Rights Cases," written by JACK HAWTHORNE, Gazette Staff Writer. The article states in part that four Kalamazoo attorneys will spend a week this summer in Mississippi donating their legal talents to the defense of persons arrested for civil rights demonstrations. The above listed individuals expect to spend the week of July 6 in the State of Mississippi under the sponsorship of the National Lawyers Guild (NLG).

A characterization of the Detroit Chapter of the NLG appears in the appendix.

On June 18, 1964, JOSEPH J. JERKINS, Chief Assistant Prosecuting Attorney, Kalamazoo County, Kalamazoo, Michigan, advised that Attorney DEAN ROBB of Detroit, Michigan addressed the Kalamazoo County Bar Association in April or May of 1964 and told of his experience in defending persons arrested in the State of Virginia in connection with civil rights matters. In his address, ROBB described the need for attorneys in representing persons arrested in Mississippi in connection with civil rights activities.

According to Mr. JERKINS, Kalamazoo County Circuit Judge RAY W. FOX, after hearing ROBB's speech, was very enthusiastic and he encouraged ENSLEN and other attorneys in the Kalamazoo area to devote one week to help in defense of persons arrested in civil rights matters in the State of Mississippi. MICH

CLEAVON GOVAN, an admitted former member of the Communist Party on December 7, 1951, advised DEAN ROBB was associated with the Communist Party as of December, 1951.

The "Kalamazoo Gazette," dated July 11, 1964, Page 1, carried an article captioned "Local Attorneys Close Out Week in Mississippi" written by JACK HAWTHORNE, Gazette Staff Writer.

The article states in part that five Kalamazoo attorneys today were winging their way homeward after winding up a week of legal activities in defense of civil rights in an active, successful, manner. The article in essence states that the five attorneys, although only in Mississippi for a short period of time, were of great assistance to persons arrested for civil rights activities and that their very presence in Mississippi proved that someone really cares concerning the people involved in civil rights activities there.

The "Michigan Chronicle," a weekly newspaper published in Detroit, Michigan, for the Negro community, in its July 4, 1964 edition, Page 12-B, columns 3 through 5, contained an article captioned "Local Attorneys Volunteer To Aid in Mississippi." The article in part states as follows:

"Members of the Wolverine Bar Association have responded in large numbers with volunteers who have made commitments to render legal services in Mississippi this summer.

"'Nearly twenty members have signed commitments', said Bar President, MYZELL SOWELL. 'The entire membership is deeply concerned for the plight of Negroes in Mississippi,' he continued.

"Of the nearly 70 attorneys who have volunteered to participate in the National Lawyers Guild Committee for Legal Assistance to the South, (CLAS), the Wolverine Bar Association has provided the largest number of representatives...

JN 100-57

On August 27, 1963, Sergeant Stanley Kowalski, Criminal Intelligence Bureau, Detroit Police Department, advised that MILTON R. HENRY, an attorney, is considered a controversial figure. He stated that MILTON R. HENRY is a former Air Force Lieutenant who was court martialed at Selfridge Air Force Base and dismissed from the service in 1944 charged with being absent without leave nine times in 13 days and with disrespect to superior officers. He was quoted as saying at the court martial, "All revolutions have been initiated by minorities. Remember the French Revolution and the Russian Revolution. In each case it was the minority who rules, and some day I too will be in a position to dictate." b7D

[redacted] advised on May 26, 1964, regarding a Friday Night Socialist Forum (FNSF) at Eugene V. Debs Hall, 3737 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Michigan, on May 22, 1964, as follows:

Time	8:30 p.m. - 10:00 p.m.
Attendance	90 - 100; 15 percent - 20 percent were Negroes not previously seen at Debs Hall.
Speaker	Attorney MILTON R. HENRY; "Proportioned Underground Guerilla Warfare"

Points of Speaker's Talk - There are many Negroes who believe that in order to gain their freedom they must do it with love. They still believe everything must be done within the boundaries of law. But, this is a questionable procedure, for Negroes have been trying for over 150 years to gain their freedom and be heard both by violent and peaceful means and neither method has worked well.

At this point examples of Negro petitioning the legislature and of Negro violence incidents were given. All of them shown to be failures. Also a lengthy speech of over 100 years ago was read and the essence of it was the calling of Negroes to action because there was no other way to gain freedom from slavery than by force.

> The recent stall-in in New York did not come off but the stalled subway at 42nd Street shows the havoc which can be caused by a saboteur, which HENRY believes is the cause of the subway incident.
> Negroes do not have to bear arms in the form of guns for a match could do more damage if thrown in the correct place. This is proportional action. There is no intent to aimlessly kill people, white or any color, as would be done if guns were used. The amount of damage inflicted would be in proportion to the amount of reason given by white supremists for this action.
> The damage of warfare would be aimed at buildings and property and not at people. For example, if the court houses of Mississippi were targets of the guerilla attacks, there would be more understanding of these attacks because the court houses have been the stages for inhumane action against Negroes.
> If the job of attacking by guerillas were done by a secret order or done quickly and efficiently, the havoc could be accomplished and there would not be enough police around to be able to stop the action. There is a huge gas tank on Lyndon (?) which would certainly make a loud explosion. Even if police were to kill 15 Negroes attempting to blow it up that would not stop that one who is finally able to get through.

A summary of MILTON HENRY's speech would be that he is trying to show that a well disciplined underground of all black guerillas could cause pandemonium and in this way let everyone know that the Negro aims to gain his absolute, complete freedom. The sabotage of buildings, gas tanks, grain storage elevators, etc., would be for the purpose of waking everyone up to the fact that Negroes want to be heard. The group would be all black, well disciplined, and dedicated. It was repeated often that there is no desire to kill people for the sake of killing, but that the aim would be at property.

There is not recalled anytime when HENRY gave a direct call for this to be actually done but rather he attempted to attach a big "if" to his talk. Thus, he implied that such and such would happen "if"...

Also, it was not gathered from his speech that the aim was to ultimately destroy the government but rather to make freedom gains under the existing system.

A characterization of the Detroit Branch of the SWP is attached hereto [redacted] b6 b7C b7D

[JN T-142 on February 27, 1964,] provided information which is in part as follows:

The speaker, MILTON HENRY, was introduced at approximately 8:10 p.m. His topic was "Proportioned Underground Warfare." HENRY said he was not speaking as a member of GOAL, leaving us with the implication he was speaking as a private citizen. HENRY said that all through history no group of people ever received their rights by asking the dominant power group for them. Instead, the oppressed obtained their rights by revolution and fighting for them. However, throughout the history of the Negro in the United States, the Negro, for some reason, has only asked for his rights, allowing for a few exceptions that were notably unsuccessful. HENRY then read a speech that was written by an American Negro approximately 150 years ago. The speech told of how the Negro in the United States has not had equal rights, Negroes have been forced into prostitution, Negroes are not allowed to worship God fully and in the manner they wish to. The speech went on with a call for Negroes to armed revolt against their rulers as the only way to obtain freedom. At the conclusion of reading the speech, HENRY said that although the speech was written 150 years ago, it still fits Negroes today. HENRY explained that by "proportioned underground warfare," he means that for every injustice done to the Negro, then destruction, in proportion to the wrong done, must be performed by the Negro. For example, HENRY said that Patrolman SPICHER, who shot CYNTHIA SCOTT, must never be allowed to perform a policeman's duties on the street again. If SPICHER were assigned to street duty, then he would definitely have to be eliminated. HENRY seemed very determined in discussing the SPICHER - SCOTT case, and very excited. Although he did not use the work "kill," he left us with the definite impression that SPICHER would be killed if assigned to street duty again. HENRY did not say when or if underground warfare would begin, nor did he say by whom. He said that if 100 Negro freedom fighters participated, however, that the movement would be successful. HENRY further explained proportioned warfare. He said that in Alabama and Mississippi, where great injustices have been committed to the Negro, the state capitols in these states could be blown up by freedom fighters. This would be in proportion to the injustice done. HENRY did not mention who would determine the extent of the injustice committed. However, it was our impression that freedom fighters would decide the proportion of injustice and corresponding retaliation. HENRY stressed the point that through property damage no one would be killed, for he did not think that killing people was fair. However, if some people got killed during the course of destruction, HENRY said this would be unfortunate and undesirable, but would not change his opinion of continuing warfare. Also, some Negroes may not like the idea of underground warfare, refuse to support it, or even fight against it. In that case, HENRY said these Negroes must be "whipped into line" to end opposition. Further, examples of warfare would be to cut all power lines leading into Detroit or blowing up a large gas storage tank located on Lyndon Street in Detroit. HENRY said that this type of warfare is bound to be successful because the United States does not have enough policemen to guard all installations, buildings and other targets. HENRY said that destruction could be accomplished with the use of stick matches or by electronic detonating devices. In describing possible destruction to Detroit, and in the South, HENRY laughed and smiled several times, leaving with us the impression that he thinks bombings and destruction would be fun. Apparently he felt he may have left this impression, for he pointed out that he wanted no warfare, but felt this was the Negroes only alternative to obtain civil rights. He also pointed out to the audience that he is not a pyromaniac, and does not obtain any special pleasure out of fire or explosions. HENRY said that once a sufficient amount of destruction was accomplished, the United States power structure would be willing to "give" the Negro equal rights. He said he did not like the idea of the government "giving" the Negro anything but this would only have to occur this one time. HENRY said he does not believe in fighting the police in the street in order to obtain equality, because this method has proved unsuccessful. However, underground warfare, HENRY feels, is bound to succeed and is simple.

The Group on Advanced Leadership is described in above-mentioned mimeographed leaflet as: a Detroit direct-action group, first organized in 1962 and now with a membership list of 750, whose most active core is made up of rank-and-file workers, teachers, professionals, and a legal staff of a half-dozen young attorneys. We have waged several successful campaigns: 1) to compel the Detroit Board of Education to introduce a new history supplement correcting the lies told about the Negro in the basic history test; 2) for the employment of Negro managers and department heads and the placement of Negro-manufactured products in the A & P food stores. We have also organized several mass demonstrations against police brutality and furnished legal defense for many victims of Detroit police brutality and intimidation. We are now conducting a campaign for 40 percent Negro enrollment in Apprentice Training Programs and in construction work contracted by the City of Detroit and the Board of Education.

Eighty pickets from the Group on Advanced Leadership (GOAL) demonstrated for nearly three hours yesterday afternoon on the Woodward side of the City-County Building in support of a request for a public investigation into the death of CYNTHIA SCOTT.

Miss SCOTT, 24, of 83 Edmund Place, was shot July 5, 1963, by Central Station Patrolman THEODORE SPICHER.

SPICHER said he shot Miss SCOTT, a convicted prostitute, in self-defense when she lashed at him with a knife while he was trying to arrest her.

It is public information that Patrolman SPICHER was cleared of all charges in this case.

JN T-144 on June 9, 1964, provided information which is in part as follows: (C) (U)

Attorney MILTON R. HENRY was the speaker at the SWP FNSF on May 22, 1964. Approximately 60 people were in the hall, 3737 Woodward Avenue, Detroit, Michigan, at the beginning of his speech shortly after 8:00 p.m. but late arrivals gradually swelled this number closer to 100. Many of the SWP regulars were in attendance but at least one-third of those present were Negro, many strangers to the writer. (C)(U)

The speech, which was tape recorded, as well as the questions from the floor and his answers, urged violent resistance as the only possible solution for the Negro problem. (C)(U)

Mr. HENRY is an eloquent speaker and during the course of the evening he was constantly urged on by remarks such as "lay it on the line," "give it to them good," "that's right, tell them," from several persons in the audience. It was the most intense group of people the writer has ever witnessed at one of these affairs. (C)(U)

He began his address by reading "Garnet's Call to Rebellion in 1843," taken from the book, "A Documentary History of the Negro People in the United States" by HERBERT APTHEKER. And this call of rebellion was the tone of his entire address. He constantly emphasized the damage that could be done with "one little book of matches"; that they were not unlawful to have in one's possession; and how such tactics, directed properly and carried out by 100 "revolutionaries" throughout the United States could do more to secure Negro freedom and equality than any laws that could or would be passed. He mentioned the fact that traffic was still unable to use 42nd Street in New York City because of the subway train that burned on the day the Fair opened; the fact that no city has a police force large enough to cope with such harassment; the large gasoline storage tanks in and around Detroit and the damage that could be caused by "one little book of matches". Although he denied that individual retaliation should be the purpose of such actions, he did admit that individuals would be killed or injured as a consequence. The only action toward the individual according to him, should be in cases where the courts have freed persons guilty of crimes committed against Negroes. He degraded the progress made by members of his own race that have become judges or received high political appointments, saying they had sold out their race for their own professional advancement. (C) JN

He mentioned that the "revolutionaries" and the fight to be waged would have to be exclusively Negro in view of betrayals by whites in the past. (C) JN

After he completed his speech, the Negroes in the audience clustered around him but it was noticeable that none of the SWP members joined him. (C) JN

JN T-86 advised on December 13, 1959, that HERBERT APTHEKER was elected to the National Committee Communist Party, United States of America at its 17th National Convention, December 10 - 13, 1959.

JN T-145 advised on February 8, 1964, in part as follows:

On May 22, 1964, there was a SWP sponsored forum held at EUGENE V. DEBS Hall, Detroit.

The meeting was attended by approximately 90 people; there were approximately 35 male Negroes and approximately 20 female Negroes. The principal speaker was MILTON R. HENRY who is a member of Group on Advanced Leadership.

The speaker spoke on how the Negro could undertake proportioned underground guerilla warfare in the United States in order to gain his freedom.

Speaker HENRY started off by reading a speech that was written 125 years ago by a Negro in which the main theme is the same as today and that is freedom for the Negro. HENRY said that 125 years after this speech that the Negro is no nearer freedom than he was then. HENRY said that if the Negro moved underground and cut all the communication lines in all the big cities, burned cotton warehouses in the South and sabotaged the railways and subways, this would cut into the capitalist's pocketbook and they would in a hurry give the Negro his freedom. HENRY said this method would beat all the picketing, the sit-ins, the marches and the speeches that have proved to be a waste of time. HENRY said there would be no blood shed but this would wake the people up and make the Negro free. HENRY also said the only way to get your freedom is to fight for it. He said the United States could not have gotten its freedom if it did not fight for it.

JN T-141 advised on June 11, 1964, that since HENRY's speech on May 22, 1964, he has heard no comment concerning it from SWP members or associates. Also he has no knowledge of any action taken by any Negro group as a result of HENRY's speech.

On January 16, 1963, Mr. L. E. MC DONOUGH, Administrative Officer, Regional Office, Wage-Hour and Public Contracts Division, United States Department of Labor, Engineers Building, Cleveland, Ohio, advised that O. LEE MOLETTE is currently employed as a Wage and Hour Investigator at the Detroit Branch Office of the Wage-Hour and Public Contracts Division, United States Department of Labor, and has been so employed since January 29, 1962.

The "Boston Herald," a daily newspaper published at Boston, Massachusetts, on July 5, 1964, carried an article entitled "Boston Lawyers Volunteer." In this article it was mentioned that at least four Boston lawyers would join two hundred other volunteer attorneys from throughout the country in working for a minimum of two weeks in Mississippi and other segregated states to assist any of the civil rights workers who might get in trouble with the law in those areas.

The article went on to say that one of the Boston volunteers was Mrs. ANN COOPER, [redacted] who left for Jackson, Mississippi on the previous Wednesday for three or four weeks and that the others would follow later. The others were identified as Attorneys EDWARD J. BARSHAK, MAX ROSS and RICHARD BANKS.

MRS MAX ROSS LAURA M. ROSS

The records of the Bureau of Vital Statistics, Borough of Manhattan, New York, New York, as reviewed on March 13, 1964, show a marriage registration certificate No. 22460, for LAURA M. NADDELL and MAX ROSS dated September 19, 1963. This certificate shows that MAX ROSS, a white male, was born April 2, 1902, in Vilna, Russia, the son of MICHAEL and MINNIE GRAFF ROSS, both of whom were born in Russia. ROSS's address was listed as being 1536 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston, Massachusetts, and his occupation was that of law clerk. This was the first marriage for MAX ROSS and the second for LAURA M. NADDELL, nee KAPALOWITZ.

The 1943 Polk's Boston City Directory shows MAX ROSS, an attorney, was a resident of 79 Phillips Street, Boston, at that time.

JN T-152 on July 9, 1943, furnished information showing that MAX ROSS of 79 Phillips Street, Boston, had at an unknown time been a member of the International Workers Order (IWO), Lodge No. 114.

JN T-153 on March 20, 1964, advised the meeting of the Boston Jewish People's Forum (BJPF) had been held on March 15, 1964, at the Town and Country Club in Dorchester, Massachusetts, at which the featured speaker was WILLIAM PATTERSON. According to informant among those present at this meeting were LAURA and MAX ROSS, who commented that they knew PATTERSON well.

A characterization of the BJPF appears in the appendix of this report.

In a flyer advertising the above meeting, WILLIAM PATTERSON was described as a "noted Negro attorney who has been in the forefront of the fight for Civil Rights for many years, a writer and lecturer...."

According to informant, PATTERSON, during his talk, said that in his desire to see that all people have an equal opportunity, he found that the Communist Party was the greatest leader in trying to make this possible and that he became a member of the Communist Party.

JN T-154 advised on June 29, 1962, that LAURA NADDELL, as of May, 1962, was assigned on a full-time basis to devote herself to political activity in the Brownsville Section of Brooklyn, New York for the Kings County Communist Party. (U)

Mrs. ANN COOPER, also known as Betty Ann Lynch [redacted]

The above-mentioned article from the "Boston Herald" mentioned that she had attended training sessions June 6 and 7, 1964, at Columbia University in New York City in preparation for her trip to Mississippi. It was further mentioned that she had spent two weeks in Danville, Virginia the previous summer in connection with Civil Rights matters. According to the article she was raised in Alaska and graduated from Barnard College in New York in 1955 and the Harvard Law School in 1958. She had worked for the Federal Government for two years.

On July 7, 1964, Miss MARION BALMAIN, Registrar's Office, Harvard Law School, Cambridge, Massachusetts, advised that her files indicate that Mrs. BETTY ANN LYNCH COOPER is an attorney with the law firm of HERRICK, SMITH, DONALD, FRALEY, and KETCHUM, 294 Washington Street, Boston. The above files also show that the former BETTY ANN LYNCH, who married JOSEPH COOPER on July 28, 1957, attended the University of Washington from September, 1950 to December, 1952. She then attended Barnard College from September, 1953 to June, 1955 at which time she received an A.B. Degree.

In July, 1953, the Seattle Federal Bureau of Investigation Office conducted an investigation concerning BETTY ANN LYNCH who is now known as Mrs. ANN COOPER, an attorney of Boston, Massachusetts. This investigation developed that BETTY ANN LYNCH, [redacted], attended the University of Washington, Seattle, Washington, from September 27, 1950, to December, 1952, majoring in economics.

All persons interviewed during this investigation indicated she was an outstanding student of good moral character. Professor HUGH A. BONE, Political Science, indicated, among other things, that LYNCH "did not appear to be in sympathy with Communist Party principles" and Assistant Professor JAMES A. CRITCHFIELD, Economics Department, also indicated she was "opposed to communism," however, Mr. I. S. BLUMENFELD, Mahager, University News Section, Public Information Office, and Mrs. PAUL M. KING, Supervisor of University News Section, both indicated that LYNCH expressed more than the usual interest in civil rights and they considered her "very liberal." Mr. BLUMENFELD added that LYNCH's "boyfriend was ANDREW FELTON BRIMMER, a Negro student at the University.

ANDY BRIMMER WASH

With respect to BRIMMER:

On April 22, 1948, the newspaper "The New World" carried an article indicating the setting up of the Young Progressives of Washington in a major conference preceding the founding convention of the Progressive Party of Washington. This article carried a photograph of the officers elected in the Young Progressives of Washington and named them as follows:

LYLE MERCER - President
BERT PELTO - Vict President
ANDY BRIMMER - Treasurer
LONNIE NELSON - Secretary.

With reference to BRIMMER's fellow officers in the Young Progressives of Washington, LYLE MERCER, President, [according to JN T-155, JN T-156 and JN T-157] was closely associated with known communists.]C U

BERT PELTO, Vice President, was mentioned in an article in the "Pullman Herald," Pullman, Washington, March 4, 1949, as being the student president of the Society of Propaganda Analysis, a campus organization at the Washington State College. The article reflected that the Washington State College refused permission to the Society to hold a meeting on the campus at which Dr. H. J. PHILLIPS, who was dismissed from the University of Washington on his own admission that he was a Communist Party member, was to be the principal speaker. According to the article PELTO had made application for permission to hold the meeting at which PHILLIPS was to speak.

The above informants also advised that LONNIE NELSON, Secretary, Young Progressives of Washington, whose true name is MADELON SUE NELSON, is known as a close associate of Communist Party members. They also said LONNIE NELSON's parents are BURT and HELEN NELSON, known members of the Communist Party.

The above informants, as well as JN T-158 and JN T-159 who had knowledge of Communist Party activities in Seattle and Tacoma, Washington, advised they had never heard the name BETTY ANN LYNCH mentioned in Communist Party circles and that LYNCH was unknown to them.

Characterizations of the "New World" and the "Progressive Party" appear in the appendix.

FRANK A. ANGLIN, JR.

On September 21, 1964, ANGLIN's secretary was contacted under suitable pretext and she advised that ANGLIN was presently in Chicago, Illinois; however, he had gone to Mississippi during the summer of 1964. She was unable to furnish the exact dates but she believed it to be July 19 through 26, 1964.

JN T-160 advised in October, 1963, that ANGLIN was then treasurer of the Chicago Committee to Defend The Bill of Rights (CCDBR) and had been in a policy making position of that organization since 1960.

JN T-161 advised in September, 1963, and January, 1964, that as of September, 1963, ANGLIN was Legal Counsel for the Afro-American Heritage Association (AAHA) in Chicago, Illinois and in December, 1963, was a member of that organization.

A characterization of the AAHA is contained in the appendix.

EDWARD J. BARSHAK MASS MISS

The article in the "Boston Herald" mentioned that Attorney EDWARD J. BARSHAK was from Brookline and was the local recruiter for the lawyer's volunteer program. It further mentioned that he is active in the New England region of the American Jewish Congress and is the "authority for the paucity of Civil Rights counsel available in Mississippi."

No information has been developed indicating that BARSHAK is a member of or affiliated with any subversive organization.

ROGER E. CRAIG

In the July 20, 1964, issue of the "Detroit News" a daily Detroit metropolitan newspaper of general circulation, an article appeared captioned: "Can't Sit By, Lawyer Says; Going to Mississippi," which article set forth one ROGER CRAIG, among several other attorneys would go to Mississippi to defend the civil rights of demonstrators. According to this article, the trip of these attorneys was sponsored by the Detroit Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild.

Both the Michigan State Bar Journal and the Detroit City Directory, issued for 1964, reflect CRAIG resides [redacted] with professional offices located 2800 Cadillac Tower Building, Detroit, Michigan.

U
[JN T-138 advised on February 21, 1963,] ROGER E. CRAIG was named as one of the three vice presidents of the Detroit Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild, according to a letter dated November 8, 1962, prepared upon stationery of the National Lawyers Guild announcing a meeting of the executive board of the Detroit Chapter of this organization.

EUGENE CRANE

U
[JN T-162 advised on June 15, 1964,] that a copy of a newsletter published by the National Lawyers Guild dated June, 1964, reflected that GENE CRANE was one of four members of the Chicago Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild (CCNLG) volunteering to serve as counsel in Mississippi from August 1 through August 8, 1964, in connection with the Mississippi Summer Project.

~~SECRET~~

On September 29, 1964, it was determined through the use of a suitable pretext that EUGENE "GENE" CRANE, an attorney with offices at 7 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, served as a volunteer counsel in the Hattiesburg, Mississippi area during the second week in August, 1964; namely, August 9 through August 15, 1964. On this occasion it was also determined that CRANE resided at [redacted]

A characterization of the National Lawyers Guild, Chicago Chapter, has been included in the appendix.

JN T-163 advised on September 21, 1964, that a meeting had been held the previous evening of the Jewish Cultural Clubs at 4818 North Kedzie, Chicago, Illinois, at which gathering a speaker was identified as "EUGENE CRAINE" who was a lawyer from the National Lawyers Guild and one who had participated in the Mississippi Summer Project. According to this informant, this speaker discussed his experiences in Mississippi during the summer of 1964. (U)

A characterization of the Jewish Cultural Clubs has been included in the appendix.

PATRICIA EAMES

A letter dated July 22, 1964, signed BURKE MARSHALL, Assistant Attorney General, United States Department of Justice, set forth the names of a list of lawyers, including the name PATRICIA EAMES, as those individuals who would arrive at Jackson, Mississippi within the following few weeks to work with representatives of the National Council of Churches in Mississippi. This person, named by Assistant Attorney General MARSHALL as Assistant General Counsel for the Textile Workers Union of America, New York City, New York and 1958 graduate of Yale Law School, was scheduled to depart on July 20, 1964, for Jackson, Mississippi.

JN T-164 advised on May 14, 1964, Miss PATRICIA EAMES's application for admission to the New York State Bar, filed April 27, 1959, reflected the following:

Miss EAMES, [redacted] resided [redacted] during 1959 and attended undergraduate studies at Reed College. She indicated she had been a member of the "Young Progressives of America" for two and a half years and an officer in Young Progressives of America (YPA) for one and a half years. She indicated she had done volunteer work for the Workers Defense League during 1958 - 59, as well as for the American Civil Liberties Union dating from 1950. She also indicated she had held membership in the Workers Defense League in New York City as well as the National Association for the Advancement of Colored Persons dating from 1958. She indicated further she had been a member of the Young Peoples Socialist League at Oberlin College for a one-year period.

A characterization of the "Young Progressives of America" is contained in the appendix.

The "Young Peoples Socialist League" is publicly known as the youth affiliate of the "Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation."

The following pertinent questions and answers appeared in the application of Miss EAMES, according to this informant:

QUESTION: "Are you now or have you ever been a member of or affiliated in any way with any organizations or groups listed as subversive by the Attorney General of the United States?"

ANSWER: "Yes" (the applicant underlined the word in the above question "affiliated")

QUESTION: "Have you paid dues to, contributed in any way, or signed any petition for any such organization or group?"

ANSWER: "Yes"

QUESTION: "If answer is yes...give...name and address of organization or group."

ANSWER: "1) Civil Rights Congress, Portland, Oregon."

"2) California Labor School, San Francisco, California."

The California Labor School, San Francisco, California, has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

QUESTION: "When were you a member?"

ANSWER: "1) 1948
2) 1949"

QUESTION: "Period of your association or connection with it"

ANSWER: "1) one half hour
2) two weeks"

QUESTION: "How and why you became associated or connected with it"

ANSWER: "1) The CRC held a meeting in Portland on some Civil Rights issue which seemed to me a good cause.
2) I wanted to study trade unionism and Marxism"

QUESTION: "How and why you severed your connection with it if you did"

ANSWER: "1) A speaker at the meetings was explaining why the CRC defended the civil rights of communists. I asked whether it defends the rights of fascists and was told it did not, and that the two problems were quite different. Disagreeing I left the meeting."

"2) After attending four classes I realized a) that the school was oriented entirely to the party line, and b) that there was no possibility of reasonable argument or discussion with these people. I left."

QUESTION: "Do you believe in the principles underlying the form of government of the United States?"

ANSWER: "Yes"

QUESTION: "Can you...affirm that you are, without any mental reservations, loyal to the Government of the United States?"

ANSWER: "Yes"

MARY ANN GLENDON, also known as M. A. Glendon

On September 18, 1964, Justice of the Peace C. B. GORDON, Batesville, Mississippi, advised that an attorney, MARY ANN GLENDON, a member of the MAYER, FRIEDLICH, SPISS, TIERNEY, BROWN and PLATT, [redacted], appeared in the Justice of the Peace Court on the morning of September 17, 1964, during the trial of CYNTHIA WASHINGTON, a COFO worker. He advised that Miss GLENDON requested permission to represent the defendants in this matter; however, since she was not licensed to practice in the State of Mississippi, he did not allow her to represent this individual. He said that she was present during the trial. CYNTHIA WASHINGTON was being tried on a Contempt of Court charge.

[JN T-165 on January 7, 1955,] made available information believed to relate to a subscription to the "Daily Worker" and for the "Worker". The information furnished was as follows:

MARY ANN GLENDON

[redacted]
May 12, 1954 S.

Informant on March 18, 1955, provided material which revealed MARY ANN GLENDON was a subscriber to either the "Worker" and/or the "Daily Worker" in 1955.

JN T-5 advised on February 27, 1954, that MARY ANN GLENDON was either a subscriber to the "Worker" and/or the "Daily Worker" in 1954. Informant, on October 2, 1953, advised that in 1953 MARY ANN GLENDON was either a subscriber to the "Worker" and/or the "Daily Worker." (U)

NORMAN CECIL HOWARD

JN T-166 on August 28, 1964, reported that NORMAN HOWARD spent two weeks during the summer of 1964 working on the drive to register Negroes in the South.

JN T-167 advised on September 24, 1964 that she had learned from HOWARD that he had been in Mississippi this summer to help on some of the legal problems in the registration of Negro voters. This informant advised that HOWARD is white, employed as an attorney, and resides at [redacted]. b6 b7C

JN T-168 reported on February 27, 1962, that as of 1946, HOWARD was a member of the Mike Quinn Club of the Communist Party of Los Angeles.

JN T-169 advised on February 16, 1953, that NORMAN HOWARD, then a member of the Communist Party for about six years, was being transferred from the Los Angeles County Communist Party to the San Francisco, California, Legal Group of the Communist Party. In the Los Angeles group he had been active in Section Leadership (U)

JN T-170 reported on May 14, 1953, that in 1953 HOWARD was being transferred from the Los Angeles County Communist Party to the Communist Party of Northern California. He had been complaining that open contact by Communist Party members was jeopardizing his security in his job as an attorney for Shell Oil Company. (U)

JN T-171 advised on August 9, 1959, that HOWARD, through the Communist Party, was seeking to learn if any persons had been subpoenaed before the House Committee on Un-American Activities forthcoming hearings in San Francisco, whose name had not appeared in the newspapers. HOWARD was conferring with Santa Clara County Communist Party leaders regarding the upcoming hearings. (U)

LARRY KENNON

The "Chicago Defender", a Negro newspaper published in Chicago, Illinois contained an article in its weekly edition of July 25 through 31, 1964, which reflected that among the lawyers scheduled to do legal volunteer chores in the Magnolia State (Mississippi) in August was one LARRY KENNON. The August 29, 1960, edition of the same paper reflects that LARRY KENNON, Assistant United States Attorney, was among thirty bathers who staged a wade-in on August 28, 1960. KENNON stated that the group was made up of young adults from CORE, NAACP and the Chicago Youth Committee For Civil Rights.

On June 30, 1964, JN T-162 furnished a newsletter issued by the Chicago Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild which showed that the NLG Committee For Legal Assistance In The South held a meeting in Detroit, Michigan, at Wayne State University, on June 5 and 6. The Newsletter stated that among those attending was LAWRENCE KENNON and also stated that it was hoped that LARRY would join the Guild.

JOHN G. LANKENAU JOHN LANKENAU

On August 3, 1964, the Civil Rights Division of the Department of Justice advised that subject was one of several attorneys who would leave New York City enroute to Jackson, Mississippi, where he would assist with legal matters related to the Mississippi Summer Project. His address was listed as [redacted], and he is a former Assistant United States Attorney. b6 b7C

Dr. JOHN L. EDWARDS, [redacted] advised on March 15, 1955, that during Spring of 1949 he accepted an invitation to speak before the Parent Teachers Association of Germantown, New York, regarding the Compulsory Health Insurance Program. During his talk, he commented that the program was another step toward the Communist form of government. Dr. EDWARDS stated that during the question and answer period two or three young men were severely critical of his talk and exhibited a tense and heated attitude as opposed to the debate type of rebuttal. Dr. EDWARDS was later told that one of the young men was JOHN LANKENAU. EDWARDS stated that he could not recall the specific comments but it was his impression that the comment which disturbed the boys most was the fact that he referred to compulsory health insurance as a Communist trend. EDWARDS got the general impression that these boys were somewhat radical rather than Communist sympathizers.

ALEX KLOPOTOV, [redacted] advised on March 10, 1955, that he was present during the meeting where Dr. EDWARDS was a guest speaker and spoke on the subject of socialized medicine and compulsory health insurance. After Dr. EDWARDS had completed his talk, JOHN LANKENAU and his brother, WALTER, took the opposing point of view and defended socialized medicine and compulsory health insurance. In their defense of this point of view, JOHN and WALTER LANKENAU turned the topic of discussion to the Soviet Union and praised conditions there and benefits to be derived under the Soviet regime. At first the emphasis was on socialized medicine but as the discussion progressed, many phases of Soviet life under present Soviet regime were praised. After the above-described meeting, KLOPOTOV stated he had no contact with either JOHN or his brother, WALTER, but on the basis of their display of political sympathies, he would not recommend either for a position with the United States Government. To KLOPOTOV, the brothers displayed political sympathies which he did not believe to be truly American. As a result, he did not consider JOHN LANKENAU a loyal American.

Mr. MARSHALL DAVIS, Hudson, New York, advised on March 16, 1955, that his contact with JOHN LANKENAU has been limited since 1945, but he questioned the political sympathies of JOHN LANKENAU and he is of the opinion that in the past he has had communist leanings. DAVIS recalled on one or two occasions while LANKENAU was still in high school, overhearing him in discussion with other students at which time he stated that he favored the Russian form of government. Due to the period of years which have elapsed, he was unable to furnish any additional details.

Mrs. EMMA LASHER, Germantown, New York, advised on March 24, 1955, that she had met JOHN LANKENAU on one occasion, at a Parent Teachers Association meeting about five years previously. Mrs. LASHER recalls the topic of Communism was discussed and that both LANKENAU boys spoke in favor of Communism. She advised that she received the impression that the boys, JOHN and WALTER, were in sympathy with the Communist movement. Due to the period of time that elapsed, she could not furnish any additional information.

JERRY S. MC CROSKEY

The "Muskegon Chronicle" a daily newspaper published in Muskegon, Michigan, dated July 15, 1964, page 25 carried an article reflecting that subject, a Muskegon attorney in the law firm of Marcus, McCroskey, Libner, Reamon, Williams and Dilley, would spend a week in Mississippi defending persons arrested in civil rights cases.

The article states that MC CROSKEY will leave Muskegon Sunday, July 19, 1964, bound for Jackson, Mississippi. He is sponsored by the Detroit Chapter of the National Lawyers Guild.

JN T-172 during December, 1951, advised that SAUL GROSSMAN, while in Muskegon within the past few weeks talked with law partners BEN MARCUS and JERRY S. MC CROSKEY and arranged with both of them to handle the defense of MICH persons possibly subject to deportation. According to informant, GROSSMAN was acting on behalf of the Michigan Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (MCPFB) regarding the above arrangements. (C) & (C) (U)

JN T-173 on November 4, 1963, advised that on this date SAUL GROSSMAN was last known to him as a Communist Party (CP) member as of August 16, 1961, at which time GROSSMAN was not assigned to a CP Club in the Michigan District. (C) & (C) (U)

HENRY W. MC GEE, JR. [redacted] b6 b7C

The "Chicago Defender", a local Chicago newspaper, in its weekly issue of July 25-31, 1964, identified HENRY W. MC GEE, JR., as a Negro attorney from Chicago who spent several days during July, 1964, in Mississippi as a member of the Committee for Legal Assistance in the South giving assistance to civil rights workers in Mississippi. LL.

JN T-162 furnished on June 30, 1964, a newsletter from the National Lawyers Guild, Chicago Chapter, which states in part that HENRY MC GEE was one of those attending the NLG Committee for Legal Assistance in the South, held in Detroit, Michigan, on June 5-6, 1964.

JN T-174 on December 23, 1947, advised that in December, 1946, the name HENRY W. MC GEE, JR., [redacted] appeared on a membership list of Lodge 751, International Workers Order (IWO) Chicago, Illinois. Also included on that membership list were HENRY W. MC GEE, SR., born in 1910, ATTYE BELLE MC GEE, born 1910 and SYLVIA E. MC GEE [redacted]

JN T-175 advised that on August 2, 1946, one HENRY MC GEE spoke at a mass demonstration meeting held in Chicago sponsored by the Chicago Citizens Committee Against Lynching.

JN T-160 has advised that the Chicago Citizens Committee Against Lynching was an outgrowth of a meeting of Communist Party functionaries, July 27, 1946, at Chicago, set up for the purpose of protesting lynchings in Georgia. (U)

Records of the House Committee on Un-American Activities reflect that one HENRY W. MC GEE was listed as a midwest sponsor of the Spanish Refugee Appeal of the Joint Anti-Facist Refugee Committee, as of April 14, 1947.

The Joint Anti-Facist Refugee Committee has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

JN T-176 advised on January 28, 1948, that HENRY W. MC GEE was a member of the Board of Directors of the National Negro Museum and Historical Foundation, Incorporated, Chicago, Illinois.

JN T-177 advised on June 3, 1946, that the National Negro Museum and Historical Foundation, Inc. was a Communist Party front group.

PETER MICHAEL MARCUSE

The June 24, 1964, edition of the "Waterbury American" a Waterbury, Connecticut, daily newspaper, on page 1 contained an article captioned "Mississippi Freedom". This article revealed that two ministers, a lawyer, and a college student would serve as volunteers in the Mississippi Freedom project and would remain in that state for a period of fifteen days where they would pay all expenses incurred by them. Attorney PETER MARCUSE, former alderman from Waterbury, Connecticut, was listed as the attorney who would come to the State of Mississippi.

On June 17, 1964, MELVIN L. WULF, Legal Director, American Civil Liberties Union, furnished the Memphis Office of the FBI a list of attorneys who would serve in the South during the Summer of 1964 for the Lawyers Constitutional Defense Committee, New York, New York. Included on this list was the name PETER MARCUSE, [redacted] who would serve at Jackson, Mississippi, July 3-18, 1964.

until January 10, 1956. [redacted] has voluntarily furnished information to the FBI since February, 1952. b6 b7C b7D

FRANK SIMPLICIO PESTANA

On December 11, 1964, Mr. W. C. WILLIFORD, Mayor, Drew, Mississippi, advised that on July 15, 1964, the Drew Police Department arrested approximately twenty civil rights workers on various charges. On July 16, 1964, FRANK PESTANA appeared at the City Hall in Drew and posted the bond for all of the individuals arrested and at that time asked a delay in the trial which was scheduled for the 16th of July to be held on July 22, 1964. The delay was requested in order for them to secure competent local counsel.

ATTORNEY

According to Mr. WILLIFORD, FRANK PESTANA did not at any time represent the civil rights workers in court. He stated further that from his own investigations, he determined that FRANK PESTANA returned to Los Angeles and was there on July 28, 1964.

JN T-137 advised on May 12, 1964, that the NLG and its members through the Committee for Legal Assistance in the South, proposed to make available the maximum legal assistance possible to those participating in the Mississippi Project during the Summer which Project included voter registration freedom schools, operation of community centers and special projects. Those attorneys who agreed to come and stay in Mississippi for an extended period of a week or more were expected to render their legal services gratuitously and the NLG would pay for his transportation to and from his Mississippi location .

(U) JN T-178 on June 30, 1964, identified PESTANA as a current member of the Scientists and Engineers Club, Southern California District Communist Party. (U)

Informant advised that [redacted] a member of the NLG, planned to depart Los Angeles, California, on July 3, 1964, for a two-week tour of Mississippi. [redacted] indicated that he would pay his own expenses while traveling as a guest of the NLG. (U)

Informant advised that JEAN KIDWELL PESTANA, also an attorney, wife of FRANK SIMPLICIO PESTANA, is a current active member of the Scientists and Engineers Club, Professional-Cultural Section, Southern California District Communist Party. PESTANA and wife have been hostile witnesses before the House Committee on Un-American Activities and have served as legal counsel for other witnesses before this committee. Both have traveled to Cuba and have delivered numerous illustrated lectures depicting improved conditions under CASTRO. (U)

WALTER SOROKA

In the September 10, 1964, edition of the "Arlington Heights Herald", weekly newspaper published at Arlington Heights, Illinois, WALTER SOROKA was reported to have spent the week of August 9-15, 1964, in Mississippi as a visiting lawyer defending civil rights cases. He was reported to have donated his time to the "Mississippi Summer Project" and to have spent most of his one-week stay in Mississippi at Greenwood, where he worked out of the headquarters of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee. According to this article, SOROKA left Mississippi on August 15, 1964, and returned to Chicago.

JN T-179 on June 15, 1964, furnished a June, 1964 newsletter published by the Chicago Chapter of the NLG which reflected that at a recent meeting of the Chicago Chapter of that organization, WALTER SOROKA, Secretary, was one of four officials of the NLG who volunteered to serve as counsel in Mississippi for at least a week during the Summer.

Informant advised ~~that~~ on November 10, 1958, that during the years 1957-1958 SOROKA was treasurer and a member of the Executive Board of the Chicago Chapter of the NLG and was a member of the National Executive Board of the NLG.

JN T-8 on June 7, 1962, advised that the name of SOROKA, as of June, 1962, was included on a "sustainer" list of the regular monthly contributors to the Chicago Committee on Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR). (C) (U)

JN T-180 advised on March 7, 1960, that on March 3, 1960, SOROKA attended a special meeting called by the Executive Board of the Midwest Committee for Protection of Foreign Born (MCPFB) for the purpose of setting up committees to handle arrangements for an affair sponsored by the MCPFB and he was selected to work on the Program Committee. (C) 4

A characterization of the MCPFB appears in the Appendix of this report.

JN T-174 advised on January 8, 1949, that SOROKA was elected financial secretary of Lodge 1813, International Workers Order (IWO) during August, 1946. R&I 4

ALLEN ZEMMOL, ATTORNEY MICH

The "Detroit News" a Detroit metropolitan daily newspaper of general circulation, issue of July 12, 1964, Eight Star Final, Page 12-A, contained an article captioned, "Can't Sit By, Lawyer Says; Going to Mississippi". The above captioned article reads in part as follows:

"Attorney Allen Zemmol 'must' go to Mississippi to try civil rights cases during the first week in August ...

"Zemmol is a 34-year old lawyer with a good practice, a home in Oak Park and a wife and three children. He endorses civil rights as a moral issue, but has never joined a freedom march nor carried a sign...

"'It shouldn't be necessary for Northern lawyers to go down there. We're going there strictly to act as lawyers, to represent people who have no lawyer and can't get one.'

"The trip is being sponsored by the Detroit Chapter of the National Lawyers' Guild, but the lawyers said they will have to pay most or all of their own expenses..."

JN T-76 advised on January 4, 1963, that JUNE FINER and DR. QUENTIN YOUNG attended an affair December 16, 1962, sponsored by the Chicago Sobell Committee (CSC).

The CSC and the Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell characterizations are contained in the appendix.

MRS. J.S. CRAWFORD, [redacted] on June 19, 1963, advised that since 1962 DR. YOUNG has [redacted] with JUNE FINER who has been known to [redacted].

F. FREEDOM SCHOOLS

A news article appearing in the late city edition of "The New York Times" on July 5, 1964, reflected that a group of teachers and students left New York City on July 4, 1964, by bus for Memphis, Tennessee, to teach in Freedom Schools in Mississippi. The article stated that this group, which was sponsored by the United Federation of Teachers, will participate in a three day orientation period and then participate in six weeks of teaching in special summer schools for Negro students.

This article noted that the following individuals were departing in this group:

Mrs. HAROLD BECKER, a 34 year old Manhattan Junior High School teacher, who is one of the leaders of this group.

Mrs. LEON FORER, who teaches nursing at Adelphi (College) and whose husband is a public school teacher.

Miss MARILYN RAPLEY, a [redacted] year old Negro student at Buffalo State Teachers College.

A news article appearing in the Final edition of "The New York Daily News" on July 5, 1964, referring to the same departure featured a photograph of the following individuals who were departing by bus on July 4, 1964, for Memphis, Tennessee.

FRANCES FENICHEL, a teacher
MARILYN RAPLEY, a student
MARIAN FORER, a nurse
Mrs. NORMA BECKER, a teacher
Mrs. HAROLD BECKER, also known as Mrs. Norma Becker nee Norma Pliskin.

On October 28, 1964, Mrs. M. MORGAN, [redacted] advised a Special Agent of the FBI that as of October 1, 1964, Mrs. BECKER had moved to 30 East 9th Street, New York, New York, with her two children, having separated from her husband, HAROLD BECKER.

N.Y.

Mrs. MORGAN stated that Mrs. BECKER was an organizer, by her own admission, in obtaining teachers to participate in the Mississippi Summer Project, and that BECKER departed from New York by bus on July 4, 1964, with others, for Memphis, Tennessee, and subsequent work in Mississippi. Mrs. MORGAN stated that BECKER returned to New York from Mississippi at the end of July, 1964, to meet her children returning from summer camp and then took them on a vacation to California. Mrs. MORGAN advised that she had no other information concerning BECKER's trip to Mississippi.

JN T-213, on August 3, 1954, advised that he had known NORMA BECKER by her maiden name, Norma Pliskin, and recalled that she had worked with the Bronx County American Youth for Democracy (AYD) and he knew her to be a member of the AYD in 1947 and 1948.

JN T-214, on May 4, 1952, made available information which reflected that one NORMA PLISKIN, 2135 Grand Avenue, Bronx, New York, had signed a petition to the President of the United States and the Attorney General protesting the indictment and arrest of the leaders of the Communist Party of the United States (CP, USA). (U)

JN T-215 advised on May 3, 1954, that NORMA BECKER, 485 Central Park West, New York, New York, was a member of the Seventh Assembly District, Labor Youth League Club, (LYL) as of April 28, 1954. (U)

Records of the Credit Bureau of Greater New York, as reviewed by IC VINCENT J. PULEO on July 9, 1964, revealed a report dated September, 1952, which reflected FENICHEL's address at that time as [redacted] and that she was employed by the New York City Board of Education.

Mrs. LEON FORER, aka Mrs. Marian Forer

MISS

JN T-7, on May 21 and May 22, 1961, advised that the name of one MARIAN FORER, [redacted] was in the possession of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee, 799 Broadway, New York, New York, in May, 1961.

BETTY CARSTENS

At a meeting of the Discussion Unlimited, Incorporated (DU) held on October 16, 1964, at Fairfax High School in Los Angeles, California, BETTY CARSTENS stated that her summer as a Mississippi student volunteer started with an orientation course in Ohio. She stated she and about fourteen other individuals headed for Holmes County, Mississippi, and five of them went to Mount Olive, Mississippi. She went on to say that they held "Freedom Schools" and taught various subjects to the kids.

An article entitled "Panel to Discuss Youth Problems Next Friday" appeared on page 3 "People's World" February 22, 1964. According to this article a discussion by a panel of prominent youth and adult leaders was to be held at the next forum sponsored by Discussion Unlimited on February 28, 1964, at Los Angeles High School, 4600 West Olympic Boulevard. Dr. ARTHUR L. CARSTENS of the UCLA Institute of Industrial Relations will moderate this discussion.

WILLIAM THEODORE DOYLE, aka Bill Doyle

On December 11, 1964, GREGORY C. HEWLETT, [redacted] MISS advised that he lived with BILL DOYLE at the home of JERRY WOULLARD, [redacted] from July 5, 1964, until July 20, 1964. He stated that he believed DOYLE lives in Berkeley, California, and that he is a teacher or professor. While in Mississippi, DOYLE taught Negro history in the Freedom School.

JN T-125 advised in 1958 that the subject was closely allied with the Communist Party and is a Communist sympathizer. A Communist Party member advised the source in 1958 that DOYLE was a member of the Communist Party but at that time was out of the Communist Party; however, he maintained friendly relations with the Communist Party. (U)

JN T-218 advised in 1961 that DOYLE attended a meeting of "liberals" to protest a lecture series sponsored by the Berkeley Evening School, entitled "Facts About Communism." MICKEY LIMA, Chairman, Northern California District Communist Party, was among the 30 people present. (U)

ELIZABETH FUSCO MRS LUKE FUSCO

On October 12, 1964, JN T-2 advised Special Agents of the FBI that he had received information from a source which he considered to be entirely reliable concerning a meeting of the Mississippi Student Union on October 11, 1964, at the Pratt Memorial Methodist Church, 1059 Pascagoula Street, Jackson, Mississippi. Informant stated that one of the leaders of COFO, ELIZABETH FUSCO, was directing the meeting and attempting to point out to the students in attendance how to override and negate the authority of their teachers in the public schools. According to informant, FUSCO had sighted the following examples:

You should pick a teacher and delve into her background to discover any lapse in her behavior and use this mistake to discredit her in the eyes of her other students. Informant also advised that FUSCO had told the students that in the event their parents complained of their activities that they should say "we are doing now what you should have done years ago."

Informant stated that FUSCO was a school teacher and had been working in a Freedom School in Indianola, Mississippi. Informant stated that he had observed ELIZABETH FUSCO in the offices of the State Mutual Federal Savings and Loan Association, 1072 Lynch Street, Jackson, Mississippi, on the morning of October 12, 1964. He described her as young, fine featured, blonde hair worn in braids, and wearing house slippers. He stated that according to his source, FUSCO usually wore house slippers or went barefooted.

JN T-219 advised on June 30, 1964, that ELIZABETH FUSCO's husband, LUKE FUSCO, is in close association with KAE NORTON, Chairman, Youth Commission, Northwest District, Communist Party. (U)

STAUGHTON CRAIG LYND

During June, 1964, JESSE MORRIS, Volunteer Worker, COFO, Jackson, Mississippi, advised that STAUGHTON LYND was in charge of the Freedom Schools Project of the Mississippi Summer Project for 1964.

JN T-220 made available information on February 18, 1964, regarding comments made by STAUGHTON LYND on that date before a meeting sponsored by the "National Guardian" newspaper. According to this informant, during this meeting held at Town Hall, 123 West 43rd Street, New York City, New York, LYND remarked that he believed news coverage of the assassination of President KENNEDY was an example of managed news, citing as examples the fact that the autopsy report was delayed in being published, the fact that bullets were fired by one man in such a short time, and the fact that one of the bullets entered the body of the President from the front. This informant stated LYND suggested there was a governmental conspiracy and concluded: "We lied about the U-2 incident, the Bay of Pigs, and in my judgment, we are lying about the assassination."

JN T-221 advised on January 5, 1964, that DAVE DELLINGER spent that night at the STAUGHTON LYND residence at Atlanta, Georgia. JN T-222 advised on December 7, 1962, that as of that date DAVE DELLINGER was in contact with BEN DAVIS. JN T-223 advised on May 7, 1962, that during May, 1962, BENJAMIN J. DAVIS stated he was then the National Secretary of the Communist Party. (U)

JN T-224 reported on November 4, 1964, a meeting of the Student Committee for De Berry and Shaw of the Young Socialist Alliance on October 30, 1964, at the Woodstock Hotel, 127 West 43rd Street, New York City. The meeting consisted of a panel discussion on "The Ghetto and Political Action." Members of the panel were JAMES SHABAZZ from the Muslim Mosque, Incorporated, STAUGHTON LYND, Director of the Mississippi Freedom Schools, and two others. The meeting was attended by 275 people. Those present were urged to vote Socialist in the next election.

BERKELEY DU BOIS CLUB; EAST BAY DU BOIS CLUB

A source advised on April 12, 1963, that the W.E.B. DuBois Youth Club, Berkeley Chapter, originated in October, 1962, principally through the efforts of MATTHEW HALLINAN. The club has distributed a statement of purpose which reads in part as follows:

"The W.E.B. DuBois Club believes that only through the establishment of a socialist economic system can the basic problems of our nations be solved. We are an independent youth organization with no commitment to any political party. Out organization is pledged to a study of scientific socialism in order to develop a road to progress which will fulfill the finest traditions and aspirations of our American society, and which will best meet the needs of our American situation. The two primary functions of the Dubois Club are to provide a forum in which to study the principles of socialism and to educate others through action within this framework."

This same source advised in October, 1963, that MATTHEW HALLINAN was elected as Chairman and Communist Party Youth Commission Representative of the Berkeley Communist Party On-Campus Youth Club during September, 1963.

University of California, Berkeley, California, records in April, 1964, reflected that the DuBois Club is recognized as an "off campus" organization, having registered as such with the Dean of Students Office, for the Spring, 1964, semester. As an "off campus" organization, the DuBois Club is allowed to present lectures on the campus if permission is obtained in advance from the University.

A second source advised in April, 1964, that the following are the principal officers of the W.E.B. DuBois Youth Club - Berkeley Chapter:

Chairman - PAUL RICHARDS
(JACK WEISS will substitute in RICHARDS' absence)

~~SECRET~~

Secretary - LEE GOLDBLATT

Treasurer - SUE MILLUNCHICK

The first source advised during December, 1963, that PAUL RICHARDS and SUE MILLUNCHICK attended a Communist Party contact class held in November, 1963, in Berkeley, California.

A third source advised in April, 1964, that JACK WEISS is a current member of the Oakland-Berkeley Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP).

A fourth source advised in March, 1964, that LEE GOLDBLATT was a new subscriber and held a yearly subscription to the "People's World."

The "People's World" is a West Coast communist newspaper published weekly in San Francisco.

The second source advised further on April 13, 1964, that the W.E.B. DuBois Youth Club - Berkeley Chapter, is currently active as a membership organization, however, it has no official headquarters. The club uses 1811A Woolsey Street, Berkeley, California, as its regular meeting place.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE, BAY AREA CHAPTER, also known as Bay Area Fair Play for Cuba Committee (BAFPCC) ~~SECRET~~

The "New York Times" newspaper on November 20, 1960, carried an article captioned "Pro-Castro Body Reports U. S. Gain," which reported that the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) had 5,000 paid-up members in the United States. The article declared that the FPCC had headquarters at 799 Broadway, New York City, New York, and had chapters in other cities, including one in San Francisco.

A source advised in March, 1961, that the Bay Area Chapter of the FPCC (BAFPCC) began to be formed in San Francisco in November, 1960, under the direct guidance and leadership of ASHER HARER, who the source identified as a member of the San Francisco Branch of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and a member of the National Committee of the SWP.

> The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A source advised in May, 1963, that the BAFPCC is currently active in the San Francisco area and includes members in San Francisco and surrounding counties. He advised that the BAFPCC has no headquarters but received mail through Post Office Box 2615, San Francisco 26, California, which is a box maintained by ASHER HARER. He stated that the announced aims and purposes of the BAFPCC are to "spread the truth about Cuba and to prevent U. S. intervention in Cuba."

A source advised in March, 1963, that in the recent elections of the BAFPCC, the SWP continued its influence by having SWP members elected to the Executive Committee.

ADVANCE YOUTH ORGANIZATION

THEODORE I. FRIEDMAN, who voluntarily furnished information concerning Communist Party (CP) Front activities to the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) from April, 1958, to July, 1962, advised on February 18, 1960, that Advance, An Organization of Progressive Youth, was founded in New York City on February 13, 14, 1960.

A source advised on March 2, 1960, that, according to the Secretariat of the Communist Party, United States of America (CPUSA), the Declaration of Principles adopted at the founding convention of Advance were essentially the line of the leadership of the CPUSA. ( )

AARON COHEN, a member of the CP from 1947 to 1957 and from December, 1961, to October, 1963, stated in December, 1961, that at a meeting of CP members of Advance, held on December 20, 1961, MARVIN MARKMAN declared that Advance had been initiated by the CP as a Marxist-Leninist youth organization.

AARON COHEN advised on January 4, 1963, that MARVIN MARKMAN was a member of the National Youth Commission CP, USA.

A second source reported on February 14, 1964, that MIKE ZAGARELL was elected President of Advance Youth Organization.

AARON COHEN advised on October 9, 1962, that on October 7, 1962, a CP Youth Club held a caucus called by the New York District Youth Coordinating Committee of the CP at New York City. MIKE ZAGARELL attended the caucus.

The source reported on April 21, 1964, that the Advance office was located at 169 Allen Street, New York City.

MIDWEST STUDENT CIVIL LIBERTIES COORDINATING COMMITTEE (MSCLCC)

On May 9, 1961, a source advised that a conference was held on May 5 and 6, 1961, at the University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of discussing the creation of an organization known as the MSCLCC. This source advised that at this Conference, a temporary organization, to be known as the MSCLCC, was created, and that the purpose of this group would be to include in its program all civil liberties problems, with particular emphasis on the abolishment of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. It was also stated that the MSCLCC would be opposed to any suppression of ideas, whether it be governmental, economic or social. Further, the MSCLCC was to take an aggressive position and fight for the preservation of liberties granted by the First Amendment, and all tactics furthering this end are good. This source also stated that at the Conference it was decided that the MSCLCC would continue on a temporary basis until the fall of 1961, at which time a new and permanent organization would be formed.

On February 5, 1962, the above source advised that Richard Criley, Executive Secretary of the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights, was the Adult Advisor in setting up and organizing the initial Founding Conference of the MSCLCC. This source advised that throughout the period, May, 1961, through February, 1962, the MSCLCC was merely a name utilized by Richard Criley in an effort to provide guidance, direction and control to the Student Civil Liberties Movement.

On February 5, 1962, the above source advised that since the original Founding Conference, at which the MSCLCC was created as a temporary organization, there has been no sustained program of activities by the MSCLCC. This same source advised that during the fall of 1961, no additional Conference was held as originally planned to create a permanent MSCLCC, and as of February, 1962, there is no organization, formal or informal, in existence utilizing the name MSCLCC.

A second source on June 16, 1961, advised that during 1961, Richard Criley was a member of the State Committee, Communist Party of Illinois.

THE UNITED STATES FESTIVAL COMMITTEE, INC.
(Eighth World Youth Festival)

The magazine "World Youth," third issue, 1961, a bi-monthly English language publication of the World Federation of Democratic Youth (WFDY), contained an article entitled "8th Festival in Helsinki." The article set out that the first meeting of the International Preparatory Committee (IPC) took place in Helsinki, Finland, February 20-22, 1961, to prepare for the Eighth World Youth Festival which was to be held in Helsinki in 1962.

The article set out that the IPC elected a permanent commission composed of representatives of a number of countries including Canada or the United States as well as representatives from the WFDY and the International Union of Students (IUS).

The IUS with headquarters in Prague, Czechoslovakia, and the WFDY with headquarters in Budapest, Hungary, are cited as communist organizations in the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," dated December 1, 1961, published by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., pages 91 and 177.

A source advised that in April, 1961, DANNY RUBIN, National Youth Director, Communist Party, USA, advised that Communist Party districts should concentrate on getting broad groups to sponsor the United States Festival Committee (USFC).

A second source on February 27, 1962, made available a pamphlet issued by the USFC describing the program for the Festival. The pamphlet set out that the USFC was organized by students and youth leaders at a founding conference at Chicago, Illinois, October 15, 1961, and the USFC was organized to publicize and encourage participation in the Helsinki Festival. The pamphlet set out that the USFC had been recognized by the IPC, the sponsoring body of the Festival, as the United States Committee to administer U. S. participation in the Festival. The pamphlet set out the address of the USFC as Room 807, 460 Park Avenue, South, New York 16, New York.

THE UNITED STATES FESTIVAL COMMITTEE, INC. (CONT'D)

The second source made available information on May 23, 1962, that the USFC reported that the dates of the Eighth World Youth Festival had been changed from July 27 - August 5, 1962, to July 28 - August 6, 1962.

The Manhattan, New York Address Telephone Directory dated June 5, 1962, lists the USFC at 460 Park Avenue, South, New York, New York, telephone MU 6-0182.

NEW YORK COUNCIL TO ABOLISH THE HOUSE UN-AMERICAN ACTIVITIES COMMITTEE

On March 9, 1961, a source advised that the New York Council To Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NYCAUAC), 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York, was formed at a meeting held in New York City on November 17, 1960. This organization was founded principally through the efforts of FRANK WILKINSON, Field Representative of the National Committee to Abolish the Un-American Activities Committee (NCAUAC).

[redacted] a former member of the Communist Party (CP) in Los Angeles, California, from 1946 to 1952 who furnished information to the Federal Bureau of Investigation from 1949 to 1952 advised on September 17, 1952, that FRANK WILKINSON was a member of the Los Angeles County, CP as of September, 1952.

A second source furnished on September 14, 1961, a copy of resolutions of the New York Council to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee (NCAHUAC) which were adopted by the NYCAHUAC. One such resolution affirmed the intention to continue to work for the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA) and to continue its efforts to broaden the participation in this fight. Another resolution accepted as a modus vivendi the suggestion of the Field Representative of the "National Committee to Abolish the HCUA" (NCAHUAC) namely that local abolition committees may identify and coordinate their efforts as closely as they desire with NCAHUAC, still maintaining their autonomy for as flexible and independent a program as possible.

A third, fourth, and fifth source have advised during March, 1962, that CP members in the New York City area have been solicited to support activities of the NYCAHUAC during attendance at CP club meetings.

On May 7, 1964, a sixth source advised that the NYCAHUAC continues to function from its office at 150 West 34th Street, New York City, New York.

YOUTH FOR PROGRESSIVE ACTION

A source (1) advised as follows in January, 1964: A meeting was held at the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, on January 12, 1964, to establish a socialist-type activity group. ROBERT BAUM, JOHN TILLOTSON, GRETA FLODQUIST and TOM WAITE were present, and they and another were named as a committee to present a constitution of the new group at a subsequent meeting. BAUM said that on December 26, 1963, he had gone to Chicago and had thereafter attended a meeting held to form a national group for socialist-type activity. BAUM, TILLOTSON, FLODQUIST and WAITE were present at a subsequent meeting of this group in Minneapolis on January 29, 1964. A constitution, previously ratified, was presented in which the new group was named Youth for Progressive Action (YPA) and its aims and purposes were said to be the peaceful end of the cold war, the end of racial and religious discrimination, the alleviation of world problems and full employment. WAITE was then elected chairman, TILLOTSON having declined; BAUM was elected Vice-Chairman.

> On February 4, 1964, a source (2) advised that RALPH TAYLOR, Chairman of the Minnesota-Dakotas District of the Communist Party, USA (MDDCP), had then recently said that the above-named TILLOTSON, FLODQUIST, BAUM and WAITE were all new members of the MDDCP.

A source (3) advised on February 2, 1964, that at a meeting of a governing body of the MDDCP on January 26, 1964, TILLOTSON reported on the formation of the YPA, saying it would look to the Party for advice and that its members were the future of the Communist movement. Source (3) on May 4, 1964, said that BETTY SMITH, Youth Director, MDDCP, had been a moving force in the formation of the YPA. The YPA is substantially under the influence and domination of the MDDCP particularly in the persons of BETTY SMITH and ROSE RENAUD, Secretary, MDDCP, the grandmother of JOHN TILLOTSON.

AMERICAN LABOR PARTY

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the American Labor Party:

"1. 'For years, the Communists have put forth the greatest efforts to capture the entire American Labor Party throughout New York State. They succeeded in capturing the Manhattan and Brooklyn sections of the American Labor Party but outside of New York City they have been unable to win control.'
(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 78)

"2. 'Communist dissimulation extends into the field of political parties forming political front organizations such as the * * * American Labor Party. The Communists are thus enabled to present their candidates for elective office under other than a straight Communist label.'
(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91.)"

On October 7, 1956, PETER HAWLEY, New York State Chairman, American Labor Party, publicly announced the American Labor Party State Committee unanimously approved a resolution dissolving the organization and ordering the liquidation of its assets.

CHICAGO COMMITTEE TO DEFEND THE BILL OF RIGHTS

The Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights (CCDBR) maintains headquarters in Suite 424, 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

A source advised in July, 1960, that RICHARD CRILEY, a member of the Civil Liberties Commission, Communist Party (CP) of Illinois, met with key leaders of the CP of Illinois and discussed with them the fact that the climate in the United States on civil liberties and civil rights issues had changed to the extent that it was now possible to proceed to form a new organization with broad mass support. By doing so, CRILEY believed that people who would not associate themselves with an organization of narrow scope would join a civil liberties and civil rights organization built around a broader issue such as the abolishment of the House Committee on Un-American Activities (HCUA). The CP leaders, after receiving assurance from CRILEY that any new organization that might evolve would protect the Party interests, authorized CRILEY to proceed with his plan to form a broader organization.

A second source advised on October 31, 1960, that a new organization known as the Chicago Committee to Defend the Bill of Rights was formally launched in Chicago at a meeting on October 26, 1960. The stated primary purpose of the new organization was to seek the abolition of the HCUA, and RICHARD CRILEY was named as its Executive Secretary, after having been the guiding force in arranging the October 26, 1960, meeting.

The first source in October, 1960, advised that CRILEY again attended a meeting of the Illinois District CP leadership on October 28, 1960, at which time he reported on the organizational meeting of the CCDBR. CRILEY stated that the immediate purpose of his organization is to obtain mass support to abolish the HCUA, but the new Committee purposes will also include defense of Smith Act and Taft-Hartley victims. He said there will be no formal affiliation with any national organization of similar purpose; however, the CCDBR, according to CRILEY, will consult and have liaison with national organizations having the same purpose. According to the source, the CP leadership agreed with the general direction of the CCDBR as outlined by CRILEY.

CHICAGO COMMITTEE TO DEFEND THE BILL OF RIGHTS

A third source advised on May 10, 1963, that the CCDBR continues to adhere to the same aims and purposes, with RICHARD CRILEY as Executive Secretary; however, its Board of Directors has been expanded to include additional members of the clergy, educators and labor representatives, not known to be CP members.

YOUTH ACTION UNION
formerly known as Los Angeles
Youth For Peace and Socialism

A source advised on May 12, 1964, that during the period January through March, 1962, a series of formation meetings to establish a "socialist youth organization" was held in the Los Angeles area. LEONARD POTASH was acting chairman in charge of the group and PAUL ROSENSTEIN and FRANKLIN ALEXANDER were named to a provisional committee to help organize the new group. On April 3, 1962, the group officially selected the name of Los Angeles Youth For Peace and Socialism (LAYPS) and elected officers.

Source further advised that POTASH, ROSENSTEIN and ALEXANDER as of 1963, were all members of the Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP).

A second source advised on May 12, 1964, that the LAYPS was organized with the full knowledge and assistance of DOROTHY HEALEY, Chairman of the SCDCP, and that several CP members had been approved by HEALEY to teach Marxist theory to the members of the LAYPS. This source further advised that the LAYPS would be a Marxist study and action group and that the teachings of KARL MARX would be followed. Source also advised that although the alleged purpose of the group was to promote "socialism" in the United States, the group considered themselves to be "CP oriented" and were anxious to study the brand of Marxism associated with the CP, USA.

The first source above further advised on May 12, 1964, that in June, 1963, the LAYPS changed the name of the organization to Youth Action Union for two reasons; the first being that it was felt the LAYPS had gained a bad reputation because of its association with CP groups, and the second because it was felt the work "Socialism" in the title was driving away possible recruits.

The chairman of the Youth Action Union is MARVIN TREIGER, who is also the chairman of the Youth Committee, SCDCP.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following concerning World Youth Festivals (1949 and 1959):

"World Youth Festivals (1949 and 1959)

"1. The American Youth for a Free World 'cooperated with' the World Federation of Democratic Youth 'to promote' the World Youth Festival held August 14-28, 1949 in Budapest, Hungary.

A Seventh World Youth Festival, held in Vienna, July 26 - August 4, 1959, was 'Communist-arranged.' Testimony received by the Committee stated the World Federation of Democratic Youth and the International Union of Students set up an International Preparatory Committee to run the Vienna Youth Festival. (Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 378 on the Communist 'Peace' Offensive, April 25, 1951, originally released April 1, 1951, pp. 77 and 78; and Annual Report for 1960, House Report 2237, January 2, 1961, pp. 44 and 45.)"

PUBLIC AFFAIRS FORUM OF UTAH COUNTY, also known as, Peoples League For Peace of Utah County

FREDRICK LEE HEUSER, admitted member of the Communist Party (CP), reported that Public Affairs Forum of Utah County (PAFUC) was organized about 1951 for the purpose of promoting CP peace programs in the vicinity of Provo, Utah.

A source on May 17, 1963, reported that the Chairman of the PAFUC and some members, are members of the CP of Utah.

A second source reported in May, 1963, that the PAFUC continues to promote programs of the CP.

UTAH COUNCIL FOR CONSTITUTIONAL LIBERTIES

FREDRICK LEE HEUSER, Sandy, Utah, in May, 1955, stated he was associated with the Communist Party of Utah as a member and leader from 1948 to April, 1955. In April, 1955, HEUSER reported the Utah Council For Constitutional Liberties (UCCL) was organized at the specific instructions of the Rocky Mountain Regional Leaders of the Communist Party for the purpose of fighting Smith Act prosecutions. HEUSER stated that WAYNE HOLLEY, Utah State Chairman of the Communist Party, organized the UCCL in April, 1955. HEUSER also reported that the majority of officers and members of the UCCL are known to him as being members of the Communist Party, State of Utah.

A source, who is affiliated with the UCCL, on May 17, 1963, reported that the UCCL continues to support programs of the Communist Party and other organizations which have been designated as subversive by the Attorney General of the United States, and many members of the UCCL are known members of the Communist Party of Utah.

WORKERS WORLD PARTY, SEATTLE BRANCH

On July 18, 1961, confidential sources advised that the Seattle, Washington, Branch of the Workers World Party (WWP) was formed in August, 1959. According to these sources, the Seattle Branch, WWP, is affiliated with and follows the aims and purposes of the National WWP, which has headquarters in New York City. These sources advised that they believed the Seattle Branch, WWP, was active at that time following the aims and purposes of the National WWP.

Another source advised on March 13, 1963, that the WWP had no office headquarters in Seattle and that there appeared to be no current organized activity of the WWP in the Seattle area.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA), was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 6, 1963, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 6, 1963, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC) and through an official SWP representative of all YSA NEC meetings. The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the Young Socialist Alliance are located at 125 Fourth Avenue, New York City.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE OF BOSTON

A source advised on October 30, 1959, that at a closed Socialist Workers Party (SWP) meeting held on October 29, 1959, at the SWP headquarters in New York, New York, it was stated that a youth organization named the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) of Boston had just been officially formed.

The publication "Young Socialist" of May, 1960, reported during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled YSA was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Boston was reported as one of the cities represented at this founding conference.

A second source advised on May 29, 1963, that the YSA of Boston continued to be active and that meetings of the YSA of Boston were regularly held at the headquarters of the SWP at Boston, Massachusetts. This second source further advised that the YSA of Boston is the Boston affiliate of the national YSA and follows the aims and purposes of that group.

The Socialist Workers Party has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

MARXIST YOUTH PUBLICATIONS, ASSOCIATES
(Publisher of "Communist Viewpoint")

On May 14, 1962, a confidential source advised that a four day enlarged meeting of the National Executive Committee of the Communist Party (CP), United States of America (USA) and invited guests, was held at CPUSA Headquarters, New York City, May 10 through 13, 1962. During the fourth day's session, May 13, 1962, Daniel Rubin gave a report on youth matters in which he said the energy and funds of the whole Party should be used in a youth program. As part of this program, Rubin called for, among other things, the establishment of a monthly newspaper for youth.

On June 19, 1962, another confidential source advised that Daniel Rubin is the National Youth Director, CPUSA, and a member of the National Committee, CPUSA.

Volume 1, Number 1 issue of "Communist Viewpoint" for October-November, 1962, in an editorial captioned, "From the Editor" noted in part the following:

"Youth have been fed a steady diet of distorted anti-Communist interpretations of Communism. Now, you can read regularly the opinions and analysis by Communists of the major social issues. Whether you are a student or a worker, whether you are seeking a degree or hunting for a job, this publication is for you."

The masthead of "Communist Viewpoint" on page two of the October-November, 1962, issue, listed Daniel Rubin as Editor and indicated it was published by Marxist Youth Publications, Associates, Room 305, 23 West 26th Street, New York, New York, telephone number Murray Hill 5-5755.

The Manhattan Telephone Directory for 1962-63, disclosed that Murray Hill 5-5755 is listed to the CPUSA National Office, 23 West 26th Street, New York City.

CITIZENS FOR PEACE AND DISARMAMENT

During February, 1963, a source advised that in November, 1962, a group known as the Citizens for Peace and Disarmament was organized in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, by JOHN GILMAN, the purpose of which group is to strive for peace and disarmament through the utilization of any method necessary to accomplish this goal, and is to be composed of high school and college students and young working people. JOHN GILMAN acts as directing and controlling force behind the organization and JAMES BUXTON is the spokesman for the group. During May, 1964, this source advised that the organization continues to operate as stated.

During May, 1964, this source advised that JOHN GILMAN and JAMES BUXTON were both members of the State Board of the Communist Party of Wisconsin.

SOCIALIST DISCUSSION CLUB (SDC)

Miss MIRIAM DICKINSON, Registrar, Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, advised on November 15, 1955, that the Socialist Discussion Club (SDC) was organized at Antioch College about May or June, 1955.

On January 16, 1957, Miss DICKINSON advised that the college records reflect that the SDC filed a report on September 14, 1956, showing its purpose is "to study and disseminate socialist ideas."

On November 5, 1959, Miss DICKINSON advised that the SDC had filed with the Community Government of Antioch College a statement of purpose. She stated that the statement described the SDC as a weekly discussion group in resource material on the socialist movement. SDC claims membership on the Antioch campus consisted of active participation in these discussion meetings and/or a willingness to assist the club in arranging programs, speakers, etc. The SDC plans weekly discussions for the coming school quarter, including outside speakers who are invited to make appearances before the club. SDC claims to have no affiliation with any outside group.

Two sources advised on June 5, 1958, and June 9, 1958, respectively, that the SDC is a local active campus organization at Antioch College formed by students for the purpose of discussing socialism. Each stated that in the past, the SDC has had speakers of various political hue, including persons who were or had been associated with the Communist Party, the Socialist Workers Party, and the Independent Socialist League, but that the organization has also had speakers representing more mild forms of socialism and also speakers who were supporters of capitalism and free enterprise. Each source stated further that to his knowledge, the SDC is not affiliated with or under the control of any other organization.

On May 22, 1962, Miss DICKINSON advised that the SDC continues to be an active group on the Antioch campus.

NEW YORK SCHOOL FOR MARXIST STUDIES

In September, 1960, a source advised it was announced at a meeting of the Communist Party, United States of America, (CP, USA), New York District (NYD), Staff, held September 16, 1960, that the People's School for Marxist Studies was founded in September, 1960, as the result of a decision of the CP, USA, NYD. Adult classes were scheduled to start October 17, 1960.

"The Worker," an East Coast Communist newspaper, October 16, 1960, issue, announced the opening of the New York School for Marxist Studies (NYSMS) with general classes beginning October 17, 1960, and Student Committee on Progressive Education (SCOPE) (Youth) Classes beginning October 14, 1960. The address of the School is Room 1922, 853 Broadway at 14th Street, New York, New York.

The records of Pierce Mayer & Greer, 41 East 42nd Street, New York City, reflect that on August 29, 1960, HERBERT APTHEKER leased Room 1922-23, 853 Broadway, New York City, for the period starting October 1, 1960. The premises were to be occupied by a "People's School." On July 3, 1962, HERBERT APTHEKER signed a new lease for Room 1922-23, 853 Broadway, York City, to start October 1, 1962, which reflects that the premises were to be used as an office for the NYSMS.

During April and May, 1964, a second source furnished information that the NYSMS was then in operation at 853 Broadway, New York, New York.

A third source advised on December 14, 1959, that at the 17th National Convention of the CP, USA, held December 10-13, 1959, HERBERT APTHEKER was elected a member of the National Committee of the CP, USA.

The May, 1963, issue of "Political Affairs," self-described as the theoretical organ of the CP, USA, reflects that HERBERT APTHEKER has been replaced as editor of that publication after holding this position for several years.

A characterization of SCOPE is included in the appendix.

STUDENT COMMITTEE ON
PROGRESSIVE EDUCATION (SCOPE)

A source advised on June 16, 1958, that the Student Committee on Progressive Education (SCOPE) was formed in early 1958, by a group of individuals who were believed to be, by the source, sympathizers of the former Labor Youth League (LYL).

The LYL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A second source advised on November 20, 1958, that at the third day's session of the National Executive Committee (NEC), Communist Party, United States of America (CP, USA), held that day in New York City, ROBERT THOMPSON, Executive Secretary, CP, USA, stated that in New York there is a group of about twenty-one youths who have been a very active force in youth and formed a group called SCOPE, a Student Committee on Progressive Education, which has run for the last year with young people with a Marxist character. THOMPSON stated that approximately eight or ten of this group are CP members. ~~(X)(X)~~ U

A third source advised on March 24, 1959, that during a meeting of the NEC, CP, USA, held on March 21, 1959, HYMAN LUMER, CP, USA, Educational Director, stated that in New York most of the discussions on youth are between the National Office (CP) and two groups of young people who function in New York, which are either Party groups or pro-Party groups. The first group is called SCOPE (Student Committee on Progressive Education), and this group stands closest to the CP leadership. ~~(X)(X)~~ U

A fourth source made available on March 23, 1961, a mimeographed letter signed by "The SCOPE Committee." This letter sets forth that last fall SCOPE became a part of the newly formed New York School for Marxist Studies (NYSMS) as its autonomous youth division.

The winter (January 30, 1964 - March 6, 1964) Term 1964 Bulletin of the NYSMS stated that SCOPE "believes that knowledge can be achieved and intellectual conformity and apathy avoided only through continual study and discussion. All students are encouraged to particpate actively, as the goal of SCOPE is to provide a unique opportunity for the study and discussion of Marxism."

STUDENT COMMITTEE ON
PROGRESSIVE EDUCATION (SCOPE)

On May 13, 1964, a fifth source advised that SCOPE continues to share the office space in Room 1922, 853 Broadway, New York City, with the NYSMS.

A characterization of the NYSMS is included in the appendix.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE (FPCC)
DENVER CHAPTER

A source advised on December 15, 1960, that a meeting was held at the headquarters of the Denver Branch, Socialist Workers Party (SWP), on December 10, 1960, for the purpose of establishing a Denver chapter of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee. HOWARD WALLACE acted as chairman and an organizing committee was appointed.

HOWARD WALLACE has been identified by a source as a member of the Denver Branch, SWP.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

A source, on May 9, 1961, advised that on May 5, 1961, the Denver Chapter, FPCC, was formed with the following elected officers:

HARRY KAUFMAN NIER, JR., Chairman
T. E. "DUKE" ROBERTSON, JR., Secretary
NORMAN HODGETT, Treasurer

NORMAN HODGETT has been identified by a source as a member of the Denver Branch, SWP.

The Denver Chapter, FPCC, has publicly announced as its purpose to help bring to light the truth about Cuba. It has indicated the FPCC is virtually the sole organized source of critical dissent from American-Cuban policy in the United States. Announced aims of FPCC are to end the ban imposed by the U. S. Government on travel to Cuba, to present those aspects of events in Cuba which the press in this country ignores, and to work toward re-establishment of diplomatic relations and travel between the United States and Cuba.

A source advised during February, 1964, that there is no current activity on the part of the Denver Chapter, FPCC and according to HARRY KAUFMAN NIER, JR., who was chairman of this organization, it is no longer in existence.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO AID THE BLOOMINGTON STUDENTS

The May 19, 1963, issue of "The Indianapolis Star," an Indianapolis daily newspaper, contained an article relating that the Committee to Aid the Bloomington Students (CABS) has been formed as an outgrowth of the Youth Socialist Alliance (YSA). The article related that the CABS was a fund raising unit dedicated to obtaining funds for the defense of three YSA members indicted under Indiana's 1951 Anti-Subversive Law.

A source advised on September 23, 1964, that a YSA document entitled, "Tasks and Perspectives for the NY Local" (YSA) disclosed during September, 1963, that a National Committee to Aid the Bloomington Students had been set up in New York City. This document stated that the National CABS in New York City would coordinate and direct the CABS activities throughout the country.

On February 11, 1964, a second source advised that the primary purpose of the CABS, organized and controlled by the YSA, was to raise funds for the legal defense of YSA members indicted at Bloomington, Indiana. Source stated that the secondary purpose of this Committee was to propagandize the Bloomington defense and utilize this case as an introduction to the aims and objectives of the program of the YSA with the aim of campus recruitment.

The second source further advised that the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) exercises indirect control of the CABS through control over the YSA leadership which operates the CABS. According to this source, CABS work by SWP members, who are not YSA members, is considered as Party work and as a means of building the SWP.

On January 3, 1964, a third source advised that the National CABS maintains headquarters in the National Headquarters of the YSA, 125 Fourth Avenue, New York City. Source added that the National CABS maintains Post Office Box 213, Cooper Station, New York 3, New York.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

FREEDOM WAYS

The Spring, 1963, issue of the magazine "Freedomways," contained an article entitled "Nonviolence: An Interpretation," by Horace Julian Bond.

The records of the New York Secretary of State, Albany, New York, show that the certificate of incorporation of Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, were filed on March 2, 1961.

The Spring, 1963, issue of "Freedomways" is self-described as "A Quarterly Review of the Negro Freedom Movement" published by Freedomways Associates, Incorporated, 799 Broadway, New York City.

On May 24, 1961, a source advised that a report was given on "Freedomways" at a meeting of the National Board, Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), held on May 24, 1961. It was stated that the original plan called for the publication to be openly Marxist, but that it was later decided it would not be avowedly a Marxist publication. Editorials are in the hands of a mixed group of Marxists and non-Marxists. It was stated that the central purpose of "Freedomways" is to develop a theory and positive criticism of currents in the Negro movement, as well as to raise the level of understanding and discussion taking place in Negro life today and to project a socialist and pro-Soviet orientation.

On May 25, 1961, another source advised that "Freedomways" was set up for the CPUSA by JAMES JACKSON, a member of the National Committee of the CPUSA. (S)(U)

PORTLAND STUDENTS FOR PEACE
Portland, Oregon

According to an article in the "Quest," a Reed College campus newspaper, Portland, Oregon, edition of April 30, 1962, Portland Students for Peace (PSP) was formed at a public meeting held on April 26, 1962, at the Portland Central Library. Eighteen persons representing peace groups at Portland colleges and unaffiliated individuals formed and constituted the PSP. The PSP planned to coordinate city-wide activities, give a firmer base for high school chapters and afford a broader base for student peace movements in the city.

On September 29, 1962, a source made available a PSP leaflet containing the heading "Constitution for Portland Students for Peace," which stated that PSP membership is open to everyone who is in agreement with its statement of purpose. The leaflet set out the "Statement of Purpose:"

"Portland Students for Peace is an organization of young people who believe that war can no longer be successfully used to settle international disputes and that neither human freedom nor the human race itself can endure in a world committed to militarism.

"Without committing any member to a precise statement of policy, Portland Students for Peace draws together young people for a study of alternatives to war and engages in action and education to end the present arms race. Portland Students for Peace believes that to be effective the peace movement must develop its own policies and programs and must point them towards a society which will insure peace and freedom and where no individual or group will be exploited by any other."

A second source on November 27, 1962, advised that on November 23, 1962, DONALD HAMERQUIST told Communist Party (CP) members that the state board of the Oregon CP, of which HAMERQUIST was a member, desired CP members to take a bigger hand in and take control of peace movements.

A third source on January 5, 1963, said that at a CP meeting on January 4, 1963, DONALD HAMERQUIST, a member of the state board of the CP of Oregon, stated that certain CP members have been concentrating on the peace movements and have been very successful in their work in PSP.

On January 22, 1963, a fourth source advised that on January 21, 1963, at a CP meeting DONALD HAMERQUIST informed members that the CP Youth Club is extremely active in local groups such as PSP and that PSP has borrowed $300 from the CP.

On September 30, 1963, the first source advised that PSP is now completely dominated by persons whose leader is DON HAMERQUIST and who have indicated they are connected with the CP in Portland. PSP meetings are held regularly at or near Portland State College, Portland, Oregon, and over forty persons have attended the meetings.

PROGRESSIVE YOUTH ORGANIZING COMMITTEE (PYOC) known in Portland Oregon, as POLITICAL AFFAIRS CLUB (PAC)

A source advised on May 20, 1963, that the Political Affairs Club (PAC) was formed during November, 1962, in Portland Oregon, as a discussion group for youths of college and high school age and young working people to hold discussions along "leftist lines;" PAC sought to provide discussion of a radical sort about radical problems and issues. DONALD LEE HAMERQUIST was the leader and controlled the policy of PAC, and ALLEN SILVERSTONE, JOHN TALBOT, both Reed College students, and JASON SMITH, a Portland State College student, all of whom claimed membership in the Portland Communist Party (CP) Youth Club, had taken an active part in PAC meetings. At a PAC meeting on May 19, 1963, those in attendance, mostly students, voted to officially affiliate with the Progressive Youth Organizing Committee. PAC usually scheduled meetings at various off-campus homes every other week and was open to all interested parties.

A second source advised on December 12, 1963, that DONALD LEE HAMERQUIST was at that time Oregon CP state organizational secretary, member of the Oregon CP state board, and a member of the Portland CP Youth Club.

The first source on December 12, 1963, advised that DONALD LEE HAMERQUIST and members of the Portland CP Youth Club, who had taken an active controlling part in the activities of PAC during the first half of 1963, did not attempt to reactivate PAC during the school term starting September, 1963, because they were devoting the majority of their efforts on peace and civil rights issues in other organizations.

The first source advised on January 21, 1964, that PAC, as of January, 1964, was considered to be defunct.

NATION OF ISLAM, formerly referred to as the Muslim Cult of Islam, Also known as Muhammad's Temples of Islam
FRUIT OF ISLAM
MUSLIM GIRLS TRAINING

Nation of Islam

In January, 1957, a source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD has described his organization on a nationwide basis as the "Nation os Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

On July 10, 1963, a second source advised ELIJAH MUHAMMAD is the national leader of the Nation of Islam (NOI); Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood Avenue, Chicago, Illinois, is the national headquarters of the NOI; and in mid-1960, MUHHAMAD and other NOI officials, when referring to MUHAMMAD's organization on a nationwide basis, commenced using either "Mosque" or "Temple" when mentioning one of "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

The NOI is an all-Negro organization which was originally organized in 1930 in Detroit, Michigan. MUHAMMAD claims to have been selected by ALLAH, the Supreme Being, to lead the so-called Negro race out of slavery in the wilderness of North America by establishing an independent black nation in the United States. Members following MUHAMMAD's teachings and his interpretation of the "Koran" believe there is no such thing as a Negro; that the so-called Negroes are slaves of the white race, referred to as "white devils," in the United States; and that the white race, because of its exploitation of the so-called Negroes, must and will be destroyed in the approaching "War of Armageddon."

In the past, officials and members of the NOI, including MUHAMMAD, have refused to register under the provisions of the Selective Service Act and have declared that members owe no allegiance to the United States.

On May 5, 1958, the first source advised MUHAMMAD had, upon advice of legal counsel, tempered his personal statements and instructions to his ministers concerning the principles of his organization in order to avoid possible prosecution by the United States Government; however, he did not indicate any fundamental changes in the teachings of his organization.

On July 10, 1963, a third source advised MUHAMMAD had early in July, 1958, decided to de-emphasize the religious aspects of the teachings of Islam and to stress the economic benefits to be derived by those Negroes who joined the NOI. This policy change, according to MUHAMMAD, would help him acquire additional followers and create more interest in his program.

Fruit of Islam

On July 10, 1963, a source advised that the Fruit of Islam (FOI) is a group within the Nation of Islam (NOI) composed of male members of the NOI. The purpose of the FOI is to protect officials and property of the NOI, assure compliance of members within NOI teachings and to prepare for the "War of Armageddon." Members of the FOI are required to participate in military drill and are afforded the opportunity to engage in judo training. The FOI is governed by a military system wherein the members are controlled by general orders similar to those issued by regular military organizations.

Muslim Girls Training

On May 19, 1960, a source advised that the Muslim Girls Training (MGT) is a group within the Nation of Islam (NOI) and is composed of all female members of the NOI. The MGT is similar in structure to the Fruit of Islam (FOI), which is composed of male members of the NOI, in that the MGT has officers similar to military organizations to whom other female members are accountable. MGT members receive instructions in homemaking, hygiene, calisthenics, and other subjects such as Muslim history and the English language. There also exists a Junior MGT, which is composed of female members of the NOI who are between the ages of 15 and 19 and who are afforded military-type drill.

Since 1957, various officers and "sisters" of the MGT have, at meetings of the MGT, used the term MGT so that it also means General Civilization Class. General Civilization Class refers to classes conducted within the MGT.

The above refers to activities of the MGT at Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, 5335 South Greenwood, Chicago, Illinois.

On July 10, 1963, another source advised that the MGT is a group within the NOI which is composed of all female members of the NOI. The MGT is similar in structure to the FOI, which is composed of male members of the NOI. In theory, the MGT exists in all Temples of the NOI, and is patterned after the MGT at Muhammad's Temple of Islam No. 2, Chicago. General Civilization Class refers to the collective group of classes held within the MGT.

MUHAMMAD'S TEMPLE OF ISLAM
FLINT, MICHIGAN

In January, 1957, a source advised that ELIJAH MUHAMMAD has described his organization on a nation-wide basis as the "Nation of Islam" and "Muhammad's Temples of Islam."

A second source advised on May 25, 1964, that Muhammad's Temple of Islam, also known as Muhammad's Mosque, was established in Flint, Michigan, in 1956, and from late 1957 have been conducting meetings at 2815 Industrial Avenue, Flint. Source advised as of May 17, 1962, Muhammad's Temple of Islam has been conducting their meetings at 1601 Clifford Street, Flint.

This source advised that Muhammad's Temple of Islam, 1601 Clifford Street, Flint, Michigan, is affiliated with the national organization of the Nation of Islam under the leadership of ELIJAH MUHAMMAD and adheres to the beliefs and policies of the national organization.

PROGRESSIVE PARTY (PP)

The National Committee, Communist Party, USA (CP, in issuing its final text of the "Resolution Growing Out of the Presidential Elections" in "Political Affairs" issue of July, 1953, states in substance that in 1948 the CP helped stimulate the formation of the PP, and correctly supported the PP through the 1952 elections. It then states:

"However, the mistake our Party made was to confuse this task with the historic task of forming a new mass party of the people. As a consequence, there existed the wrong estimate that the formation of the Progressive Party represented something more than the simple emergency of an important fighting force for peace; that it represented the emergence of a great mass people's Party."

As a result of this reasoning, the resolution concludes that the "Progressive Party, the CP and other progressive forces" must unite in a broad, mass-front coalition.

Concerning "Political Affairs," mentioned above, ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN, a convicted CP functionary, testifying in the case "US vs. ELIZABETH GURLEY FLYNN, ET AL," on October 20, 1952, stated that "Political Affairs" has been the theoretical organ of the CP since the publication's beginning in 1945.

The Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 91, cited the Progressive Party as follows:

> "Communist dissimulation extends into the field of political parties forming political front organizations such as the Progressive Party.The Communists are thus enabled to present their candidates for elective office under other than a straight Communist label."

Mrs. BARBARA HARTLE, Evans, Washington, former 12th District CP functionary and convicted Smith Act defendant at Seattle, Washington, testified at Seattle on June 19, 1954, before the HCUA as follows:

PROGRESSIVE PARTY (PP) (CONT'D)

"Many CP members were for the founding of the Progressive Party in this State and worked in it after its founding. They numbered in the hundreds. The policy of the Progressive Party in this State was controlled by the CP."

AFRICAN AMERICAN HERITAGE ASSOCIATION,
Formerly known as Afro-American Heritage Association

A source advised on May 11, 1964, that the African American Heritage Association (AAHA) with headquarters at 306 East 43rd Street, Chicago, Illinois, was known as the Afro-American Heritage Association until February, 1961. It was founded by ISHMAEL FLORY around 1958 and incorporated in the State of Illinois as a non-profit organization. It was founded ostensibly for the purpose of teaching African history and culture to American Negroes. AAHA is strongly influenced by the Communist Party (CP) of Illinois. It is represented by both communist and non-communist members, and some people with strong nationalistic tendencies. This organization reflects CP policy on some issues and opposes CP policy on others; for example, the CP rejects the concept of Afro-American as a reference term to the American Negro and rejects aspects of nationalism, both of which are reflected in the AAHA program. FLORY is a member of the Negro Commission, CP of Illinois, and theoretically under the discipline of the CP. He is the guiding force in AAHA and controls policy and decisions in AAHA.

CLAUDE LIGHTFOOT, Chairman, CP of Illinois, in May, 1964, indicated that AAHA has tremendous potential; that there has been no "red-baiting" in its program or its membership; that the CP should organize a concentrated drive to make AAHA a mass organization and try to build a core so that it could expand its facilities. He proposed a goal of $10,000 combined with a membership drive to begin in the Fall of 1964. FLORY concurred with LIGHTFOOT and believed that with the support of the CP, AAHA could play an outstanding role.

A second source advised on May 11, 1964, that in 1962, the south side area of the CP of Illinois worked with FLORY to organize AAHA chapters under the leadership of CP members. The aims of this program included the reactivation of ex-CP members and recruiting of new CP members. The program was shortlived and became defunct in 1963. However, the CP has currently been using AAHA headquarters for CP meetings. Many south side CP members are members of AAHA and are active in AAHA affairs. South side CP groups have been working closely with AAHA, expecially on Negro matters.

NATIONAL LAWYERS GUILD, CHICAGO CHAPTER

A source advised on May 14, 1964, that it was his understanding that the National Lawyers Guild (NLG) was formed around 1936 in New York City and that the Chicago Chapter of the NLG (CCNLG), which is affiliated with the national group in New York, was formed shortly thereafter, possibly in 1937, by a group of liberal progressive lawyers in protest against activities of the American Bar Association which they claimed was a non-liberal, non-progressive organization. The CCNLG has no established headquarters but occasionally uses the return address of its officials on literature.

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, U. S. House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., states as follows on page 121 concerning the NLG:

"1. Cited as a Communist front.

(Special Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 1311 on the CIO Political Action Committee, March 29, 1944, p. 149.)

"2. Cited as a Communist front which 'is the foremost legal bulwark of the Communist Party, its front organizations, and controlled unions' and which 'since its inception has never failed to rally to the legal defense of the Communist Party and individual members thereof, including known espionage agents.'

(Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 3123 on the National Lawyers Guild, September 21, 1950, originally related September 17, 1950.)

"3. 'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the * * * National Lawyers Guild. When the Communist Party itself is under fire these offer a bulwark of protection.

(Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p.91.)"

JEWISH CULTURAL CLUBS OF CHICAGO

A source advised on December 7, 1961, that the Jewish Cultural Clubs of Chicago (JCCC) which initially rented space at 177 North State Street, Chicago, Illinois, during 1956, moved to 3300-3314 West Lawrence Avenue, Chicago, on December 1, 1961.

A second source advised on May 12, 1964, that the JCCC is not responsible to any other organization of a similar character. It pays no dues or receives directives from a national office. The JCCC does request speakers and suggestions for programs from their counterparts in other midwestern cities and especially New York City. A loose-knit coordinating committee in the midwest operates with delegates from the larger midwestern cities.

This source advised on May 12, 1964, that the JCCC has nine affiliated Clubs. The membership of the club includes many former members of the Jewish People's Fraternal Order-International Workers Order (JPFO) (IWO).

This source on October 25, 1961, made available a copy of the Perspectives and Proposals presented at the annual JCCC conference held October 22, 1961. The aims and purposes set out in the Perspectives and Proposals are as follows:

As a progressive Jewish organization, it is our task to be alert and to react to all matters concerning the welfare of our people and our country. The question of peace, civil rights and growing anti-Semitism, the rising pro-Nazi tendencies and organizations...are of paramount importance to our organization. In presenting our program, we urge active support and cooperation with peace movements against the threat of a third nuclear war; an all-out campaign to help expose and eradicate organized anti-Semitic groups; to study bills pertaining to the health, security and welfare of our senior citizens; to intensify our cultural activities and to support Jewish children's schools as a means of perpetuating this heritage. On May 12, 1964, this source advised that the aims and purposes of the JCCC continue to be the same.

JEWISH CULTURAL CLUBS OF CHICAGO

This source advised that as of May 12, 1964, LEO BERMAN was President of the JCCC and SAM CHEIFETZ was Executive Secretary.

A third source advised in March, 1962, that LEO BERMAN was one of three Communist Party (CP) members who are attorneys in the City of Chicago.

The same source advised on March 26, 1964, that SAM CHEIFETZ was then a member of the Illinois CP.

The JPFO and IWO have been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUNG PROGRESSIVES OF AMERICA (YPA)

Herbert Romerstein, self-admitted former Communist Party (CP) member, in testimony before a subcommittee of the Committee of the Judiciary, United States Senate, on April 12, 1951, and June 12, 1951, stated that the YPA was set up on the basis of the needs of the CP. YPA members were active within the organization as Communists, and the organization was developed along CP lines. Romerstein also related that YPA leadership was composed of CP members. He further testified that the founding convention of the YPA was held in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, in 1948.

On July 16, 1956, a source advised that YPA was part of or affiliated with the Progressive Party and went out of existence at the time the Progressive Party gave away its furniture and closed its office in the Spring of 1955. This source stated that the YPA is no longer in existence. It is possible that a group of individuals may be continuing to operate under the name YPA in isolated areas, but as an organization, it is defunct.

On July 18, 1956, another source advised that the Labor Youth League (LYL) is considering reorganizing along the lines of the YPA. It will not be a new YPA, but will be a reorganized LYL. According to this source, the YPA was dissolved two or three years ago and no longer functions in any respect. The LYL has taken over the functions of the YPA among teenagers.

The LYL has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

YOUNG PROGRESSIVES OF MASSACHUSETTS

JAMES GLATIS, a former member of the CP, USA, advised on September 1, 1955, that during 1948, 1949, and 1950, the Young Progressives of Massachusetts was dominated and controlled by the CP and its operating policies were directed toward furthering the established CP line.

YOUNG PROGRESSIVE CITIZENS OF AMERICA

The "Daily Worker," an East Coast Communist newspaper which ceased publication on January 13, 1958, in its issue of February 11, 1947, page four, column five, described the Young Progressive Citizens of America (UPCA) as a newly formed organization.

Balmes Hidalgo, a self-admitted former member of the Communist Party, advised on March 15, 1948, that at that time the CP was instructing its youth groups to join the YPCA and then attempt to take over leadership of that organization.

Martha Mac Lane Kowall, a self-admitted former member of the CP, advised on November 19, 1948, that she had learned that the YPCA was among those groups which the Communist Party directed and led for the purpose of organizing the broader masses of the people. She further advised that she had learned that the YPCA merged with the Young Progressives of America at the founding convention of the latter group in July, 1948, at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

LIBERTARIAN SOCIALIST LEAGUE

The April 1, 1951, issue of "Socialist Views," self-described as the official discussion bulletin of the Libertarian Socialist League, Box 770, General Post Office, New York 1, New York, reflects that the organization was founded at Genoa City, Wisconsin, in June, 1949. On pages 12-14 in this issue of "Socialist Views''there is contained a statement of the program of the LSL.

In summary, the LSL is against capitalism as in the United States and "bureaucratic collectivism" as in the Soviet Union and wants to establish a "democratic Socialist society" in their places. The LSL is against armaments and militarism and supports struggles to impede or delay the war drive and directs their main blows against the economic system which makes war. The LSL is for a "Socialist Revolution." The LSL believes that the "state machinery" cannot achieve socialism and the LSL has the task to eliminate and destroy it. The LSL stands for "Revolutionary Democratic Socialism" and does not believe that it can be achieved by parliamentary methods. To achieve socialism, the LSL believes that a disciplined and democratic Revolutionary Socialist group must be organized to bring forth a Socialist program and then stress the need of class action to achieve it.

STUDENTS FOR WALLACE

1. "The key Communist youth front, American Youth for Democracy, had become so conspicuously Stalinist from incessant exposure that the Communist Party, early in 1949, decided on a change in strategy. This shift had been prepared for by Communist activity in the political field in creating in 1948 Students for Wallace, which with help from American Youth for Democracy and other Communist fronts, was merged into The Youth Progressives as the youth wing of the Communist-controlled (Independent) progressive Party." Testimony showed that Students for Wallace at the University of California at Los Angeles was "dominated by the Communist Party lock, stock and barrel."

CHICAGO SOBELL COMMITTEE, Also known as Chicago Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell

On May 8, 1963, Mr. CHARLES RAU, Realty Agent of Seay and Thomas, Inc., 30 North LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois, who manages the building located at 208 North Wells Street, Chicago, advised that the address of the above captioned organization is Room 309-1, 208 North Wells Street, Chicago, Illinois.

A source advised on April 19, 1962, that the Chicago Sobell Committee (CSC), which is also known as the Chicago Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell and was formerly known as Chicago Rosenberg-Sobell Committee and Chicago Committee volunteers who do SOBELL fund raising and programming in the Chicago area. The Chicago Committee, since its inception in 1962, has been an affiliate of the Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell, which is also known as the National Committee to Secure Justice for Morton Sobell and was formerly known as the National Committee to Secure Justice in the Rosenberg Case, with headquarters in New York.

A second source advised on May 8, 1963, that DAVID L. SOLTKER appeared to be the guiding force behind this Committee and is assisted by GERTRUDE SOLTKER, his wife.

Title: COMMUNIST INFLUENCE IN RACIAL MATTERS

Character: INTERNAL SECURITY - COMMUNISM

Synopsis: No information has developed of Communist strategy and tactics regarding Mississippi Summer Project (MSP), a program produced by the Council of Federated Organizations (COFO) during the summer, 1964, to urge Negro voter registration in Mississippi. COFO emerged as a state-wide organization during the fall, 1963, from numerous disparate racial-type groups, including the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee (SNCC), the Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC), and the NAACP. COFO encouraged and sponsored massive volunteer participation within Mississippi of persons, approximately 700, "dedicated to the elimination of racial oppression," including group participation of such organizations as the Lawyers Constitutional Defense Committee (LCDC) and the Medical Committee for Human Rights (MCHR). Communist influence in MSP is revealed through the communist and subversive references located identifiabl for volunteer participants. Identities of some of these participants in MSP including descriptive summaries are set forth herein.

HYMAN MURRAY GOLD

MISS ROTHMAN, Office of MCHR, furnished a list of individuals from that organization who were scheduled to depart for Jackson, Mississippi, during the period August 21-22, 1964, which list included the name of HYMAN GOLD, 175 West 93rd Street, New York, New York.

JN T-189 advised that HYMAN MURRAY GOLD had been a representative of the Association of Interns and Medical Students during 1949, as a charter member of his chapter at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Columbia University, New York, New York.

Informant advised that his records reflected GOLD declined to answer all questions pertaining to membership in or association with the CP or the International Workers Order concerning activity on his part or that of any member of his family.

JN T-174 had advised HYMAN GOLD, born during 1924, was a member of the IWO in 1952 and had been a member of this organization since June, 1940.

DR. BYRON P. HOWELLS, aka Dr. Byron P. Howell

JN T-190 advised on September 5, 1964, that Dr. HOWELLS has left Las Vegas for Jackson, Mississippi, and expects to arrive in Jackson on September 5, 1964. (U)

Informant has advised that subject is [redacted] and is closely aligned and in sympathy with CP movement in the United States. (U)

On September 16, 1964, informant advised that DR. HOWELLS returned to Las Vegas during the night of September 15, 1964, and that his office would be open for business on September 17, 1964. (U)

MISS ROTHMAN, Office of MCHR, advised on July 24, 1964, JACK JERSAWITZ, [redacted]; DR. SAMUEL R. SIEGEL, [redacted]; and DR. GEORGE KAUFMAN, [redacted] as well as other individuals, would depart from New York City on July 25, 1964, scheduled to arrive at Clarksdale, Mississippi, in connection with activities of MCHR.

JACK JERSAWITZ:

[JN T-191 advised on April 8, 1964, that] JACK JERSAWITZ was a member of the SWP, New York Local, as of April, 1964.

GEORGE KAUFMAN

JN T-192 advised on July 24, 1964, that during June, 1962, members of the CPUSA attended a party at the residence of DR. GEORGE KAUFMAN, and according to informant, members of the CP would make an effort in the near future to bring KAUFMAN into the CP. (U)

SAMUEL R. SIEGEL

[JN T-193 advised on January 12, 1955, that] DR. SAMUEL SIEGEL was a member of the Professional Unit of the CP at New York City, during the period from 1949 to 1951.

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE
IN RACIAL MATTERS

On January 6, 1965, a source advised that the Negro American Labor Council (NALC) State of the Race Conference is now scheduled to be held in Washington, D.C., on January 10, 1965. Source advised that notice of this date was received by way of a NALC National Office letter which was mailed to the office of the Chicago Chapter, NALC, Chicago, Illinois, and was received by that office on or about Saturday, January 2, 1965. (U)

Source further advised that as of January 6, 1965, no Communist Party (CP) of Illinois members who are also members of the Chicago Chapter NALC are scheduled to attend this conference. (U)

Source further advised that at a CP of Illinois State Board meeting held in Chicago on January 5, 1965, the State of the Race Conference was not discussed; however, Jack Kling, CP of Illinois Board member who attended this meeting, did note in a conversation that the only person who the CP of Illinois knew would possibly attend the conference was Tim Black, President of the Chicago Chapter NALC. According to the source, Tim Black is not a member of the CP of Illinois and is not subject to the influence of the CP of Illinois. (U)

On January 5, 1965, another source advised that Claude Lightfoot, Chairman, CP of Illinois, originally designated Nate Sharpe, a CP of Illinois member and a member of the Chicago Chapter NALC, as the person to attend the State of the Race Conference in Washington, D.C. Source advised, however, that at the time Lightfoot appointed Sharpe, the question of the CP of Illinois' financing Sharpe's trip to the conference was raised, and at that time Lightfoot advised that the question of financing Sharpe's trip would be taken under consideration by the CP and an answer would be forthcoming. Source advised that it was subsequently learned that Lightfoot had departed Chicago, Illinois, for a trip abroad without settling this question of finances, and Sharpe eventually advised the Chairman of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission that he would not go unless the CP paid for his expenses. It was learned that the Chairman of the CP of Illinois Negro Commission advised Sharpe that no monies were available for this purpose, and as a consequence Sharpe stated he would not attend the conference. (U)

This source further advised that because of the poor financial condition of the Chicago Chapter NALC, it was very unlikely that the chapter would finance Sharpe's or any other Chicago NALC member's trip to this State of the Race Conference. Source advised that if any member of the Chicago Chapter NALC attended the conference, he would have to do so at his own personal expense. (U)

The first source also advised on January 6, 1965, that an Executive Board meeting of the Chicago Chapter NALC is scheduled to be held the evening of January 6, 1964, where possibly a representative and/or representatives would be designated to attend the conference. (U)

Re New York letter to Bureau, 12/11/64.

The Defected Communist file (NY 100-80639) was reviewed in an effort to locate defected Communists who were associated with the Bath Beach Section of the Kings County CP; however, no defected Communists were located for this section for the pertinent period.

The Kings County CP file (NY 100-26603-SUB C43) has been reviewed and the names of CP members and officers who might possibly have been in a position to know HARRY WACHTEL and his wife have been obtained.

New York is in the process of reviewing the various files of the individuals who might know the WACHTELs and requests for permission to interview these people will be made.

Reurlet 1/7/65 which resubmitted a letterhead memorandum (LHM) which had previously been submitted by your airtel 12/16/64.

The following observations are being made for the future guidance of the personnel responsible for handling this matter as there appears to have been a misunderstanding on their part as to the Bureau's desires relative to this matter.

It will be recalled that your Office originally submitted an LHM by airtel 12/3/64. A supplementary LHM was submitted by your airtel 12/16/64 which, because of certain inadequacies, necessitated directions to your Office by Bulet 12/23/64 to resubmit the 12/16/64 LHM with certain indicated revisions. Your letter 1/7/65 advised that the LHM of 1/7/65 was submitted to take the place of both the 12/3 and 16/64 LHMs. The Bureau did not intend for the information in the 12/3/64 LHM to be repeated except for any summarized minor portions and then only sufficient to give clarity to the 12/16/64 LHM. It is noted, however, that all of page two and all save the last paragraph of page three of the 1/7/65 LHM is a repeat of information in the 12/3/64 LHM. Such lengthy repetition was, of course, unnecessary as the 12/3/64 LHM had already been disseminated.

Bring the foregoing to the attention of the Agents responsible for the preparation and approval of your correspondence dated 1/7/65.

On November 20, 1964, first confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Reverend George W. Lucas is affiliated with the Bethel Baptist Church, Dayton, Ohio, and is also affiliated with the Dayton, Ohio, Urban League. Source stated that Martin Luther King was scheduled to speak on November 22, 1964, at the University of Dayton Field House, Dayton, Ohio, for a fund-raising rally. Source stated that King's appearance on November 22, 1964, was cancelled, but was rescheduled for November 29, 1964. The Bethel Baptist Church is sponsoring the appearance of King at Dayton.

On June 21, 1950, second confidential source, who has furnished reliable information to the Chicago Office of the FBI, furnished an incomplete list of delegates to the Mid-Century Conference for Peace at Chicago, Illinois, on May 29 and 30, 1950, which was reportedly sponsored by the Committee for Peaceful Alternatives. The list contains the name of one George W. Lucas as a delegate from the State of Ohio.

A characterization of the Mid-Century Conference for Peace is contained in the attached appendix.

The first confidential source advised that the Dayton Chapter of the National States Rights Party (NSRP) had planned to picket King's appearance on November 22, 1964. However, November 29, 1964, is one of the dates for the NSRP Convention in Mobile, Alabama, and Dayton NSRP members planned to attend the convention in Alabama. Source did not know if any NSRP members would remain in Dayton, Ohio, to picket King's appearance on November 29, 1964.

A characterization of the NSRP is contained in the attached appendix.

DECLASSIFIED BY 6080 3042 AUTSAT (Kunz/Kij) ON 12-2-77 LED/es 10/14/82 (Rosa)

On December 1, 1964, first confidential source advised that eleven members of the NSRP, Dayton, Ohio, picketed in front of the University of Dayton Field House where Martin Luther King spoke on November 29, 1964. There were no law enforcement officers at the Field House and the picketing took place from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m. The NSRP members carried signs protesting civil rights and integration. Some signs alleged that Martin Luther King belongs to 60 Communist organizations and attended schools for Communists. According to the source, the picketing was peaceful and no incidents occurred.

On December 2, 1964, Lieutenant Colonel Henry Sandman, Cincinnati Police Department, Cincinnati, Ohio, advised a Special Agent of the FBI that a two-man plainclothes detail from the Cincinnati Police Department met Martin Luther King, Jr., at the Greater Cincinnati Airport on November 29, 1964, at approximately 7:00 a.m. He further advised that these two officers escorted Reverend King until his departure for Dayton, Ohio, by automobile, at 7:55 p.m., on November 29, 1964.

William Hunter, Detective, Cincinnati Police Department, advised a Special Agent of the FBI that he was assigned to a two-man detail on Sunday, November 29, 1964. This detail was responsible for escorting Martin Luther King during his stay in Cincinnati.

Hunter advised that he met King at the Greater Cincinnati Airport and escorted him to the Netherland Plaza Hotel on Fifth Street in Cincinnati, and later to the Zion Baptist Church, 630 Glenwood Street, Cincinnati, Ohio. King preached at two church services, the 10:00 and 11:00 services, and after the services, was escorted back to the Netherland Hotel.

King had advised Hunter that he was purposely avoiding any press conferences because reporters would ask him embarrassing questions regarding his controversy with FBI Director John Edgar Hoover. King also stated that he has no controversy with the Director and does not want to become involved in any way. King further stated that anyone would be a fool to become involved in any type of controversy with Director Hoover.

Hunter advised that King left the hotel at approximately 7:00 p.m., and the two-man detail escorted him to the Cincinnati Corporation Limit and discontinued their services at approximately 7:55 p.m.

The automobile in which King was traveling was driven by a minister, Reverend L. Venchael Booth. Reverend King was accompanied in the automobile by Reverend Andrew Young.

Hunter stated that King did not leave Cincinnati until approximately 8:00 p.m., and was due for a speech in Dayton at 8:00 p.m., the same date.

On December 2, 1964, third confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Doctor Martin Luther King and Reverend Andrew Young, 334 Auburn Avenue, Atlanta, Georgia, registered for two rooms in the Netherland Plaza Hotel, Cincinnati, Ohio, on November 29, 1964. The registration card shows that these two men were representatives of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference (SCLC).

Source advised that the reservation was made at 8:14 a.m., and the room was cleared at 7:00 p.m., November 29, 1964. The registration card shows that the charge for the room was paid by the Zion Baptist Church, 630 Glenwood Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

On December 4, 1964, the "Journal Herald", a newspaper of general circulation in the Dayton, Ohio, area, carried the following news item: "Freedom Forum Raises $7000. Nearly $7000 was raised for the Southern Christian Conference at the Freedom Forum, featuring Martin Luther King, according to Reverend George R. Lucas, coordinator of the program".

MID-CENTURY CONFERENCE FOR PEACE

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., contains the following concerning the Mid-Century Conference for Peace:

"Mid-Century Conference for Peace

"1. Cited as a meeting held in Chicago, May 29 and 30, 1950, by the Committee for Peaceful Alternatives to the Atlantic Pact and as having been 'aimed at assembling as many gullible persons as possible under Communist direction and turning them into a vast sounding board for Communist propaganda.' (Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 378 on the Communist 'Peace' Offensive, April 25, 1951, originally released April 1, 1951, p. 59.)

"2. Cited as a Communist front 'active in the recent peace offensive after World War II.' (Internal Security Subcommittee of the Senate Judiciary Committee, Handbook for Americans, S. Doc. 117, April 23, 1956, p. 96.)

The following concerns the Committee for Peaceful Alternatives to the Atlantic Pact:

"1. Cited as a Communist front organization which was formed as a result of the Conference for Peaceful Alternatives to the Atlantic Pact, and which was located, according to a letterhead of September 16, 1950, at 30 North Dearborn Street, Chicago 2, Illinois. (Committee on Un-American Activities, House Report 378 on the Communist 'Peace' Offensive, April 25, 1951, originally released April 1, 1951, pp. 54-56.)

"2. As part of Soviet psychological warfare against the United States, Communist fronts seek to paralyze America's will to resist Communist aggression by idealizing Russia's aims and methods, discrediting the United States, spreading defeatism and demoralization * * * Specializing in this field * * * have been such organizations as * * * the Committee for Peaceful Alternatives to the Atlantic Pact * * *."

COMMUNIST INFLUENCE
IN RACIAL MATTERS

Reference is made to communication dated January 6, 1965, captioned as above at Chicago.

On January 8, 1965, a source advised that the conference scheduled for Washington, D.C., on January 10, 1965, is not the Negro American Labor Council (NALC) State of the Race Conference as previously indicated, but is instead a meeting of the National Board of the NALC, and the question of the State of the Race Conference is on the agenda for this Board meeting. (U)

Tim Black, President of the Chicago Chapter, NALC, will attend this NALC Board meeting as Chicago representative. (U)

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on January 8, 1965, that a meeting of leading Communist Party (CP) functionaries was held in CP Headquarters, New York City, on the above date. Among those in attendance were:

James Jackson, Editor of "The Worker"
Jack Stachel
Louis Weinstock
Theodore Bassett, reporter for "The Worker"
Fred Gilman, reporter for "The Worker"
Miriam Friedlander

"The Worker" is an east coast Communist newspaper.

Re: Communist Influence in

James Jackson opened the discussion by reporting on his observation of the opening day of Congress. He described the demonstration of the "Mississippi Pilgrims" as most impressive. He said it was a lineup of very dedicated people, consisting of 600 and a caravan of 150 cars.

Jackson said this challenge is clearly a constitutional and legal embarrassment to the Johnson Administration. He expressed the opinion that 1965 should be a year of peoples lobbies and demonstrations in Washington.

Theodore Bassett said that he was at a meeting recently of church groups and they are making plans for the campaign to seat the rightful Mississippi delegation. He said "we" should recognize this thing for what it is, a mass action, mass protest and get masses to go to Washington to support the true Mississippi delegation to Congress.

Miriam Friedlander said they should examine the reasons why certain Congressmen voted against the seating of the Mississippi delegation.

ReBulet 11/13/64 which advised of a forthcoming national conference of top Negro leaders scheduled to take place in Washington, D. C., during January, 1965. The Communist Party, USA (CPUSA), had plans to have certain of its members from various parts of the U. S. attend such a conference. Recipient offices were instructed to make every possible effort to identify all Party people who intended to attend the conference and determine the roles they plan to play. Consideration was to be given to the designation of certain informants who might be able to attend as Party members so that the necessary coverage might be effected concerning Party attempts at influencing the conference.

NYairtel 1/11/65, copies only to WFO, "Cominfil, Negro-American Labor Council, IS - C," forwarded a letterhead memorandum which reported on 1/10/65 meeting of the National Board, Negro-American Labor Council (NALC). It was decided that that organization's "State of the Race" conference originally scheduled for Washington, D. C., will now be held in New York City at the Riverside Church, 1/30-31/65. According to the Bureau's source, the CPUSA will not be invited or allowed to attend the conference.

Notwithstanding the reported efforts on the part of the NALC to keep Party people away from its conference, we must be alert to any Party efforts to have its people at the conference and in any way attempt to influence it. The Bureau is therefore reiterating its instructions contained in the 11/18/64 letter. The Bureau should be kept promptly advised of all pertinent developments.

Negro-American Labor Council

A confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on January 11, 1965, advised that at a National Board Negro-American Labor Council (NALC) meeting, which was held in Washington, D. C., on January 10, 1965, it was decided that the "State of the Race" Conference which was originally scheduled to be held at Howard University in Washington, D. C., in December, 1964, will now be held at the Riverside Church in New York City on January 30-31, 1965. It will be restricted to Negro leaders who will meet to discuss problems and solutions in the field of civil rights, employment and economics which involve the Negro. The NALC will have five delegates, each of any other civil rights organizations who attend will have three delegates, while any church and fraternal organizations who attend will have one delegate each.

The source advised that the Communist Party, United States of America will not be invited or allowed to attend the conference.
